sep10m6 C. BEN. RUSSELL,
Agent for State.
WATHENA, KAS., Aug. 1, 1870. Messrs. Miller & Kline, agents for Russell's Tic Sano. Ever since I boy I have been troubled with sick Headache and Rheumatism, hardly a week passing but I was confined to my room with one or the other disease. As I grew older they increased in severity and frequency, until one limb became perfectly paralized, not being able to move it at all. Three months ago I got one bottle of your Tic Sano, and after using three bottles, I am happy to say that I am perfectly restored. I can cheerfully recommend it to all similarly afflicted, as an infallible remedy. I am now 24 years of age, and feel perfectly well.
H. S. CREAL.
WATHENA, KAS., Aug. 3, 1870. Messrs. Miller & Kline, agents for Russell's Tic Sano. About two years ago I was prostrated by a severe attack of Inflammatory Rheumatism, contracting my limbs to such an extent that at times I could scarcely walk, and my sufferings were intense. I was told at this time by Dr. Harvey, one of the most eminent physicians of Indianapolis, that I never could be entirely cured. About six weeks ago, I procured a fifty-cent bottle of your "Russell's Tic Sano," from which I derived the greatest benefit—the pain having entirely left me, and I firmly believe it (Tic Sano) has cured me. Yours respectfully,
SARAH M. HATHAWAY.
WATHENA, KAS., Aug. 5, 1870. Messrs. Miller & Kline, agents for Russell's Tic Sano. I have had the Rheumatism, off and on, for many years. Last Fall I had a very severe attack, completely paralyzing my right side. My sufferings still increased until about two months ago, when my left side became similar to my right, perfectly dead. At this time I got one bottle of Russel's Tic Sano (on trial), and have used that and part of another. To-day my left side is perfectly well, and my right gradually better—almost well. I never felt freer from pain in my life, and am confident of being fully restored. I can cheerfully recommend its use to all similarly afflicted. Yours truly,
REUBEN KNAPP.
WATHENA, KAS., Aug. 10, 1870. Dear Sirs: I desire to testify to the value of Russel's Tic Sano. As a pain destroyer it seems to possess a sovereign power. For more than two years I suffered intensely from Neuralgia and Toothache, having tried medicine in vain. At last I was advised by Mrs. Alward, of this place, to try Russell's Tic Sano. I did so, and felt a change from the first. I have used less than one bottle, and feel that I am cured.
Respectfully and truly,
Mrs. W. H. SMALLWOOD.
WATHENA, KAS., Aug 9, 1870. Messrs. Miller & Kline, agents for Russell's Tic Sano: My son Amos has been subject to Nervous and sick Headache from infancy. About four weeks ago, he was taken with a very severe attack. I then got a bottle of your "Russell's Tic Sano," and gave him one dose. The effect was miraculous. The medicine worked like a charm, the pain having subsided immediately. I freely recommend this to all similarly afflicted as an infallible remedy.
Yours respectfully,
Mrs. W. B. CRAIG.
WATHENA, KAS., Aug. 8, 1870. Messrs. Miller & Kline, agents for Russell's Tic Sano. About four months ago, my little girl was taken with Inflamatory Rheumatism so severely that she had to be carried up and down stairs in my arms. She did not walk for two weeks; nor could she be moved without screaming aloud with pain, her hands and feet being painfully contracted. After using one fifty-cent bottle of your "Russell's Tic Sano," she was almost entirely cured; so much so that she could run around as well as any other little girl. She is now perfectly free from any pain at all, it having also completely cured her of Nervous Headache. I am satisfied that, had I not used your medicine, I should have lost her, as the disease was preying on her vital organs. "Words are useless here," when I would tell what benefit it has been to me and mine. Yours truly,
Mrs. W. H. WILSON
WATHENA, KAS., Aug. 1, 1870. Messrs. Miller & Kline: It with gratifying pleasure I state to my many friends that I have used "Russell's Tic Sano" with perfect success in my family for Sick Headache, Neuralgia, and many things it does not profess to cure—for instance, Earache, Toothache and many pains that children are subject to. I consider it an invaluable medicine. My household would be incomplete without it. Truly,
MARY W. ALWARD.
ST. JOSEPH, MO., Aug. 2, 1870. Messrs. Miller & Kline: It with gratifying pleasure I state to my many friends that I have used "Russell's Tic Sano" with perfect success in my family for Sick Headache, Neuralgia, and many things—it does not profess to cure—for instance, Earache, Toothache and many pains that children are subject to. I consider it an invaluable medicine. My household would be incomplete without it. Truly,
MARY W. ALWARD.
ST. JOSEPH, MO., Aug. 2, 1870. Messrs. Miller & Kline, Wathena Kas.—Gents: Yours of the 1st inst., making inquiries of me in regard to Russell's Tic Sano, is at hand; and in answer, will say that I have taken one bottle of it for Rheumatism and although not entirely cured, I have experienced very great relief from the first, and hope to be cured permanently by it. I have been suffering more or less with Rheumatism for the last eighteen months and have not found anything to relieve me as much as the Tic Sano, and feel sure it will relieve any case. Yours &c., D. M. FORTE.
WATHENA, KAS., Aug. 9, 1870. Messrs. Miller & Kline, dealers in Drugs, Medicines, etc., Gentlemen: I was suffering from a severe attack of Rheumatism and Nervous Headache; was induced to try your Tic Sano. It worked like magic; relieve me almost instantly. No person using it once will ever be without it. Would respectfully recommend it to all suffering from Rheumatism or Headache. It will give entire satisfaction and to all it is recommended to be. Truly yours,
J. HARRY BOYER.

BAPTIST FEMALE COLLEGE.
LEXINGTON, MO.
THE next session of this deservedly popular institution will open the FIRST MONDAY IN SEPTEMBER, 1870. The trustees regard themselves very fortunate in securing as President of the College the Rev. DUNCAN H. SHAW, A. M., late President of the Danville Female College, Danville, Kentucky, under whose supervision that institution attained such popularity during the late "struggle between the States," and more recently President of the Union University, Murfreesboro, Tennessee. He has been prominently connected with the educational interests of the country for the past twenty-five years, filling the most prominent and responsible positions, and the success ever attending his efforts place him among the best and most efficient educators of the age.
He will be assisted by the Misses HAWKINS, formerly connected with the institution, and other experienced teachers. Parents are assured that the best instructors will be employed in the various departments, and that their daughters and wards will find in the family of the President and his excellent lady a pleasant home, fostering their every interest, "where they will be happy in being at home."
The Government will be parental, enforced by kindness, the Rules few—"A time and place for everything—Everything in its place at its time."
The well known reputation of Lexington for morality, intelligence and refinement, combined with the location as most fortunate for an institution of learning, and the Trustee's are determined that their College shall be inferior to none in the State.
The Course of Study will be thorough, developing mental energy; and those moral principles which alone can regulate and render efficient the greatest intellectual attainments, while the most refined taste will be especially cultivated.
New pianos will be purchased, and the Boarding Department thoroughly furnished, with reference to comfort and order, in the most approved style. EVERYTHING WILL BE NEW.
The Trustee's take pleasure in commending the Institution to the friends of education, and bespeak for it a liberal share of their patronage.
Prof. WM. H. FOSTER will give lessons on the Guitar, and Prof. WM. F. BAHLMANN, in German and French. Another efficient and experienced teacher in music will be secured by the opening of the session.
