RAILROAD CHARGES.

MR. EDITOR: It has long been a saying that corporations have "neither bodies to be kicked nor souls to damned." Certainly the conduct of the K. C. St. Jo. & C. B. R. R. towards the people of this county proves that the saying is true concerning at least that corporation. That road was built as cheaply as ever any road was built. It charges us not less than six cents per mile when we travel over it. It charges us as freight such enormous rates as to make us open our eyes and grind our teeth. To give one instance out of innumerable similar ones; on a lot of common freight shipped from Alliance Ohio to Forest City, a few days since was charged at the following rates per 100 lbs per 100 miles: viz, from Alliance to Fort Wayne 22 cents; from Fort Wayne to St. Joseph 35½ cents; from St. Joseph to Forest City Mo., $2.89 cents. What a difference! Two dollars and eighty-nine cents compared with twenty-two cents! But never mind, all this comes off the producing classes which have to grin and bear it. For if they are not compelled to bear it why don't they rise up unanimously and demand such a change in the laws as will cause a repetition of Illinois made last winter?

Again it is well known that this road does not pay taxes on its property in the county in proportion to the amounts paid by individuals. Last year several thousand dollars of taxes were remitted to it by mere favor. Yet that was not enough; when the Holt County Agricultural Society asked of the superintendent that half fare be charged on persons and property going to and returning from the fair the request was refused, unless the society would promise to have taxes on the railroad property still further reduced. This road is making enormous profits; it is a rich corporation. Why should we remit to it, the just proportion of taxes due from it? Its charges on freight are enormous and unheard of. There is but one way to get matters changed, that is through the State Legislature. But these railroads have given passes to every editor, every member of the Legislature, and to every private citizen in the different counties who, they suppose, can have any considerable influence in their favor. "Wherever two or three are gathered together" to discuss railroad charges their is one with a railroad pass in the midst of them. Let the farmers at their clubs discuss these matters and start a correspondence throughout the whole State on the subject. HOLT.

THE NEW YORK RIOT.

The great riot in New York, was as is usually the case of New York riots, the work Irishmen. In the year 1690 a battle was fought at Boyne, in Ireland, between William of Orange and James the second, which resulted in the defeat of King James. James was a Catholic and William a Protestant. The victory of the Protestants gave Protestantism the ascendency in Great Brittian. There continued, however, to be difficulties between Catholics and Protestants, which eventually led to the formation of Protestant associations for the mutual protection of their members, which associations took the name of Orange Societies. These societies were first organized about a century after the defeat of the Catholic King James in Ireland.

The Orange Societies of the United States are composed of Protestants, and although founded on the British order of the same name, profess to have nothing in common with the British Orange Societies of a political nature. In Great Brittian and Canada the members are bound by an oath of loyalty to the British Government, and in the United States the members take an oath binding themselves to support, with all their power, the laws of the United States, as long as they maintain civil and religious freedom, and to assist the Chief Magistrate and all other legal authorities in the lawful execution of their several duties. In the United States the Orangemen profess to be a benevolent association, never acting politically except against religious intolerance. The parade which was attacked by the rioters was in commemoration of the battle of Boyne which relieved the British Protestants from Catholic intolerance.

The local authorities of New York City forbade the parade, but this was too palpable a violation of the rights of American citizens, and too shameful a concession to the demand of a bigoted mob to be tolerated. Public opinion compelled Governor Hoffman to protect peaceful Orangemen in the same right which had so recently been exercised, without molestation, by the Catholic Societies not only in New York but throughout the whole country.

Jo. Gilson says that his harvesting is done, he had nothing to do with it, but it was done last Saturday between 4 and 5 o'clock. It was the quickest harvest work on record. Gilson has some mutton too, but he says he would much rather select his sheep when he wants to make mutton of them and he would prefer not to have them pounded to death with hailstones.

It has been variously estimated by several persons who were out over the country yesterday that the farmers within a radius of three miles around Red Oak have lost from $75,000 to $100,000 by the storm of Saturday.

A clergyman, observing a poor man by the road breaking stones, and kneeling to get at his work better, made the remark:

"Ah, John! I wish I could break the stony hearts of my hearers as easily as you are breaking those stones."

"Perhaps, master, you do not work on your knees," was the reply.

The Mot d'Ordre, of Paris, stated that on a perquisition being made at a convent in the Rue de Picpus a fortnight ago, three nuns were found sequestered in cells, where they had remained for nine years. The eldest, Sister Stephanie, was aged sixty-one, and the two others, Sisters Bernardine and Victoire, were aged forty and thirty respectively.

TERRIFFIC STORM.

Immense damages done by lightning rain and wind. In this county on the 13th inst. the weather in the afternoon was extremely warm and sultry, with a clear sky till about sunset when there appeared first, a cloud in the west, northwest, which at first appeared to be passing northward of us; but shortly afterward there appeared another cloud west, southwest, which had the appearance of going off southwest of us, leaving apparently a narrow strip of the heavens between them. Neither of the clouds at first gave any indications of any thing extraordinary until near nine o'clock, when the lightning flash, the deep toned thunder, and the gathering blackness of the clouds became portentous of evil, and the two clouds began, rapidly, to approximate each other, like two grand armies gathering all their forces for one grand decisive battle. The cloud which had first made its appearance west and northwest had by this time advanced eastwardly until it stood nearly north of us, now began a rapid movement toward the cloud in the south, seemingly, throwing its extreme eastern end round as designing a flank movement until in a few minutes after they came together, and now commenced a scene of the wildest grandeur, to the description of which our pen is inadequate. The quick succession of the lightning's glaring flashes, revealed its awful grandeur and magnificence to the anxious and awe-stricken spectator. The elements seemed to have gathered all their strength for one grand magnificent engagement.

The first blast of wind came from the north with tremendous fury carrying with it limbs of trees, fence rails, and various like missiles, and making buildings to tremble and shake like an aspen leaf, and levelling to the ground and breaking off much of the growing corn, then came a lull for a moment, which was quickly succeeded by a gust from the east, which lasted but for a moment, when it was followed by one of increased intensity from the northwest, when the whole heterogeneous mass of cloud, lightning, thunder, rain and hail, and numerous missiles, began to recede towards the southeast, and by ten o'clock had passed off, leaving only a scene of wreck and ruin as an evidence of its great fury.

The damages done by the storm in this county to the growing corn, orchards and fruit, to forest timber, ornamental and shade trees, fences etc. etc. can scarcely be estimated, but will amount to several thousand dollars.

Some of the orchards are minus from three to five hundred bushels of apples, and in some instances as many peaches.

It is estimated that Mr. Hugh Pennel east of Oregon lost 500 bushels of apples besides the damage done to the trees by being broken down.

Many peach trees were broken down or torn up by the roots. Mr. Proud's peach orchard, north of Oregon was almost totally destroyed, the storm having first broken the trees down and then whirled them up into heaps. Our friend L. Green's stack yard, about ¾ of a mile south of Oregon consisting principally of fall wheat, was destroyed by lightning one of the stacks being struck and fired, the fire was communicated to the others and for the want of assistance was consumed, but about ten bushels.

Mr. Wesley Hulatt, living east of Oregon some five miles, had also his grain destroyed by the lightning. We did not learn what amount.

Very much of the growing corn was injured, by the wind; some by being broken entirely off, others partially and a large quantity being so flat on the ground, will not mature perfectly.

Much damage was done to the fences, many of them haven been blown down, others by having timber blown across them &c.

As strange as it may appear, there was no loss of life, nor any account of any injury being received to person or animal. Which is indeed strangely unaccountable and wonderful, when we remember the fury of the waring elements as they hurled the many missiles through space so thick and fast. Was there a Providence in this?

THE ORANGE RIOT IN NEW YORK.

The Rioters to be Dealt With by the Civil Authorities.

NEW YORK, July 11.—Gov. Hoffman arrived in the city to-night and has issued the following.

PROCLAMATION:

The order heretofore issued by the police authorities, in reference to said procession, having been duly revoked, I hereby give notice that any and all bodies of men desiring to assemble and march in peaceable procession in this city to-morrow, the 12th inst., will be permitted to do so. They will be protected to the fullest extent possible by the military and police authorities. A military and police escort will be furnished to any body of men desiring it on application to me at my headquarters, which will be at the police headquarters in this city, at any time during the day.

I warn all persons to abstain from interference with any such assemblage or procession, except by authority from me; and I give notice that all powers at my command, civil and military, will be used to preserve public peace put down, at all hazards, every attempt at disturbance; and I call upon citizens of every race and religion to unite with me and the local authorities in this determination to preserve the peace and honor of the city and State.

(Signed,) JOHN T. HOFFMAN.

At seven o'clock the streets presented a novel appearance, not unlike the days of the draft riots in 1863.

Soldiers in fatigue uniform are hastening in every direction to report for duty at the armories of their respective regiments.

Mounted policemen patrol the streets, and heavy squads of police are moving to designated points in the city. Extraordinary precautions are being taken to preserve peace, and the authorities appear to be working with harmony and energy. A printed secreat circular containing a plan of the proposed attack upon the Orangemen has fallen into the hands of the police and they have perfect knowledge of their intentions. At a late hour last night a number of Hibernians got into a row amongthemselves in their hall on Prince street, and a number of them were severely pummeled. All the regulars at Governor's Island, Forts Hamilton, Schuyler, and other forts in this vicinity have been placed under arms and ordered to hold themselves in readiness to march at a moment's notice. General McDowell has promised a hearty co-operation with the State authorities. The 1st, 5th, 6th, 7th, 9th, 17th, 22d, 71st and 84th Regiments of National Guards are now assembled at their armories.

Gov. Hoffman and staff established their head quarters at Clarendon Hotel.

The revocation of orders of Supt Kelso by Gov. Hoffman and the Governor's proclamation is received by citizens of all casses with expressions of the liveliest satisfaction.

The police force will be thirty-three Captains, sixty-six sergeants, same number of roundsmen, and between four and fifteen hundred patrolmen. This force will be formed into three batallions of ten companies. Supreme command will be vested in Supt. Kelso. Besides this large force of police, the precinct detectives with the central office detectives will act as skirmishers to note the movements of the contending parties, and report the same to the nearest station house where it will be transmitted by telegraph to the central office.

A battery of United States light artillery has been brought over from Governor's Island, and several batteries of mounted howitzers have been placed on the tugs of the harbor police. A detachment of United States marines has been placed on a tug and are now awaiting orders from the arsenal.

NEW YORK, July 12.—In the vicinity of police headquarters.

ALL IS BUSTLE AND EXCITEMENT.

The police under the command of the various captains assembled upwards of fifteen hundred strong. Twelve hundred have been ordered to the twenty-ninth precinct under the command of Captain Speiglemyer, and fifty more have been sent to the fourth precinct for the purpose of guarding harper's building.

11 A. M.—The Irish Catholic laborers on the boulevards have suspended work, and are marching down in a body.

Inspector Jamison, with 250 men, has been sent up to Forty-second street and Eighth avenue, to intercept them. The aspect of affairs looks very threatening.

The men in the marble and stone yards along the East River have mostly all left their works. It is supposed for purpose of opposing the Orange parade.

12:15 P. M.—The riot has commenced at last. About a quarter before eleven, the reports commenced to come in. The first report was from the Twenty-third precinct, to the effect that a mob had commenced in the vicinity of Eighty-third street and Third avenue, and were driving the people from the streets.

Two hundred and twenty-five men were immediately picked out and placed under command of Captain Helden, of the Fifteenth precinct who was ordered to proceed to the above point and disperse the mob.

12:30 P. M.—An immense mob is collected on Third avenue near Eighty-third street, and are driving all men there from work. The mob is coming down town.

Information has just been received that at body of men from Boulevards are now engaged in a battle with the Italian and Swiss laborers at One Hundred and Forth-third street and Ninth avenue. Col. Conkling's regiment is hurrying to the scene of the affray.

2:45 P. M.—Fighting is now going on in the Tenth and Eleventh Precincts, and along Bleecker street. The militia have been ordered to Eighth avenue and Forty-second street, where an attack has been made upon Judge Heiser's house. Large bodies of police have left in tages. At the Orange headquarters everything is quiet and all present are engaged in preparations for the procession, which will move at 2:30 in the afternoon.

1 P. M.—A mob of Irishmen gathered around the Fenian headquarters in avenue A, and demanded arms. Gen. Miller refused to give them up. The mob then attacked the Fenian armory, but were driven off by the police and a detachment of the 11th regiment.

About half-past two, the Orangemen formed on Twenty-ninth st below Fifth avenue, and at the same time the 22d regiment, under Col. Porter, marched past and formed in line on Eighth ave., where they loaded with ball cartridges. Next came the 6th regiment, which took up position north of the 22d. The police were on the east side of the street and the military on the west side, and it would seem to be the intention to have the Orangemen march between the two files. They presented a very small appearance and numbered scarcely 200. The procession was twice attacked by rioters, who were quickly put to flight by the police. A large number of rioters were clubbed and taken prisoners.

At Twenty-sixth street the ninth regiment charged the mob with fixed bayonets. And several persons were killed and wounded, among them a woman.

Soon after the fighting began news of a bloody massacre flew like wild fire all over the city. Every home that had sent forth a representative defender of peace was racked with agitation. Throngs of distracted women hurried to the police stations and hospitals eager to know the names of the killed and wounded. When recognitions took place the exhibitions of sympathy and grief was heartrending to witness.

At Sixteenth Precinct Station, in West Twentieth street, was a ghastly spectacle. Vast crowds filled the street in front of the entrance, and the already exhausted police, streaming with perspiration and weak with thirst and hunger could scarcely make way for the arrival of improvised ambulances which were of every style, pressed in for the dreadful duty. Baker's, Grocer's and market wagons, and omnibusses were used, and came in rapid succession freighted with dead and wounded victims. The sad task of bearing the helpless forms into the station if hurriedly was tenderly performed. Many of the head are yet unidentified, and the names of the wounded in some cases were given almost inarticulately and of course incorrectly. The cells in the basement were crowded with the arrested rioters, and the intervening corridor was filled with the dead who lay in all sorts of positions upon the cold flagstones.

2 A. M.—The following is the fastest report of the casualties: Total killed at Morgue, 35; total wounded, 175; total number of arrests, 128. The city now is perfectly quiet.

The number of corpses in the Morgue this morning was twenty-six, and of those twenty were identified and permits given by Coroner Young for their removal. The other six still remain.

The bodies lay in coffins which were placed in rows along the yard attached to the dead house, and the crowd was allowed to pass around to see if any of the dead were their friends. About seven thousand people must have passed in this way.

NEW YORK, July 13.—An immense crowd assembled at the Jefferson Market Police Court this morning to attend the trial of the prisoners arrested yesterday as rioters. Justice Shandley presided, and disposed of the following cases: Patrick Hogan committed for trial at the Court of General Sessions, for standing on the steps of the Fifth Precinct Police Station House and appealing to the crowd to rescue the prisoners arrested for rioting.

John Hendricks, Thomas O'Neil and Francis Keel were committed for trial for participating in the riot.

A large number of persons will be arraigned this afternoon on a charge of being concerned in the riot.

NEW YORK, July 14.—The grand jury adjourned to-day, subject to a call from the District Attorney's office to investigate the riot matter, and Recorder Hacket will sit next week to try the cases of those arrested as rioters.

THOSE LONG-SNOUTED PESTS.

The hog question is being fearfully agitated by our St. Joseph friends, and its discussion developes many pleasant recollections, as the following extract will show:

It is patent to everybody that hogs running at large in this city are an infernal nuisance, which ought to be abated. The Council have the power to do away with it. We know there are some members of the Council who will do their duty in this matter, regardless of "personal enemies." If St. Joseph and the City Council are to be threatened and ruled by a few hog owners, whose scraggy, flea-bitten, half-starved, filthy brutes overrun the city to the destruction of hundreds of dollars worth of property annually, the quicker the Council resign and allow everything to go pell mell to the devil, the better. What redress do persons have whose gardens are destroyed by hogs? What redress do they have for clothes dragged from lines and fences, and torn? What redress do they have for fences and houses bedaubed with mire and filth by hogs fresh from filthy pools? What compensation for large holes rooted up all along your fence for the precious brutes to wallow in? What compensation for innumerable [illegible] cursings and swearings in order to clear your premises of the long-snouted pests? None whatever. The people have had enough of late, and curses against this outrage, long and deep have become loud and angry.

Many ladies, particularly mothers nursing, complain of a tired, listless feeling, or complete exhaustion on arising in the morning. The effects of this potent agent are soon seen in the rosy cheek and elastic step of the head of the family, as with restored health and renewed spirits she takes her accustomed place in the family circle. If this remedy is used be regularly used, those depressing symptoms will never be complained of, and not only would laassitude not be experienced, but many diseases following its advent be avoided. As a medical agent it has no equal, while its pleasing flavor and healthful influence have made it a general favorite. It is free from all properties calculated to impair the system, and its operations are at once mild, soothing and efficient. All who have used the Bitters attest its virtues and commend it to use. july

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing, also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful regulator in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist, there is scarcely an individual upon the face of the earth, whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No System of Medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.
