OFFICIAL PAPER OF HOLT COUNTY.

FRIDAY.....APRIL 9, 1869.

Ho for Cuba!

A recruiting office is open in St. Joseph for receiving recruits for the Cuban war. $200 in gold is offered as a bounty. Many have already enlisted.

FAREWELL GREENBACKS.

Some of the principal banks in New York city are going to change from the National to the State System, on account of the new law forbidding national banks to certify checks in advance of actual deposits. The requisite preliminary steps have already been taken by the City Bank, the Fulton Bank, and the Bank of North America, and other banks are considering the propriety of doing the same.

City Election.

The city election on last Tuesday passed off very quietly, there being but one ticket, and only one person having filed for the same office, consequently there was no excitement and very little interest manifested. The new Board of Councilmen will compare favorably with any heretofore as regards energy and business, and it is to be hoped that this new Board will even excel any heretofore in the way of progress and improvement. Our town needs fixing up. A general renovation should be the order of the day. Every street in the town wants to be improved, and especially the principal streets around the square.

St. Joseph City Election.

The city election at St. Joseph on last Tuesday resulted in the election of the following councilmen:

Chas. J. Kessler, Dr. R. Gunn, Philip Pinger, (Republicans,) and Wm. Eckhart, (Democrat.)

In the Fifth Ward there were two places of voting: one place elected H. N. Turner, Republican, and the other elected Michael Fitzgerald, Democrat. Providing that the certificate will be given Mr. Fitzgerald, the council will still be 3 Republicans to 2 Democrats, and if Mr. Turner gets the certificate of election, it will then stand 4 Republican and 1 Democrat.

It appears that the city council claimed that it was their business to appoint the judges of election and the Board of Registration claimed they had the right, consequently there was two sets of judges for each ward, but a compromise was effected in all the wards save the Fifth, and there the two sets of judges received votes.

WHIG VALLEY.

We are indebted to a citizen farmer of Whig Valley, for the following information in regard to that favored portion of our county: The most of the farmers have finished sowing wheat, and are now engaged in preparing ground for corn. Owing to the prospect of another crop of grasshoppers, there was very little winter wheat sown last fall, but what there is looks fresh and green. The following persons have made extensive improvements on their farms:

John Caldwell, John Watson, John H. Glenn, John Davis, George Glenn, Madison Davis, C. F. Storm, J. R. Bradford, J. L. Gomel, J. R. Welch, George Wagoner, Hiram Blazer, Marion Carson, R. C. Hunter, Andrew Hunter,—Coverdale, Joseph Crist, Ad. Glenn, E. Davis, Chris. Swope.

The amount of ground broke by the above citizens during the past year, amounts to something near one thousand acres, and the number of houses recently built by them numbers fifteen; and besides that a school house has been built, and a new farm opened west of Dr. Taylor's farm. The amount of ground broke in the last year, and the houses recently built in that neighborhood, is certainly flattering, and speaks volumes in regard to the enterprise and industry of the citizens of that vicinity.

There is no better farming land in the world than there is in Whig Valley, and from what we have seen, no better class of farmers than the residents of the Valley. People seeking new homes will bear this in mind and visit Whig Valley before purchasing.

Mr. John S. Swope recently had his house burned. He had just finished repairing it at a cost of over $400. His total loss is about $1,200.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.

It is considered certain that the House Committee on Appropriations will reject all the Senate amendments to the Indian bill, which are based on the treaties made by Generals Sherman and Harney, amounting to over $2,000,000, and that they will be sustained by the House in so doing.

It is understood that Mr. Dawes will move and carry a proposition striking out all these amendments and inserting a section putting at the President's control about $10,000,000, to be used at his discretion in keeping peace with the Indians, and requiring him to report at the next session of Congress how it has been expended.

The House is determined not to recognize these treaties, but it may make this appropriation and hold the President officially responsible for its use; and there is reason to believe that this course would be acceptable to the Secretary of the Interior, as well as to the President.

The nomination of Charles W. Ford, to be Collector of Internal Revenue at St. Louis, was referred, in the executive session of the Senate to the Finance Committee.

Secretary Boutwell has given official notice that the interest on coupons payable on the 1st of May next, will now be paid on presentation at the proper offices, upon a rebate of interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum.

Hon. John Amison, new Register of the Treasury, was sworn in on the 3d inst., from which time he assumes the duties of the office.

The Germans of the District of Columbia, regardless of political sentiments, tendered an ovation to Gen. Carl Schurz, in honor of his election as Senator from Missouri.

INCREASE OF BUSINESS.

From Mr. Kaucher, Revenue Assessor, we gather the following interesting items in regard to the revenue assessment and collections. The total assessment for this (Seventh Division of Sixth Collection) District, for the year 1868, was $6,213,82. This district then included Andrew, Holt, Atchison, and Nodaway. For the year 1869, the district includes only the counties of Andrew, Holt, and Atchison, and the assessment reaches $10,268,81; an increase for the year 1669 over that of 1868 of $4,054,99 cents, and one county less in the district. This difference either shows that this part of the country is fast increasing in business and welth, or a complete close assessment of this division.

The largest income paid by one man in this Division is that of J. C. Waterman, of Savannah; he pays on $22,535,00. Levi Zook, of Holt county, pays the largest income; he pays on $4,000. P. A. Thompson, pays the largest in Atchison; he pays income on $1,785.

OUR CHICAGO LETTER.

CHICAGO, April 2d, 1869.

It is impossible for us to lengthen out any one day, but some are of much more importance, as the events connected with them leave a deep impression on our minds. How universal is all fools' day and how many make useless journeys only to gratify the joking propensities of others. The disposition to perpetrate practical jokes is at best most thoroughly annoying. The "sells" of April 1st very forcibly suggest the huge "sell" of life, although while prosperity smiles few are willing to acknowledge it.

All things considered we heartly welcome April. We have been unlocked from the ice-bound winter and free to navigate the waters of Lake Michigan. For this privilege none object to a slight annoyance at the opening of the season.

Some interesting experiments are being made with a liquid fuel for locomotives. A company of railway men recently took a run of thirty or forty miles behind an engine in which this fuel was used. The substance is the oil extracted from shale and mixed with some ingredients to induce combustion. It is supposed that this oil can be supplied cheaper and in every way be more economical than coal or wood. The perfection to which railway traveling is being brought is beyond all expectation. The full force of the above remark can best be felt in this city where a perfect network of roads center, and from which they diverge in all directions over the entire Union.

Traveling by rail is decidedly pleasant compared with the navigation pedestrians are forced to perform through our streets. There have been no less than two deaths in a week from falling on Chicago sidewalks. In the less frequented streets some walks are raised "to grade" and many short pieces intervening are not; the unfortunate pedestrian after dark has rather to creep than walk. All who have seen our streets at this time of the year can fully sympathise with us. We had enough warm weather to start the frost, then a heavy rain, followed by a snow storm and a hot sun.

As the spring advance the velocipede fever increases. The hundred who have learned to ride the animal at Miles' Velocipede Academy only want the permission of the weather to appear on our avenues. The enterprising firm of Messrs. Loring & Keene, alive to the interests of the great West, have secured the patents and are manufacturing the most perfect velocipede in the country. This is acknowledged to be a fact by the experts who have tried this one as well as those from all the best manufactures, at the school and salesroom corner of Adams and State streets. The united testimony of Prof. Miles and the best velocipedists of the city is in favor of this machine. All who purpose learing should send for a price list and circular. When any of your readers visit Chicago, they should not fail to see the exhibitions every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings, at the New Zouave Hall on State street, by the most expert riders, both ladies and gentlemen.

Our citizes feel somewhat elated over the selection of Chicago as head quarters for the military district of the West. Lieut. Gen. Phil. Sheridan has taken apartments for his offices, and in a very short time they will be occupied. The peculiar location and facilities for communication are attracting the central offices of a large number of leading corporations.

There is but little to be reported in reference to business in general. Suffice it to say that it is opening up with fair prospects, and with increased proportions. The building this season will be full as extensive as it was last. One improved feature of it is the large number of residences that will be constructed. The settlement of the park question will have decided many as to location, and work is already commencing on hundreds of dwellings.

The scenes presented in the courts of this city are often most ludicrous. The largest supply of laughable cases are furnished by our German fellow citizens. In almost every instance they are excited and uncontrolably out of humor; the efforts of both sides then to speak English is amusing.

WE clip the following from the Brownville Advertisers:

"The Nebraska City papers contain an account of the murder of Richard Hill, the engineer of the ferry boat, by Wm. Bebout, the acting pilot. The boat was tied up on the Iowa side for the night. A man on horseback wished to be ferried over. Hill ordered the firing up ready for the trip; Bebout replied that the fireman could not do so unless over his dead body. A few words followed from Hill, when Bebout drew a revolver and shot at Hill without effect. He shot off a second barrel which took effect near the right nipple, and a third shot followed, hitting Bebout near the same place. Hill then pushed Bebout into the river, and then, on making a few stops, said he was dying. He was dead before they reached the house. Bebout got into a skiff and went down the river; parties pursuing him captured him, and we learn that he is now in the Sidney jail, Iowa.

There are 30,000,000 acres of uncultivated land in Great Britain.

TENURE OF OFFICE.

The telegrams inform us that President Grant has signed the Tenure of Office Bill. As this bill has created a great clamor and excitement, and has been the theme of discussion in Congress for several weeks, we give it to our readers that they may know what this Tenure of Offie Bill is. Here it is, read it:

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, &c., That every person holding any civil office to which he has been, or hereafter may be, appointed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and who shall have become duly qualified to act therein, shall be entitled to hold such office during the term for which he shall have been apppointed, unless sooner removed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, or by the appointment, with the like advice and consent of a successor in his place, except as herein otherwise provided.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted. That during any recess of the Senate the President is hereby empowered in his discretion to suspend any civil officer appointed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, except Judges of the United States Courts, until the end of the next session of the Senate, and to designate some suitable person, subject to be removed in his discretion by the resignation of another, to perform the duties of such suspended officer in the meantime, and such person so designated shall take the oaths, and give the bonds required by law to be taken and given by the suspended officer, and shall, during the time he performs his duties, be entitled to the salary and emoluments of such officer, no part of which shall belong to the officer suspended; and it shall be the duty of the President, within 30 days after the commencement of every session of the Senate, except for any office which in his opinion ought not to be filled, to nominate persons to fill all vacancies in offices which exist prior to the meeting of the Senate, whether temporarily filled or not, and so in the place of all officers suspended; and if the Senate during such session shall refuse to advise and consent to an appointment in the place of such suspended officer, then, and not otherwise, the President shall nominate another person as soon as practicable to said session of the Senate for said office.

FORBES.

From a friend we learn the following in regard to the town of Forbes:

Forbes is situated eight miles south of Oregon and three miles from the Missouri river on the St. Joseph and Council Bluffs Railroad. East of it is one of the finest sections of country in the county, and is thickly settled by some of the best and wealthiest of our farmers. Forbes has a Railroad switch 1,200 feet long; also a depot under construction, a good dry goods store, including everything in the grocery and notion line, and owned by three of our farmers, Messrs. George Myers, W. Herrin and W. D. Taylor. Dr. Bumps is soon to bring on a stock of drugs. Several dwellings are being built. Forbes will no doubt make a point of considerable importance.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

MANHOOD.

IN the young and rising generation, the vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid lime, the lack-lustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercises, thoughts are turned inward upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change—from child to woman, is looked for in vain; the parents' heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU, for Weakness arising from excesses or early indiscretion, attended with the following systoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Disease, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Dreadful Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Languor, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than solitude, and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves; no purpose of manner, no earnestness, no speculation, but a hurried transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this sad result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute—neither mirth or grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With woeful measures wan Despair
Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the consequences. HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED FLUID EXTRACT OF BUCHU. There is no tonick like it. It is an anchor of hope to the surgeon and patient, and it is the testimony of all who have used or prescribed it.

Do not Trifle with Danger.

A single spark may kindle a flame that will consume a city, and small ailments neglected, may end in fatal disorders. Bearing this fact in mind, let the first symptoms of debility or nervous prostration be met promptly with invigorating treatment. Foremost among the vegetable tonics of the age stands HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, and whenever the vital powers seem to languish, or there is any reason to suspect that the animal functions essential to the sustenation and purification of the body are imperfectly performed, this invaluable invigorant and antiseptic should at once be resorted to. Indigestion always produces weakness of the bodily powers. Sometimes it happens that the appetite demands more food than the stomach can digest; tho' not more, perhaps, than is required to keep up the full strength of the frame. The object, under such circumstances, is to increase the digestive capacity of the assimilating organ, so as to make it equal to the duty imposed upon it by the appetite, and capable of supplying the building material of the system as fast as it is required. This object is fully accomplished by the use of the Bitters. They tone and gently stimulate the cellular membrane which secretes the gastric juice, and the result is that the solvent is mingled with the food in sufficient quantity to convert all its nourishing particles into pure and wholesome element. If, on the other hand, there is a deficiency of digestive power, the effect of the tonic is to stimulate a desire for food. In nineteen cases out of twenty, headache, nausea, most of the casual aches and pains to which humanity is subject, proceed primarily from indigestion complicated with biliousness; and for both these complaints HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS are recommended as a speedy and certain remedy.
