QUOTATIONS OF THE NEW YORK COTTON MARKET.

Situation of Tobacco at Richmond and Other Important Centres—Cotton and Farm Products—Peanut Quotations—Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Money closed at 3 per cent. Exchange closed steady; posted rates, 482@487; actual rates, 481@481¼ for sixty days, and 486@486¼ for demand. Governments closed steady; currency 6's, 113 bid; 4's, coupons, 122½ bid; 4½'s do., 103½ bid.

There was more activity on the Stock Exchange this morning. The decline in the stock here yesterday demoralized the London market, and the early prices for stock there were ¼ to 2½ per cent. lower, the latter in St. Paul, while Illinois Central was exceptionally weak and 4½ per cent. lower. This, of course, resulted in a weak feeling here during the early dealings, when prices all declined fractionally. Throughout the morning the market was feverish, excited, and unsettled, but at noon most of the list on a steady support by the large operators, recovered the early decline, and at noon prices were about on a level with those of last night's closing. Dealings were on a moderate scale during the afternoon, but prices were firmer; and although at the close they showed irregular changes from those of last night, they were in most cases ½ to 1 per cent. higher. The total sales were 357,621 shares.

New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Cotton.—Messrs. Hubbard, Price & Co., in their cotton circular to-night, say: "A lower opening naturally followed the disappointment felt at the failure of the revision committee to revise the low grades yesterday afternoon, but a good undertone was evident at any concession, and the market slowly advanced, aided by reports of rain in New Orleans and on the Atlantic slope. The advance was not fully maintained, as a few tenders passed upon the near-by positions, causing operators to realize their profits, and the market closed steady in tone and prices. A general disposition is shown at home and abroad to keep close to short until the bureau report is received to-morrow, and undoubtedly a portion of the advance was caused by the covering of short interest in anticipation of its effect while the bulls are so few that a chance to accept profits is quickly grasped. Liverpool and Manchester are both good, and we believe unless crop accounts materially change that the higher prices must rule." Receipts at ports to-day estimated at 35,000 bales against 33,474 bales last week, and 38,870 last year. The spot market is steady at 1-16d. advance. Middling uplands, 10¾. Sales, 711 bales. Transactions in futures, 80,000 bales. Futures closed steady as follows: October, $10.17@$10.18; November, $10.19@$10.20; December, $10.25@$10.26; January, $10.32@$10.33; February, $10.39@$10.40; March, $10.46@$10.47; April, $10.53@$10.55; May, $10.60@$10.62; June, $10.67@$10.69; July, $10.74@$10.76.

Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—H. V. Lester telegraphs C. W. Branch & Co. as follows: Wheat closes heavy, with but little encouragement visible in the horizon for the bulls. Liquidation has been heavy, influenced principally on the indefinite rumors circulated by the bears of trouble in Wall street. Although these had no foundation in fact, they nevertheless created an uneasy feeling, and the weakness resulted. We see little evidence of outside speculation, and while this state of affairs exists it would be unwise to go against the tide. We see no reason to change our views on corn or provisions.
