FINANCE AND COMMERCE

THE CLOSING QUOTATIONS OF MONEY.

Offerings and Sales at the Richmond Tobacco Exchange—Internal Revenue Collections—Foreign Advices.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Lord Salisbury's speech last Saturday had a reassuring effect on the market abroad, and the good feeling also extended to this side of the Atlantic. Consols recovered briskly in London and American securities there moved up in sympathy. In Paris the Rothschilds were active in the work of restoring confidence and a more hopeful tone characterized the dealings at the Bourse there. Our market was quick to respond to the improvement in London, and on the continent prices for the standard issues moved up gradually during the day. The gain, which ranged from ½ to 2¼ per cent., was most marked in the international issues, such as St. Paul and Louisville and Nashville. Fully 30,000 shares of various stocks were taken from London, principally for the covering of short contracts, in anticipation of the forthnightly settlement on Thursday. Louisville and Nashville and St. Paul, which have been heavily oversold, gained the most, the former rising from 51⅛ to 53⅝ and the latter from 74½ to 75. St. Paul's splendid showing for the first week of the current month, the earnings having increased nearly $278,000 over last year, contributed not a little to the strength of the shares. Sharp recoveries were also noted in Lake Shore, Rock Island, Burlington, Northwestern, Atchison, Missouri Pacific, Canada Southern, Big Four, Manhattan, Kansas and Texas preferred, Erie, Southern Railway preferred, Wabash preferred, Western Union, and Pacific Mail. The last-named was bought by a firm supposed to be identified with insiders. It was also reported that the negotiations with the Panama will be reopened shortly. Before midday, however, Chicago Gas developed weakness, and on free sales broke from 65⅝ to 64⅝. A rumor was put afloat to the effect that the Flower-Olcott Committee had dissolved, but this was officially denied, and a rally to 64⅝ followed. Subsequently another story was circulated that Attorney-General Hancock would be asked to prevent the reorganization of the company. The heaviness of the stock affected the Industrials unfavorably, but the railroad list maintained its strength nearly until the close, when prices were shaded a little on realization. General Electric was decidedly weak, falling to 28, a decline of ⅛ per cent. Later on a dispatch from Washington that the Supreme Court had decided the McKeesport in favor of the company, the stock rallied to 30@28⅝. Sugar first rose 1 to 108⅞ and then fell to 98⅞. Tobacco, Distilling and Cattle Feeding, and Leather preferred sold down 1@1¼ per cent., and later recovered part of the loss. In a general way the Industrials were weakened by fears of hostile legislation by Congress. Sugar, it is intimated, will be the first corporation taken up by the new House. The withdrawal of $1,000,000 gold from the sub-treasury by William H. Cressman & Bro. for shipment to Europe by the Spree to-morrow had no influence whatever, neither did the talk previously spoken of later in the week. There was a sprinkling of commercial bills to-day, but the offerings were quickly absorbed. Speculation in stocks closed steady. Net changes show advances of ¼ to 2⅝ per cent. The Industrials, however, generally lost ⅛ to 1⅛ per cent. Railway bonds were firm and higher. The sales were $1,230,000. The sales of listed stocks aggregated 180,378 shares and of unlisted stocks 33,600 shares.

Money on call has been easy at 1@2 per cent., last loan at 1½ per cent., and closing offered at 1½ per cent.; prime mercantile paper, 5@5½ per cent. Bar silver, 67⅞. Sterling exchange steady, with actual business in bankers' bills at 487½@488 for sixty days and 490@490½ for demand; posted rates, 488½@490; commercial bills, 486@487¾. Government bonds steady. State bonds firm. Railroad bonds higher. Silver at the board was dull.

Treasury Balances: Coin, $87,083,864; currency, $97,346,033.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, ILL., Nov. 11.—The visible supply of wheat increased 3,946,000 bushels last week. During the spring and summer, whilst the crop damage stories were pouring in from all quarters, any one who ventured the opinion that stocks would at any time show more than an extremely moderate gain was looked upon as bit little short of insane. To-day's figures raised the same individual to the rank of the prophets. The accumulation of stocks has discouraged the holders who bought December on the belief that supplies would be low about this time. The selling to-day was in liquidation and prices were weak, no bulls taking hold, and the demand being principally to cover shorts. December wheat opened from 58c. to 57⅝c., sold between 58c. and 57⅝c., closing at 57¾c., 1½c. lower than Saturday. Cash wheat was ½@¾c. lower, closing weak.

Corn—The promised Government report of this afternoon on corn did not cause the slightest ripple in prices of this grain to-day. The declining wheat market was of greater importance as an influence and caused a fractional decline, but business was in the same apathetic state that it has been for so long, so that nothing in the trade was worthy of special note. May corn opened from 29⅝@29⅞c., sold at 29⅝c., closing at 29⅝c., ⅛c. under Saturday. Cash corn was ⅛c. lower.

Oats opened and closed with scarcely any change in the situation of prices. The slight loss in value at the close was due to the declining nature of the session in the other markets rather than to any direct motive. May oats closed ⅛c. lower than Saturday. Cash oats were ¼c. lower.

Provisions—The product market remained in practically a stationary position. The hog market was in that state and probably prevented a break in provisions, as the tone of the latter was scarcely more than steady, the depression in wheat having a bad effect here as elsewhere on the floor. January pork and ribs closed unchanged and January lard a shade lower.

NEW YORK DRY GOODS MARKET.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—There has been a favorable change in the weather, the temperature being more seasonable than has rulled for some time past, but other conditions affecting the dry goods market are without material alteration. The attendance of buyers to-day has been limited in all departments and spot business slow, whilst the mail order demand has disclosed no new characteristics. Incidentally, there is less reserve on the part of some sellers of staple cotton. Apart from this, however, the market presents a steady front, and the governing makes in brown bleached and colored goods are held just as firmly as ever. Seasonable cotton dress fabrics are quiet, whilst there has been acomparat ively good business doing in new spring lines.

Myers', Planters, Davenport's, Seabrooke's, Crenshaw's, Alleghany, Old Dominion, and Shockoe tobacco warehouses report to-day: Receipts, 43 packages; deliveries, 54 packages.

United States internal revenue collections for the city of Richmond, Va., today on tobaccos: Cigars and cigarettes, $1,594.45; plug tobaccos, $2,569.26. Total, $4,263.71.

A good break of very colory planters' tobaccos, from North and South Carolina, will be offered to-morrow at Davenport's tobacco warehouse.

Shockoe and Crenshaw's tobacco warehouses will each have sales of dark loose tobaccos to-morrow, Tuesday, November 12, 1895, commencing at 10 o'clock sharp.

The Petersburg Record of Saturday, November 9, 1895, says:

Several lots of new tobacco was sold yesterday. One fair lot of leaf sold for $8. We look for large receipts next week.

The following will show the movement of tobacco during the past week at the various warehouses:

Farmers—Inspections, 24; receipts, 24. Oaks'—Inspections, 74; receipts, 48; loose, 723. Centre—Inspections, 3; loose, 365. West Hill—Inspections, 56; receipts, 77; loose, 566. Moore's—Receipts, 76; loose, 190. Total—Inspections, 157; receipts, 225; loose, 2,286.

Total inspections from the 1st of October, 1895, to October 8th, 314; same time last year, 505.

J. B. McCULLOCH,
Inspector.

Messrs. Charles W. Bohmer & Co. report the Lynchburg, Va., tobacco market for the week ending Saturday, November 9, 1895, as follows:

Sales for week ending November 2, 1895, 116,000 pounds; sales for week ending November 9, 1895, 107,100 pounds. Decrease week ending November 9, 1895, 8,900 pounds.

Sales from October 1, 1895, to November 9, 1895, 486,200 pounds; sales from October 1, 1894, to November 9, 1894, 1,392,900 pounds. Decrease for 1895, 906,700 pounds.

There is a strong speculative feeling in medium and good leaf and the most striking feature of the week was the readiness with which our buyers bid on these grades. What outlets our buyers can count on nowadays with any amount of certainty are all for leaf, and it may be reasonably expected, since there was but little or no tobacco of merit carried over from last season, that our market will be very active on these types. The indications are that the crop will be a good one for Bremen purposes. Brights continue to attract much attention. No change in values is noticeable. The weather of late has been favorable for handling, and large offerings are expected for next week.

Mr. Alexander Harthill reports the Louisville (Ky.) tobacco market for the week ending Saturday, November 9, 1895, as follows:

The long-continued dry weather rendered receipts again very light, there being only 509 hogsheads, against 485 hogsheads last week, and 460 hogsheads this week last year.

The heavy rain which set in yesterday will in all probability enable holders of old as well as new crop to ship to market.

The total sales at auction this week were 1,250 hogsheads, against 1,472 hogsheads last week, and consisted of 626 hogsheads original and 604 hogsheads reviews, against 849 hogsheads original and 623 reviews last week.

The sales from January 1st, this year, to date show an increase of 14,683 hogsheads compared with same time last year, and 39,568 hogsheads over sales in 1893.

Offerings of burley for the week:

New crop—This week, 9 hogsheads; last week, 2 hogsheads; week in 1894, 84 hogsheads; week in 1893, 19 hogsheads. Old crop—This week, 796 hogsheads; last week, 1,248 hogsheads; week in 1894, 589 hogsheads; week in 1893, 642 hogsheads.

The onerings of burley were about 450 hogsheads fewer than last week, but, as remarked then, appeared to have no influence in strengthening the market, as some sellers predicted when sales became so small.

The following are the Louisville quotations, November 9, 1895:

Crop of 1894—Dark—Planters' trash, $1.25 to $2; common lugs, $2 to $3; medium lugs, $3.25 to $3.50; good lugs, $3.75 to $4; common leaf, $3.75 to $4.75; medium leaf, $5 to $6.50; good leaf, $6.50 to $8.50.

Burley crop of 1894: Fillers, red—Trash, $3.50 to $4; common, $4.25 to $5.25; medium, $6 to $7; good medium, $7.50 to $9.50; good, $10 to $12; fine, $13 to $15; selections, $16 to $20.

Fillers, colory—Trash, $5 to $5.50; common, $6.50 to $7.50; medium, $8 to $10; good medium, $11 to $13; good, $14 to $18; fine, $19 to $23; selections, $23 to $28.

Cutting, colory—Trash, $6 to $7.50; common, $7.50 to $9; medium, $9.50 to $12; good medium, $13 to $16; good, $17 to $19; fine, $20 to $22.50; selections, $23 to $28.

Smokers of 1894: Red, $2.50 to $3; colory to bright, $5 to $6. Common—Red, $3 to $3.50; colory to bright, $6.50 to $8.

Green, mixed, and very soft hogsheads and lightweights, ½c. to 1c. on lugs and 1c. to 2c. on leaf lower.

AN OLD VIRGINIA WEDDING.

Mr. Randolph Highley Thompson Marries Miss Louise Moomaw.

The beautiful country home, "Cloverdale," of Mrs. Honora Moomaw was the scene of a brilliant marriage on Wednesday evening—that of her charming daughter, Miss Louise, to Mr. Randolph Highley Thompson, of Roanoke. The house was magnificently decorated with autumn leaves and yellow and white chrysanthemums.

As the bridal chorus from Lohengrin was sung by Miss Cutchin, Mrs. F. B. Ludwig, Mr. Lanier Gray, and Dr. Downs, Mrs. D. W. Meadows presiding at the piano, little Honora Moomaw and John Jamison preceded the bridal party, acting as ribbon-bearers. Following came the bridesmaids—Miss Jordan, of Buena Vista; Miss Hall, of Maryland; Miss Naff, of Tennessee; Misses Fishburne, Tinsley, and Dorney, of Roanoke—three in white organdie, carrying yellow organdie,carrying white chrysanthemums; and three in yellow organdie,carrying white chrysanthemums. Miss Annie Moomaw, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor, wearing white silk.

The bride was attired in brocaded white satin en train, tulle veil, with diamond and pearl ornaments, the gift of the groom, and was given away by her brother, S. B. Moomaw. The groom, with his best man, Mr. C. H. Thompson, met the bride beneath a bower of chrysanthemums, where the ceremony was performed by Rev. B. F. Moomaw, the bride's grandfather, assisted by Rev. J. N. Luck, of Hollins.

After receiving congratulations, a most bountiful and tempting supper was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Thompson quietly slipped away, taking the train at Bonsacks for an extended trip through the North and East.

Among the guests were Misses Long, of Louisville, Ky.; Ellis, Austin, Texas; Malone, Florida; Naff, Tennessee; Ninninger, Virginia; McLaughlin, Maryland; Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Thompson and J. M. Thompson, of Berryville, Va.; Mr. Fulton, of Front Royal Va.; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gibbons, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jamison, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Moomaw, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Ludwig, Miss Ludwig, Miss Tallaferro, Mrs. D. W. Meadows, Mr. and Mrs. Dorney, Miss Cutchin, Rev. and Mrs. Pollard, Mr. and Mrs. Eld. Stone, Rev. and Mrs. Will Crumpacker, Mrs. B. C. Moomaw, Judge Woods, Messrs. Anderson, Henson, Tinsley, Dickinson, Kindred, Gray, Downs, F. and V. Helvestine, Dr. Simmons, James Simmons, of Roanoke and vicinity.

For the accommodation of the Roanoke friends, a special train was run out at 5 o'clock, returning at 12.

Mr. Joseph Button's Good Work.

The Lynchburg News says: To Mr. Joseph Button, of Appomattox, belongs, it might well be said, a large part of the credit of carrying for the Democratic party one of the closest counties, politically speaking, in the State of Virginia. By his indefatigable efforts, assisted by other strong Democrats, the county of Appomattox, which heretofore has been doubtfully Democratic,rolled up a majority for the old party which rendered it the banner county of the State. Mr. Button, as chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of that county, labored unremittingly in the organization of the party and made a thorough canvass, speaking often day and night.

Mr. Button will be put forward by his friends and admirers, in the Legislature and out of it, for the position of clerk of the Senate—a position which he failed of attaining by only one vote two years ago.

The regular meeting of the Academy of Medicine and Surgery will be held at at the Y. M. C. A. to-night at 8:30 o'clock. Dr. George Ben. Johnston will be the leader of the discussion.

A Golden Wedding—Cherry Trees in Bloom—Social Notes.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., Nov. 11.—Special. The Assemblies have been reorganized under the name of the Alexandria German Club. A new set of by-laws and constitution have been adopted, by which the membership is limited to thirty-five, and members appearing later than 9:30 are either to pay a fine or be locked out. The board of managers chosen is Messrs. L. C. Barley, E. C. Dunn, Doug. Stuart, Maury Davis, and Gardner Boothe. Colonel Barley will be leader of the dances.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Marbury Wednesday evening, at their home, on Prince street, celebrated their golden wedding. They were married in this city, and all their lives have lived in Alexandria, where they are justly beloved and esteemed by a large circle of friends. All who know them hope that they may live to celebrate their diamond wedding and continue in health and happiness. This celebration was only a family gathering, there being present their six children and five grandchildren, and several near relatives.

It is said a new musical association will be formed here shortly. The string end will be under Dr. Dunn.

The young men of the Catholic Lyceum give their first show this week. It will be a four-act drama, entitled, "The Woven Web," and, while under the management of Mr. George Heusen, of Washington, will have some of the best local talent of Alexandria, Washington, and Georgetown.

Under Professor Jim Peyton's management, the opera-house is now drawing well, so well that others have been encouraged in opening Serepta Hall, where a mixed show has been given every night since opening last week.

Theatre parties are now becoming the rage, and hardly a night passes without some party is organized for a Washington place of amusement. Of last week's parties the most noticeable was that of seventeen of the upper crust that marched to see the cake walk on Thursday evening. It numbered nearly a score, and after the cake walk they adjourned to the residence of Mr. Edward Daingerfield and danced the night out and morning in.

Professor and Mrs. E. A. Andrews, of Washington, gave a theatre party to a number of their friends on Wednesday evening at the Lafayette Square, where Seabrooke had the boards in "A World of Trouble."

The marriage of Mr. Montros W. Houck, formerly of this city, to Miss Lydia E. Phyfe, in New York, on Wednesday, took place in the Fourth Presbyterian church, and was an interesting and pretty affair. The Misses Margaret and Annie Barckley acted as flower girls. The bridesmaids were the Misses Mabel Lindley, Margaret Love, Ethelwyn Brewer, and Julia Houck, of this city, a sister of the bridegroom. Miss Olive Phyfe, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The dress of the bride was of ivory white satin, with duchess lace and chiffon trimmings, with full court train. Her tulle veil was surmounted by a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. A reception was given at the home of the bride's parents. The parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Houck, of this city, and several friends were present.

Mr. John H. Hudson, of this city, and Miss Bertha Gibson, of Washington, will be married at the Church of the Ascension, in that city, by
