-Our friend Cunningham says Robe line needs a fire company.

-CHAS. Gorham, alias Edwards, a ne gro, for the murder of Hattie Refuge, was hanged in New Orleans on Friday.

-THE News of Harrisonburg, came to us last week much improved in appearance. It now has a suit of it's own. -GREAT preparations are being made at Dallas for the holding of the Texas State Pair which is to be held there on the 25th of October. -Georgia has her election for Governor and all State officials and full legislature to-day. There is no opposition to the Democratic State ticket. -THE workingmen of New York City have energetically gone to work to secure the election of Henry George as Mayor. The Central Labor Union has alone appropriated $5,000 for campaign purposes. Yes, but George will get left. -THE simon-pure democratic New Orleans Daily States has been enlarged to an second to no other journal in the Southand we wish it continued success. Long may its voice be heard in defense of the -THE Republicans of the Second District have nominated Andrew Here for Congress. One of our New Orleans contemporaries says he is a political apostate, therefore, he will stand no showing at being elected against the regular demoeratic nominee.

-THE Boston Record having said that weeds cover the grave of Father Ryan, the poet priest of the South, the States, of New Orleans says that paper is mistaken. ' It is the tears, and not the weeds, of the S uth, that cover the grave of the noble and religious patriot."

The feets ourselves. We fully appreciate higher the civilization, the more extensive the development - the more powerful will be the hand of capital.

We must infer that if labor needs just and salutary laws to surround and protect it, capital requires a far more stringent and positive protection, it bridging of the Mississippi at this being of all human things the most timid and the most careful.

Confidence which rests on order, reliability, morality and good government is the basis of capital; for the latter being the accumulated fruits of prosperous labor, protected by just laws, it feels the necessity of sheltering itself behind the same ægis to which it owes its existence; no other securities will satisfy it. Natural advantages of soil, of location or of wealth is nothing to capital, unless the strong arm of legislation is there to eight page paper. Its style and get up is protect it as well as the industries in fosters.

We have an example of it in the Spanish republics of this continent; they have every thing to attract capi tal and enterprise but their governments are faulty and thereby create no confidence.

How can it be otherwise? Can the ping with the blood of his victim, command the confidence of the peaccable accumulator of capital? Will the law breaker, displaying his nefarious prowess, calm affrighted labor and arrest its flight from his execrable presence?
