MANCHESTER MATTERS.

NEWS GLEANED FROM THE CITY JUST ACROSS THE JAMES.

A Delightful German—Two Commissioners in Chancery Appointed—Charged with Stealing—The Hustings Court.

MANCHESTER BUREAU RICHMOND TIMES, 1121 HULL STREET. BEATTIE BLOCK.

The elite of Manchester society turned out in full force on Monday night, the occasion being one of the most delightful germans ever given in Leader Hall. The german was divided into two parts. The first was led by Mr. Arthur Van Buren, of Richmond, while Mr. Jordon, also of Richmond, led the second half. The "wee hours of the morn" found the young people enjoying themselves, and it was with great reluctance that they obeyed the beautiful strains of "Home, Sweet Home," and left, only to remember the pleasant time they had enjoyed. The following were present:

Col. B. O. James with Miss Bessie Gill, Mr. R. L. French with Miss Susie Gregory of Chester, Mr. Charles Brown with Miss Ruby Thomas of Richmond, Mr. E. L. Wingfield with Miss Phoebe Clarke of South Boston, Mr. S. S. Patch with Miss Ella Mayo, Mr. W. W. Friend with Miss Agnes Walker, Mr. E. E. Earley with Miss Kate Drewry, Mr. Tom. E. Owen with Miss Minne Lee Drewry, Mr. C. B. French with Miss Pattie Fendley of Chester, Mr. Ryland C. Williams with Miss Annie Parker, Mr. W. J. Adams with Miss Reid, Mr. Gordon Strachan with Miss Mamie Mayo of Richmond, Mr. William E. Cox with Miss Ethel Clarke of South Boston, Mr. Ed. Winfree with Miss Ruth Bennett of Richmond, Mr. S. S. Carter with Miss Branch of Petersburg, Mr. Chalkley with Miss Lalla Mayo, Mr. Thomas Turpin with Miss Maurice Weisiger, Mr. John Russell with Miss Mildred Russell of New York, Mr. Robert Perdue with Miss Lethice Perdue, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Sims, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Vaden. The stags were Messrs. Van Buren, Price, Porter, H. G. Carter, Bransford Cox, Agnew, Robertson, Patteson, and Jordan. Judge John H. Ingram and Col. G. K. Macon were also present. The chaperons were Mrs. E. W. Weisiger, Mrs. J. H. Parker, Mrs. B. N. Drewry, Mrs. W. Hay Garnett, and Miss Garlick.

In accordance with the act passed by the General Assembly increasing the number of commissioners in chancery for this city from four to six, Judge Ingram has appointed Messrs. Ernest H. Wells and W. Laurence Pool for the positions, and they qualified in the Hustings Court yesterday. These gentlemen will not receive any compensation from either the city or State, and the only income which they will derive is the fees.

Frances C. Wade, a young white man, was before the Mayor's Court yesterday morning, charged with stealing $5 from Charles P. Stegar. Stegar and Wade went together into an oyster saloon on Hull street Monday afternoon and called for two stews. After eating the oysters in an adjoining room Wade came into the front room and asked the proprietor what were his charges, after which he settled the bill for both. The proprietor asked Wade where was his companion, and Wade replied that he was in the other room asleep. The proprietor told him that he did not allow persons sleeping in his place, and Stegar was at once awakened. When he awoke Stegar claimed that he had been robbed of $5 while in the saloon. The proprietor at once locked his doors and sent for an officer. Captain Lipscomb arrested Wade and took him to the station-house, where he was searched. On his person was found $8 and some cents. The case was continued until this morning.

The case of W. S. Rollin against G. H. Patch and J. Q. Dickerson, which has been attracting the attention of the Hustings Court for a week, was concluded Monday night about 11:30 o'clock. The jury brought in a verdict placing Mr. Patch's damages at $391.59. This case is said to be one of the most complicated cases that has ever been tried in this court.

Captain A. C. Attkisson sent in his resignation yesterday to Colonel F. M. Boykin as captain of the Chesterfield Troop. Captain Attkisson succeeded Captain David Moore, of Chesterfield county, as captain of the troop about twelve months ago, and during that time has proved himself an efficient officer. The reason for his resignation is that he did not have the time he thought proper to devote to the troop.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary S. Williamson took place yesterday morning at 7 o'clock from the residence of her son, corner Eighth and Hull streets. The services were conducted by Rev. W. E. Hurt, pastor of Stockton-street Baptist church. The remains were taken to Chesterfield county, where they were interred in the family burying-ground.

The committee appointed from the different churches in this city to make preparations for the coming of Evangelist Schoolfield met Monday night. The committee decided to hold the meetings, which will last about ten days, at Central Methodist church, and the meetings will commence on the 18th of this month.

The relief committee for Third ward will canvass that ward to-morrow. They will make a house to house canvass, and donations of clothing, fuel, etc., will be thankfully received. A similar canvass of this kind was made by the committee of Fourth ward several weeks ago and they received a large number of contributions. The relief committee of this city are doing much good for the suffering and a number of homes have been made happy by them.

Rev. J. T. Johnson will assist to-night in conducting the services at Clopton-street Baptist church.

Bishop A. M. Randolph will conduct confirmation services at Meade-Memorial church next Friday night.

Messrs. Harvie Clarke and W. S. Bower conducted a prayer-meeting last Sunday afternoon at the city almshouse.

Miss Emma Parrott, of Orange county, and Misses Mary L. Williamson and Lula Hughes, of Petersburg, are visiting Mrs. M. L. Walker, on Thirteenth street.

Miss Susie Gregory, of Chester, is the guest of Mrs. T. M. Fendley, on Porter street.

Miss Josephine Hierholzer, of Richmond, is visiting Miss Fannie Shotwell, on Cowardin avenue.

Property Transfers.

Newell, 30 feet on north side Grove avenue near Plum street, $7,000; M. Hicks' devisees to Second Baptist church's (colored) trustees, 50 11-12 feet on Fourth street southwest corner Leigh, $4,825; Giles B. Henrico: Mollie E. Burton from C. L. Denoon, trustee, 70 feet on west side Garland avenue, being lots 15 and 16 in square 10, Brookland Park, $1,500.

He Was Discharged.

The continued case of John Starke, charged with stealing a mail bag from the crane at Ellerson's postoffice, on the Chesapeake and Ohio railway, was again before United States Commissioner Henry Fiegenheimer yesterday morning, and the accused was discharged. The accused was represented by Mr. Hill Carter and the interests of the Government was looked after by District Attorney F. R. Lassiter.

One cold after another will, with many constitutions, securely establish the seeds of consumption in the system. Those in need of a remedy will find Dr. D. Jayne's Expectorant always prompt, thorough, and efficacious.

DANGER JUST AHEAD.

A Prominent Professor Speaks About the Threatening Things Abroad at This Time of the Year.

"It is surprising how many people are suffering to-day from so-called coughs, colds, and influenza."

The remark was made by a very prominent professor, connected with one of the leading New York hospitals. Continuing, he said:

"It is not these things that are troubling people, but it is an advanced form of our old enemy, the grip. People feel out of sorts, sneeze, have pains in the muscles and bones, have no appetite, lose all interest in the world, and wonder what is the matter. It is the grip; nothing else.

"Now, all such symptoms need to have prompt treatment. The attack must be met and repelled at once, or it is certain to run into something serious. I know of but one way to certainly avoid these troubles which are now so common, and that is, to immediately counteract them by using a good, pure, strong stimulant. Nothing of the ordinary kind, but something pure and scientific. For this purpose nothing has ever equalled Duffy's Pure Malt Whisky, which is acknowledged to-day by physicians and scientific people to be the only pure, medicinal malt whisky upon the market."

The words of the professor are true, and they carry a wonderful meaning to many men and women who are suffering with the first symptoms of grip, or else grip in its advanced stages. For all such people we offer a word of advice: which is to take the best means to overcome these troubles, and do not permit any dealer to swerve you from your purpose to have that which has proven itself by years of use to be the best and purest stimulant in the world.
