Legal.

STRAYED.

FROM my farm near Mt. Pleasant church, on the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th inst., one dark red and white spotted cow, with small horns, and a small bell on her neck. Any person detaining said cow will be prosecuted according to law.

Mt. Pleasant, March 13th, 1871.

Notice.

Final settlement.

NOTICE is hereby given that I will make a final settlement of the estate of Thomas Wallace, deceased, with the Court of Claims of Fayette county, Ky., on the 4th day of April, 1871, at which time all persons interested will be present and be prepared to pay over the money and deliver the property in their hands belonging to said estate.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY, Fayette County, Court of Claims.

Nancy Jones, Administrator of Lucy Jones, (col.), deceased, Plaintiff, vs. Mary Jones, Widow of said Lucy Jones, deceased, Defendant.

Petition for the sale of a slave to pay debts.

The defendant, Mary Jones, is a resident of the State of Kentucky, and is not a resident of the State of Kentucky.

Upon the motion of the plaintiff, by her attorney, it is ordered that the said defendant, Mary Jones, be notified of the pendency of this action by publication in the Lexington Weekly Caucasian, a newspaper published in Lexington, Fayette county, Kentucky, once a week for four consecutive weeks, and that she be required to plead or demur to the petition herein on the first day of the next term of this Court, which will be on the first Monday in May, 1871, at the Court House in Lexington, Fayette county, Kentucky, when and where the said defendant is required to appear and plead, demur or answer to said petition, or the same will be taken as confessed and judgment rendered against her.

A copy—Attest:

ELDRIDGE BURNS, C. C. C.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY, Fayette County, Court of Claims.

In the Probate Court of Lafayette Co., Missouri.

Now, at this date comes Mary Hampton, administrator of the estate of Thomas Hampton, deceased, and presents to the court her petition for the sale of said deceased's real estate, and it appearing to the court that said Thomas Hampton died in said county of Lafayette, and that said deceased left no will, and that said Mary Hampton is his administrator, and that said deceased left no heirs, and that said deceased left no personal property, and that said deceased left no real estate in this county except the lots in the town of Lexington