SCRIBNER.—The second number of Scribner's monthly, has been received. It is a good successor to the first, and must prove in favor, and become popular. Its illustrations are fine. Address, Scribner & Co., New York.

THE FRATERNITY.—We find in the advertisement of this journal, published in St. Louis, and hope the fraternity will think it right to subscribe for it. It is the best of publications in that line, and should be well patronized.

MEETS.—The Presbyterians, the Methodists, and the Christian Societies, are each having sociables this winter, in this city. The two last met on Friday evening, so we can give no notice of them. We have not heard where the next Presbyterian one will meet.

For sale by Thos. Gaines. nov26d6t.

A BRACE OF EGGS.—Laid by a hen in Fort Edge, Mr. F. W. Pitt, office at the Platte City Revenue has been elected clerk of the county court.—Exit. Dem.

Fames or Gorham, formerly of the Caucasian, both deserved, was recently seen in Lafayette county, Mo. Mr. Gorham is now with Pitt, and has become an appetite fastened.

FIRE.—The residence of John Wood, about three miles above Lexington, was totally destroyed by fire on Monday afternoon, about half o'clock. It was insured in the Ætna Insurance Company, for $2,000. E. Wilson's son, again. Who is to blame for the origin of the fire?

SNAGGED.—The coal boat of Mr. Hamilton on the city, the Kate Kearney, was snagged on Monday morning last, we understand, in the river looking out the levee in her hold, and sunk in ten feet. Her owners were also insured, of course. A tug-boat was immediately engaged, and the boat saved with slight damage. No loss of life.

HUNTERS.—A party of Lexington sportsmen for several days, returned home empty handed. We suppose they could not get home on Sundays. They killed some 25 head of game. Another party we hear of killed rabbits, and had lots of little game. A party from this city is now out, and will remain on the hunt for several days.

A BETTER "U."—Young citizens of this city, tell us to say to the ladies, of whom we made report last week, in regard to the passage of the seventeenth amendment, that he is willing to take a contract now, regardless of the seventeenth, and will pledge himself to beg all woman sufferers, taking the risk of the law. He'll do it. He is out of the second-mortgaging firm.

YOUNG PILOT.—We are in receipt of the initial No. of the Young Pilot, a handsome monthly, issuing from Chicago, devoted especially to the interests of young people in their teens. Contents equal to any magazine of like character. Its contributors number many of our best writers. December number free to all subscribers for the year 1871. $1 per annum. Send stamp for specimen copy.

WANT OF AN ENGINE.—The want of a fire engine was never made more manifest than on Saturday last, when a small house, on the side of the hill, and above the lumber mills, belonging, we believe, to Wernwag & Chandler, was destroyed by fire without an alarm being given. We have heard nothing of the value of the house, or whether it was insured. But it shows that we need an engine or two. Will it be looked to before it is too late?

ROTTEN.—The old fencing on Pine, from the hay scales to Main street, has been removed. We are glad of it. It was a pest. At times ladies could scarcely pass along the side walk for horses, whose iron heels prevented their rest, in an adamantine attitude. We hope, while they are at it, the stakes in the railing beyond the scales will also be fixed up. Horses have blockaded up the way, and injured the pavement there about long enough.

FESTIVAL AND CONCERT.—The congregation of the Presbyterian church (Rev. Mr. Quarles), will have a festival and concert, on Thursday and Friday evenings, December 15th and 16th, for the purpose of furnishing and repairing their church, an object that should be well sustained. The church is particularly in want of improvements to warm the house, and we hope to hear of the best success.

PHOTOGRAPHS! PHOTOGRAPHS!—Duvall's Gallery is the place to get best and latest style Renaissance Photographs. In fact, he takes everything and of picture that you may mention. He has added to his gallery a new Camera for taking 1, 4 and 16 pictures at one sitting. He also takes the large Solar Photograph, the only gallery in the city that makes them. Remember the place, 223 Main st., oct19

Dr. Gilman's Tonic Bitters, for dyspepsia, constipation and all diseases of the stomach. Stimulating Cream, a liniment for man or beast. Dr. Gilman's Tasteless Worm Powders, for expelling worms from children. Dr. Gilman's Lotion for Sore Eyes.

WHY IS IT.—Only stamped Drew Gaines'sch, genuine the best cough remedy for the market—enterprise will tell. Read:

Boone Co., Ky., Feb. 16, 1870. Dr. Gilman: The bottle of Colloch and Tar, bought of you about a week since, has relieved me of a very bad cough accompanied by great soreness of the chest. I have not tried half of it, and feel sound and well. Geo. Gay.

For sale by Thos. Gaines.

GO.—To an old reliable druggist when you want medicines you can rely on. Thos. Gaines'sch, will recommend to all his friends Dr. Gilman's Tonic Bitters. Read the following: Mr. R. B. Price, popular banker, of Columbus, Mo., says of the Bitters: I was twice prostrated by chills and fever, and still more prostrated by the remedies used, &c.—and by the use of Dr. Gilman's Tonic Bitters, was entirely restored to health. Hereafter this Bitters at hand. I have no more fear of chills and fever, or other malarious diseases. And when in the prosecution of my business I get sick and debilitated a dose of this bitters sets me all right again.

HEAVY PAYMENT.—Mr. T. M. Hunter has sued the city of St. Louis for $229,000 as pay on his water works contract. One plea is the failure of the city to use St. Louis stone, to be had at a mile's distance, and forcing him to go to Grafton, Ill., for them, distant, forty-five miles, a damage of $55,921 82. This difference was not estimated when the engineer gave his certificate. He claims a difference of $135,369 61, an difference between rubble and faced masonry. Also, a difference of $17,584 28 in measurement of the work, and $12,301 85 as difference between contractor and another material. The amount is a heavy one, and we hope Mr. H. may get whatever is due him.

LIQUORS.—E. L. Martin & Co., 104 Delaware street, Kansas City, Mo., deal exclusively in pure Kentucky whiskies, pure brandies, native and foreign wines, and liquors generally. Persons wishing anything in this line will find it to their interest to purchase from this firm. apr21

COMPED JUBILEE AT PLATTE CITY.

The following letter explains itself. We trust that all our Lafayette exceptis, who can possibly attend the proposed gloritication, will do so. As for ourself, we'd strain every nerve to be on hand, but we speak from experience, and can feel for one. That's out of our line.

PLATTE CITY, MO., Nov. 22, 1870.

COL. DONAN, LEXINGTON: The CAUCASIAN editorials and their friends in all this region are to have a grand reunion here on Saturday, 3d December, to celebrate the date of the editorial and restoration to political privileges. Col. J. H. Winston, Col. W. P. Chiles and myself were made a committee to invite speakers from abroad. We would be glad to have you come up, and either make a speech, or bring some one to speak for you. All the Democrats in Lafayette will be welcome, and the ladies, for the dinner, music, illumination and torchlight procession. Please let me know if you can come. I will take care of you while here.

Yours truly, W. A. W.

Lafayette County, Mo.

WELLINGTON ITEMS.

PRAYER-MEETING.—Our town is now being favored with a series of discourses by Elder Winston, of the Christian church. The congregations are large, and attentive and continually affective. His sermons are models of simplicity, clearness and entertainment, and his language chaste, simple, and always appropriate. As a logician, he is manifest; but the charm of his oratory consists in the emphasis of delivery. He bound our good people in bonds and is giving them bread.

PRIZE.—Mr. Sandford, of Sandy Bread, Thos. J. Lockhart, with a view to his comfort and happiness on earth, has erected a handsome two story dwelling on his farm near the prairie, in Clay township. The style is American, purely. Architect and builder, Geo. C. Adams.

WANTED.—Information for the person or persons who stole of the McCuing locket in this town, by the following information, jeopardize on the stolen hair, contained.

IN BUSINESS.—Our young friend, long time, the away, now, for some time made wretched by losing a certain of the demoralized, public affections, and secure matrimonial office at Lexington, has entered a white neighborhood—a moral community—the Sunday-school, the grand effected Wellington. He has gone back to his business in the business, and now, travelers, with weary steeds, can find all your animal's requirements in his solicitous care. Good stock, and plenty of feed, usually spread before them, by the best-looking, most obsequious and good-natured hostler, or ostler, of the people who are regularly there. Find a place with power and approachable information, the immediate engagement of Mr. Hunter's hostelries will, from the overwhelming appetite of Old Wellington, be the place. A few words on same.

Long have we looked and longed for Tom,
Discussion of Callaway,
To speed without reserve with Tom
One half our salary.

You to come at last, darling it, Tom
With hacks and stockaway,
Bring out the grays, Tom, for myself, dear Tom,
To wed the "same way."

THE BALL.—Given a short time since, at the hotel, was entirely respect a splendid success. Crowd, rain, and great, all are responsable.

Liver pump. J. D.

LEXINGTON.—Although it is pretty nasty, it is to be hoped all will read Mr. Hooker on.

ANOTHER.—A little grocery store has been opened up Main street, near Mr. Aylington.

TRASHY STS.—Property on this street, who have failed to pave on the north side, had better see the notice of the Recorder, asking proposals for it.

DR. SMITH.—We take pleasure in calling attention to the card of Dr. T. S. Smith, in this paper. The Doctor is well known, having been practicing here for many years. As a practitioner of medicine and surgery, he occupies an enviable position.

MR. HEDGES.—Dr. W. A. Graves, physician and surgeon, has permanently located in our Mr. Hedges church, and will attend all calls in his profession. Residence at Mr. Hedges's. We commend the Doc to the good people of Hebron very cordially, and hope he may find much pleasant intercourse.

CONFECTIONERY.—Mr. E. Wolf, the popular grocer, opposite the market, has put on a delivery wagon, by which he will send home articles bought of him, and he has pretty nice in all you want in the grocery and provisioning line. It is convenient.

TO PRINTERS.—A complete Newspaper and Job office for sale. The undersigned offers for sale at very low figures, the printing material of the Glasgow Times, comprising a complete newspaper and job office. For particulars, address G. Mayfield, of that place.

FALL.—So much beautiful fall has been seen in this state for many long years. It has been almost a continuous spring, and as we gather from the cabalistic weather prophecy, we may not again strike a more warm for slaughtering. We fear that when winter does come, it will be severe.

MR. GREER.—We are glad to see amongst the Mr. Greer, whom we noticed as being badly injured by an accidental shot from a gun, is improving rapidly, and that the wound is being so well and scientifically treated by Dr. Smith as to prevent serious disfigurement. Dr. Smith tell us Mr. Greer is quite comfortable.

WEATHER, RIVER, &c.—Our first snow storm took place, on Wednesday morning, November 23. It lasted pretty much all the forenoon. The Dorcas, the Mountaineer, the Kate Kearney, the Lewis, and one or two other boats, were up during the week. The weather, up to Wednesday, was very fine. River is low and liable to stay. We do not look for a continuance of the boats in the river, at most not for more than a few days. The Kate Kearney and Francis and Lewis, will probably remain in the river.

BIG ENOUGH.—In the hurry of going to press, last Friday night, and the carelessness of proof reader and compositor, we printed a notice for Mr. R. E. Hays, that he had $200 worth of dry goods to sell. Of course Mr. Hays made no such assertion, and that is what we intended to state, and would say, for the tipper. Mr. Hays has what he states, and lots of good quality, and he will sell them awful cheap—beating the auction lower, out of sight.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE.—We received a friendly call from Mr. J. D. Brooks, who is visiting our town in the interest of Washington College. He proposed to raise, by subscriptions and the sale of scholarships, a fund for the endowment of a chair in the Agricultural department, to be called the "Professorship of Applied Chemistry." A large part of the fund has already been realized. We hope and Mr. Brooks will meet with success and encouragement in our community, for the enterprise be represents is a noble one, and should be substantially encouraged by every good citizen.—[Platte Enterprise.

THE NEW COUNTY.—We call the attention of our newly elected members of the Legislature, and the people in general, to the movement, originating in Knoxville, Johnson county, for a new county, to be formed out of parts of Lafayette, Jackson, Cass, Henry, and Johnson. The following is the notice:

The territory sought to be taken from this county is on our southern border—Sni-a-Bar township. If our people desire this severance, we leave not heard of it. Let it be looked to.

"REMEDY FOR HARD TIMES."—Buy your Dry Goods from Waddell, McCausland, & Co., 97 Main street, who will give you so many yards of choice goods for your money, that you will forget all about Hard Times.

Notwithstanding the IMMENSE rush upon this house for cheap goods, they still continue to display a magnificent stock, and are able to supply the wants of all their customers.

They are almost daily receiving new and desirable goods, and are selling them rapidly and astonishingly low prices.

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR.—Are you dyspeptic? Do you have chills and fever? If so give Simmons' Liver Regulator, it will cure you. For sale by G. C. Alexander, opposite courthouse.
