Election Prospects.

Oh, what a change has come over the spirit of Missouri "loyalty"'s dream! One year ago, we were all "rebels," "traitors," who deserved nothing; had but two rights—the right to be hanged, and the right to be damned. Only six months ago, the "black, leering demon of secession" was still unexercised, the "hellish fires of rebellion still smouldered" in the breasts of our people. What a grand recumbobulation has taken place! We are now "fellow-citizens" in prospect, "suffering brethren," "worthy friends!" Oho! oho! The imbecile bigot, bearing, comes out ostensibly for the entranchising amendments. The dagger fanatic, J. Milton Turner, cuts loose from drake, and announces himself as a candidate for Congress, in the 2nd District, on the liberal platform, and urges his lucky brethren throughout the State, to vote for entranchisement. Van Horn, the infamous defaulter of the people, who has for two years, by perjury and forgery, misrepresented this District in the Washington chain-gang, declares himself in a big harangue, at St. Jo, for the broadest and most liberal policy, and prophesies that the amendments will be carried by a hundred thousand majority. All over the State, both factions of the Jacobin party are vying with each other in ardent professions of liberality. All pledging themselves to go for immediate restoration of the ballot to our ninety-five thousand disfranchised citizens and tax-payers.

Democrats! Fellow-sufferers under the yoke of bitter-end, infernal Radicalism! Don't be deceived by any of these eleventh-hour soft-soldery pronunciamentos! Where, ever Mr. Drake may have been the registrars, the registration has been as absolutely unfair and villainous, as it was in '68! Remember that! There is no difference between Drake and machine, between Schurz and Drake, was and is, enfranchisement against disfranchisement—liberality against proscription—liberty against oppression—right against wrong! We know that the Brown wing of the Radical fort, is honestly for enfranchisement—We have every reason to believe that machine wing is against it! What do their desperation-extorted declarations at this late hour amount to? What is the word, the mere word, of a Drakonian Radical worth, at best? As Democrats and Conservatives, value the rights and dearest interests of nearly a hundred thousand of their wronged and downtrodden white brethren—as they value true Republicanism, whose foundation stone is "no taxation without representation"—as they value the peace and prosperity of our noble, but long distracted State—let them turn out next Tuesday, and vote the straight Brown Ticket!! Vote it all the way through! No "scratching!" No dodging! What though some of the candidates may be obnoxious—What though the names of redman, fletcher and the Devil, all appear upon your ticket—Vote for them anyhow! State, County and Congressional nominees—SWEPT THEM ALL! Let no business, pleasure, sickness, mud, rain, hail, thunder, or gods of lightning big as fence-rails, keep you from the polls! Let EVERY REGISTERED CONSERVATIVE VOTER, in the State, but do his duty, next Tuesday—And with the rising of Wednesday morning's sun, the glad tidings will go forth to all the world, that Missouri is FREE! The sunlight of freedom, justice and right, will break again upon her glorious prairies, and hilltops, dispelling the darkness of her dread nine years' night! Democrats! Conservatives! Liberals! Friends of Liberty! Missouri expects every-thing that wears the shape, boots and breeches of a man, to do his duty, next Tuesday!! Fail in! Forward! And may God save the right!!

Over and over again, we've been assured that "the Democratic party is dead." Well, it may be; but its certainly the livest old corpse we ever saw. Time for, this year, the Democracy have carried Connecticut, Indiana, Pennsylvania and Oregon, Kentucky, Tennessee and North Carolina. Next week will add to this glorious white list, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and Missouri. California is unchangeably Democratic. And by the time the next general election rolls around, every State in the South will have swept carpet-bagger and Guinea-buckery, forever, from her soil, and wheeled into line beneath the glorious banner of Constitutional Republicanism—States' Rights-Democracy!

The man who votes against the enfranchising amendments, is the enemy of ninety-five thousand of Missouri's worthiest sons. Cast him out of your employ. Withdraw all patronage and countenance from him. Treat him as a leper, an outlaw. Spurn him, though starving, from your door-step. Hurl his vile carcass, when dead, to the wolves and the buzzards. Let not his carrion defile consecrated ground!

Huzzah for the "dead Democracy!" West Virginia gone Democratic, by 5000 majority! How's that for topolofical!

FACTS AND FIGURES.

See How We Sardines Float!

"Retrenchment!" "Reform!" "Careful Collections and Honest Disbursement!" were the ever-ringing watchwords, up to the fourth of March 1869, of all the snivelings, yelping herd who pirated their political faith, to the gutter-filth-flushed coat-tails of the besotted Galena cleaner of old skins, and breeder of bull-terriers. "Lighten the burdens!" "Lower the taxes!" "Down with the ring!" "Away with extravagance!" Ha! Ha! Haw-haw-haw-haw-haw-haw-haw! How every hill and valley, pulpit and forum, chapel and brothel, from Sitka to Key West, twanged with the empty, fiendish echoes! And, after twenty months' absolute, undisputed and unfettered sway, behold the result. Fifteen and a half millions excess in the debt, since the advent of the fanatical and demoniac administration; and thirty-one million, two hundred and fifty-five thousand, four hundred and seventy-seven dollars, and sixty-three cents, in excess in this year's taxation, over last year's! Bally for Ulysses! "reform!" cigar-stump "economy!" Look at these figures. Total debt, September 1st 1870, according to Boutwell's official statement, $2,095,561,860. Add outstanding Pacific Railroad bonds, and unpaid interest accrued on them, $65,265,027 32. This gives the Total Debt.

Net debt 1st July 1869	$2,095,561,860
Interest due and accrued 1st July	2,441,549,027 32
Interest due and unpaid	2,506,814,887 32
Accrued interest on bonds	2,506,814,887 32
Interest paid thereon	2,506,814,887 32
Interest accrued thereon
