The Weekly Caucasian.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

Passed at the last General Assembly, to be voted upon at the next General election. Published by authority of the Secretary of State, as required by law.

FIRST CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

Concurrent resolution submitting to the legislatures of the State of Missouri an amendment to the Constitution thereof, concerning District Courts.

Be it Resolved by the Hon. House of Representatives, the Senate concurring therein:

First: At the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, in the year A. D. 1870, the following amendments shall be submitted to a vote of the legal voters of the state, in accordance with the provisions of an act entitled "An act to provide for the submission of amendments to the Constitution of the State of Missouri," approved March 6, 1865, and amendments, shall read as follows:

Section 1. The judicial power, as to matters of law and equity, shall be vested in a supreme court, in circuit courts, and in such inferior courts as the General Assembly may from time to time ordain and establish. Section 2. Section 1, article 6, of the Constitution is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 1. Every appeal or writ of error lying in favor of a Circuit Court or inferior court, or tribunal, having concurrent jurisdiction with Circuit Courts, to the Supreme Court, as now by law provided, shall be taken to the Third Court of Appeals, which court, and process and proceedings therein, shall be governed by the laws and rules of practice now in force in the Supreme Court, except as may be modified by this amendment and the laws and rules of practice made in pursuance thereof. All laws in conflict with this amendment shall, upon its adoption, be of no effect. The qualified voters of the State, within the several districts, for judges of the Supreme Court, shall vote for judges of the Third Court.

SECOND CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

Concurrent Resolution submitting to the legislatures of the State of Missouri an amendment to the Constitution thereof, abolishing the office of sheriff.

Be it Resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring therein:

First: At the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, in the year A. D. 1870, the following amendments shall be submitted to a vote of the legal voters of the state, in accordance with the provisions of an act entitled "An act to provide for the submission of amendments to the Constitution of the State of Missouri," approved March 6, 1865, and amendments, shall read as follows:

Section 1. The office of sheriff is hereby abolished in Cole County, and in each county in which the City of St. Louis is situated. Section 2. Section 1, article 9, of the Constitution is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 1. Every township shall be a body corporate for the purpose of suing and being sued, and of ordinance, and shall be subject to such laws as may be made by the General Assembly. Section 2. Section 2, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 2. Every township, according to such laws as may be made by the General Assembly, shall be a school district, and be entitled to a share of the public school fund, and be subject to a tax for the support of schools, and for the payment of such other expenses as may be provided by law. Section 3. Section 3, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 3. The General Assembly shall have power to authorize the inhabitants of any township, school district, or other municipal corporation, to vote upon the question of the appropriation of money or other property for any purpose, and to make such appropriation when a majority of those voting on the question shall have given their assent thereto, in such manner as may be provided by law. Section 4. Section 4, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 4. Except as provided in the preceding section, no county, city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, shall ever make any appropriation or pledge its credit for any purpose, or in any way or manner to any person or corporation, unless such municipality shall, at the time, have the power to levy taxes sufficient to pay the interest on such indebtedness, as it shall accrue, and to create a sinking fund to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same. Section 5. Section 5, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 5. No county, city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, shall be allowed to become indebted in any manner or for any purpose, to an amount, including existing indebtedness, to the value of five per centum on the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained by the last assessment for state and county purposes, except that in counties, cities, towns, townships, school districts, or other municipal corporations, now existing, which have already incurred indebtedness in excess of five per centum on the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained as aforesaid, any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever a majority of those voting on the question shall vote therein in favor thereof, may be allowed to become indebted to an amount not exceeding ten per centum on the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained as aforesaid. Section 6. Section 6, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 6. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 7. Section 7, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 7. No city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, shall be allowed to become indebted in any manner or for any purpose, to an amount, including existing indebtedness, to the value of five per centum on the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained by the last assessment for state and county purposes, except that in counties, cities, towns, townships, school districts, or other municipal corporations, now existing, which have already incurred indebtedness in excess of five per centum on the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained as aforesaid, any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever a majority of those voting on the question shall vote therein in favor thereof, may be allowed to become indebted to an amount not exceeding ten per centum on the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained as aforesaid. Section 8. Section 8, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 8. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 9. Section 9, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 9. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 10. Section 10, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 10. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 11. Section 11, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 11. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 12. Section 12, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 12. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 13. Section 13, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 13. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 14. Section 14, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 14. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 15. Section 15, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 15. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 16. Section 16, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 16. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 17. Section 17, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 17. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 18. Section 18, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 18. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 19. Section 19, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 19. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 20. Section 20, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 20. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 21. Section 21, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 21. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 22. Section 22, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 22. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 23. Section 23, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 23. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 24. Section 24, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 24. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 25. Section 25, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 25. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 26. Section 26, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 26. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 27. Section 27, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 27. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 28. Section 28, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 28. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 29. Section 29, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 29. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 30. Section 30, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 30. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 31. Section 31, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 31. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 32. Section 32, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 32. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 33. Section 33, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 33. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 34. Section 34, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 34. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 35. Section 35, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 35. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 36. Section 36, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 36. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 37. Section 37, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 37. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 38. Section 38, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 38. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 39. Section 39, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 39. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 40. Section 40, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 40. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 41. Section 41, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 41. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 42. Section 42, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 42. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 43. Section 43, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 43. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 44. Section 44, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 44. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 45. Section 45, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 45. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 46. Section 46, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 46. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 47. Section 47, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 47. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 48. Section 48, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 48. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 49. Section 49, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 49. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 50. Section 50, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 50. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 51. Section 51, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 51. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever any debt or liability, whether existing or proposed to be incurred, shall be created, shall before or at the time thereof, provide for the payment of the interest thereon, and of a sufficient sum to pay the principal thereof within twenty years from the time of contracting the same, by a tax on the property subject to taxation in such city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, which tax shall be in addition to all other taxes, and be sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest of such debt or liability, as the same shall become due, and be levied and collected in the same manner and at the same time as other municipal taxes are levied and collected, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose. Section 52. Section 52, article 9, of the Constitution, is hereby stricken out, and the following inserted in lieu thereof: Section 52. Any city, town, township, school district, or other municipal corporation, whenever