MARVIN
FEMALE INSTITUTE.
LEXINGTON, MO.
THE FALL SESSION OF this flourishing Institution will commence September 4, 1871.
Our Faculty is as heretofore.
Our accommodations for our Boarding family are unimproved.
The health of our town and college is unintermittently good.
The donation of the Masonic College in this place to the Trustees of the Marvin Institute gives us unrivaled advantages.
Our terms are as reasonable as any college of high grade in the State, not exceeding $143 50 for five months. The above bill includes board, washing, lights and tuition.
Expenses of tuition and board one half in advance, the other half in middle of the session.
Let parents send their daughters to the MARVIN INSTITUTE, at Lexington, Mo., and their highest expectations shall be realized.
We are doing much now for the daughters of our ministry, and hope to do much more. May we not expect to receive many new pupils, by their influence, next session, January 29, 1872.
J. O. CHURCH.
Lexington, Mo., Dec. 12, 1870.
☞ Parents ought to write once a week to their daughters at college. (y-1)
CHRISTIAN INSTITUTE,
LEXINGTON, MISSOURI.
THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH HAS, long felt the necessity of a good Female School within its Western Missouri and the usage of the church in Lexington has caused school interests to centre here. Its description is equally well known. The recent visit that is needless to say of the largest and commodious building such form formerly occupied by the Marvin Female Institute, have been repaired and refitted, and the school will be reopened. The Board of Trustees have secured the services of experienced teachers. A full corps of competent teachers will be engaged. The Board of Trustees
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 13th, 1871
Lexington is a city of about 5,000 inhabitants, situated on the Missouri River, and is reached by railroads with every part of the Union. Every assurance is given of health. Lexington is the entire year healthful, tuition low, and its pupils will find ears for good, or exclusive influences.
