Our Platform.

I. No centralization. No extension of the functions of the Federal Government.

II. Congress and the President to be deprived of all excessive and unauthorized powers assumed during and since the war, and to be brought back within the limits of the Constitution.

III. The States to control their own affairs, and especially their elections.

IV. Reform of the Civil Service.

V. Restoration of specie payments.

VI. Revenue reform—all internal taxes to be abolished; the tariff to be put on a revenue basis.

VII. Only one term for the President.

VIII. No re-election of Grant in 1876.

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY AND THE FEDERAL SUPREME COURT.

The ill-judged departure of the Democratic party, years ago, from established Democratic standards in relation to decisions of the Supreme Court, was exposed with great clearness and irresistible logic by ex-President Van Buren in a work published soon after his death, but written during Mr. Buchanan's Administration, when this borrowed heresy was still in fresh vogue. We refer to Mr. Van Buren's "History of Political Parties in the United States," a work abounding in just and sagacious views of Democratic principles and the structure of our Government. But no person conversant with the best Democratic literature needed Mr. Van Buren's testimony on this subject. No topic is more frequently dealt with in the writings of Jefferson, and on none did that chief apostle of Democracy declare his views with such clear discernment and constant impetuous warmth. We could easily fill columns with various quotations from his correspondence on this subject, in which he was never weary of contesting and scorning the pretentions of the Supreme Court to be the ultimate interpreter of the Constitution for all branches of the Government. One or two brief extracts may serve as specimens:

It has long been my opinion, and I have never shrunk from its expression, that the germ of dissolution of our Federal Government is the constitution of the Federal judiciary. An irresponsible body, working like gravity by night and by day, gaining a little ground and a little ground, and advancing its noiseless step, like a thief, over the field of jurisdiction, until it shall be usurped from the States, and the government of all be consolidated into one.

Again:

I cannot lay down my pen [illegible] one of the subjects of my [illegible] about recurring to truth there be no danger [illegible] former letter, for in the consolidation [illegible] I apprehend so much as noiseless, and [illegible] our Government by the tality of the [illegible] efore unalarming instrument.

And [illegible] Supreme Court.

Again:

My construction of the Constitution is very different from that you quote. If this opinion be founded, then indeed is our Constitution a complete felo de se. For intending to establish three departments, coordinate and independent, that they might check and balance one another, it has given, according to this opinion, to one of these not the right to prescribe rules for the government of others, and to that one, too, which is unelected and independent of the nation.

And still again:

The judges, believing the law [the Alien and Sedition act] constitutional, had a right to pass a sentence of fine and imprisonment, because that power was placed in their hands by the Constitution. But the Executive, believing the law to be unconstitutional, were bound to remit the execution of it, because that power had been confided to them by the Constitution.

These extracts will suffice to prove how settled and earnest was Mr. Jefferson's opinion on this subject. His view was repeated with great emphasis by General Jackson in his celebrated message vetoing the United States Bank. A very brief quotation will show how strenuous and decided was his position:

The opinion of the judges has no more authority over Congress than the opinion of Congress over the judges; and on that point the President is independent of both. The authority of the Supreme Court must not, therefore, be permitted to control Congress or the Executive when acting in their legislative capacities, but to have only such influence as the force of their reasoning may deserve.

This is one of the subjects on which the Democratic party must re-establish itself on its former landmarks and fight for every inch of the old ground, if it expects to preserve the Constitution and successfully resist the centralizing tendencies which are at present so active and usurping. Consolidation doctrines are intrenched in what will presently be a unanimous Republican Supreme Court. It will require a whole generation to dislodge them from that fortress. We must therefore see to it that the irremediable consolidationist judiciary does not encroach upon the other departments of the Government. True, they are all in harmony at present; but that harmony may be broken by the next Presidential election, and meanwhile Democrats must give no sanction or countenance to the unwarranted pretensions of that tribunal.

The President, in response to Chicago office seekers, on Tuesday, stated that no office holder would be removed except for inefficiency or malfeasance in office, and that in all cases of vacancy arising from any cause the position would be filled by the next in rank, if qualified, and up to the requirements of the civil service regulations.—Union, 28th.

That rule might possibly save some of the Grant editors who now hold postmasterships from the ranks of the unemployed, if it were not for the fact that the President's subordinates are the men who make the lists of recommendations. As it is, the rule will be a dead letter, and the President will be compelled to appoint the men who have secured the indorsement of the Grant editors, or else incur the wrath of those editors. The President, in response to Chicago office seekers, on Tuesday, stated that no office holder would be removed except for inefficiency or malfeasance in office, and that in all cases of vacancy arising from any cause the position would be filled by the next in rank, if qualified, and up to the requirements of the civil service regulations.—Union, 28th.

That rule might possibly save some of the Grant editors who now hold postmaster's commissions simply as a reward for party subserviency, but who carry on the office through other hands and pocket the profits. It is more probable, however, that the President simply said that he would enforce the rule of the Civil Service Commission, which is as follows:

When a vacancy occurs in the office of Postmaster of cities having, according to the Census of 1870, a population of twenty thousand or more, the Postmaster General shall ascertain if any of the subordinates of such office are suitable persons qualified to discharge efficiently the duties of Postmaster, and, if such one be found, he shall certify to the President the name or names of those subordinates, not exceeding three in number, who, in his judgment, are best qualified for the position, from which list the President will make the nomination to fill the vacancy. But if no subordinate be found so qualified, or if the nomination be not confirmed by the Senate, the nomination will be made at the discretion of the President.

Rock Island and Geneseo don't come under the above rule, because of lack of population—though the assistant postmaster here, Mr. McKown, would, no doubt, be found fully qualified. But he is not a politician, and, of course, won't be considered. The shoe pinches in another quarter, viz:

It is rather privately talked about, in this city, that Mr. Hawley promised to remove the editor of the Union (Capt. Haverstick) from the office of postmaster in this city, and appoint Mr. S. P. Hodges, late circuit clerk, in his place. Also that he promised to remove the editor of the Republican (Mr. Hobbs) from the office of postmaster at Geneseo, and appoint Mr. Caleb Fisher, a one-armed soldier, in his place. We have been told that, before the election, certain prominent political friends of Mr. Hawley, in this city and in Geneseo, gave him distinctly to understand that they would do their level best to defeat him for Congress unless he would make these changes; and that Mr. Hawley begged of them to wait till after election, when he would remove both of them and make the appointments suggested—or do it early this winter anyway. How much truth there may be in the story we are unable to say—but this is the story which reached our ears, from more than one quarter, previous to the election. But Mr. Hawley has secured two years more in Congress, and he may go back on his pledges. There is nothing in the Civil Service Rules to prevent him from carrying out his promises, however, if he is disposed to do so.

A New York Court, in the case of the widow of Avery D. Putnam against the Seventh Avenue Railroad Company, decides that the conductor and driver of the car were bound to protect her husband against being killed by Foster. In other words, every common carrier of passengers is bound to protect one passenger against all such assaults by another passenger as it is in the power of the employees of the carrier present at the time to prevent. The principle applies equally to railroad companies, steamers, sailing vessels, stages, and all other carriers of passengers. In the case of Putnam, the murder was committed by the use of a carhook, which Foster took from the front platform. Had the conductor and driver promptly interfered, the murder would have been prevented. This fact was established on the trial of Foster for the murder, and, in the widow's suit against the Railroad Company, the jury rendered a verdict, without hesitation, for the five thousand dollars damages claimed. Railroad officers everywhere will hereafter understand that among the other qualifications required by their employes is the prompt and manly courage which will cause them to protect all passengers against insult, as well as violence, from their brutal or intoxicated fellow-passengers.

In the case of Rafferty, the Supreme Court of Illinois unanimously agreed that the Court below erred in not granting a change of venue. The opinion of the Court is published, and in it the Court state that, previous to the year 1861, the statute was peremptory that upon application by a prisoner for a change of venue, it should be granted. In 1861, the Legislature, by way of correcting the abuse which had grown up under this law, undertook to confer upon the Court to whom the application was made the "power to grant or deny the same." By an express exception, this amendatory law was not made applicable to cases where the prisoner was charged with a capital crime, thus leaving to a person charged with murder the privilege of a change of venue as a matter of right. The Supreme Court could do no less than reverse the decision below,—and yet the Chicago Journal denounced the Supreme Court as corrupt and said they could be bought for $1,400, and charged Judge Lawrence with being a tyrant, and everything else bad. Fair, proper and just criticism is all right, but the reckless and intemperate course of the Journal was properly rebuked.

The Board of Supervisors, of Henry county, at its late session, fixed the salaries of their county officers, as follows:

County Judge	$1,500
County Treasurer	2,000
Circuit Clerk	2,000
Sheriff	1,800
Total for these four officials	$7,300

Our Board of Supervisors neglected to fix salaries, and in such a case the law provides that the officers shall receive the fees of their offices, as usual. The authority to fix salaries is given to the Board of Supervisors, but they have not the power to reduce the salary of any officer during the term for which said officer was elected. The officers elected last fall will therefore be entitled to the fees of their offices during the terms for which they were elected. Had the salaries been fixed, all the fees, above the salaries, would go into the county treasury.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

"FOR WAYS THAT ARE DARK AND PATHS THAT ARE VAIN," it is said that the "heathen Chinee" is peculiar. This is doubtless true. But these features are also apparent within the ranks of the American people. We would suggest to those unfortunate persons who have been in the "ways that are dark, or who have injudiciously practiced "tricks that are vain," that there is help for them. Dr. E. J. Reynolds, of Rochester, the great friend to erring humanity, is the person to furnish the proper and speedy relief and cure. The advertisement of Dr. Reynolds will be found in this paper, and from his great success in the branches of the profession to which he has devoted so many years of his life, he is very generally confided in.

Testimonial for Epilepsy?

FOXWATTON, CONN., Feb. 2, 1872.

DR. O. PHELPS BROWN, No. 21 Grand St., Jersey City, N. J.

Dear Sir:—My brother, who is now in his 14th year, has been subject to Epilepsy or fits from childhood. The spasms would invariably occur during the night, and our local physicians here could do nothing to help him save prescribing Bromide of Potassium, which would afford only a temporary relief. He was gradually but surely becoming insane, and in this condition we procured your restorative stimulant, dermal ointment and pills, and used as directed, and but a short time elapsed before the spasms entirely ceased, his intellect grew brighter, and in short, was entirely restored to perfect health. You may use this testimonial as you may deem proper, for what I have said are facts.

Respectfully yours,

6-9d3w CHARLES RAYMOND.

Avoid Consumption.

No enemy to the human race is more to be dreaded and is more insidious in its approaches than the too fatal destroyer of health and happiness of myriads—"Consumption in its ghastly form." The duty of all is to guard against its first advances. This may be done by the timely use of Dr. Tutt's Expectorant.

BOSTON, February 9, 1870.

W. H. Tutt,

Dear Sir—Will you please inform me at what drug'st, in New York, I can get your Expectorant, as I can use some of it to advantage, having seen the effect of it in a friend of mine? I am fully satisfied that it has but to be tried to establish its merits. It works like magic. What is your wholesale price, delivered in New York? Let me know where it can be had for the present in New York, and I will communicate further with you at another time. Very truly yours,

LADIES TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

The Real Velpau Female Pills. Warranted French.

These Pills, so celebrated many years ago in Paris, for the relief of female irregularities, and afterwards of their criminal employment in the procuring of abortion, are now offered for sale for the first time in America. They have been kept in comparative obscurity from the fact that the originator, Dr. Velpau, is a physician in Paris, of great wealth, and has strict conscientious principles, and has withheld them from general use, lest they should be employed for unlawful purposes.

In overcoming Female Obstructions, Falling of the Womb, Whites, Green Sickness, Suppression, Retention, or Immoderate Flow of the Monthly Discharge, Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pains in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics, &c., and will affect a cure when all other means have failed; and although a powerful remedy, do not contain calomel, antimony, or anything hurtful to the constitution.

To married ladies and young girls who have never been regulated, they are peculiarly suited. They will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

CAUTION—Married ladies should never take them when there is any reason to believe themselves pregnant, for they will be sure to produce miscarriage.

Full can procure a box sealed from the eyes of the curious, by enclosing one dollar and six postage stamps to M. W. MACOMBER, General Agent for United States and Canada, at Albany, N. Y., or any authorized agent.

P. S.—Consultation by mail on all diseases of a Private Nature in both sexes, and will supply Infallible Remedies securely packed from observation. Further information forwarded on receipt of two stamps for return postage. Address as above.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup

Sea Weed Tonic,

AND

Mandrake Pills

Will Cure

CONSUMPTION

Liver Complaint,

AND DYSPEPSIA,

IF TAKEN ACCORDING TO DIRECTIONS.

They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens in the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of Pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest, and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved, the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop the chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck in his treatment does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has Consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abscesses, bronchial irritations, pleura adhesion exist, or the lungs are a mass of inflamation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now, the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease, and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all bilious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless, and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used his preparations with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined.

Dr. Schenck and his son, J. H. Schenck, Jr., M. D., are professionally at their store, Northeast corner of Sixth and Arch streets, Philadelphia, every Saturday. All advice given free of charge, but for a thorough examination by the Respirometer the price is $5. This instrument will detect the slightest movement of the respiratory organs; by it can be readily determined whether the disease is tubercular, bronchial, or only a sympathetic affection of the bronchial tubes, which is often mistaken for Pulmonary Consumption, but which is caused by a torpid liver.

Cathartic Extract.

Is a fluid extract prepared from valuable medical plants, having a known action on the secretions and excretions of the system. A single bottle does more for the removal of disease and preservation of health, than gallons of bitters. It speedily and surely removes constipation, sick and bilious headache, indigestion, piles, impurities of the blood, and all bilious complaints.

It is endorsed by the profession, and approved by all who use it. No better medicine can be found for children and adults. It is far superior to pills, being mild of action, pleasant to the taste and certain in its results. It is a medicine that should be in every household, as good effects are sure to be experienced from the very first dose. Let every fever and ague subject give this a trial.

INDIAN LINIMENT.

THE GREAT RHEUMATIC REMEDY.

THIS MEDICINE ALTHOUGH CALLED A LINIMENT, is the best internal remedy ever offered to the public, for it is daily effecting cures after all the popular medicines of the day have failed to give relief; the reason for this is obvious. It contains medicinal virtues which no other medicine possesses, being compounded from fifteen distinct substances, some of which contain the most highly nutritious and healing properties known in combination with other medical virtues which neutralize all morbid or poisonous secretions and eradicate them from the system. It supplies food for the blood, elasticity and strength to the muscles, gives tone and vigor to the nervous system; in short, as an internal and external remedy, it has no equal, and contains no mineral substance. It is a safe and speedy cure for the following complaints: Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Diptheria or Ulcerated Sore Throat, Dysentary, Diarrhœa, Erysipelas Salt Rheum, Canker in the Mouth or Stomach, Poison, Piles, Kidney Complaint, Cramp, Scalds and Burns, Headache, Earache, Toothache, Chilblains, Chapped Hands, &c. CONDITION POWDERS.

NORRIS'

Celebrated Improved

CONDITION POWDERS,

For Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Hogs and Fowls.

The cheapest and only safe, certain and reliable Medicine for some of the diseases peculiar to all of these animals.

For Horses and Cattle—They are a Sovereign remedy for Loss of Appetite, Hide-bound, Distempers, Rheumatism, Inward Strains, Fevers, Founders, &c., &c. And a sure cure for Coughs and Colds, which is the foundation of the more fatal diseases. These Powders are so compounded, and of such ingredients, that all of their valuable qualities blend in harmonious union, which readily enter into the elements of the blood and juices and are thereby made to penetrate every part of the system, thus assisting nature in allaying fevers and inflammations, breaking up colds, stopping coughs, removing unhealthy obstructions, loosening the skin, opening its pores, causing it hair to lie smooth, and giving it a glossy, soft appearance, purifying the blood, giving tone to the stomach and digestive organs, and imparting new life, vigor and strength to the animal. A few doses of these Powders will produce a wonderful effect upon these animals.

For Sheep, they are a perfect remedy for Distempers, Foot Rot, want of Appetite, Wool Dropping, Scurvy, &c., and by feeding once a week free, will prevent all the above diseases.

For Hogs, they will keep in better condition, Fatten Quicker, and on less food. Half a Package should be mixed in every barrel of swill. These Powders have never been known to fail to cure that fatal disease known as Hog Cholera.

Printers' Inking Rollers

30 Hawley St., Boston.

Our IMPROVED COMPOSITION, to which we would call your attention, has been in extensive use throughout the New England States, for the past three years, where it has an established reputation. It is made from the best materials, and by such processes as insure an excellent and uniform article. It is manufactured in three distinct grades, the same in quality but differing in firmness, thus adapting it to any season, office or press. We are prepared to furnish it in bulk, or in caddies of ten or fifteen pounds, at Twenty Cents Per Pound.

Rollers made from it are easily cared for; can be washed with the materials in common use; will carry ink in any weather; and are ready for use at any moment. They do not crack or lose their suction, and are exceedingly durable. These good qualities, and its low price, warrant us in claiming that it is the Best and Cheapest Composition

in the market, and that it will give more general satisfaction than any other.

OF OUR OWN DISTILLATION, is the ONLY brand made in this country by the Holland process. It is genuine Geneva, at half the price. Surely meritorious in quality. Put up in barrels, Holland quarter pipes, and in cases. Each bottle has our initials thereon, and each barrel or cask revenue stamp with our full name.

Take no other—they are mere imitations.

Melnotte'S Transcription

—OF—

"Nobody's Child,"

AND

"Golden Spray,"

By Drumheller, are the most brilliant and popular Piano pieces extant.

"Shut the Door Softly, for Mother is Asleep," a most exquisite, pathetic ballad.

"Knowest thou the Fair Land," from Mignon. "No Letter for Me," song and duett, and "Good Bye—Bye Darling."

Are the latest vocal gems from BAUMER & WEBER'S Press. They are all good.

Watch Buyers Attention!

The undersigned respectfully call attention of persons contemplating the purchase of watches to the superiority of the celebrated Nickle Movements, manufactured by Messrs. BOKEL & COURVOISIER, of Neuchatel, Genève and Ladies' size, Key and Stem Winders—quarter plate.

These watches have Equilibrium escapements, chronometer balances, exposed ruby pallets, Breguet hair springs, and full ruby jewelled, and combine all modern improvements in watch making.

These watches were awarded the Grand Prize at the Paris Exposition of 1867, for the best performance and greatest accuracy in adjustment, and can be warranted to perform with the same degree of regularity as those made by the best manufacturers of Europe and America.

A full assortment constantly on hand for sale by QUINCHET & KUNTZER, 15 Maiden Lane, (opposite) New York. Only wholesale agents for the manufacturers. 6-1dly

Registered in the Patent Office.

AN INFALLIBLE SPECIFIC FOR DISEASES OF the LIVER, BLOOD, KIDNEYS and BOWELS, and great corrective of all female derangements. It contains no alcoholic spirits, and is the vegetable substitute for calomel.

Read This:

A COMPLIMENTARY TESTIMONIAL TO MESSRS. J. & C. MAGUIRE, St. Louis, Mo. Gentlemen:—The undersigned, having known you for many years as reliable chemists and Pharmaceutists and observing the effective action of your remedies for whatever recommended, wish to bear voluntary evidence to the efficacy of your first, and, in our opinion, best preparation, "MAGUIRE'S CUNDURANGO BITTERS." It is all that you claim for it as an alterative, purgative, depurator and diuretic, acting specially upon the liver, blood, kidneys and bowels.

JOSEPH BROWN, Mayor, who adds: "I have found this the most pleasant and effective medicine I have ever used."

MILES SELLS, State Insurance Commissioner, who adds: "I endorse the Mayor's opinion."
