J. S. Bloch is agent for the Celebrated Louisiana Bottle Beer.

There will be preaching at the Presbyterian church to-morrow 13th. All are respectfully invited to attend.

The Celebrated Louisiana Bottle Beer is kept by all dealers.
J. S. BLOCH, Agent.

Uncle "Jupiter" Haynes, for a number of years employed in the carriage factory of Hon. Fr. Endom, died Thursday night and was burried yesterday evening.

Mr. T. T. Bell had the misfortune to get one of his legs broken at the railroad shops one day last week. He is rapidly recovering however and will soon be out again.

Amos Smith, colored, dropped dead near the post-office last Monday. He was seen to pass into Dr. Calderwood's premisses a few minutes before in apparently goodhealth. As he was returning he was taken with a fit of coughing, a hemorrage came on and he fell and expired before any one could reach him.

Henry Taylor, a colored laborer on Mr. J. M. Breard's place, while plowing in the field last Monday plowed up a gold watch. It had been under ground some time but was in a good state of preservation. It is worth about $50.00. The owner can obtain same by calling upon Mr. J. M. Breard and proving property.

A teacher's institute will be held in this city at the United States Court building commencing Monday, 14th instant and continuing until the 19th instant inclusive. The public, and all teachers especially, are invited to attend. Their salaries will not be stopped while in attendance. The exercises promises to be very interesting.

The military entertainment at the Opera House last Tuesday night was quite an interesting affair and was witnessed by a large and delighted audience. The programme was opened by an individual competitive drill of the Les Raine Brigade for a handsome gold medal. Judge T. A. Garrett and Dr. Sam S. Richardson were chosen judges and Capt. Witherspoon of the Pelicans commanded. The Brigade was put through all the different evolutions of the march and they acquitted themselves beautifully. The medal was awarded to Miss Minnie Steinau and was presented by W. F. Millsaps, Esq., in true Ciceroian style. The Pelicans were then put trough the manual and march by Capt. Witherspoon. They did quite well but were routed horse foot and dragoon by the Les Raine Brigade. This fact, however, was an illustration of the true chrivalric and gallant spirit that swells the breast of the Pelicans. After the drill thedevotees of Terpsichore were indulged to their heart's content and refreshments cake, cream and strawberries were served. The entertainment netted about $45.00.

All dealers should keep the want of the people. So handle the Louisiana Bottle Beer. J. S. BLOCH, Agent.

"I have used Dr. Simmons Liver Regulator and always found it to do what is claimed for it. The last bottle and two packages did me no good and worse than nothing. I see it is not put up by J. A. Zeilin & Co., and not genuine, and a waste of money to buy it. I would be glad to get the genuine. Send me some from honest hands (with red Z and Zeilin & Co's signature on wrapper). The fictitious stuff sold will injure some badly.

The Mirror of Ireland.

The Sullivan Exhibition at Temperance Hall was witnessed last night by a much larger assembly than on the opening night, and was heartily enjoyed from first to last. The panoramic views of the most noted lacalities and romatic landscape scenes in Ireland are finely executed, the perspective perfect and the paintings true to nature.

After viewing the Giant's Causeway, Vale of Avoca, Sligo Abbey, Blarney Castles, scenes on the silver Shaunon's banks and making a boat tour of the lakes of Killarney, the spectator has learned more of the enchanting rural scenery than he could gather in an extended tour through the country, and ceases to wonder at the love her sons and daughters bear for their native Isle, the lovely shores of which would inspire a spirit of romance and poetry even in the most unsusceptible of natures.—Mobile Register.
