BUTTER—

Fresh Gilt Edge Goshen Butter on ice at

June 6-4t. H. Scott's.

—In the northern portion of the county they had a little rain the week—enough to bring up the corn crop—but in our region it is still dry and dusty.

SPORTSMEN—

Buy your Fishing Tackle, Powder and Shot from

JNO. A. PEALE & CO.

—We saw a couple of gentlemen from the Auburn neighborhood Thursday. They report the cotton crop as very good and no worms yet heard from in their portion of the vineyard.

Buy your Lumber of Morgan & Platt at City Saw Mills, from $12 to $18 per thousand.

—Jo. Cassino left on the Helena for New York, to dispose of his combination safe-lock, for which he has just received a patent. Jo. has great confidence in his invention, and we hope he will sell his right for a round pile.

The Tapering Off Punch

Just the thing for warm weather At

SUMMERFIELD'S.

—This city is now flooded with fifty cent counterfeit bills, and some of our merchants believe that some enterprising brother is amongst us to dispose of this sort of currency.

Buy your Lumber of Morgan & Platt at City Saw Mills, from $12 to $18 per thousand.

—Professor E. P. McDowell has gone on his usual summer scoot to the North. He will spend the season, this time, amongst the people of New Jersey, where he can quaff the elder from the tub.

CANVASSED HAMS—

The best brand of canvassed sugar cured hams and breakfast bacon in now-a-days, are the Whittaker & Sons, you can find plenty of them at H. Scott's, cheap for cash.

Lumber! Lumber!! Lumber!!!

For sale by Morgan & Platt. from $12 to $18 per thousand feet.

Sale of Unopened Packages.

The public sale of unclaimed packages by express companies, which are unopened, has been decided by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania to be a fraud upon the rights of the owner, and the company is liable for the value of the goods. In delivering the opinion of the court, Judge Mercer said:

"The first and second sections of the act of 14th December, 1863, Pur. Dig. 220, pp. 6 and 7, under which the plaintiff in error proposed to sell the property, authorized the company to 'expose' it to sale at public auction. The meaning of 'expose' in this statute obviously is 'to exhibit,' 'to bring into view,' 'to display,' to point out or show to the bystanders.' Selling the trunks with the goods locked up in them, and describing the contents as unknown, withholds from the bidders all knowledge of the character or value of the contents, and clearly was not within the meaning of the law which directs the manner of sale."

Lumber! Lumber!! Lumber!!!

For sale by Morgan & Platt, from $12 to $18 per thousand feet.

Bill Marshall accepts the situation. Although he had the timber prepared for building a sixty-foot addition to his popular family grocery storehouse on Washington avenue, he bows to the edicts of the council like a little man, and will put a back building instead.

RAILROAD DECISION.—Chancellor Bailey rendered his decision on the injunction prayed for in the case of "Hawkins et. al. vs. The Board of Supervisors of Carroll County, et. al.," to prevent the issuance of county bonds to the Greenville, Columbus & Birmingham Railroad. He has dissolved the injunction and sustained every point made in favor of the railroad. This will be good news to the friends of the road, and give a fresh impetus to the work.—[Carrollton Conservative.

Burning of the Pat Rogers.

The telegraph operator at Aurora, Indiana, reports that the steamer Pat Rogers was burned Wednesday, August 5, one mile below Aurora, and about twenty lives lost, the victims being principally ladies.

Cincinnati, August 5.—No south western or southeastern names in the list lost by the Pat Rogers. Both boat and cargo, the latter consisting of cattle, sheep and hogs, besides cotton, were a total loss. The passengers were registered, but the books were destroyed. The boat was valued at $60,000. The fire originated among the cotton bales in the hind part of the boat, about 6 o'clock. The boat was immediately turned to the shore, but became unmanageable. The pilot thinks that the tiller rope was cut, and that the fire was the act of an incendiary. The boat drifted onto a sandbar, and was grounded. The flames, instead of spreading along the lower deck, at once shot up to the cabin and pilot house, and then swept across the hurricane deck. The passengers were all aroused and boats lowered and many carried ashore, but others in their fright jumped into the water, and those not drowned reached a landing place after drifting a long time with the current. There were nearly one hundred people aboard, and what proportion were actually lost is not known.

Judge L. B. Valliant and family leave for Denver next week. He goes to spy out the land in view of making it his abiding place, if satisfied with the appearance of the country. But Mr. Valliant is making his visit at the wrong season to form a correct idea of the country. He ought to wait till the winter, when the snow is about three hundred feet deep on Denver's lofty hills, and icicles as big as men are hanging from the trees, and the North wind is roaring and howling in the wilderness. Then he could tell if Denver would suit the son of a Southern clime. Don't let them fool you with their layout now, Judge. They want good people in that country, and they'll dress their old gray hills with grass to make them resemble the fertile fields of the bright and beautiful South you have left behind you. But it is only a fraud, which the first breath of winter will expose.

Electoral.

Kentucky held its election last Monday, August the 3rd; and North Carolina last Thursday, August 6th.

Vicksburg Election.

We herewith publish the figures of the result of the Vicksburg municipal election:

| | White. | Colored. |
|---|---|---|
| First Ward | 320 | 295 |
| Second Ward | 853 | 371 |
| Third Ward | 506 | 363 |
| [illegible] | 314 | 317 |

[illegible] suppose that any small boat was ever looked for more anxiously in Greenville than that wretched old hulk, the Julia, yesterday evening; and, to show her appreciation of the desire to get Vicksburg papers, she carried our Vicksburg papers by.

Kentucky Election.

Cincinnati, August 5.—The Democrats carry Kentucky by fifty thousand majority.

Board of Supervisors.

This body has been in session during the entire week, engaged upon the Assessment Roll.

We will next week publish the proceedings and comment upon same.

The tax-payers of the county owe all gratitude to the members of the Board present, Captain Sims and his two colored coadjutors, Westly Fields and Tobias Baily, for their untiring and arduous labors upon the Assessment Roll.

Herd of Camels in Nevada.

On a ranch on the Carson river, eight miles below the mouth of Sixmile Canyon, and about seventeen miles east of the city, is to be seen a herd of twenty-six camels, all but two of which were born and raised in this State. But two of the old herd of nine or ten brought here some years ago are now living. It would seem that the original lot fell into the hands of Mexicans, who treated them very badly, overloading and abusing them. The men who now have them are Frenchmen, who had formerly some experience with camels in Europe. They find no difficulty in rearing them, and can now show twenty-four fine healthy animals, all of Washo growth. The camel may now be said to be thoroughly acclimated in this State. The owners of the herd find it no more difficult to breed and rear them than would be experienced by the same number of goats or donkeys. The ranch upon which they are kept is sandy and sterile in the extreme, yet the animals feast and grow fat on such prickly shrubs and bitter weeds as no other animal would touch. When left to themselves, their great delight, after filling themselves with the coarse herbage of the desert, is to lie and roll in the hot sand. They are used in packing salt to the mills on the river, from the marshes lying in the deserts, some sixty miles to the eastward. They have animals that easily pack 1,100 pounds.

The Coast Country.

A correspondent of the N. O. Times has been viewing the crops in the Coast Parishes; and pronounces that the cane will yield more abundantly this year, than any since the war; and the rice crops little.

Privilege Taxes.

Persons may consider that these taxes are called "privilege" because they are privileged to pay them or not; this at least appears to be the practice, as we are informed by the Sheriff, who desires to correct this error, and to remind merchants and all interested that they will find it cheaper in the long run to pay this tax than to be fined for not paying it.

—Chancellor Stafford, after a patient session of two weeks, will adjourn his court to-day. The Chancellor has conducted the business of this term with the impartial justice and correct rulings which have made him so popular with members of the bar who practice in his court.

Important to Medical Students.

The Trustees of the Louisville Medical College, (Louisville, Kentucky,) appreciating the impoverished condition of the whole country, have determined to grant a Beneficiary Scholarship to any young man, who, sufficiently educated to study medicine and of good character, is unable to pay for his education. To secure this valuable aid, application, with a full statement of the facts, should be made without delay to Dr. E. S. GAILLARD, Dean, Louisville, Kentucky.
