The Weekly Caucasian.

J. H. JULIAN, Local Editor.
E. ALLEN, Business Manager.

Letters on business should be addressed to the manager.

LOOK OUT FOR THE CROSS

This Cross signifies that the time paid for has expired, and unless immediately renewed, the paper will be discontinued.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Congress,
CLAY WILSON,
Boonslick.
JOHN F. WILLS

[illegible]

FOR SHERIFF.

[illegible] MARSHALL

[illegible]

FOR COLLECTOR.

[illegible] JAMES M FINNY

GEN. F. P. BLAIR

[illegible]

FILL YOUR OATH.

[illegible]

CAPT. A. CONINGO.

[illegible]

J. [illegible] WEBER, Clerk.

WHO MADE 'EM

[illegible]

FOR COLLECTOR.

[illegible] BENJ. MARSHALL

[illegible]

FOR COLLECTOR.

[illegible]

RAILROAD MATTERS.

[illegible]

THE ARTS.

[illegible]

OUR TICKET

[illegible] eternal haters, and old [illegible] because they could not control [illegible] our ticket as good one; we [illegible] of all the liberal men to elect it. [illegible] more important, it can be [illegible] with the Liberal, pro-[illegible] and fraternal hate-eradication just finished [illegible] Whitcott and Brand. All [illegible] to assure the cold as the vigorous and [illegible] that should be the friends of [illegible] who should represent liberal [illegible] of their gift. If we shall do our [illegible] by putting into place men who [illegible] and give the eternal haters one more [illegible] and more closer to defeat the [illegible] promise by putting into place men whom [illegible] should serve them.

Wade

Mr. Sims as the [illegible] promises, much of the virtue [illegible] in a clerical capacity, and will [illegible] of disagreeing it by [illegible] humanitarian [illegible] the other, if the honest [illegible] be unsolved, and party [illegible]

[illegible] for the office of sheriff, [illegible] all [illegible] Mr. Ba[illegible] as a clerk to [illegible] affect his fitness for [illegible] accommodating de[illegible] of people. He will [illegible] that fellow now will [illegible] his popularity extended [illegible] and we trust his friends [illegible] generosity, of whatever [illegible] such that [illegible] candidate for Treasurer, is [illegible] and obliging. [illegible] in his every dealing with [illegible] never heard him charged with [illegible] to do a dollar's [illegible] Fairness in his hands will be [illegible]

JAMES M FINNY

GEN. F. P. BLAIR

[illegible]

FILL YOUR OATH.

[illegible]

CAPT. A. CONINGO.

[illegible]

J. [illegible] WEBER, Clerk.

WHO MADE 'EM

[illegible]

FOR COLLECTOR.

[illegible] BENJ. MARSHALL

[illegible]

FOR COLLECTOR.

[illegible]

RAILROAD MATTERS.

[illegible]

THE ARTS.

[illegible]

THE NEGRO BOGLE.

In our last, we gave the particulars of a case in some respects similar to that of the Dolin Tolliver trouble, and stated that the brute, named Arthur Barrett, had delivered himself into the hands of the tiller here. The hellish purpose of the mob was not accomplished on his victim, a little girl of eleven years. On Monday night last, an armed body of men, said to be from the country, attempted to take the negro from the jail and hang him, as, it supposed, but were met by a posse of men, summoned by our sheriff, in which the negro is said to have predominated, to protect the man from harm. They drew up in front of the courthouse, and were at once fired on by the negroes. Several shots were exchanged, during which, it is said that two of the attacking party were shot, one in the abdomen, and the other in the face, and two horses killed. The latter is true, but of the wounding of the men, nothing is certainly known to us, and we treat the rumor of Bear wounding is with all foundation.

The parties immediately interested in this case, several of whom have called in to see us, say that the negro is guilty. We do not, like our neighbor The African, say that he is not guilty. We choose, unlike the African, to reserve the judgments of several white men to that effect, pending a trial of the case, rather than the simple denial of the negro charged, especially as it is the universal order of all empirics to protect their innocence. The law encourages that plea.

White men say that in the presence of the brute, the little girl did not positively identify him, but soon as soon as he was removed, she called positively to be the man that made the assault on her. We heard nothing of the statements of the mother. All parties with whom we have conversed, say the negro admitted that he was guilty, spoke to several persons of good standing, only, but repeatedly, but the story of half a dozen white men, however, would not be a good evidence against The African, as the simple legal dodge of the negro. It is their usual way, and people might as well let him have it.

There were two wrongs committed in connection with this transaction first, if the negro was guilty, a negro brute in charge, and were accused of the assault, and desired to hang him for it, they should never have allowed him to get away, and into Lexington, where there are men, like The African, who would defend a negro in any emergency. That was a grave mistake, though it may have been unavoidable. The second mistake, and a very grave one, was in the putting on of a negro guard around the jail, by our sheriff. That should never have been done. The whites and negroes should not thus be brought into collision; it only makes matters worse, and emboldens both parties, and if a man or two has been injured by the negro guard, we fear it is not the last of it.

The miserable threat of The African to burn, ballots here, is worthy of the hope and the [illegible] who have fattened on the proceeds of the last raid on us by the militia, without it, they long since would have starved out, as it is, they live as fat as and it is not wonderful they desire another raid card.

We by no means justify the attempt to take the poor miserable negro from our jail, nor fault the effort of the sheriff to save him, but we do protest against the place in which The African place, regardless of cases—clearing the negro without a trial, and pilloring, as usual, all the blame on the whites. We were not all raised in Indianola. All do not act like Indianolans.

The negro has been removed from our jail to some other place of safe keeping.

RECIPES.

Toothache.—In one of our readers suffer from toothache or neuralgic affections, among from the teeth, in any state of decay, they may experience relief, instantaneous and permanent, by saturating a small bit of clean cotton or wool with a strong solution of ammonia, and applying it immediately to the affected tooth. The pain will contract instantaneously produced sometimes causes a flow of laughter although a moment before extreme sickening anguish prevailed. I have used the remedy over a year and have obtained sufficient proof to warrant publication.—[Exchange.

To Wash Black Calico without Fading.—Put in soak in weak soda made boiling hot. Let it stand until cool enough to handle; then wash and rinse the usual way. For stiffening, use strong coffee old-fashioned milk.

To Remove Stains.—Those of grass, grape juice, and the like, from white garments—dampen the spot and hold over the fumes of a lighted sulphur match.

To Make Old Kid Gloves New.—Make them miles for by holding a handful of flaxseed, add a little dissolved soaps then when the mixture comes, add a piece of white flannel, wipe the glove; proceed Rub on the hands, use enough of it to make it take off the dirt, without wetting through.

Premiums.—Our town, among other excitements of the week, has been favored with the usual amount of a couple of enterprising patent medicine men, who have fobbed some dimes out of our money-loving fellow people. Another firm has been enterprising and merchants, selling off, advertised, the bankrupt stock of Arnold & Hall, of Manchester, England, consisting of broad cloths, narrow cloths, medions, beavers, tweeds, elegant French cloths, cassimeres, &c., [illegible] to have been [illegible] fashionable English goods at 50 cents, do. calicoes (another lot) [illegible] at 25c. per yard, 50 pieces Welch flannel (a Santa Fe trade) at 20c. per yard, 50,000 yds. Arcana ball dress carpet, [illegible] at 25c. per yard; only 10,000 yards Kidderminster 3-ply Brussels carpet, [illegible] carpet, [illegible] in New York, at 50c. the yard; only [illegible] yards English ticking eight or ten wagon loads [illegible] per yard. Also, only 500,000 remnants of English cloths in black, [illegible] clothes. Well, that [illegible] between twenty salesmen! Maybe its true—we hope it is, large for one-third or more. Woolens and cotton are carried down quite low. Now for the remnants argument, we believed. The others are strangers, and what they say may be true, but we will probably put down Kidderminster or Brussels on our streets instead of stone; and will be [illegible] around all the little negroes, from Greeley to York to old Hag B. Stores of Lafayette, will calico coats and red flannel shirts. Whoop! good Bs Bright; but we hear it Arnoldt.

A Bad Fix.—Between railroad morals and the failure of the Lexington and St. Louis railroad to be finished according to agreement, high taxes, negro polaty, and other villainies, our town and counties to be drained of its people, and during the past summer, if, we except the churches on Sunday, nothing has been done in the way of improvement instead of an advance of from $5 to $10 per cord, wood as was expected, parties have contracted, and sell for less than was asked for it a year and a half since, and we have seen the tax bill of a small farmer, who paid the amount to the Lexington railroad, and an augmented tax of $5. Everyone is complaining, and very justly too. If this be the state of affairs, everyone who has made money out of the hard earnings of the many. Merchants talk of leaving, for the, are doing but little, all in the country are [illegible] and will have to do so, in all probability. Lexington is [illegible], especially if we depend on a road which we have already expended, at this quarter, a million of dollars for, say, twenty-six miles of road, and have no road yet. It will require, to secure to make the road, a million more, and the people that plans are about to make another subscription, headed by the president of that road, [illegible] to be [illegible] of Lilard Wilson, who we believed to favor such a movement.

A Card.—I notice in the columns of the Caucasian of the 15th instant, that I am charged with being an "eternal hater," &c. Now, I wish it to be understood that the charge is untrue. I have expressed myself, long before I ever thought of becoming a candidate for any office, to be decidedly in favor of entire fraternal [illegible] and feeling, and am distressed to have talked with me long enough on the subject will testify as to my views being that way. I heartily endorse the amendment and will do all in my power towards [illegible] never talk much, and always attend to my business. I do not stand on street corners and fill politics, and I suppose that is why some gentlemen accused me lately. Fraternally, Zeiss.

Money Saved is Money Made.—The place to save money is 66 Main street, and we will show you how to make money, by exhibiting to your gaze the Largest, Handsomest and Cheapest stock of Dry Goods ever opened in Lexington. Call and get your Fall and Winter supplies at low prices.

Wardell, McCausland & Co.

Washing Machine.—We were in error, last week, in stating that Mr. Daxton took the premium on his machine here, though the award was reported by the marshall. The fact is, there was no premium offered for a washing machine. Mr. Kintz was ready to test his machine against the Daxton one, but the latter did not get ready to work.

For Sale.—Mesers. Peters & Tarbourn, sold, on Saturday last, one black pony and sold for $27; a pair of large bay mares, but old, for $300; bay horse, five years old, of good size and tolerable gait, for $120. No other animals sold.

On Thursday, Gordon & Hollis sold one young mare, at auction, for $62.

"Dry Goods Headquarters".—We have just received a large and attractive lot of Fancy Cassimeres, Brown and Black Velvetteens, suitable for ladies and gents wear, real or imitation Lace Collars, &c. Call and examine them at Wardell, McCausland & Co's, 97 Main street. oct29tf

Tic Sano.—Russell's Tic Sano cures Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia; recommended by Col. George S. Rathbun and Ben Marshall. Sold by druggists generally.

Personal.—We are glad to see on our streets again, Mr. William P. Beck, who has for the last year or so been in Europe at school. Mr. B. is in the health.

Dr. Potter and lady have arrived home, and we hear that Mrs. P. is sick.

Neuralgia.—Russell's Tic Sano cures Neuralgia, Nervous and Sick Headache. Gen. Jo. O. Shelby and Judge John A. S. Tutt recommend it. Sold by druggists generally.

Special.—Wanted, a partner for our entire stock of Hardware Goods, to whom we will sell at very advantageous rates, as we have concluded to quit the Hardware business. IW ROYLE & NEW.

Rented.—Mr. Gill E. Belles has rented the fine farm of G. S. Rathbun, Esq., two and a half miles out. Mr S. comes to town.

Fine Pigs.—Mr. O. B. Thomas, of this county, and Mr. Hall, of Greenton, have both been supplying themselves with some fine Berkshire pigs.

Fussy.—Kansas City and Leavenworth City are fussing about which has the largest population, &c. Both have more than they deserve.

B. B.—The Athletes of this city, and the Hectors of Kansas City have a match at the latter place on Saturday next. Put up your bets early.

Wanted.—To rent, a piano. Enquire at this office.

Cameron.—Enjoyed a good-sized fire last saturday night which destroyed property worth $10,000.

Coal Oil.—The best Coal Oil that's made, is kept at Bedford's and only 60c. per gallon.

40 Cents.—Go to Bedford's and get the best Coal Oil, and pay 60c. per gallon.

WELLINGTON ITEMS.

Politics.—During our leisure hours, we come [illegible] and found half [illegible] at work. Messrs. Mathes & Taylor have completed the reconstruction of their kiln, to which [illegible] the old one, and burn it this week. Brick will be [illegible] Operations in the yard have ceased.

Fencing.—The brick work on the new residence of Colonel Shelby will all be completed this week, [illegible]

Lards.—The brewery, on the creek, back of town, is doing nothing as yet.

The new brewery of Mr. Kinsch is approaching completion, and will be ready for the brew in a few weeks. It is a large establishment, well [illegible] The house is [illegible] Mr. Kinsch is in the market for barley.

Fencing.—It makes elsewhere it will be seen that the Lexington Manufactory of Jas. W. Winkler is now ready for business, and will make all kinds of fencing, plowing and [illegible] machinery all work well and handsomely.

Cows.—A new building is going up on Broadway in connection with the soda factory, and good [illegible] "Everybody" [illegible] Richmond, opposite the Court House, is now in simple demand upon it.

Lumber.—Barr's mill is engaged in feeding Lexington, to the tune of [illegible] Marshall & Easter are cutting from [illegible] of lumber per day, of assorted descriptions. At both there will be found some lumber ready to cabinet and carriage work. Logs are scarce.

Barrels.—Marshall & Easter find it difficult to procure barrels, as fast as they are wanted, on account of the scarcity of hands. Tubs are selling in the market for good hoop poles.

Mont Louis.—The brewery, under the lofty [illegible] is [illegible] Mr. Rosenbach, of Lexington, is [illegible]

A Gem.—The wooden mill is in good working order, and turning out such fabrics as fancy [illegible] We dropped in on the other day and found [illegible] handsomely engraved, carding, spinning and weaving.

Leather.—The little tanning establishment seems to be doing all the work it has capacity to do, and we are told its proprietors are very good.

MARRIAGES.

Marriages in St. Louis, on the 19th ult., by Rev. [illegible] Mr. [illegible] to Miss Cornelia Breidell, daughter of Hon. Francis Polk, all of St. Louis.

—In Platte county, on the 20th ult., by Elder Duncan H. Hiley, Mr. Joseph T. Duncan to Miss Jennie Flannery.

—In Platte county, on the 20th ult., by Elder Aaron Hiley, Mr. A. Burkhardt to Mrs. Martha Frank, of Platte county.

—In Platte county, on the 20th ult., by Elder Duncan H. Hiley, Mr. Joseph T. Duncan to Miss Jennie Flannery.

—In Platte county, on the 20th ult., by Elder Aaron Hiley, Mr. A. Burkhardt to Mrs. Martha Frank, of Platte county