FINANCE AND COMMERCE

THE CLOSING QUOTATIONS OF MONEY.

Offerings and Sales at the Richmond Tobacco Exchange—Internal Revenue Collections—Foreign Advices.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Money on call has been easy, with all loans at 5 per cent., but closing offered at 4 per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 5@7 per cent. Sterling exchange quiet and steady; posted rates, 486½@488; commercial, 485¾@487¼. The clearing house statement for to-day is as follows: Exchange, $139,140,951; balances, $6,111,687. The sub-Treasury was debtor at the clearing-house to-day $907,644. Government bonds dull and firm. Southern State bonds neglected. Railroad bonds fairly active and firm.

The stock market to-day was unusually active for a Saturday, and showed decided strength from opening to close. This strength, however, can in only a small degree be attributed to new buying, especially by outside speculators, as the trading remains professional in most all parts of the list. The covering of shorts, however, throughout the whole market has been heavy for the last two days. It is estimated that yesterday and to-day some 50,000 shares of Reading have been bought in for the short account. The activity in the market is still confined principally to Industrials, and among them to Sugar and Distillers. Sugar was the strong point in the market to-day, advancing 2¾ per cent., transactions being extremely large and the advance rapid. Distillers at one time showed a favorable advance, but it was not held. The bank statement was the great factor in the last dealings, supporting the market when a disposition to realize appeared. The feeling on the street, however, was so bullish over the financial situation that prices advanced without hindrance right up to the close. At the same time there was no wide fluctuations, except in Manhattan, which rose 2¾ per cent., and the Industrials, together with the Colorado stocks, which were so unduly depressed yesterday. Sales, 173,000 shares.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, ILL., Jan. 7.—It was another lively day on the board of trade. May pork sold up to $18.75 and closed strong at $18.70 bid. Brokers were in some cases hardly enough to predict an opening price of $19.00 a barrel for Monday morning. As usual, the country was bullish, and appreciating the fact that pork is scarce, sent in their orders early. When the bell tapped the brokers jumped for pork, and the market opened at $18.60, 10c. above last night's closing figures. The market advanced within a few minutes to $18.75. There was a brief respite, and then the men who had "loaded up" yesterday began to sell. The price dropped to $18.25 in short order under the heavy selling. As soon as the longs had "covered up" their deals, the old clique made its pressure felt, and sent the price up to $18.75 again. During the closing hour the market was firm, and there was little inclination to sell short.

Lard is 10c. higher than last night. Ribs unchanged, with only 13,000 hogs at the yards, and an excited scramble for them at another 15 to 20c. advance over the preceding day's price, and with some other features of the hog movement of a no more reassuring character, alarm among short sellers in pork was not wonderful.

Wheat closed about ⅛c. lower than yesterday, corn ¼@⅜c. lower and oats about even.

Cash Quotations—Flour strong at late advance, but not much doing; No. 2 spring wheat, 72¾c.; No. 2 red, 72¾c.; No. 2 corn, 41½c.; No. 2 oats, 30⅝@30¾c.; No. 2 white, 34¾@34⅞c.; pork, $16.87½@17.00; lard, $10.90; ribs, $9.55@9.60; dry salted shoulders, $9.25@9.37½; clear sides, $10.10@10.15; whisky, $1.30.

'Tis hard to break the tender cord
When love has bound the heart;
'Tis hard—so hard to speak, to speak the word—
We must forever part.

Dearest lawed one, we must lay thee
In the peaceful grave's embrace,
But thy memory will be cherished
Till we see thy heavenly face.

Funeral to take place at Pine-street Baptist church, JANUARY 8th, at 3:30 o'clock. Friends and acquaintances are invited to attend.

Washington papers please copy.

YARRINGTON.—Died, at his residence, No. 412 west Franklin street, Saturday morning at 4:30 o'clock, of congestion of the lungs, MATTHEW W. YARRINGTON, in the seventy-third year of his age.

Colonial Capital News.

WILLIAMSBURG, VA., Jan. 7.—Special. The detainer case of the College of William and Mary against the City School Board, which was transferred to the County Court of Warwick, will be called at Newport News on Thursday next before Judge Peck.

A prospecting party of capitalists from Ohio will visit this section in a few days with a view of purchasing farming lands.

Mayor Leonard Henley has just received a letter from J. Taylor Stratton, adjutant of Lee Camp, Richmond, notifying him of his unanimous election as a member of that body. The mayor was a foot soldier and was in it from 1861 to 1865.

Captain L. W. Lane celebrated his fifty-fourth birthday last night. His family and relatives, who are numerous, assembled at his comfortable home and congratulated the captain and wished him many returns of his natal day, after which they sat down to a royal repast, the menu of which embraced everything in season.

Water Tank Burned.

FARMVILLE, Jan. 7.—The weather has been severely cold here for several days. The Appomattox river is frozen over for the second time this winter.

The water tank of the Norfolk and Western railroad which supplies the engines with water at this point was partially consumed by fire Friday morning. Cold weather had frozen the valve directly underneath the tank, and the engineer saturated some waste with kerosene oil, attached it to the pipe and set it on fire, which resulted in a damaging fire.

Mr. James Cassell, division superintendent of the Norfolk and Western railroad, was the recipient of an elegant Christmas present in the shape of a handsome gold-headed cane, presented by the agents of the Lynchburg division, which extends from Roanoke to Crewe.

Marriage in Buckingham.

NEW STORE, VA., Jan. 6.—Many people gathered at the beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Anderson at Andersonville on Friday evening, December 30. The occasion was one long to be remembered, as everything was as pleasant as Virginia hospitality could make it. The party was given by Mrs. Anderson to her sister, Mrs. William Morton (nee Gilliam), who was married at the residence of her father, Mr. J. Branch Gilliam near Buckingham Courthouse the day before. An elegant supper was served in the beautifully decorated dining hall, after which the young people proceeded to the Masonic Hall, where dancing was indulged in.

Professor and Mrs. Morton left for their future home in Alabama. The best wishes of many friends go with them.

Got Five Years' Imprisonment.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., Jan. 7.—Special.—Preston White (colored), who recently assaulted Conductor R. P. Greaver on a train at Mechum's, has been sentenced by the county court to five years in the penitentiary.

The closing service of the week of prayer was held at the Presbyterian church last night.

Dr. Thornhill died in Lynchburg yesterday. He married Miss Cornelia L. Bibb, a daughter of the late W. H. Bibb, of this city.

Justifiable Homicide.

STEVENSVILLE, VA., Jan. 7.—Special.—In an altercation between Robert Norman and Charles Seward in the lower part of the county January 2d, Seward was killed by Norman. The grand jury to-day brought in a verdict of justifiable homicide.

In consequence of the snow there was a very small attendance at court.

All the ice houses in the neighborhood have been filled with ice from four to six inches.

A Dwelling Burned.

ASHEVILLE, VA., Jan. 7.—Special.—About 1:30 yesterday morning the residence of N. A. Kykendall, at 146 Hill street, was consumed by fire. The house and most of the furniture were totally destroyed. Mrs. J. G. Queen, who lived next door, was the first to discover the fire and the alarm was promptly sent in, but before the firemen, who responded immediately, could arrive on the scene the fire had gained such headway that it could not be checked.

Many Valuable Young Horses Dying.

LURAY, VA., Jan. 7.—Special.—Mr. John J. Heiston lost two valuable young horses and his fine Hambletonian stallion yesterday, all three dying within thirty-six hours each, and seeming to have the same disease, blind staggers. This disease, or something of the kind, has caused the death of a number of valuable horses in this county, and stock men are considerably exercised as to the best means to stop its ravages.

Professor Griswold Very Ill.

PETERSBURG, VA., Jan 7.—Special.—Professor J. G. Griswold, one of Petersburg's most prominent citizens and merchants, is critically ill with pneumonia and little or no hope is entertained for his recovery. Professor Griswold was for many years principal of the St. Paul's female school in this city. He is a native of Richmond.

COMMISSIONERS' AUCTION SALE OF A TRACT OF LAND IN HENRICO COUNTY, ABOUT THREE MILES FROM RICHMOND, FRONTING ON THE WILLIAMSBURG AND CHARLES CITY ROADS, CONTAINING 175 ACRES, MORE OR LESS.

By virtue of a decree of the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond, in the cause of A. Monteiro vs. Julia W. Morriss, entered December 17, 1891, the undersigned special commissioners, appointed for the purpose, will sell, by public auction, at Henrico County Courthouse, on at 12 o'clock M., the tract of land described in said decree, as follows, to-wit: That certain tract of land in Henrico county, Va., about three miles from the city of Richmond, extending from the Charles City road to the Williamsburg road, with a frontage on each road, and containing 175 acres, more or less, and purchased by the plaintiff from John P. Campbell by two deeds, on record in the clerk's office of Henrico County Court, and which is the same property sold by the plaintiff to the defendant.

This land is very conveniently located, near the city, and has a front on both the Williamsburg and Charles City roads, making it very valuable.

TERMS: Enough cash to pay the expenses of the sale, the costs of this suit, and the sum of $1,500, with interest from June 1, 1891, and next $1,650, payable January 14, 1893; next $1,650, payable January 15, 1894; next $1,650, payable January 16, 1895; next $1,650, payable January 16, 1896, and next a note of $2,500 with interest from March 17, 1891, which interest, however, is to be subject to a credit of $37.50, payable March 17, 1894, and the balance, if there be any, at such time as the said Julia W. Morriss may direct, and, in case of her failure to direct, at such time or times as the commissioner or commissioners shall direct, said deferred payments to be evidenced by negotiable notes, payable at the times above set out, and the title to said property is to be retained until the whole of the purchase money is paid and a conveyance is ordered by the court.

J. L. ANDERSON,
W. W. COSBY, JR.,
Special commissioners.

Sale by R. B. Chaffin & Co., Auctioneers.

Monteiro vs. Morriss—In the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond:

I, Charles W. Goddin, clerk of said court, certify that the bond required of the special commissioners by the decree in said cause of 17th December, 1891, has been duly given.

Given under my hand this 28th day of December, 1892. CHAS. W. GODDIN, de28-td Clerk.
