QUOTATIONS OF THE NEW YORK COTTON MARKET.

Situation of Tobacco at Richmond and Other Important Centres—Cotton and Farm Products—Peanut Quotations—Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Money closed at 3½ per cent. Exchange steady; posted rates, 482½@487¼; actual rates, 481¾@482 for sixty days, and 486¾ for demand. Governments closed steady; currency 6's, 114 bid; 4's, coupons, 122½ bid; 4½'s do. 103½ bid.

The stock market was extremely dull this morning. In fact, the volume of business transacted was the smallest in several months. The Bank of England did not advance the rate of discount to-day, and the expectations of those who proposed to make use of it to help to depress prices this morning were sadly disappointed. Prices here opened firm at ⅛@½ higher for the general list. The market continued firm for the first hour, but after 11 o'clock it sagged and by noon the advance was more than lost in most cases. There was a little more trading after 12 o'clock, but the changes were slight. Prices continued weak and at the close were generally ¼ to 1 per cent. lower than those of yesterday. Sales, 167,560 shares.

COTTON REPORT.

Market steady.
Galveston.—Middling, 10c.; low middling, 9½c.; good ordinary, 9c.

Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—H. V. Lester telegraphs C. W. Branch & Co. as follows: Aside from the report of liberal clearances of flour, and light stocks of wheat and flour in London, the market was devoid of much interesting news. Outside business was smaller than for months, and it was simply a contest between the buyers and sellers of puts, as to whether they should be put or not. The closing is barely steady at last night's figures. Some of the prominent local shorts covered during the day, but the market was left to room traders most of the session. It becomes more apparent each day that the public will not take hold until the bulk of spring wheat has moved from first hands, and they can figure out how much they will have to work with. Until that time it will probably be nothing but a local scalping market. Corn is absolutely featureless.

New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Cotton.—Messrs. Hubbard, Price & Co., in their cotton circular to-night, say: "Manchester's spinners are seeking to secure the better grades of the last crop remaining unsold in Liverpool, paying full prices without question, and in addition, taking up the tenders upon the immediate position to obtain the best of this season's cotton. This legitimate action gives strength to markets abroad, while at home a general disposition to cover before the publication of the bureau report gives our market a quiet and firmer tone. American spinners have been free buyers in our market of staple cottons to-day and the tenders upon October have been absorbed by local houses with the intention of selecting the better grades." Receipts at ports to-day estimated at 31,000 bales against 39,269 bales last week and 33,986 last year. The spot market is steady at unchanged prices. Middling uplands, 10¾c.; sales, 955 bales.
