FROM THE SISTER CITY.

ITEMS OF INTEREST GATHERED IN MANCHESTER YESTERDAY.

The Evangelical Meeting Postponed—Bishop Randolph to Preach at Meade Memorial Church—Personals.

MANCHESTER BUREAU RICHMOND TIMES, 1121 HULL STREET, BEATTIE BLOCK.

There was nothing of public interest in the city yesterday. Things were even more quiet than usual. There is much disappointment over the fact that the Rev. Mr. Schoolfield, the evangelist, who was expected to be in this city on the 18th of this month to commence a series of meetings under the auspices of the Methodist churches of this city, will be unable to be here on that date. He will give due notice on what date he will arrive.

Bishop Randolph will confirm at Meade-Memorial church to-night; also at Hope chapel (colored) to-morrow night.

Miss Mamie Wiley, of Amelia, who has been visiting the Misses Clayton, is now visiting Mr. Toney Miller, of Richmond.

A marriage license was issued in the clerk's office yesterday to George M. Branch and Miss Cora Griffith.

Mr. E. A. Savory is very sick at his residence on Hull street.

Mrs. W. L. Porter is quite sick at her residence on Cowardin avenue.

Mr. P. V. Cogbill, of Chesterfield, was in the city yesterday, and reports that everything is quiet in the county.

Mr. C. W. Williams, who took the remains of his mother to Amelia county, a distance of thirty-five miles, returned Wednesday evening. The remains were taken to that county in a hearse, and in consequence of the roads being in such a terrible condition slow progress was made in the trip.

Liberty Council, No. 12, Jr. O. U. A. M., of Swansboro, at a meeting held on last Tuesday night, initiated two, elected three, and received seventeen applications for membership. Among the number was a popular minister of this city.

Miss Pattie Fendley, of Chesterfield, who has been visiting Miss Annie Parker, has returned home.

Miss Susie Gregory, of Chester, returned home Wednesday morning after a visit of several days to Mrs. T. M. Fendley, on Porter street.

The Little Workers of the Presbyterian church will give a sugar stew in the lecture-room of that church this afternoon from 4 to 6 P. M.

Clerk M. A. Cogbill, of the County Court, issued a marriage license last Tuesday to Mr. Fountain Andrews, aged eighty-one, and Mr. M. D. McLauren, aged sixty. They are both well-known in the county.

There was not a case before the Mayor's Court yesterday morning.

The infant child of Rev. R. H. Winfree, of Midlothian, is dead.

HIS EMPLOYER'S MONEY.

J. G. Crouch in the Police Court—The Prize-Fight Case.

And the eighteenth victim appeareth. The glittering possibility of wealth to come quickly; the case of his employer's money; on endeavor on the part of his employer to get satisfaction, his impatience, and the final inevitable ending of hopes built the wrong way; the exposure of recklessness to his wife and friends—and the Police Court. The eighteenth drama depicted before his Honor of that sort of adversity which bucks up against racing with the vain hope of wealth and content.

J. G. Crouch has been a drummer for the past several years for the firm of Rowe Brothers, cigar manufacturers, and he was arrested yesterday on a warrant sworn out by his employers charging him with the embezzlement of $686.72. The testimony adduced before his Honor tended to show that Crouch had collected amounts of money for his firm and made no accounting for them, but had devoted the amounts to treating his customers, and, on one occasion, the point was elicited that he had gone to the Turf Exchange after making a collection of $25; that he left there that evening, and advised his firm that he had collected only a small portion of the amount named. His Honor could do nothing but send the case on to the Hustings Court, although Harry M. Smith, Jr., counsel for the accused, made a hard fight for his discharge. A large number of witnesses were examined and much evidence was presented to show Crouch's previous good character. He was discharged on the first of the year and had advised Rowe Brothers of his shortage and they had attempted to get some sort of satisfaction in a settlement, but failed to come to any amicable arrangement, so they finally went to Commonwealth-Attorney Spottswood, and stated the facts which caused this action.

This is a sad case, as the young man is highly esteemed and had good opportunities in the future. All of the witnesses spoke well of him.

That other case in which the Turf Exchange figures was also presented for trial yesterday morning, the alleged prize-fight.

A more remarkable pugilistic contest could never have occurred. There were seventeen witnesses. They were all closely examined, and when the examination was finished, the Commonwealth was in possession of just about as much information regarding the fight as it was before the first witness was called. Thus it was that Edward Murphy, John Monohan, Frank Wongo, and T. S. Monroe were acquitted of the charge of being unlawfully engaged in a prize contest in "The Turf Exchange" on the night of February 1st. The witnesses were undoubtedly the most reticent his Honor has ever dealt with. Those who were there either knew nothing or else refused to testify upon the ground that they would criminate themselves. Col. Spottswood endeavored to elicit such information from the witnesses as would allow the law to fasten its clutches upon the pugilistic quartette, but he assayed in vain, for all he learned was that the seventeen gentlemen were profoundly ignorant of the fact that there had been a prize fight. When his Honor dismissed the men he comforted the Commonwealth by the remark that the case was one of "guilt that could not be proven."

Edward Murphy, alias Harry Williams, was tried upon another charge, that of stealing $100 in currency and a gold watch of the value of $50, both the property of F. C. Mitchell. It seems Murphy and Mitchell went out driving. The latter was in a very intoxicated condition. He got out of the buggy and went into a bar-room to get a drink, while Murphy drove the vehicle back to the livery stable. While in the bar-room Mitchell missed his money and watch. The next day Sergeant Hall was put on the case. He found the watch in Stein's pawnshop. He said that Stern's clerk gave him a description of the man who pawned the watch, and that it corresponded to Murphy. Stearns did not identify Murphy as the man who pawned the watch, and as Mr. Mitchell could not swear that Murphy stole the money and watch, the case was dismissed.

John Scott (colored) charged with the murder of Daniel Martin, the negro whom he recently stabbed in a difficulty on Seventeenth street, and who died Wednesday at the Alms-house, was before his Honor. The case was continued in order that the witnesses might be summoned.

Hattie Shelton (colored) was fined $5 and costs for striking Rosa Braxton with a rock.

Carrington Brown (colored) was fined $10 and costs for beating his wife in the street.

Albert Wheeler and Willie Tyler, two colored boys, were ordered by his Honor to be whipped by their parents, for stealing coal from the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad.

There were several minor cases disposed of by the Justice.

DINNER TO REAL ESTATE MEN.

Messrs. Chewning & Rose Tender a Delightful Affair at Ruegers.

"Messrs. Chewning & Rose present their compliments, and would be pleased to have your company at dinner, Thursday, February 8th, at 3 P. M., sharp, at Ruegers."

The above invitation to the real estate agents of the city was responded to by almost the entire fraternity, and the dinner proved to be an elegant one in every particular, and similar to the delightfully informal affairs heretofore given by these hospitable hosts. The menu consisted of a choice selection of viands and dainties served in the best of style. It was heartily enjoyed by every one present, while a number of rich jokes by Messrs. Rose, Pollard, Gilliam, and others formed an additional interesting feature of the otherwise pleasant occasion.

Among those present were Messrs. H. L. Cabell, E. A. Catlin, R. B. Chaffin, James H. Crenshaw, H. L. Denoon, A. D. Crutchfield, N. W. Bowe, Thomas M. Rutherford, H. R. Pollard, Jr., T. M. Wortham, R. W. Jones, Robert Gilliam, C. H. Sutton, William Wingfield, A. B. Apperson, A. C. Harman, H. Seldon Taylor, J. R. Hockaday, P. P. Winston, H. A. McCurdy, J. J. Boswell, Jr., Lewis P. Winston, Leroy Brown, George E. Crawford, J. Thompson Brown, George S. Vashon, Jr., John T. Goddin, J. B. Gayle, R. R. Harrison, and J. Booten Hill.

A Rural Tea To-Night.

An attractive idea is to be presented by the young ladies of the Third Presbyterian church, on the corner of Twenty-sixth and Broad streets to-night, from 8 to 11 o'clock. "A Rural Tea" is the idea, and its proceeds are to be devoted toward putting the church in a more presentable condition. Church Hill belles will serve the tea, and fascinate you while you drink it. A large crowd is expected.

Board of Equalization.

At the request of the special committee on investigating the mineral lands of the State, of which Mr. Withrow, of Bath, is chairman, Colonel Morton Marye, the Auditor of Public Accounts, has compiled a statement as to the difference in valuation of lands in the various lands for the past year. This statement will be an important argument in favor of the necessity of establishing a State board of equalization.

The Retreat for the Sick.

At a regular meeting of the board of managers of the Retreat for the Sick the Florida trip was discussed, but it was not decided as to the time, or price of the tickets. It was decided to hold the annual pound party next Thursday afternoon between 12 and 5 o'clock. There are now fifteen charity patients at the Retreat.

Picturesque America.

Here is your opportunity! A genuine steel engraving worth fifty cents, with every part.

The Richmond Times now offers its readers the finest illustrated book ever issued, "Picturesque America," a delineation of the land we live in, by pen and pencil. A genuine steel engraving, worth fifty cents with every part. This magnificent work was originally published by the Appletons at fifty cents for each of the thirty parts, at which price nearly a quarter of a million complete sets were sold in America and Europe. A genuine steel engraving, worth fifty cents, with every part.

The Times' readers can obtain each part for ten cents and three coupons, which is less than the cost of production. Each and every part contains a steel engraving in the highest style of art, and every page of the book is embellished by a beautiful wood engraving from drawings by the most celebrated American artists. The letter-press is by authors of established reputation, and the work was edited by William Cullen Bryant, the poet. For twenty years, "Picturesque America" has been considered the greatest publication of its kind, and has never been equaled.

The parts will be issued by the Times each week, and are warranted to be exactly as first published. Ten cents a week is all it will cost you, and when completed you will have a work that can never be surpassed. A genuine steel engraving worth fifty cents with every part. Only think of it! Ten cents and three coupons secure the first part, and you will receive a part every week at the same price. Half dollars for dimes! Fifty cent parts for ten cents! First part ready February 17th.

BAD BLOOD Is a source of much suffering. The system should be thoroughly cleansed of all impurities, and the Blood kept in a healthy condition. S. S. S. removes all taint of whatsoever origin, and builds up the general health.

For three years I was so troubled with malarial poison that life lost all its charms; I tried mercurial and Potash remedies, but could get no relief; A few bottles of S.S.S. made a complete and permanent cure. J. A. RICE, Ottawa, Kan.

AUCTION SALES—Future Days.

By P. P. Winston & Son,
Real Estate Auctioneers,
1117 east Main street, Richmond, Va.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE COUNTY OF HENRICO, IN THE STATE OF VIRGINIA.

GEORGE E. FISHER, . Plaintiff, against
THE RICHMOND CITY AND SEVEN PINES RAILWAY COMPANY AND OTHERS, . . . Defendants.

By virtue of and pursuant to a decree of the Circuit Court of the county of Henrico, in the State of Virginia, entered on the 16th day of January, 1894, in the above suit of George E. Fisher against The Richmond City and Seven Pines Railway Company and others, the undersigned, special commissioners, appointed by said decree, will, at 12 M. on THE 27TH DAY OF FEBRUARY, 1894, at the corner of Twenty-ninth and P streets, in the city of Richmond (that being the city terminus of the said railway and its connecting point with the Union Passenger railway), expose for sale at public auction to the highest and best bidder, the FRANCHISES and PROPERTY of the said defendant company; that is to say, all the right, title, estate, and interest of the Richmond City and Seven Pines Railway Company in and and singular the line of railway extending from Twenty-ninth and P streets in the city of Richmond along Twenty-ninth street to the Nine-Mile road, and along the Nine-Mile road, in the county of Henrico, to the Seven Pines battlefield, its eastern terminus in said county; and in the branch road in the Nine-Mile road from the intersection of Twenty-ninth street with the Nine-Mile road to Twenty-sixth street, and along Twenty-sixth street to P street, in the city of Richmond, the whole length of the said railway, being about seven and one half miles, including all the property forming part of and appurtaining to the said railway, and all property now embraced in and conveyed by the mortgage or deed of trust dated the 1st day of November, 1888.

At the same time there will be sold separately from the said roadway the following rolling stock, viz.: TWO DUMMY ENGINES, FOUR PASSENGER CARS, ONE BOX-CAR, AND FOUR FLAT-CARS, all of which are in good condition and ready for use. The above-mentioned railway is now being operated as an electric railway, with recent and modern equipments throughout its entire length.

The aforesaid sale will be made subject to all the conditions and terms prescribed by a decree of January 16, 1894, a copy of which said decree of sale, containing a description of the property and the terms of sale, may be seen at the office of P. P. Winston & Son, No. 1117 east Main street, Richmond, Va., from whom all information respecting said property can be obtained.

TERMS OF SALE: The highest and best bidder for the said railway track and roadway and appurtenances will be required to pay in cash the sum of $2,000, to be deposited in the Citizens Bank of Richmond, within twenty-four hours from the time of sale, to the credit of the Circuit Court of Henrico county, in the suit of George E. Fisher against The Richmond City and Seven Pines Railway Company and others. And the highest and best bidder for the said rolling stock shall in like manner deposit in said bank to the credit of the Court in this cause 20 per cent. of his or their purchase-money within twenty-four hours from time of said sale; and such purchaser or purchasers shall file a certificate of such deposit in the papers of this cause. And if such sale or sales are confirmed by the Court, the purchaser of said railway or roadway shall, for the balance of the purchase-money thereof, execute two (2) negotiable notes of equal amounts, payable to the order of said commissioners in said suit six (6) and twelve (12) months after date, with interest added from day of sale, at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum, and the purchaser or purchasers of said rolling stock shall, for the remaining 80 per cent. of his or their purchase, execute three (3) negotiable notes of equal amounts, payable to the order of said commissioners six (6), twelve (12), and eighteen (18) months after date, with interest added from day of sale at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum, and the title to said property shall be retained until all of the purchase-money is paid. But the said purchasers, at their option, may pay all the deferred payments in cash, and, if so, the same to be deposited in the said Citizens Bank of Richmond, as hereinbefore directed.

Upon confirmation of the said report of sale and compliance with the terms of sale by the purchaser or purchasers, and payment in full of all the purchase-money, the said commissioners will execute and deliver, when ordered by the Court, to the purchaser or purchasers, a deed of conveyance, and the purchaser or purchasers, or his or their successor or successors in interest, will then and there be put into possession of the premises and property so purchased by him or them, and will, at the same time, be entitled to receive all books, maps, plans, papers, records, and documents of the defendant company relating and appurtaining to the franchises and property in question.

The present management will remain in possession of the mortgaged premises and continue to operate the line of railway until the conveyance thereof.

If the sale shall not be confirmed by the Court, the amount of the purchase-money paid by the purchaser or purchasers will be refunded without deduction, unless the non-confirmation thereof shall be due to the default of the purchaser or purchasers, in which event such terms will be imposed as the Court may think just and proper.

In case the purchaser or purchasers shall fail to comply with the terms of sale immediately, as hereinbefore described and mentioned, it shall be the duty of the said commissioners to put up the property again for sale upon the same terms, at the same place, at 1 o'clock the next day, without further advertising, at the risk and cost of the former purchaser.
