MONROE, La., April 10, 1886.

The following named members of the Committee appointed, by Stonewall Lodge No. 8, K. of P., are requested to meet at Castle Hall of said Lodge, Monday night the 12th inst., at 8 o'clock sharp.

In justice to Mr. R. S. Atcheraft we print his postal to the cheif of police it reads as follows:

OUACHITA, CITY, April 3, 1886.

Mr. Endom, Monroe:

Sir—John M. Lee at Farmerville, was robbed of $2,000 last Sunday and it is thought that two tramps did the work. One of them has a very large mustache, rather tall and the other is low and chunkey. If you hear anything of them please let Mr. Pleasant know at Farmerville.

WEST MONROE DOTS.

[FROM OUR REGULAR REPORTER.]

The D. Stein arrived yesterday evening with a good trip.

Mr. W. S. B, Mitchner, was in town yesterday.

Dr. T. O. Brewer, and H. W Bussy of Monroe were in town yesterday.

Mr. B. Mirick of Richland parish was a visitor to our little burg yesterday.

It is utterly impossible for a man to entertain Jno. Barleycorn and attend to business at the same time.

There seams to be an epidemic raging in our little town and our young friend E. W. Wheatley has fallen a victim to the scourge and will leave for Texas, on or about the 10th, of next month and after procuring the necessary papers will on the 17th, of May sequestrate one of the fair daughters of the Lone Star State, and under which legal writ two loving hearts will be made forever to beat as one.

We had the pleasure of attending the third ward convention in Monroe on last Thursday night which met for the purpose of nominating councilmen for said ward and we must admit that the proceedings were disgusting as well as amusing but after considerable wangling and the use of many harsh words and bad names the convention settled down to work.

There are a great many men in this little world who always talk cheese, but who live chalk.
