COMMERCE CHAMBER

BUSINESS TRANSACTED AT THE QUARTERLY MEETING.

Vacancies on the Board Filled—Inland Trade—How Complaints About Shipments Should be Made—Election of New Members—The Census.

A quarterly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was held at 6 o'clock yesterday evening, President John B. Purcell in the chair. The first business in order was the filling of two vacancies in the board, caused by the resignations of Mr. R. F. Williams and Colonel Henry C. Jones. On motion of Mr. E. G. Leigh, Jr., it was ordered that a committee of three be appointed to nominate to the Chamber suitable names to fill these vacancies. The chair appointed on the committee Messrs. E. G. Leigh, Jr., N. R. Savage and Anthony Bargamin, who retired, consulted, and reported that they recommended Messrs. R. L. Brown and Colonel Tazewell Ellett, and on motion of Mr. L. C. Younger, the secretary was authorized to cast the ballot of the Chamber for Mr. Brown and Colonel Ellett, which was done.

As chairman on the Committee on Outward Trade to succeed Mr. R. F. Williams, Colonel Purcell appointed Mr. A. D. Landerkin.

POSTAL TELEGRAPH SYSTEM.

Mr. P. F. Johnson, chairman of the Committee on Commerce, submitted a report in regard to the proposition to establish a limited postal telegraph system, endorsing the plan outlined by by Mr. Wanamaker. On motion of Mr. W. D. Chesterman, the report was passed by until the next meeting.

Mr. S. W. Travers, chairman of the Committee on Inland Trade, submitted the following report:

Your committee on inland trade begs leave to report that during the past month our committee has been enlarged and strengthened by the addition of the co-operative committee provided by the Chamber at the January meeting.

A full meeting of our committee was held a few weeks ago, and all matters referred to it by the Chamber discussed, and properly referred to the sub-committees on the various railroads; that is to say, our committee on inland trade is now provided with a sub-committee on the Richmond and Danville, another on the Chesapeake and Ohio, and another on the Atlantic Coast Line.

We are happy to report that our sub-committee are now industriously engaged with the matter already referred to them, and we are well organized for the work, and invite substantial complaints from our shippers—or any other work within the province of this committee that can advance the usefulness of the Chamber.

We beg to submit as a part of the report of the committee, the report of Mr. L. C. Younger, the chairman of the committee on the Richmond and Danville, marked "A." We also beg to submit as a part of the report of the committee, the report of Mr. R. A. Dunlop, secretary, regarding the reduction of collection charges of the Southern Express Company, marked "B."

We beg to impress upon all who have complaints of delay in transportation or overcharge in freight rates, to accompany their complaints with bills of lading, showing date of shipment and rate of freight, and also freight bills, or other evidence, showing time of arrival at destination, that can be used as vouchers to aid us and the railroad officials in properly locating the difficulty complained of. Complete and specific data is absolutely essential to success.

REPORT "A."

Mr. S. W. Travers, Chairman Committee on Inland Trade, city.—Your committee appointed to investigate complaints of delays in shipments of goods to Southwest Virginia via Richmond and Danville Railroad, beg to report that they made an engagement and discussed the matter fully with Mr. J. H. Drake, general freight agent of the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company. Mr. Drake stated to our committee that according to arrangements that his company had with the Norfolk and Western Railroad Company, there is no reason why freight should not reach any point in Southwest Virginia promptly.

He further stated that if the trade of Richmond experiences any trouble caused by delay in reaching this section when goods are shipped by his road, he would be glad if the party who had cause of complaint would give him date of shipment, so that he may locate when, where and how the delay was caused. He states that he can take no definite action, unless he has a specific charge or case and would suggest that parties who have complaints to make furnish him with the date of shipment and date of delivery, so that he may follow shipment and locate on which line of road the delay was caused.

Mr. Drake seemed to be very anxious to do anything in his power to avoid this trouble.

Your committee would suggest that parties who have cause of complaint give date of shipment, etc., as suggested by Mr. Drake.

REPORT "B."

S. W. Travers, Esq., Chairman Committee on Inland Trade: Mr. J. F. Gibson, of the Southern and Adams Express Company, and Mr. W. J. Croswell, superintendent of the Southern Express Company, called at the Chamber this morning in response to our communication with reference to charges on bills of lading attached to drafts deposited for collection through the express.

Mr. Croswell very pleasantly expressed his appreciation of our wants and a desire to meet them, and for this purpose offered on bills of lading attached to drafts of twenty dollars and under, to reduce the charge from one dollar to twenty-five cents, and that this charge might be prepaid, or might follow for collection with the draft from the drawee. Also, for a return of the proceeds of draft of twenty dollars and under the charge would be twenty-five cents.

This proposition he made for trial on the part of merchants and manufacturers in the territory covered by the southern company, and said that if there was any friction in this arrangement he would be glad to have the benefit of our experience, and to meet our further wishes as far as possible.

In regard to any territory which is to be reached by the Adams Express Company he referred us to Mr. Gibson, but as that company's territory was not referred to in our communication, no charge in rates has as yet been made.

Kindly let me know your wishes in the matter.

The report was adopted and Colonel Purcell said: "I congratulate the committee on the success of their labors and the satisfactory report they have made, and I have no doubt that the plan they have adopted of appointing sub-committees will prove very useful indeed."

The president stated that he had appointed Mr. J. H. Whitty in place of Dr. Jones as a member of the Committee on Information and Statistics.

The special committee appointed to report upon the proposed visit of the Massachusetts Press Association submitted a report which said: After conference with representatives of the local press, we agreed with them that the visiting journalists could best be entertained by having the city press take charge of them on the first day and the Chamber take charge of them on the second day. We have, therefore, subject to your approval, agreed upon a programme which will be of great interest to the New Englanders, and, we doubt not, will prove of much benefit to the people of Richmond. On motion of Mr. Younger the report was adopted and the necessary expenditures authorized to be made.

NEW MEMBERS.

The following new members were proposed and unanimously elected: Messrs. Carlton McCarthy, secretary and treasurer of the Old Dominion Building and Loan Association; D. O'Sullivan, Edward Ingle, managing editor of THE TIMES; David Ainslie, F. P. Burke.

A communication from William Lane Booker, present British Consul-General at Jamaica, was laid before the Chamber, calling attention to the National Exposition in the island of Jamaica in January, 1891, and giving information with regard to how space may be obtained for exhibits. The letter was referred to the committee on business enterprises.

THE CENSUS.

A communication was read from George Wilson, Esq., secretary of the New York Chamber of Commerce, enclosing resolutions, adopted by that body, with reference to the H. R. bill, 6,429, now before the United States Senate, entitled "an act to amend an act to provide for taking the eleventh and subsequent censuses," which was referred to the committee on information and statistics.

The president laid before the Chamber a letter from General John R. Cooke, expressing his regret that owing to many other engagements, which will last till June 1st, he will not be able to give to the duties of director the attention that he would like, and therefore asked to be excused until the date mentioned.

THEY WILL BE WELCOME.

Adopted Sons of Virginia Will Entertain Marylanders.

Much enthusiasm was manifested last night at the second meeting, in the Chamber of Commerce, of Marylanders who have adopted Richmond as their home, and who are determined to show those Marylanders who shall come here when the Lee monument is unveiled how Maryland raising is adapted to Virginia hospitality.

A report of the executive committee appointed at the last meeting was adopted. It suggested that a military ball be given in honor of visiting Marylanders and other organizations on the night of May 29th, and the committee was increased to ten members. At the ball, to which a limited number of tickets will be sold, each admitting a lady and gentleman, the invited guests will be the line and staff officers of the visiting militia, not only of Maryland, but of other States, the Governors of the States and the members of their staffs, and the Confederate veterans from Maryland.

The Maryland born ladies of Richmond will be asked to co-operate with their Richmond friends in making the ball a great success, as it will no doubt be, just as soon as the ladies who are the best managers in the world of such an affair undertake to attend to the primary details. They will be asked to meet the committee at the Westmoreland Club on the afternoon of Saturday April 19, and the little talk, which will then be had, will satisfy everybody of the success of the ball.

Provision will also be made for the comfort of visiting Maryland ladies during the great parade, and stands for their accommodation will be erected at the new residence of Dr. J. A. White, at the corner of Franklin and Second streets, a most desirable situation in every respect. It is probable that a Maryland arch will span Franklin street at this point.

The Marylanders are determined to do their level best upon this occasion as they did when the cornerstone was laid; and those who had experience with them then are confident of the ball and general arrangements being carried out to the satisfaction of everybody, and to the honor and glory of the old Commonwealth.

NOTES ABOUT TOWN.

Local Happenings That Require Little Space to Relate.

It will be remembered that some time since Mr. Edward Y. Cannon obtained an injunction to restrain the Masonic Temple Association from putting in a coal-bin and steam boiler on the property facing the alley between Broad and Grace and Adams and Jefferson streets. Mr. Cannon owns property on the opposite side of the alley. The matter has been amicably adjusted by the Association paying to Mr. Cannon the sum of $400. The injunction will now be lifted.

The traffic manager of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad Company gives notice: Train arriving at Byrd-street station at 8:8 P. M. will be discontinued after Saturday. Train leaving Byrd-street station at 7:13 P. M. will be discontinued after Sunday. The New York sleeper will be attached to train leaving at 6:30 P. M. The New York and Florida special will be discontinued, the South-bound after to-day, and the North-bound after Tuesday next.

A joint meeting of the chapters of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew of the city of Richmond will be held this evening at St. James' Church at 8:15 P. M. Interesting addresses will be made by the Rev. The public are cordially invited to attend.

At the meeting of the Legislature in December, nearly all the railroad companies in the State issued passes to the members good until ten (10) days after the expiration of the session. The following companies have made the passes issued as above, good until the 31st of December: Norfolk and Western, Shenandoah Valley, Richmond and Petersburg, Petersburg, Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac, the Danville System in Virginia, South Atlantic and Ohio.

Mr. W. McKinstrey, editor of the Fredonia, N. Y., Censor, called at THE TIMES office yesterday. He is on a visit to Richmond for the first time since 1865, and was loud in his praise of the development of the city, and of its prospects as a great manufacturing centre. He thought that much of the water of the James might be utilized in industries.

William Anable, under indictments for forging the names of Louis Rawlings and Edward Cummins, was taken out of jail yesterday and carried before Judge Witt and bailed in the sum of $500 in each case, for his appearance at the May term of the court, Dr. I. J. Hawks, security.

A special from Washington last night said: "Chief Engineer, George H. White, is detached from duty at the Norfolk Navy Yard, and ordered to duty in connection with the machinery of the iron clads at Richmond, Va."

The properties of Mrs. Hoeninger and Mr. Shipman, just below the city, were completely destroyed by the wind storm Wednesday evening. The roof of some of the buildings were carried some distance away.

A marriage license was issued by the Clerk of the Hustings Court yesterday to Wesley Cheatham and Sally Brown, both colored.

The next Mozart musicale will be given Monday night.

A SECOND INDICTMENT.

United States Grand Jury in the Jackson Ward Election Cases.

The grand jury of the United States Circuit Court was in session again yesterday. In about two hours the jury composed of twenty-one men with Mr. S. McG. Fisher as foreman, brought in a second indictment against Messrs. Preston Belvin, H. M. Smith, Jr., E. C. Tate, Walter Blackburn, August Fisher, Willie Shortell, A. B. Guigon, J. C. Carrington, and Richard Cottrell. This time they presented to the court on the charge of obstructing and preventing the following alleged qualified voters from voting at the Second precinct in Jackson ward: Oscar Brooks, Nelson Sylvester, John Henry, and John T. Anderson. The indictment was drawn by Assistant District Attorney B. L. C. Bristow, and the witnesses were James Bahen, Nelson Sylvester, Oscar Brooks, and John T. Anderson. The grand jury will be in session again to-day. Messrs. James Lyons and C. V. Meredith, counsel for the accused, made the same motion that was made by them yesterday—to quash the indictment. The cases will be tried the latter part of next week.

PERSONAL MENTION.

People Going Away and Returning—Doing This and That.

Mr. Robert G. Harper, at one time a well known dry goods merchant of Baltimore, died in that city a few days since, aged fifty-nine years. The deceased was a member of the Otey Battery of Richmond during the war, and afterwards removed to Baltimore.

Captain William F. Drinkard, of the Dispatch, is confined to his residence by illness.

Mr. B. P. Terry, of Staunton, was in the city yesterday.

Judge E. H. Fitzhugh is ill; confined to his bed.

Senator Little, of Fredericksburg, is in the city.

Captain John S. Wise, of New York, is in the city.

Lewis Morrison's "Faust."

Lewis Morrison, in his great impersonation of Mephisto, in "Faust," began a three night's engagement at the Academy last night in the presence of one of the largest and most fashionable audiences of the season. Mr. Morrison has improved his production of Goethe's magnificent work since last year. Certainly nothing has ever been seen in Richmond to compare with it. The scenes are mounted with completeness and taste, and the artist's touch can be easily noticed in each picture. The "Brocken" scene is ponderous in its magnificence and the rain of fire at its close is a marvelous effect. The electric and calcium effects are truly wonderful. Lewis Morrison makes a peculiar impression on his hearers as "Mephisto." He seems to awe rather than impress. It matters but little whether he is engaged in flippant repartee or in forcible declamation, the same sensation of awe and admiration is inexplicably mixed. The Marguerite of Miss Rosabel Morrison is as great in its way as her father's Mephisto. It is full of sublimely delicate touches at times, and then again she rises to a surprising degree of force and power. She looks the part to perfection, having a lovely face and a beautiful willowy figure. The Faust of Russ Whytal was excellently dressed, and fairly acted. Porter White's Valentine was creditable, and Miss Carrie Carter provoked much laughter by a cleverly acted, although somewhat broad conception of Dame Martha. This lady's performance was marred by a particularly shabby dress, the fact being more marked by the exceeding elegance of all the other costumes. The entire performance is a magnificent one, and will be repeated to-night.

Still in Session.

The Medical Examing Board of Virginia resumed its session yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, and the examination of candidates was continued until 11 o'clock last night, at which time all the answers were received. The board will meet again this morning at 9 o'clock, when the work of examining the written responses to the questions will be sub-divided, and later the board will announce the names of those who have graduated and are entitled to diplomas.

Powhatan Club.

A meeting of the Powhatan Club was called for last night. The members of the club have just passed through the excitement of political primary, and the lapse of time since has been too short to whet their appetites for political food; besides, there was nothing but routine work demanding their attention. The result was that there was but a small attendance—not enough to transact business.

OFFICE ABOLISHED.

COMMISSIONER OF IMMIGRATION NO MORE.

The Work to be Hereafter Performed by the Commissioner of Agriculture—Amended List of Appropriations—Adjournment Until July.

The Board of Agriculture met again yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, President Koiner presiding.

Major Sutherlin presented a resolution, which was adopted, authorizing the Commissioner of Agriculture to expend for one year from the 1st day of this month a sum not exceeding six hundred dollars, in addition to the salary of fifteen hundred dollars for the chemist, and, with the approval of the chairman of this Board, power to employ such assistants as may be necessary to do the work in proper time, or to have analyses made of fertilizers under the Fertilizer act.

The Board amended the report of the appropriation committee, so that it now stands as follows:

Chemical Department—For chemist, $1,500; extra chemical work, $600; chemical clerks, $800; inspector for the time actually employed per month, including traveling expenses, $75; porter, $150; chemicals, $500; rent, $300; incidentals and printing, $350. Agricultural Department—Rent, $700; expenses of board, $600; porter, $150; printing and incidentals, $400—total, $1,950. Immigration Department—$1,[illegible]; Farmers' Institute—$850; geologist at a sum not to exceed $500.

OFFICE ABOLISHED.

The board decided to abolish the office of Commissioner of Immigration. This move was made to reduce expenses. The work will hereafter be done by the Commissioner of Agriculture.

Mr. Smith offered a resolution providing that the committee on legislation be directed to examine the mortgage laws of Kansas and other Western States, with a view of so amending the laws of this State as to secure an influx of outside capital to be secured by mortgages on country real estate, thereby giving owners of land an opportunity to make greatly needed improvements to their property.

FREE POSTAGE.

A letter was read from the State Board of Agriculture of New Jersey stating that a move was being made to secure by an act of Congress a law whereby reports of State Boards of Agriculture and State Horticultural Societies may be carried by mails free. The board ordered the president and secretary to give their endorsement to the move. A letter was also received from the same board stating that a project was afoot to organize a National Board of Agriculture, and asking the board to give their support. The board ordered the endorsement to be given.

At 2 o'clock the board adjourned until the quarterly meeting in July.

PETIT JURORS.

List of the Men Drawn to Try the Election Cases.

The following is a list of the petit jury drawn for the United States Circuit Court for the April term: From Richmond, Messrs. E. R. Addison, Augustus Arsell, Joseph W. Hall, P. Sullivan, John F. Allen, John E. Parrish, M. J. Walsh, W. W. Palmer, C. H. Kaufelt, John G. Spotts, E. T. Jenkins and William Ellis Jones; B. F. Pitson and William T. Martin, of Manchester; Robert T. Couch, of Henrico county; William M. Jones and James L. Cook, of Petersburg; G. D. Jefferson, Jr., and W. C. Norfleet, Amelia C. H.; E. T. Adams, Beaver Pond, Amelia county; John Daniel, Clarksville; G. Bruce, Hampden Sidney, Prince Edward county; J. M. Walton and John Stokes, of Farmville. It is especially desired that all be promptly on hand during the sessions of the court and that none endeavor to have themselves excused from service.

Should the indictments made by the grand jury against Messrs. Smith, Guigon, Belvin and others stand, the trials will probably be had at this term, and should any juryman—chosen by lot—be absent or excused, his place will be filled by the Republican marshal, who, it is safe to prophesy, will summon the most partizan of his political allies.

Speaking of the indictment of Messrs. Belvin, Smith and others by the United States Court grand jury, a representative citizen said yesterday:

"Had not so many of our citizens who were summoned upon the grand jury absented themselves, or been excused, the result would have been very different, and the outrage of this prosecution of reputable citizens would have been ended. Let every man do his duty as a juryman, and let nothing be left to the tender mercies of partizan officers."

PATTERSONS-RICHMONDS.

These Clubs Will Meet on the Diamond at Island Park.

The Richmonds will make another fight for victory this afternoon, when at Island Park they meet the Patterson (N. J.) Ball Club. This club will arrive this morning from Baltimore, and in their team are such men as Lou Dickerson, Louis Say, Yuengling Brothers, Gardner Ludwig, and Brouthers, brother of Dan Brouthers. Although the weather has been inclement since they defeated the Kensingtons, the Richmonds have been practicing, and if the sun will only shine to-day with "summery" force, the home boys will be in their glory.

The Richmonds leave Monday morning for Washington, where they play Monday and Tuesday. They also play in Baltimore, Lancaster, York, Harrisburg, Philadelphia and Lebanon, Pa. They will spend one day in Philadelphia, and receive new suits. The new costume will be dark gray, with letters of red across the breast, and dark red stockings. Twelve pairs of these stockings have already been received here by the management, and will be used by the home men on their Northern tour. They will be under management of B. C. Metzger and Charles Householder.

The Richmond College team will go to Charlottesville Saturday morning to play the University men at that place on the same day. They will only play one game.

The board remained in session from 11 o'clock until 2:30 P. M., and listened to long and short speeches from men versed in oyster lore, and who appeared in the interest of candidates for the command of the Chesapeake. Captain Seth Foster is now the bearded tar, who rules the waters.

A captain is elected annually by the board, and the captain has opposition. After all were heard, the board adjourned, without going into an election, reserving this for another meeting; the time for which was not set.

Richmond College vs. Y. M. C. A.

A public debate will take place to-night at Richmond College between the Randolph Literary Society of the Young Men's Christian Association and the Mu Sigma Rho Society of the college. Mr. J. E. Neltsinger, of the Mu Sigma Rho Society, will preside. The debaters are Messrs. J. W. Gerden and C. M. Wallace, Jr., of the Randolph, and Messrs. E. W. Grener, of Maryland, and W. Owen Carver, of Tennessee, will represent the Mu Sigma Rho Society. The musical numbers of the programme will be rendered by Miss Lillian Arnold and Mrs. Durrett, Miss Katie Brown, accompanist. Mr. R. B. Robinson, of California, and Mr. J. H. Franklin, of Virginia, compose the committee of arrangements. The debate will be interesting, as the participators are eloquent and logical speakers. The exercises will be held in the college chapel, and will begin at 8:15 o'clock.

Plighted Their Troth.

Yesterday evening at 3:30 o'clock, in the parlors of the priest, Father Willibaner, corner Fourth and Marshall streets, Mr. Emmett Schaeffer and Miss Mary Myer were married. Mr. Schaeffer is an active business man, well known in the community, and has a number of friends who congratulate him on securing so fair a bride.

A pretty marriage occurred Wednesday evening at 4 o'clock at 213 north Twenty-fifth street, the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. Father Donohue, the couple being Mr. Arnold Haag and Miss Minnie Ebenhack, the daughter of Mr. John G. Ebenhack, of this city. The ushers were Messrs. Charles Bottige, Charles H. Maurice, John Ryan and P. O'Donnell. Mr. and Mrs. Haag took their departure on the 6:30 P. M. northern bound train.

May Festival Rehearsal.

The ladies and gentlemen who are to take part in the coming May festival, held their first rehearsal last night in the English Lutheran Church at Seventh and Grace streets. The large attendance—there being over two hundred present—bespeaks success for the enterprise, and considering the fact that it was the first rehearsal, the chorus sang excellently well. Mr. Clarence A. Marshall acted as director, and Mr. Sheppard Webb as accompanist. The next rehearsal will be held at the same place next Thursday night, promptly at 8 o'clock.

Engagement Canceled.

"The Kitchen Belles" commenced a three-nights' engagement at the Theatre last night. The audience was very small, the play very stupid, and the actors worse than amateurs. The piece abounded in such ancient songs as "In the Gloaming," "Captain Jinks," "Where Did You Get that Hat?" and "The Bell Goes Ringing for Sarah." These and the dialogue were too much for the Theatre management, as well as the audience, and before the performance ended the engagement for the rest of the week was canceled.

The Appropriation.

A special meeting of the City Council will be held next Monday evening to consider the annual budget. At the same time will be given a detailed statement of the financial condition of the city. The budget has been presented before, but it was not adopted because all of the various committees wished for more money than we had to give. The revenue of the city approximates $1,200,000. The actual expenses, interest, &c., amount to about $900,000; this only leaves us less than $300,000 for all of the various committees.

Albemarle Paper Company.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Albemarle Paper Manufacturing Company was held yesterday at 1 o'clock. The reports of the officers were submitted, which showed the company to be in a highly prosperous and satisfactory condition. Messrs. J. F. Chalmers, James R. Ellerson and C. M. Boswell were reelected president, secretary and treasurer and assistant secretary and treasurer, respectively, for the ensuing year. Mr. Frank Davenport, of this city, and Mr. William King, Jr., of Lynchburg, were added to the former board of directors.

Entertainment at the Y. M. C. A.

The elocution class of the Young Men's Christian Association, assisted by Miss Lillian Arnold and others, gave an entertainment last night for the benefit of the Young Men's Christian Association. A programme, literary and musical, was well rendered. Especial mention is deserved by Miss Arnold's reading of Collins' "Ode to the Passions," with musical accompaniment and illustrations, closing with an effective tableau.

Police Entertainment.

The police of the Second District have completed their arrangements for the entertainment to be given at the Mozart Academy Tuesday next. The programme is one of the most attractive ever presented to the public by home talent. The Rev. Moses D. Hoge, D. D., will lecture. Subject: "Running the Blockade." Dr. Thomas Nelson Page will recite selections from his works, and Professor Jacob Reinhardt has arranged a musical programme.

Alarm of Fire.

At 10:16 o'clock last night an alarm of fire was turned in from Box 54, Harvie and Main streets, caused by the burning of an unoccupied two-story frame building, on the extension of Chaffin street. The house was owned by Colonel W. Miles Cary, and was evidently the work of incendiaries. The damage done will amount to $250.

Ladies' Missionary Meeting.

The Ladies' Missionary Society held a meeting at their rooms corner Fourth and Grace streets yesterday. There was a very large attendance, and the address delivered by Rev. H. M. Wharton was listened to attentively.

NATIONAL TOURNAMENT OF FAST TELEGRAPHERS IN NEW YORK.

Enthusiastic Electricians From All Over the Country—Fast Maiden Trip Across the Ocean of the Majestic—All Sorts of Gotham Gossip.

NEW YORK, April 10.—[Special.]—The great national fast telegraphic tournament was held to-day at Hardman's Hall. It aroused the enthusiasm of telegraphers all over the country, and there were no less than fifty-nine entries from the following cities: Philadelphia, Washington, Richmond, Va.; Providence, Annapolis, Hartford, Conn.; Pittsburg, New York and Brooklyn. In the ladies' class, free to all, prizes of $50, $40 and $20 can be won. There are sixteen entries in this class. The Old Timers' class has five entries, for prizes of $50 and $40. Class B, open to all except those who made a record of 500 words in better than eleven minutes in 1885, has twenty-four entries, the three most expert of whom will win $85, $65 or $30. Class A has two divisions, first and second. The former had eight contestants. The second division, in which are the champions, has six entries, including three who made big records in 1885 and are barred out of all other classes in this contest. Their names are J. W. Roloson, W. M. Gibson and F. J. Kihm, all of Brooklyn. The prizes in Class A are $100, $70 and $50. Each contestant in all the classes sends for five minutes, and the prizes will be awarded to those making the most rapid transmission—the most words in five minutes—provided they are adjudged readable. The ladies' class, the old timers and the first division of Class A competed in the afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock, and the second division of Class A and Class B in the evening, beginning at 8 o'clock. Mr. Edison sent a phonograph to the hall to record the transmission.

RESULT OF THE CONTEST.

The hall was crowded. The first contest in the ladies' class was won by Miss Kitty Stephenson, of New York. The second contest, the "Old Timers" was won by Mr. Albert S. Ayres, of New York. The next competition was in class "A," open to all competitors. The result finally announced was B. R. Pollock, Hartford, Connecticut, first, W. M. Gibson, of New York, second prize, Frank J. Kihm, of New York, 228 words. In the last contest, class B, open to all except those who had a record of sending 500 words inside of eleven minutes, the three prizes were won by Frank L. Catlin, W. L. Waugh and Frank English, all of the United Press, New York.

RAILROAD NEWS.

Memphis and Charleston minority stockholders' committee have prepared a circular which it is sending to the minority, suggesting a sale of the stock to another interest. They decline to publish the circular on the ground that its publication may prevent the consummation of the proposed sale.

The East Tennessee does not purchase the entire Erlanger system. The entire system comprises 1,158 miles. It acquires the ownership by purchase of only that portion of the system extending from Cincinnati to Meridian, a distance of 631 miles. The remaining portions of the system extending from Meridian to New Orleans, and Meridian to Vicksburg and Vicksburg to Shreveport are to be operated under independent ownership, but withal in harmony with the East Tennessee by means of traffic contracts. To pay for this 631 miles the East Tennessee will issue $6,000,000 five per cent. collateral trust bonds, called the Cincinnati Extension East Tennessee Division bonds. It is already paying dividends in excess of the amount needed to pay interest on the bonds. In addition, the purchase of this line removes opposition which heretofore has been felt by East Tennessee. The deal is not fully consummated yet, but only details remain unadjusted. The East Tennessee now proposes to establish a through line from Chicago to Jacksonville, which is made possible by this trade.

A TWENTY MILLIONAIRE.

The will of David Dows, who died worth $20,000,000, was offered for probate this afternoon. The entire estate is given to his wife and family, and there is not a single charitable bequest.

Dr. William B. Hayden, the well-known veterinary surgeon, of Newark, N. J., and former Mayor of Mobile, Ala., died at his home last night.

THE FASTEST OCEAN RACER YET.

At 7 o'clock this morning the passengers by the new White Star steamer Majestic came ashore and were proudly joyous, for they had learned from Captain Parsell that the Majestic had made the quickest maiden voyage on record, beating her own pretty sister, the Teutonic, by more than six hours. The Majestic left Liverpool at 3 o'clock last Wednesday afternoon, and arrived at Queenstown at noon on Thursday. There she was delayed for two hours. Once at sea, the Majestic worked through adverse winds and fogs, and had to steer sixty miles south of her course during the voyage, in dodging nine huge icebergs. She carried 1,571 souls in all, viz: Saloon passengers, 171; second class passengers, 92; steerage passengers, 825; officers and crew, 331. The Majestic's time was six days, ten and one-half hours.

The Majestic is the largest passenger steamship afloat. Her tonnage is about one hundred tons in excess of that of the Teutonic, and she is 2 feet longer than any of the big ocean racers. She is 582 feet long, 57 feet 6 inches beam; 39 feet 4 inches depth of hold; has a tonnage of 10,000 burden, and a draught of water of 32 feet. At Castle Garden 2,981 emigrants were landed to-day. Of these 1,620 were Italians, and nearly all men.

DEATH OF MRS. FERDINAND WARD.

Mrs. Ferdinand Ward, wife of the ex-banker now in Sing Sing, died suddenly this morning at South street, Stamford, Conn. Mrs. Ward was about thirty-five years of age. Ward was sentenced to ten years penal servitude, November 1, 1885, so that his sentence has still two years to run, with full commutation for good conduct. He was much affected by the death

ALL SORTS.

Alonzo B. Cornell, the former governor of New York, is missing from home. Several judgments have been entered against him, which may account for his absence. Friends think his mind unbalanced. He had of late gone into several visionary schemes for making money. Has associated with the famous James A. Simmons, of bank wrecking fame in numerous financial transactions. The representative of James A. Simmons, said to-day that he had long doubted Mr. Cornell's ability to meet his business obligations and intimated strongly that Cornell was going into wildcat schemes too heavily.

John C. Calhoun, just returned from a trip through the South, says that the development there in iron industry and cotton manufactures is surprising. More money is in the South for investment than ever before since the war. The Southern people are raising their own supplies, and the money received from cotton along the line of the Richmond Terminal is booming.

The Senate Gavel.

The Vice-President's gavel is of itself a standing evidence that the Senate is an orderly body, and needs no schoolmaster for a presiding officer, to compel quiet. The gavel has no handle. It never did have any. It is simply a little piece of white ivory like the head of a gavel, polished and shining. It would not do in the House at all, for the most that can be done with it is to give a gentle rapping on the desk, and in the other wing the Speaker sometimes needs to hammer away like a man with a beetle. The Senate gavel, with which Vice-President Morton tells the Senators that they are making too much noise, has been in existence and in use as a gavel for many years. It is the identical one, it is said, which was in use when Daniel Webster was in the Senate, and probably was used the day he made his reply to Hayne, to still the buzz in the gallery when the great man sat down. This, at any rate, was said to be true the other day.

There is a mystery about the gavel, too. Nobody but Captain Bassett, the white-haired doorkeeper, knows what becomes of it during the recess and when Congress is not in session. The venerable old Captain Bassett takes it from the Vice-President's desk and hides it somewhere, and it is lost to the world until it is again needed by the Vice-President. Captain Bassett knows the history of the gavel, as he does of everything else about the Senate Chamber, for he has been there since some time in the thirties or forties, when he first received his appointment—as a page, it is said—through the influence of Daniel Webster. It has been suggested that Captain Bassett carries the gavel in his pocket as a mascot when the Senate is not in session, though this is probably not true.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

M. de FREYCINET, Premier of France for the fourth time, is described as being small and insignificant physically, and his countenance habitually bears a furtive, scared expression which has led to his being dubbed "The White Mouse." His wife is a clever, ambitious woman whose aim in life is to become "Madame la Présidente."

Both Better and Cheaper.

The Royal Baking Powder, as an actual fact, is the most economical in use of any made, because of its greatly superior strength.

Both the United States and Canadian Governments in the reports of their investigation of baking powders have published this fact officially.

The other baking powders known in this vicinity are shown by chemical tests to contain from 20 to 80 per cent. less leavening-gas than the Royal. So the Royal, even should it cost more than the others, would be much the cheaper.

In addition to this the superior flavor, sweetness, wholesomeness and delicacy of the food raised by Royal Baking Powder would make any difference in cost insignificant.

When the Royal makes finer and more wholesome food at a less cost, which every housekeeper familiar with it will affirm, why not discard altogether the old-fashioned methods of soda and sour milk, or home-made mixture of cream of tartar and soda, and use it exclusively?

MANCHESTER MATTERS.

Meeting of the City Democratic Committee—Minor Mention.

The first quarterly meeting of the Manchester Chamber of Commerce was held last night in the Council Chamber. Judge William I. Clopton presided, and Benjamin P. Owen acted as secretary. The president completed the list of committees, as follows: On Commercial Usages, J. H. Patterson; Trade (inland and outward), W. B. Bradley; James River Improvement, J. F. Bradley; Business and Manufactories, T. A. Davidson; Municipal Improvements, R. D. Hall; Finance, Charles Keller.

The following, offered by Mr. John W. Arrington, was adopted: In view of the large interests at stake, both in this city and Richmond during freshets in James river, and the importance of having reliable information on the subject that it may be easily distributed to those affected; resolved, that the president of this Chamber be requested to communicate with the presiding officer of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce with a view to adopting some feasible plan, either by appointment of joint committees or otherwise, whereby the object may be obtained. Next Tuesday the Board of Directors will meet for the consideration of several very important matters.

The Democratic City Committee met last night—Mr. John E. Utz, chairman, presiding. The following committeemen were appointed: B. F. Faulconer and John W. Caudle, of First ward; A. J. Gallagher and E. F. Gibbs, of Second ward; T. F. Owen, of Third ward; D. L. Toney and John T. Jewett, of Fourth ward. These committees will recommend suitable judges and clerks to act at the coming primary. The committee adjourned until next Thursday night, when it is expected the ward committees will report.

During the storm Wednesday a large tree was blown across the Richmond and Petersburg Railroad, a mile this side of Swift creek. Soon after a passenger train from Richmond came along, with William Spain as engineer, and Thomas Jones, (colored) as fireman. The engineer seeing the obstruction, jumped from the train, but the fireman stood his ground, reversed the engine, and stopped it just as it struck the tree and knocked it from the track. He then carried the engine back and picked up the engineer, who was badly bruised about the shoulders by the fall. The passengers presented the fireman with a handsome purse for his bravery. Portions of the roof of the Old Dominion and Marshall Mills were blown off by the wind, and several other buildings in that neighborhood sustained injuries.

Mr. George E. Fisher and Mr. Donald B. Toucey, the men who are now attending to the street car matters in Richmond, were in Manchester yesterday morning. It is supposed that their visit was in connection with the Marshall-street line over Mayo's bridge, which will be run on the right of way granted to the company, of which Mr. Charles W. Turner, of Manchester, is president.

The police of Manchester will soon make a tour of the city, looking to its sanitary condition.

The Belt Line bridge which crosses the river near Granite is almost completed.

Mrs. J. W. Gills, of Farmville, is visiting Mrs. Charles Connelly, on Porter street.

The case of John Jones will come up for trial at the next term of the Chesterfield Court.

RAISING THE HAT.

Conclusions Reached as to the Way of Doing It.

On the proper method of performing that salutation known as "raising the hat" there have always prevailed rather conflicting opinions in France. Sometimes Frenchmen lifted their hats in three distinct motions, carefully performed; at other times they removed them with a sweeping and somewhat rounded gesture. A certain Comte de Larmandie, in his so called physiological study of the Faubourg St. Germain for the year 1889, has now laid down rules respecting the coup de chapeau, which are based on the precedents furnished by the most modern and most fashionable members of the very best society in the city.

The man of fashion, according to the Count, must now remove his hat in saluting with a broad sweeping gesture, which is at the same time elegant and brusque. The hat, having remained well aloft for a while, must be brought down on the head quickly, like a sword into its scabbard. The person saluting should preserve an impassive countenance as much as possible while going through his elegant evolutions, but the Count does not find fault with a little smile on the features, the said simpering movement being either patronizing or familiar, as occasion may require. The noble professor of etiquette also dilates eloquently on the tone and temper to be adopted by patricians toward "vague" people.

Such persons—being almost quantites negligeables—should be treated with patronizing airs, subjected to stony stares, spoken to in quick, sharp, almost imperious tones, and saluted with brisk celerity. "Vague" persons—by whom are meant roturiers in general—should also be coldly received when making inquiries respecting the health of the lady relatives of their patrician patrons. On the whole the Count does his best, as will be seen from those excerpts, to make whatever remains in France of the old aristocracy more unpopular than ever with the "vague" people, who are mostly, of course, Republicans. In the conclusion of his intense and profound study he has also some hints on pronunciation. It is now the quintessence of chic to say comment les vous for comment allez vous, and "club," which was hitherto called "clib," is now "cloob," this being a nearer approach to the English pronunciation of the word. Finally, just as in England, "Majoribanks" is called "Marchbanks," "Castellane" is to be pronounced "Castlane," "Talleyrand" "Tairand," and "Croy" "Crouy." Care must also be taken to speak of a certain nobleman not as "Bisaccia" or "Bizache," but as "Bisac."—Paris dispatch to the London Daily Telegraph.

Facts of the Flood.

The New Orleans Picayune of the 6th instant, said: In 1882 the crevasses in the levees along the river in Mississippi, in Arkansas below the mouth of the Arkansas river and in Louisana were in number 284. They aggregated in total width 264,377 feet. With these open breaks of more than fifty miles in extent, the river spread over a vast region which is now perfectly dry and safe, but which at that time, although it was covered with water, never called forth any of the terrible prophecies that have been hurled against us.

In 1883 there were 222 crevasses, aggregating many miles in lineal width, but still nobody denounced eternal ruin upon our city and country.

In 1884 there were 176 breaks in the levees, aggregating a width of 184,322 feet, pouring out the floods upon our low lands, but still nobody consigned us to hopeless perdition.

In 1890 so far, there are some sixteen open crevasses, aggregating not more than 11,000 feet, say two miles of breaks in a thousand miles of levee.

A BARE-FACED LIE BRANDED.

A Piece of Loud-Spreading, Big Flaming, Outrageous Advertising.

Any person that will use a newspaper like this, because it enjoys a large circulation, for the sole purpose of publishing a lot of production that does not contain one word of truth, is not worthy of the public's patronage.

It is really aggravating to any person that has honorable intentions and who possesses too much pride to publish loud-spreading advertisements, chock full of poisonous bait, for the purpose of catching the unthinking, to endure such nonsense; consequently it becomes a duty to expose the little schemes of these big-profit dealers.

We will say here, in plain language, if you want to buy first-class Tailor-Made Clothing, minus outrageous profits, patronize the new and grand up-town S. O. P. C. Hall proprietor, where goods are sold at 12½ per cent. above cost of manufacture, and not 40 and 45 per cent., like these would-be "I-want-it-all" merchants extort from the people. All we say is, use good discretion and give this deserving, enterprising, very small-profit dealer the preference, and you will certainly not regret it. The number is 225 Broad street, southwest corner of Third, and kindly remember this valuable information, and you won't regret it.
