The Times.

VOL. 9—NEW SERIES, NO. 233. RICHMOND, VA., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1895. PRICE THREE CENTS.

THE VOTE ALL OVER VIRGINIA

There Were Some Striking Surprises in Democratic Strongholds,

THE WALTON LAW A STRONG FACTOR,

About Three-Fourths of Both Houses of the Legislature Are Democratic and Some Changes May be Caused by Later Returns.

Up to 3 o'clock this morning the returns show that the Democrats have elected not less than three-fourths of both houses of the Legislature. There have been some striking surprises. J. B. Stovall (Rep.) is elected in Halifax. Botetourt, a Democratic stronghold, elects an anti-Democrat, and so does Louisa. Dan Lee, a brother of General Fitz Lee, is defeated by a Republican in Stafford. Northumberland and Westmoreland elect a Republican, and Mecklenburg an anti-Democrat. Colonel Catlett Gibson (Ind.), in Culpeper, is defeated by the Straightout Democrat by an overwhelming majority. The election in Roanoke is very close, and Watts (Dem.), for Senate, is probably defeated by a small majority. Wise elects a Republican. Indications point to a Democratic majority in Pittsylvania. The telegraph wires are down in Henry county and no returns can be secured from that direction.

The indications are, that the Democrats will have 31 out of 39 Senators and 75 out of 100 Representatives in the next Legislature.

The Result in Page.

LURAY, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Very little more than half the usual vote was polled in Page to-day, with but few Republicans voting. E. H. Jackson, of Front Royal, for the Senate, led the Democratic ticket. The name of Mr. Willis (Rep.), of the same county, did not appear upon the official ballot, on account of his late candidacy. Captain R. S. Parks, the nominee of the party, has carried Page and Rappahannock over J. Suter (Ind. Dem.) by the following majorities: The former by about 130 and the latter, 400 majority.

Buckingham and Cumberland.

HOWARDSVILLE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—The official vote at Glenmore precinct, Buckingham county, is as follows: H. D. Ficod, Democratic candidate for the Eighteenth senatorial district, 59 majority over R. T. Hubbard (Rep.).

Wiley J. Hubard (Dem.), 56 majority ever W. A. Davis (Rep.) for the House of Delegates.

For Buckingham and Cumberland indications point to a large Democratic victory.

Cumberland County.

PEMBERTON, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—The three precincts in the lower end of Cumberland give Southall (Dem.) for the Senate, 163, and Lancaster (Rep.), 253; Hubbard (Dem.), for the House, 127; and Davis (honest-election alias Republican), 329; Lancaster's majority, 120; Davis' majority, 202.

Alexandria.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—The election passed off quietly hereabouts; poll rather to be called small. Mushbach had no opposition, but was badly scratched by anti-race-track people. May is elected over Lewis (Rep.) by several hundred majority.

In Fairfax Mr. Joe Willard had no opposition, and throughout the county a strong complimentary vote was given him.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—May carried the city by 717 majority. At midnight, county returns were not all in. May will have about 900 in all. Coleman got about a dozen votes.

The Australian system worked well, but a considerable number of votes were thrown out through insufficient scratching some from simple blots.

The poll was comparatively small.

In Alleghany.

COVINGTON, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Mr. W. A. Rinehart, Democratic nominee for the House of Delegates, carried Covington precinct by 59 majority. The total vote cast was 304. Mr. Rinehart received 159; Mr. Nettleton (Rep.), 100; and Mr. Rice (Pro.), 45. This gives a Democratic gain of 154 over last year.

COVINGTON, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Alleghany Democratic by 100. Bath and Highland will do better than that. Rinehart our next representative.

Highland, Bath, and Alleghany.

COVINGTON, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—William A. Rinehart, Democratic candidate for delegate, for the district composed of Alleghany, Bath, and Highland counties, carried Alleghany county over E. M. Nettleton by 80 to 100. This certainly elects Rinehart.

Southampton.

FRANKLIN, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—R. E. Boykin (Dem.) receives at least 500 majority for the Senate from Southampton county. J. C. Parker (Dem.) is elected to the House of Delegates by a majority of at least 600. About 1,400 votes were cast in the county—a very light vote.

IVOR, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Very little interest was manifested in the election here to-day. This precinct gives J. Parker (Dem.), for House of Delegates, 102 majority; R. E. Boykin (Dem.), for State Senate, 46 majority. The total vote here is very light compared with previous elections.

COURTLAND, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Southampton will elect J. C. Parker (Dem.) over Griffin (Fusionist) by 600 majority.

Colonel R. E. Boykin's majority over Doles will probably reach 500. There seems to have been no political enthusiasm, not half of the registered vote being polled.

Precincts heard from give the Democrats 350 majority, with half of the county to hear from.

PETERSBURG, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Southampton county, Courtland precinct, for the Senate, Boykin (Dem.), 96; Doles (Rep.), 59. For the House of Delegates, Parker (Dem.), 102; Griffin (Pop.), 65.

Craig Democratic.

CRAIG CITY, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Only one precinct heard from in Craig, which gives Watts (Dem.), for Senate, 84 majority; McCartney (Dem.) for House, 100 majority; Berkley (Dem.), 77 majority. The county is probably Democratic by 200.

CRAIG CITY, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Only one precinct heard from in Craig, which gives Watts (Dem.), for Senate, 4 majority; McCartney (Dem.), for House, 50 majority; Berkley (Dem.), 77 majority. County probably Democratic by 200.

Suffolk.

SUFFOLK, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—A very light vote was polled in Nansemond county to-day. Four precincts have been heard from, giving Boykin, (Dem.) for State Senate, 247, majority over Doles (fusionist). J. E. Booker, was re-elected to the House without opposition. Ebenezer precinct, no election.

Judging from official returns of above precincts and reports made during the day from three other precincts, County Chairman West claims the county as Democratic, by at least 300 to 400 majority.

The percentage of the entire vote polled is not over 25 per cent.

Prince Edward Close.

GREEN BAY, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Burton, (Dem.), for the House of Delegates, 96; Stokes, (Pop.), 84; Southall, for the Senate, 103; Lancaster, (Rep.), 33.

Democratic gain at this precinct of 76. The contest in the county close, with chances in favor of Burton.

FARMVILLE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—The vote of Prince Edward, so far as heard from, is as follows: Farmville precinct: For Senate—Southall (Dem.), 244; Lancaster (Rep.), 193. House of Delegates—Burton (Dem.), 272; Stokes (Pop.), 251. Worsham precinct: For Senate—Southall (Dem.), 90; Lancaster (Rep.), 162. House of Delegates—Burton (Dem.), 64; Stokes (Pop.), 198. Rice's gives Stokes 58 majority and Lancaster 3 majority. Prospect gives Stokes (Pop.) 57 majority. Stokes (Pop.) is certainly elected.

FARMVILLE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special. Brown's Church precinct Hubbard (Dem.), for the House, received 97 majority, and Southall for the Senate 13 majority.

FARMVILLE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Farmville precinct gives Southall, (Dem.), for Senate, 244; Lancaster (Rep.), for Senate, 193; Burton (Dem.), for House, 272; Stokes (Pop.), for House, 251. Three other precincts to hear from, but generally conceded Stokes elected beyond a doubt.

Lexington and Rockbridge.

LEXINGTON, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—The election for members of the Legislature in this (Rockbridge) county today passed off quietly, with but little interest manifested, and if the vote all over the county was in comparison with this precinct the toal vote will be comparatively small.

The result here was only 479 votes cast, a decrease of 237 as compared with 1885, out of a possible registered vote of 800.

The returns from the county are meagre, indicating a lack of interest, showing general apathy on the part of both Democrats and Republicans, but it is believed that the Democratic ticket will have at least 200 majority.

RIVERSIDE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Rockbridge county, Cedar Hill precinct: Leech (Dem.), 48; Craig (Dem.), 44; Doe (Rep.), 45; Wady (Rep.), 45. Dullest election ever witnessed here, only one-third of the registered vote being cast. The indifference manifested about equal with both parties.

The Vote in Norfolk.

NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—A very light vote was polled to-day. The totals foot up only 2,072 out of a registered vote of over 9,000. Less than one hundred negroes voted, and the Prohibitionists, Independent Democrats, and Reformers, as a rule, did not go near the polls. Keefe and Williamson (Reps.) did not solicit the support of the colored troops. The vote by wards was as follows: M. T. Cooke (Dem.), 1,711; W. E. Foster (Dem.), 1,743; Edgar Keefe (Rep.), 329; H. O. Williamson (Rep.), 292. Mr. Cooke in 1893 received 4,340 votes.

Norfolk County.

NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Returns from Norfolk county received as follows: Glebe Precinct—Newberne (Dem.), 99; Thompson (Rep.), 29; Freeman (Rep.), 4; defective ballot, 1.

Hall's Corner—Newberne, 273; Thompson, 12; Freeman, 3; defective ballots, 14.

Churchland—Polls not opened.

In Portsmouth.

NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Vote in Portsmouth: First ward—Bland, 158; Sykes, 22. Second ward—Bland, 217; Sykes, 17. Third ward—Bland, 74; Sykes, 11. Fourth ward—Bland, 135; Sykes, 12. Fifth ward—Bland, 61; Sykes, 67. Bland's majority, 678.

Prince William.

PRINCE WILLIAM, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—G. G. Gallegher, Democratic nominee, is elected to the House of Delegates from this county without opposition. Captain Mushbach received the vote of the county for the Senate, there being no opposition.

The vote polled was small throughout the county, polled at this precinct, 123 votes. This is the largest precinct in the county, there being registered here five hundred voters.

Mecklenburg.

BOYDTON, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Only three precincts heard from—Boydton, Clarksville, and Chase City. They give Baptist, the Honest Election candidate, 129 majority. Indications are that Baptist is elected.

CLARKSVILLE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—The election to-day was one of the most quiet and at the same time smallest known here in many years. I give below all the figures I can reach to-night. Only one office voted for, and only two candidates—Democrat, Franklin Vansant; Populist, Rev. E. L. Baptist. Indications show a close run, with indications favoring Vansant. This is a strong Republican precinct: Clarksville—Vansant, 76; Baptist, 97 (official).

In the Thirty-Sixth District.

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—For the House, Rogers (Rep.) is elected over Lee (Dem.), in Stafford and King George, and Hathaway (Dem.) over Phillips (Rep.) in Lancaster. Mason (Dem.), for the State Senate from the Thirty-sixth district, is elected over Rose (Rep.).

Mason and Hathaway Elected.

WARSAW, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—E. S. Phillips (Rep.) carries Richmond county by 43 majority, over Hathaway (Dem.); Hathaway (Dem.) carries Lancaster county by 401 majority over Phillips (Rep.), with one precinct to hear from. This will not materially change the result. Hathaway's majority in the two counties is 378.

Mason (Dem.), for the Senate, carries Richmond county by 127 majority, and Lancaster county over 400 majority over Rose (Rep.).

Amherst Democratic.

AMHERST, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—House of Delegates—Harrison (Dem.), 104 majority. Senate—Judge Brown (Dem.), 218 majority.

Fairfax.

FAIRFAX C. H., VA., Nov. 5.—Special. The election passed off quietly, there being no opposition to George A. Mushbach Democratic candidate for the Senate.

James E. Willard, Democratic candidate for the House of Delegates, is elected by an overwhelming majority. Cowdon (Ind.), from present indications, will not have over 100 votes in the entire county.

Gloucester.

GLOUCESTER C. H., VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Nine out of the ten precincts in this county give Tabb (Dem.) 247 majority. The remaining precincts will probably increase this majority by 50.

There was a very small vote and very little interest anywhere.

Bedford Democratic.

BEDFORD CITY, VA., Nov. 5.—Special. A light vote was polled at the election held in Bedford to-day. The five precincts heard from, North Liberty, South Liberty, Big Island, Forest, and Peaksville, give Lowrey, (Dem.) for Senate, a majority over Board (Rep.), 317.

The Democratic majority at these precincts last fall was 287, making a gain of 50. Reports from other sections are very encouraging, and indicate that the county has gone Democratic by a majority of from 300 to 400.

Rappahannock.

FLINT HILL, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Returns from three precincts gave Miller (Dem.), 338, no opposition; Parks (Dem.), floater from Rappahannock and Page, 303; Shuler, (Ind.), 70; three precincts to hear from. Small vote polled. Indications points to Captain Parks' election.

Loudoun Solid.

LEESBURG, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—A very light vote was polled in this county. The indications are that Hon. J. F. Ryan (Dem.), for House of Delegates, is elected by almost the usual majority over his Republican opponent, T. F. Gayer.

Major Hatcher had no opposition for House of Delegates from Loudoun and Fauquier. At this precinct the vote was: Ryan, 223; Gayer, 34; Hatcher, 236.

Orange County.

ORANGE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Orange, Gordonsville, and Barboursville give Taliaferro (Dem.) 237 majority over Jones (Pop.). Taliaferro's majority in the county is probably 600.

Owing to the weakness of the opposition, there was hardly half the Democratic vote polled.

Accomac.

ACCOMAC C. H., VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—At this hour only two precincts heard from, and the conclusion is easy that we have had in this county the smallest vote polled in our recollection. The nominees of the Democratic party for the House of Deegates from Accomac, S. Wilkins, received at Accomac and Onancock precincts, 217 votes. Charles Smith (Floater) from Northampton and Accomac, 202; Baker P. Lee, floater from Elizabeth and Accomac, 219. Their opponents, Olin Disbrow (Proh.), 41 votes; N. J. W. LeCato (Ind.), 29.

KELLER, VA., Nov. 5.—All the Democratic candidates elected. Dr. Smith is elected over LeCato (Ind.) by probably 500 majority.

Stovall Elected in Halifax.

HOUSTON, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—The election passed off quietly in Halifax so far as heard from. This precinct gives H. C. Hudson 179 and P. H. Carpenter 208 (Dems.), and J. B. Stoval (straight Rep.) 191 and S. B. Kessee (Pop.) 175.

The information from different precincts indicate the election of H. C. Hudson (Dem.) and J. B. Stovall (Rep.). The colored voters, as a rule, refused to vote for Kessee, the Populist nominee; in fact, the election of Hudson is conceded, but the vote between Stovall and Carpenter is close.

Hudson ran ahead of his ticket at nearly all the precincts heard from, and Kessee considerably behind.

SOUTH BOSTON, VA., Nov. 5.—Special. Very little interest was taken in the canvass or election, and indications are that a very light vote has been polled. Returns are so meagre that no estimates can be made for the county. The Democrats are hopeful of the election of their ticket, but the vote will be close. The vote of South Boston is as follows: Hudson (Dem.), 240; Carpenter (Dem.), 211; Stovall (Fusion), 92; Kesee (Fusion), 81; Whitworth (Proh.), 17; Anderson (Proh.), 19. Three precincts heard from gives Hudson 503; Carpenter, 470; Stovall, 343; Kesee, 286; Whitworth, 43; Anderson, 55.

In addition Black Walnut precinct gives, 55 Democratic majority.

The Thirty-Eighth Senatorial District.

WARSAW, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Official returns from Richmond county give Mason (Dem.) over Rose (Rep.) for the Senate 127 majority

Returns from Lancaster county give Mason an estimated majority of 325.

King George, with one precinct to hear from, gives Mason 82 majority.

Northumberland, as far as heard from, gives Mason 12 majority, with two precincts to hear from.

Returns from Westmoreland give Mason 34 majority, with three precincts to hear from.

This will give small Republican majority. Mason's estimated majority in the Thirty-eighth senatorial district is about 500.

Winchester and Frederick.

WINCHESTER, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—The city of Winchester and nine precincts in Frederick county give McCune (Rep.), 594; Walton (Ind.), 196; Purcell (Dem.), 684. Prominent Democrats concede the election of McCune (Rep.), in the Tenth senatorial district.

Fredericksburg.

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—E. W. Smith, (Dem.), candidate in this city and Spotsylvania county, had no opposition. Only 250 votes out of a registration of 1,500, were polled here, a small vote was also polled in the county.

Smith is pledged to amend or repeal the Walton law.

King and Queen.

BRUINGTON, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Newtown gives Bland (Dem.) 88; Brooks (Pop.), 77. Clark's precinct vote is a tie. Stevensville—Bland, 106; Brooks, 127. Bland's majority, 167 in the county.

Amelia County.

AMELIA C. H., VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Official vote of Amelia Courthouse precinct:

For State Senate—Dr. Jos. W. Southall (Democrat), 154; William Lancaster (honest-election), 23; J. B. Enroughty (Rep.), 6.

House of Delegates—General George J. Hundely (Democrat), no opposition, 169 votes. A very light vote was polled.

JETERSVILLE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—The vote for this precinct is as follows: For Senate—J. W. Southall (Democrat), 29; Lancaster (honest-election), 62. For House—Hundley (Dem.), 68; no opposition. Democratic loss, 17.

Tazewell is Close.

TAZEWELL, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Ten precincts in Tazewell county give Litz (Rep.) 229 majority. These embrace Litz's strongest places.

There are fifteen precincts to hear from, and up to this time it looks like the race will be close between Litz, the Republican nominee, and Smith, Independent Republican, with chances favoring Smith.

The Vote in Danville.

DANVILLE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—First ward gives Democratic majority of 90, Second ward Democratic majority 172, Third ward not counted yet, but will give 300 Democratic majority. Neapolis gives 204 Democratic majority from the county. Following vote for Senate is in: Ringgold—Withers (Dem.), 128; Cobbs (Rep.), 49. Chatham—Withers, 138; Cobbs, 151. Cascade—Withers' majority, 61. Elba—Cobbs, 63; Withers, 22. Stokesland—Withers' majority, 77. Toshes—Withers, 15; Cobbs, 63. Hartsore—Withers, 20; Cobbs, 58. Sycamore—Cobbs, 33; Withers, 13.

We think now Withers is safe, but majority will be very small. Wires to Henry county are down, and we can't hear a word from there.

Lynchburg and Campbell.

LYNCHBURG, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Election passed off quietly and light vote polled—but little over half.

Senate—Adam Clement (Dem.), 896; J. S. Dillard (Fair Election), 572.

House—Harrison (Dem., no opposition), 1,084.

Chairman Nowlin says Clement will carry Campbell by 150.

LYNCHBURG, VA., No. 5.—Special.—Appomattox gives (Stratton (Dem.), floater, 250 majority.

In four precincts of Campbell, Stratton leads Franklin (Rep.) by 150. Stratton is elected.

Four precincts in Campbell give Wilkerson 174 over Simpson. The indications are for a close vote, but favorable to Wilkerson. Eleven precincts in Campbell and Lynchburg, out of twenty-four, give Clements 543 majority.

LYNCHBURG, VA., Nov. 5.—Randolph Harrison was elected to the House of Delegates from this city to-day without opposition.

Prospects now are that Clement, the Democratic candidate for the State Senate, from this city and county, will be elected, and doubtful whether Wilkinson, the Democratic candidate for the House from the county will be elected. Weather cloudy, small vote. Total vote in city, 1,468. Clement for Senate, 856; Dillard, the Honest Election candidate, 552.

Mason's Majority.

KING GEORGE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—King George county gives J. E. Mason (Dem.) 81 majority for Thirty-sixth senatorial district and 142 majority to William J. Rogers (Rep.) for House of Delegates. Latest report Mason's majority in district of 500.

Washington County.

ABINGDON, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—The election here to-day passed off quietly. But little interest was manifested anywhere. The vote all over the county is the lightest ever known, and in many places much complaint was made against the special constable by the Republicans and Independent Democrats, who claimed collusion and fraud between them and outside parties.

The vote is so close no definite estimate can be made at this hour, but the probabilities are in favor of the Republicans and Independent Democrats.

Light Vote in Floyd.

FLOYD COURTHOUSE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—The vote polled at this place is the lightest known for years. Out of over 700 registered voters, only 286 cast ballots. The vote is as follows:

For Senate—Reese (Dem.), 142; Hale (Pop. Rep.), 139.

For the House—Cannaday (Dem.), 133; Turner (Rep.), 137.

No returns from the county, but light vote polled.

No Opposition in Wythe.

WYTHEVILLE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—The vote in Wythe county to-day was very light, the only candidate being Dr. Samuel R. Sayers, who was endorsed by all parties.

Boykin and Parker.

BOYKINS, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—The following vote was polled here to-day: Senate, Boykin, (Dem.), 155; Doles, (Rep.), 81. House of Delegates, Parker, (Dem.), 159; Griffis (Rep.) 85. There is not much doubt about the election of Parker and Boykin.

Fluvanna.

COLUMBIA, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—The vote here to-day for the House of Delegates was J. McMiller (Dem.), 59; Davis, (Rep.), 42. For the Senate, Flood (Dem.), 45; Hubard (Rep.), 49.

BREMO, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—New Canton precinct gives a Democratic majority for Flood and W. J. Hubbard of 48.

Williamsburg.

WILLIAMSBURG, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—The election here to-day was quiet in the extreme, and less interest manifested than ever known before, and the vote the smallest. The result is as follows: For Senate—Barnes (Dem.), 102; Collier (Populist), 26. For House—Powell (Dem.), 99; Hillier (Ind. Dem.), 22; Robertson (Ind.), 5.

Hanover County.

RURAL POINT, Nov. 5.—Special.—For the Senate, Wickham had no opposition. For the House—Winston (Dem.), 154; Diggs (Dem.), 72; Dunn (Ind.), 246; Wingfield (Ind.), 253.

Diggs says he will carry King William by 300 majority. The indications are that Independents will carry Hanover by a small majority.

Essex Democratic.

TAPPAHANNOCK, VA., Nov. 5.—Special. At this precinct J. R. Segar (Dem.), for the House, 169 majority; Segar's vote was 179; Hillyard, 1. Centre Cross—Segar, 181; Hillyard, 82. Howerton's—Segar's, 86; Hillyard, 6. Floyd's—Segar, 63; Hillyard, 0. The county goes Democratic by over 500.

DUNSVILLE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Segar's majority in Essex county from four precincts, 355. Two precincts to hear from, which will probably make it 500.

Nelson County.

LOVINGSTON, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Judge Brown, Democratic nominee for the Senate, is elected by a large majority, and Harris, Democratic nominee for the House, close but thought to be elected.

Mathews.

MATHEWS COURTHOUSE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Mathews gives Tabb (Dem.) 26 majority over Stubbs (Pop.). Three precincts to hear from. These are supposed to be about a stand-off. No doubt of Tabb's election.

Barnes Running Well.

WEST POINT, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—The election passed off very quietly in this county. West Point gives Barnes, for Senate, 249; Collier (Ind.), 21; Diggs, for Legislature, 268; Wingfield (Ind.), 19.

Laneville gives Barnes 183; Collier, 47; Diggs, 187; Wingfield, 43.

King William county gives Barnes 196; Collier, 72; Diggs, 103; Wingfield, 73.

Manguin gives Wingfield 47 majority.

Mangowick gives Wingfield 16 majority.

All the precincts in the county heard from except one gives Diggs 367 majority, Barnes running along with Diggs.

King and Queen's official vote gives George Bland (Dem.) 167 majority for the House.

Clarke County.

BERRYVILLE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—The election passed off quietly here to-day. There was only a very small vote polled throughout the county. Other precincts have not been definitely heard from, but indications are that S. S. Thomas, Democratic candidate for House of Delegates, and E. H. Jackson, candidate for Senate, have a majority of about three hundred in this county.

Democratic Victory in Appomattox.

WEST APPOMATTOX, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Every precinct in this county heard from except one, and Flood, for Senate, has 273 majority over Hubard, and Stratton, for House, 223 majority over Franklin. The precinct to hear from will increase Flood's majority to 400 and Stratton to 250. There is general rejoicing throughout the county over this the greatest Democratic victory for years.

Accomac Elects a Democrat.

CAPE CHARLES, VA., Nov. 5.—Special. The election passed off very quietly here to-day, about a two-thirds vote being polled for floater members for the House for the counties of Accomac and Northampton.

There were three candidates on the ticket, Dr. Charles Smith, (Dem.), N. J. W. Lecato, (Ind. Rep.), and Samuel J. Lemden, (Proh.) Dr. Smith's majority in this county will be about 150, which will be greatly increased by Accomac county.

Augusta Anti-Democratic

STAUNTON, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Nineteen precincts reported from Augusta county, and the city of Staunton shows a Democratic loss of about 15 to each precinct. With this loss continued, the county will go for the Honest Election ticket by 63 majority.

Shrewd politicians put the majority at 150. The Democrats concede the election of Sims and Towberman. Honest Election candidates by a small majority. Congressional vote 94, Tucker's majority over Yost was 462. This shows a gain for Democratic opposition from 525 to 600.

Pittsylvania Does Well.

DANVILLE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Danville (official): Withers, 929; Cobbs, 349. For House, Democrat—Ferguson, 847; White, 876; Gregory, 873; Still, 876. Republicans—Berger, 345; Cocke, 345; Wood, 338; Tune, 338.

The Democrats have Danville and Neapolis with 780 majority. The mixed ticket cannot overcome this in the county.

Caroline.

MILFORD, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Bowling Green (official): Quesenberry (Dem.), 223; Blanton (Honest Electionist), 112. Reports from six precincts give Quesenberry 125 majority. Seven yet to hear from will probably reduce this, and may elect Blanton.

Slemp Elected in Wise.

BIG STONE GAP, VA., Nov. 5.—Special. Slemp will cary Wise county by from 75 to 80 Democratic gain all through the county.

COEBURN, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Wise county gives ninety majority for the Republicans. Kane (Dem.), for the Senate, elected by about three hundred. Vanover (Rep.), for the House, elected.

NORTON, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—This precinct goes for Kane (Dem.) for Senate, and Sutherland, for the House by about 30 majority. Other points heard from indicate Kane's election by 300 majority. Close voting in this district between Sutherland, (Dem.), and Vanover (Rep.), for the House.

Col. Gibson Defeated.

CULPEPER, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Democracy is triumphant! The most fiercely-contested campaign in this county came to a close this evening.

The fight was for the House of Delegates between Mr. Richard Lewis, as the nominee of the original Democracy, and Colonel Gibson, as an independent Democratic candidate. Eight of the ten precincts in this county, including the homes of both candidates, are as follows: For Colonel Gibson—Culpeper, 129 majority (this is Colonel Gibson's home); Mitchell's, 69; Brown's store, 40. For Mr. Lewis—Rixeyville, 140 majority (this is Mr. Lewis' home); Brandy, 31; Stevensburg, 17; Jeffersonton, 59; Eldorado, 79. This gives Mr. Lewis a clean majority of 79. The two precincts yet to hear from are Richardsville and Lignum. Both of these precincts will undoubtedly give Mr. Lewis majorities that will make his total majority about 200.

This county gave Colonel Gibson two years ago, when he ran as the regular nominee of the Democratic party, 344 majority.

Fair Elections, Roads, and Oysters.

HARRISONBURG, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Returns from twenty out of twenty-five precincts in this county assure the election of Keezell (Dem.) over Funkhouser (Rep.) for the Senate by about 300. Patterson and Blackburn (Dem.), for the House, are likely defeated by Lomis and Zirle (Reps.) by over 100.

The vote of Harrisonburg was: Keezell, 322; Funkhouser, 32; Sipe (Pro.), 33; Patterson, 300; Blackburn, 322; Zirkle, 370; Lomis, 354.

The campaign was mainly fought on fair elections, road law, and oyster question. Funkhouser was somewhat opposed by anti-Mahonites.

Greenville County.

EMPORIA, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Election returns: Hicksford precinct—Murfee (Ind.) 82; Prince (Dem.), 37; Smith (Rep.), 2. Belfield precinct—Prince (Dem.), 81; Murfee (Ind.), 25; Smith, 0. Ryland's precinct—Prince (Dem.), 90; Murfee (Ind.), 35; Smith (Rep.), 1. Democratic majority, 19. Other precincts to hear from.

The Eighteenth District.

BREMO, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—The election to-day was for senator for the Eighteenth district, composed of Appomattox, Buckingham, and Fluvanna, and members of House for Fluvanna and Goochland. Flood (Dem.), for Senate, 165; Hubbard (Pop.), for Senate, 137; Miller (Dem.), for House, 188; Davis (Pop.), for House, 140. Fluvanna has probably gone Democratic by about 300. Nothing certain yet from the rest of the district.

Close Vote in Roanoke.

ROANOKE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Full returns from this city, Radford, and part of Roanoke county indicate a close contest between Clayter (Citizens) and Watts (Dem.) for the Senate. McCartney, Democratic nominee for the House, is probably defeated by Hannah (Rep.). Berkeley (Dem.) for the House is certainly elected. The city gives Berkeley (Dem.) 268 majority, McCartney (Dem.) 44, and Watts for the Senate 8. Chances are that Watts is defeated.

Albemarle Returns Democrats.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—The Democratic candidates, Fishburn and Boaz, are elected to the Legislature. The issue of refunding and improvement bonds were authorized.

Gordonsville.

GORDONSVILLE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—C. C. Taliaferro, regular nominee of the Democratic party, received 65, and A. R. Jones (Pop.) 16 votes at this precinct for the House of Delegates. The total vote cast was less than the Democratic primary.

King William.

KING WILLIAM COURTHOUSE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Barnes (Dem.), 106; Collier (Ind), 72; Diggs (Dem.), 105. Wingfield (Ind.), 73; Thomas (Ind.), 3. Barnes a Democratic gain of 49 and Diggs a Democratic loss of 45 compared with the vote of 1881.

Lanesville precinct: Barnes (Dem.), 182; Collier (Ind.), 47; Diggs (Dem.), 137; Wingfield (Ind.), 43; Thomas, none.

In the Southwest.

LYNCHBURG, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Returns from Southwest received here to-night are generally confined to cities and towns along the railroad. In Botetourt, Burnham (Ind.) is elected over Bright (Dem.).

In Montgomery, Einstein (Rep.) is elected.

In Wythe, Dr. Samuel Sayers (Ind.) is elected; no opposition.

Augusta County.

WAYNESBORO, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—House of Delegates: Rolner (Dem.), 144; Walker (Dem.), 156; Luberman (Coalition), 77; Simms (Coalition), 74.

Basic: Coyner (Dem.), 52; Walker (Dem.), 52; Luberman (Coalition, 41; Simms (Coalition), 41.

Botetourt Lost.

FINCASTLE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Sufficient returns are in to show that Burham (Ind.) is elected over Brugh (Dem.) by a large majority.

The vote is a very light one, many Democrats not voting.

Watts Probably Elected.

ROANOKE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Later returns indicate the election of Watts.

McDonald has probably been elected over Einstein.

ROANOKE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Refrom this senatorial and legislative district, indicate that the race between Watts, (Dem.), and Claytor, (Rep.) for the Senate is close. Berkeley, (Dem.), is elected to the House. McCarthy is probably defeated by Hannah, (Rep.)

Vote in Salem.

SALEM, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Vote of Salem: For Senate—Watts (Dem.), 321; Claytor (Citizens), 422. For House—Berkley (Dem.), 298; McCartney (Dem.), 274; Jones (Citizens), 435; Hannah (Citizens), 445.

No returns from other precincts; impossible to say who is elected.

SALEM, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Indications are that Claytor (Citizen), is elected to the Senate; Berkeley, (Dem.), to the House; either Jones or Hannah (Citizen), to the House.

Northumberland.

HEATHSVILLE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special. As far as heard from, Coles (Rep.) carried Northumberland and Westmoreland counties by 12 over Chambers (Dem.), for the House of Delegates. Five precincts to be heard from, which will probably increase Cole's majority slightly.

Warren County.

FRONT ROYAL, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—The election for a member of the House of Delegates and for the State Senate passed off quietly. The vote polled in the county was small. The county has gone Democratic by about 400. Present indications are that E. H. Jackson and S. S. Thomas are elected to the Senate and House of Delegates, respectively, by 750. This precinct gives Jackson 250 and Willis 24, a majority of 226 for Jackson. The vote for Thomas is smaller than that for Jackson.

Middlesex.

SALUDA, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—The usual vote at Saluda precinct is 550. The vote to-day stands: R. G. Hilliard, 133; J. R. Segar (Dem.), 127; Blank, 7. Total, 267. No other precinct heard from.

Nottoway.

NOTTOWAY C. H., Nov. 5.—Special.—Hundley, for the House of Delegates, and Turnbull, for the Senate, received in Nottoway county, with two precincts to hear from, 335 votes. The two hundred from wil not cast over 20 votes each. No opposition. Very small vote cast.

Elizabeth City.

HAMPTON, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Elizabeth City county vote is as follows: For Senate—Barnes (Dem.), 229; W. Collier (Ind. Pop.), 640.

For House—Lee (Dem.), 727 (about); Winder (Pro.), 60.

There was little interest manifested. Both Democrats and Republicans voted for Lee. Barnes got most of the Democratic votes cast.

Charlotte Democratic.

KEYSVILLE, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Small vote here to-day. Total, 273. Vaness' (Ind.) majority here, 156. Rice (Dem.) will carry the county.

Tabb's Fine Majority.

WOOD'S CROSS-ROADS, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Gloucester and Mathews elect Tabb (Dem.) by 500 majority.

Dinwiddie County.

PETERSBURG, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Dinwiddie county: Church Road precinct—Clark (Dem.), for House, 65; Gilliam (Fair Elections), 95. It is thought that Gilliam has been elected.

Franklin County.

ROCKY MOUNT, VA., Nov. 5.—Special. Election returns from Franklin and Floyd counties are very meagre so far. Nothing definite will be known before to-morrow evening. The Democrats are confident of the election of E. W. Saunders for the House of Delegates by a good majority. With the other candidates the vote will be close, with the probable election of a Populist senator.

Scott County.

GATE CITY, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—The Democratic ticket for this county will reach, from all indications, 200 majority.

Tazewell County.

TAZEWELL, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Ten precincts in Tazewell county heard from give Litz 229 majority. These were Litz's strongest precincts, and indications are that Smith (Ind. Rep.) will be elected by a small majority. No Democratic candidate.

Dinwiddie County.

CHURCH ROAD, VA., Nov. 5.—Special. Returns from three precincts out of seventeen show Gilliam (Rep.) has 35 majority.

Montgomery and Floyd.

CHRISTIANSBURG, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Light vote cast in this and Floyd counties. Impossible to get the entire vote till late to-morrow. The best information I can get, Montgomery county will give Einstein (Rep.), for the House, a small majority. Watts (Dem.), for Senate, will probably carry the county. Floyd county will give its usual majority (Republican) from 500 to 600.

ELLISTON, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Montgomery's majority over Watts (Dem.), for the Senate, 9; Einstein, for the House, over McDonald (Dem.), 12.

Louisa Republican.

LOUISA, VA., Nov. 5.—Special.—Six precincts heard from give Wale (Rep.) a majority of 106 over Baker (Dem.) Small vote polled and Republican majority will be increased.

Tidewater.

NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 5.—The election in this section passed off quietly. M. C. Cooke and W. E. Foster (Dems.) were elected in this city by a majority of 1,400 to the House of Delegates. Parker (Dem.) in Southampton, is elected. Newbern (Dem.), Norfolk county, elected. White (Dem.), Princess Anne county, elected. Lee (Dem.) is elected in Elizabeth city county.