OPERATIONS OF THE NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

Situation of Tobacco at Richmond and Other Important Centres—Quotations of the New York and Liverpool Cotton Markets—Provision and Grain.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—Money closed at 3 per cent. Exchange closed steady; posted rates, 480@484; actual rates, 480@480¼ for sixty days, and 483½@483¾ for demand. Governments closed steady; 6's, 109 bid; 4's, 122 bid; 4½'s, 103 bid.

Lower prices for stocks in London this morning before the opening of this market, made lower prices here throughout the forenoon, the decline ranging from ⅛ to 2⅝ per cent. In the first hour and half of business. The cause of the lower prices in London was understood to be the withdrawals of gold for Germany, and rumors in London that the Bank of France had notified the Bank of England that she would soon require the gold borrowed by the latter last month. The whole story may be only stock jobbing tactics to depress stocks. At noon prices were still weak and ¼ to 2⅛ per cent. below last night's. Silver was less active this morning, with sales of 174,000 ounces, and declined 1⅛ to 2 per cent. The market was dull and irregular after 12 o'clock, and prices recorded further slight declines in some cases. The closing figures were generally the lowest of the day. The outcome of the railroad presidents' meeting yesterday was not regarded by the "Street" by the utmost approval. The decline ranged from ¼ to 2⅝ per cent. Sales, 250,175 shares.

New York.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—Cotton.—Messrs. Hubbard, Price & Co., in their cotton circular to-night, say: "The improvement in the exchange market undoubtedly led to large purchases of cotton in the South yesterday, and this cotton was offered for sale in Liverpool to-day, thereby checking the upward movement of prices which began yesterday. Under the pressure of these free offerings all the advance was lost, while our market drifted slowly toward lower figures, as exports became sellers on contracts bought earlier in the season to protect sales made in Europe. A large amount of the cotton purchased yesterday was resold to-day, when it became evident that the Government would not take the surplus silver from the hands of speculators, as believed yesterday. We are inclined to believe that the advance in exchange to-day will cause free offerings of cotton to-morrow in Liverpool." Receipts at ports to-day estimated at 55,000 bales, against 50,300 bales last week and 47,766 last year. The spot market is quiet at unchanged quotations; middling uplands, 9⅝. Sales, 370 bales. Transactions in futures, 47,000 bales. Futures closed 2@4 points lower, as follows: December 9.03@9.05; January, 9.12@9.13; February, 9.29@9.30; March, 9.40@9.41; April, 9.50@9.51; May, 9.50@9.60; June, 9.68@9.69; July, 9.76@9.77; August, 9.78@9.80; September, 9.52@9.54.

In Liverpool spot cotton steady; middling uplands, 5 3-16d.; sales, 8,000 bales. Futures closed steady; December, 5.08; December-January, 5.08; January-February, 5.10@5.11; February-March, 5.14@5 15.

Chicago.

CHICAGO, Dec. 16.—S. V. White & Co. telegraph C. W. Branch & Co. as follows: We have have had an active scalping market all day, it selling up early on some moderately good scattered buying, but the report that the Bank of France had called its gold loans of the Bank of England was used as a cudgel by the bears to hammer prices off, and the close is but little above the lowest figures touched. The market appears to be slowly sinking, and although this may continue, I think there will be sufficient action to offer good scalping facilities, and that's about all. Corn was strengthened by persistent buying of its firmest friend, but if reports speaks correctly, he must have about all he cares for, and will soon tire of his attempts to "run in" the shorts.

GONE TO PHILADELPHIA.

THE IRISH ENVOYS TO CONFER WITH FRIENDS IN THAT CITY.

Heavy Verdict Against a Railroad—The Duke of Marlborough and the South—Result of the Railroad Presidents' Meeting—New York Topics.

NEW YORK BUREAU
RICHMOND DAILY TIMES,
December 16, 1890.

John Dillon, the Irish envoy, went to Philadelphia to-day to confer with some prominent Irishmen in that city relative to the present situation of the Irish cause.

VERDICT AGAINST A RAILWAY.

A Brooklyn jury this afternoon gave Frank Ehrmann $25,000 damages for the injuries inflicted on him by one of the horse cars of the Brooklyn City Railroad Company. The accident happened on August 16th of last year, and the little fellow, then only three years of age, was so badly hurt that the doctors found it necessary to amputate one of his legs.

DUKE OF MARLBOROUGH AND THE SOUTH.

The Duke of Marlborough's business acumen is testified to by the announcement that he has returned to England with options from the owners of mineral lands in Western Virginia and Tennessee, with a view to inducing English capitalists to invest with him in these properties. He was led into making a trip South by ex-Mayor A. S. Hewitt, in which that gentleman joined him. He visited Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, and other Southern States, with the result related. Corroboration of the report was obtained to-day from several friends of the Duke, who, from their interest in the South's industrial development, have discussed the subject with him. All say that there is no doubt that he was favorably impressed with the opportunities for profitable investment in the States visited. They could give no information, however, of any definite plans the Duke had formed for turning his observations to practical account.

GOULD AND TERMINAL.

It is reported that the Gould-Sage party have lately purchased $500,000 of Richmond Terminal fives, and that ex-Mayor Hewitt has bought $250,000 of the same bonds. The price is not stated.

RAILROAD PRESIDENTS' MEETING.

The agreement made yesterday at the meeting of railroad presidents is considered disappointing. The fact that neither the Canadian Pacific nor Chicago and Alton were represented is considered by well-posted operators a vital obstacle to the success of the plan, as the Canadian Pacific can seriously interfere with the transcontinental arrangements, and the Chicago and Alton will be a free lance in the territory southwest of Chicago.

Jay Gould expressed himself as very well satisfied with what was accomplished at the meeting. He is confident that the plan adopted will be entirely successful and will result in great advantage to the railways and the public.

PREPARING FOR THE LEGISLATURE.

The Legislature of this State will convene on Tuesday, January 13th. The night before the party caucus of the Assembly will be held to determine the organization of that body. Mr. Sheehan is already nominated for Speaker, and by the time the members reach Albany Governor Hill will have all the subordinate officers picked out, from clerk to page boys. The election of Senator this time will be held on January 20th.

[SMITH M. WEED FOR SENATOR.

Smith M. Weed has spent a good deal of the past week in Albany. He will move into his headquarters about the 1st of January, where he will hold forth until the Senatorial election takes place. The preparations he has made for that contest, if there is to be a contest, ought to leave no room for doubt in any one's mind that he is a formidable candidate for the Senatorship. His friends assert that the only man who can defeat him for United States Senator is Governor Hill. They say "Governor Hill cannot afford to do it. Mr. Weed and his friends are strong enough in the Democratic organization in this State to upset even Governor Hill, if they should have a motive for it."

MR. YOUNG RESIGNS.

John Russell Young is no longer in the employ of the New York Herald for a curious reason. It will be remembered that when Governor Hill put General Roger A. Pryor on the bench Mr. Young gave the Judge a dinner. Mr. Bennett, the proprietor of the Herald, objects to his employes having preferences and distinctions of their own, and to give a dinner to a public man was therefore an offence, followed by Mr. Young's resignation.

REFORM CLUB DINNER.

Extensive preparations are being completed for the Reform Club dinner, which will be held in the new banquet hall of the Madison Square Garden on Monday evening, December 23d, in celebration of the results of the recent election. From the rapidity by which the tickets have been disposed of the prediction is that the hall will be crowded to its capacity. Mrs. Cleveland and her friends will occupy a box on the right-hand side of the hall, and besides the speakers of the evening, about one hundred of the most prominent men in the country, will be present. The following toasts have been assigned to the speakers named:

"The Campaign of Education,"
Grover Cleveland, of New York.
"Popular Government,"
John G. Carlisle, of Kentucky.
"Our New Allies in the Northwest,"
Horace Boies, of Iowa.
"The Place of New England in the Pending Contest,"
William E. Russell.
"An Awakened Country,"
William U. Gensel, of Pennsylvania.
"The Fifty second Congress,"
William L. Wilson, of West Virginia.
"Reciprocity,".....Roger Q. Mills, of Texas.
"Issues Change, and Parties must Change with them,"
Thomas Wilson, of Minnesota.
"McKinley's Discovery,"
Tom L. Johnson, of Ohio.

INTERVIEW WITH GOULD.

George Alfred Townsend publishes a long interview which he had with Mr. Gould. According to his statement, Mr. Gould does not favor a United States bank, and thinks the purchase of silver bullion will begin to be felt in February, and believes that about one hundred millions of dollars are hoarded. Mr. Townsend says of him: He is a moderate protectionist, believes we can sustain the railroads which we have, thinks the inter-State law has had a bad effect, that it will be modified, and, perhaps, ultimately laid aside. He thinks white men at the South ought to be left alone to handle the African problem; says that Texas will get $80,000,000 this year for its cotton, and believes that Alaska may become a summer resort. He would give respectable subsidies to steamships, and rather agrees with the Emperor of Germany in his ideas of the value of classical studies. He thinks a knowledge of some trade no disadvantage to anybody, and in this connection paints an interesting family group.

Concerning this last Mr Gould said: "I have seen that in the case of my own family, my son George is an expert telegrapher, and when he has traveled with me to the West we generally live in our car, and switch it off at a siding. My son will then put on his boots, his steel clamps or prongs, and go up the telegraph pole, attach the wire to his instrument in the car, and then he sends for me all my telegraph messages. It causes him no disparagement, and makes him feel that he could get his living at all times."

Earnings: Richmond and Danville, first week in December, 1889, $253,950; 1890, $253,675; increase, $30,275.

East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia, first week in December, 1890, $149,685; 1889, $145,351; increase, $4,333.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

Mr. T. D. Sullivan, ex-Mayor of Dublin and one of the Irish Parliamentary delegates who have remained in this country pending a settlement of the trouble in Ireland, will sail for Queenstown to-morrow. Mr. Sullivan is the father-in-law of Timothy Healy, M. P., whose sharp tongue is causing Mr. Parnell so much discomfort in Irish politics.

Signor Succi is now in the forty-first day of his fast. He weighed 107¼ pounds, just forty pounds less than he weighed when he ate his last meal, and one-half pound less than he weighed at 3:30 o'clock yesterday. Succi's forty-five days' fast will end at 8:10 o'clock on Saturday evening.

Judge Cowing to-day refused to dismiss the indictments for bribery against "Billy" Moloney, Robert DeLacey, and Charles Dempsey, of the boodle Board of Aldermen of 1884. He set down the third Monday in January for the trial.

We Challenge

It never fails, and is so pure, so sure, so harmless that an infant can take it and never have a second spell of colic. An adult can take it, keep the bowels regular, and secure health.
