HYMENEAL.

Brilliant Wedding Festivities in Holt County.

Marriage of Mr. John Blum to Miss Julia A. Meyer.

The Guests, Presents, etc.

On last Thursday was celebrated one of the most brilliant weddings ever known in Holt county. The day was beautiful as if it had been ordered direct from Paradise. The ceremony as was announced, was performed at one o'clock in the afternoon; but long before that hour could have been seen numerous guests pouring in from all parts of the country, by carriage, wagon, etc., until the splendid country residence of George Meyer was filled and many disposed of themselves under shady trees in the lawn. Everything was life and gayety and every person full of expectation. A few moments before one o'clock the great organ in the parlor, presided over by Miss Ida Klippel, pealed forth the Wedding March and as the last sounds died away, came Mr. Fink attending Miss Julia Pierce, Jacob Meyer, brother of the bride, and Miss Minnie Feigenbaum as attendants. These repaired to their places in front of the house on the beautiful lawn where a place had been prepared for the marriage ceremony. Last came the bride and groom.

And now while the ceremony is being performed, let us take a glance at the most interested in this performance. The bride is a tall stately looking woman, brown hair and eyes, pretty features, and engaging manners. She is dressed as near as we can judge, in Ashes of Roses Silk, made in the latest fashion. Cameo Jewelry, Long Tulle veil and white kid gloves, wearing a beautiful wreath of orange blossoms in her hand she has splendid boquet of natural flowers—a present from Mr F. King of St Joseph. The groom is a young man probably twenty-three years old, good-looking, interesting manners; is dressed in the latest style.

But by this time the ceremony is performed and Mr. and Mrs. Blum are receiving the congratulations of their numerous friends.

Soon after, dinner was announced. Now to describe this dinner would be like undertaking to describe the Centennial Exhibition in a single letter. It was a thing that to be appreciated must have been seen and eaten, but to give some idea of it, we would say that of meats, there had been prepared one quarter of beaf, two hams boiled, eight turkeys had given up their lives and chickens—as the boy said until you "couldn't rest," one bushel of delicious oranges had been converted into something mighty nice, but which the reporter does not know the name of. Twenty-seven large cakes and pies to fill out. The bride's cake was a most beautiful thing ordered from E. Holthous, St Joseph; it was nearly four feet high, having on the top a diminutive figure of a bride and groom. There were six varieties of cakes: one called the Meyer cake, without decoration of any kind, and let us remark here that nothing could have been a more fitting to represent the Meyer brothers. No particular show without but good sound sense within. To give an idea of the numbers fed it is only necessary to say that the tables accomodated thirty at a time and with all this dinner lasted more than three hours.

After dinner the guests disposed their time as best pleased them. Some engaged in games of croquet etc: others strolled through the beautiful groves and orchards. Toward evening a bountiful supply of excellent ice cream was served. After this many of the guests started for their homes. Many of the young people staid however, and the evening was pleasantly passed. Songs, walks and games were engaged in, until a late hour. The evening was closed by a serenade from persons present.

Many and costly presents were made, of which we now give a list:

George Meyer, father of the bride, $1000; An elegant set of jewelry by bridegroom; $60 clock by W Fink, Gus Gangner, Henry Kunz and Fred C Krumme; White China Decorated Chamber Set, 11 pieces, by J S Meyer; Silver-plated cake stand, by Allie Meyer; Dinner Caster, by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blum Jr.; Pickle Caster, by Anna Fiegenbaum, Minnie Fiegenbaum and Carrie Riemenschneider; Single Pickle Caster, by Dr Callen and lady; Silver breakfast bell and teaspoon holder by Thomas Curry, Chas Zook, Wm Broadbeck and Geo Schatz; Silver Syrup Pitcher by Mr and Mrs J Ross; Silver Syrup Pitcher by Emma Curry, Martha Snider and Florence Snider; Silver Napkin rings by P Meyer; Set Silver Table Spoons by Lon Meyer; Set Silver Teaspoons by Mrs Mary Bodkins; Set Silver Teaspoons by Mr Phil Eberhardt; Set Silver Teaspoons by Andrew Miller of St Louis: Silver Cream spoon by Ida and Ada Meyers; Silver Cream spoon by Maggie Meyers; Elegant China tea set by Mr and Mrs L Paulitte of White Cloud, Kan.; Pair of China Vases by John Freis; Crystal fruit dish by Chas Coursan; Large fruit dish by Julia and Emma Pierce; A lovely boquet by H Kunz and Wm Fink; Pair of preserves dishes, by Settie Fiegenbaum; Preserve dish, Mrs Gottlieb Meyer; Large Crystal Pitcher by Mr and Mrs Dan Kunkle; Set of elegant Crystal sauce plates and butter dishes by Mrs M Horsecker; Elegant set of Crystal sauce dishes Mrs Phil Eberhardt; A beautiful Walnut bracket by Mr and Mrs R Schlotzhauer; A Cromo by Fannie Meyer; Toilet set by Tillie Klippel; Toilet set by Chris Kunkel; Silver syrup pitcher by John Ross and lady; Infant's knife and fork and spoon by Dan and Sally Meyer; Crystal fruit dish by Julia and Minnie Fries; A bolt of embroidery by Mrs Fred Markt; A Counterpane by Mrs W B Davis; An elegant Marriage Certificate from John Beck and lady, Centre, Ohio; Elegant fly brush from Mrs John Meyer; Fly brush from Allie Patterson; A $5 bill from Mrs H Blum, Sr.

The Penetrating Winds

Incident to this season of the year are a severe ordeal for the lungs. The neglect of a hard cough generally leads to weakness of the lungs which, not infrequently, results in consumption.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup will at once relieve and loosen a tight cough and is such an agreeable remedy that children will take it without being coaxed. A cold on the lungs, if consumption is not already developed, may be easily mastered by the use of Pulmonic Syrup, together with Schenck's Mandrake Pills to clear the system of the accumulated mucus.

In most serious cases, where the disease has become deeply seated, and patient suffers from loss of appetite, weakness and emaciation, Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic should be used in connection with the above mentioned remedies, to stimulate the apetite and bring the digestive powers into healthy action, thereby sustaining the strength of the patient and enabling him to resist the progress of the disease until the Pulmonic Syrup may perform its healing and cleansing work.

The use of these standard remedies according to the directions which accompany them, cannot fail to produce most satisfactory results. A letter addressed to Dr. Schenck, cor. Sixth & Arch streets, Philadelphia, asking advice, will promptly receive the Doctor's personal attention, free of charge.

Schenck's Medicines are for sale by all Druggists.—March.
