SUICIDE OF MR. WALLACE

A WELL-KNOWN MANCHESTERIAN ENDS LIFE WITH LAUDANUM.

No Apparent Cause for the Rash Deed—Bail Refused Jones' Assailants—Police News—Brief Mention.

MANCHESTER BUREAU RICHMOND TIMES, No. 1121 HULL STREET, BEATTIE BLOCK.

Mr. Richard A. Wallace, a bricklayer of Manchester, and a well-known citizen of this place, died Sunday morning from the effects of laudanum, which seems undoubtedly to have been taken with suicidal intent.

AFTER LAUDANUM.

Saturday night Mr. Wallace went to Friend Brothers' drug-store, woke Mr. Friend up, and asked for some laudanum, saying that he could not sleep, and that he wanted to quiet his nerves, but Mr. Friend, seeing that he was under the influence of liquor, refused to sell it to him. Mr. Wallace went to his residence, on Nineteenth (street, between Hull and Decatur, Sunday morning, about 5 o'clock, and told his wife that he was going to take some laudanum, but as he had told her that on several occasions, she paid no attention to it. She noticed, however, that Mr. Wallace was unusually quiet from 3 until 5, when he went to his room, laid down on the bed, and fell into a sleep from which he never awoke.

PHYSICIAN SUMMONED.

Mrs. Wallace saw that her husband was sleeping very soundly, and upon finding an empty half-ounce laudanum bottle in the house, she realized that her husband had carried out his threat. She immediately summoned Drs. Rucker, Garnett, and Dorsett, but when they arrived they soon came to the conclusion that Mr. Wallace was too far gone to be saved. Although the doctors did all in their power, they could not arouse him in the least, and at 11:15 Mr. Wallace was pronounced dead. Coroner Brodnax was summoned, and after hearing the facts in the case ecided that an inquest was unnecessary.

Mr. Wallace's death was a great shock to his many friends in this city. No other reason is given for the rash act except that he was under the influence of liquor, as he seems to have been enjoying good health, and worked all day Saturday.

Mr. Wallace leaves a wife and five children.

Mr. Wallace was born in Lunenburg county, and had been a resident of Manchester for about six years. His funeral took place yesterday at 12 o'clock from the residence, and the remains were interred in Maury Cemtery.

THE POLICE COURT.

Three cases were disposed of in the Police Court yesterday before 'Squire Tom. E. Owen:

The first case called was that against Wm. Davis (colored), for cursing, abusing and threatening to cut Phillis Davis. Owing to the absence of several witnesses the case was continued until to-day.

William Mosby was up for taking $2.40 from Eddie Thornton. Mosby and Thornton worked together last week and Saturday evening their boss gave Mosby $5 to divide between them, but instead of dividing it Mosby kept it all himself. This case was also continued until to-day.

Eliza Thornton (colored) was going up Hull street Saturday night when she ran against a man and began cursing him. She was fined $1.

JONES' ASSAILANTS.

Messrs. Sam. Henry, Luther Taylor, David Mahoney and Richard Millington were again before 'Squire Jones, of Swansboro, yesterday morning, charged with assaulting and beating Jack Jones. Jones was able to appear yesterday, and made a statement about the difficulty essentially the same as that printed in the newspapers. Counsel for the accused waived examination in the case of Henry, Mahoney and Millington, but asked bail for Taylor. The justice denied bail, however, and all the men were recommitted until the case comes up in the County Court.

BRIEF MENTION.

Mrs. G. W. Seidel and children, and Mrs. Clark, of Baltimore, are the guests of Mrs. James W. Lovel, Porter street.

Miss Nannie Lithgow will leave to-day for Amelia county to visit Mrs. George H. Morris.

Miss Emma Cosby, of Guinea, Va., who has been the guest of Miss Ethel Harding, Eleventh and Porter streets, returned home yesterday morning.

Miss Ellen Weisiger left yesterday morning for Powhatan Courthouse to visit her aunt, Mrs. Miller.

Mr. E. H. Wells left Saturday to spend several days at Virginia Beach.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will have a lawn party on the lot at Twelfth and Porter streets to-night. A good programme has been arranged.

The ladies of Asbury chapel have made arrangements to hold a bazaar at the Grays' Armory from Wednesday to Saturday of this week. An excellent programme has been arranged for each night.

Miss Gertrude Clary, of Waverly, who has been visiting her cousins, the Misses Clary, 1304 Hull street, returned home yesterday morning, accompanied by Misses Annie and Florence Clary.

Mr. Henry Sears, who resides on Church Hill and works for Mr. T. B. Cersley, 2311 Hull street, had an attack of vertigo about 8 o'clock yesterday morning, and fell to the floor. In falling he hurt his left arm pretty badly. He was attended by friends, who made him comfortable until he recovered, when he was taken home.

A party of gentlemen from this city went down to Falling creek last Friday night and spent the day Saturday picnicing.

Miss Reda Weisiger returned to the city yesterday, after a visit to her aunt, Mrs. T. M. Miller, at Powhatan Courthouse.

Sunday morning Mr. James Marshall hitched up his horse and buggy, intending to go with Mr. Benjamin Hungerford to Falling creek for a drive. When about four miles from town the horse took fright at something on the roadside and kicked the buggy all to pieces and then ran away down the road. The occupants were thrown out and painfully bruised and shaken. After the horse had gone some distance it was stopped by a countryman. Messrs. Marshall and Hungerford had to walk back home.

Miss Betty Duy, of Petersburg, is visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. John Utz has returned, after an absence of several weeks from the city.

Mrs. Joseph W. Bronaugh, Jr., left yesterday for a visit to friends in Albemarle county.

Miss Crowder, of Washington, D. C., is visiting the Misses O'Brien, on Cowardin avenue.

A very enjoyable birthday party was given several nights ago by Miss Emma Hoband at her home, on Perry street.

Mr. George H. Booker and Miss Mary Mildred Mann, both of this city, were married Sunday night at 708 Perry street by the Rev. J. O. Babcock. They will continue to reside in this city.

The Gesangverein Outing.

Members of the Gesangverein Virginia and their families to the number of one hundred and forty spent Sunday at Ocean View. The famous singing society was entertained by the Bay View Club, whose elegant club-rooms were thrown open to the Richmonders all day. The society sang several choruses, Messrs. Max Lindner and Harry Greener acting alternately as director in the absence of Professor Charles F. Mutter, who was unavoidably absent. The party returned home Sunday night in the reserved coaches that carried them down to the shore.

THE CUT WAS FATAL.

Lipscomb Died Last Night From a Wound Received Sunday Night.

Montague E. Banks and Wyndham [illegible] two negro boys, engaged in a bloody fight on Byrd street between Tenth and Eleventh Sunday night about 11 o'clock, which resulted in Lipscomb receiving a terrible wound in the abdomen, from a long hunting-knife in the hands of Banks, from the effects of which he died at the almshouse at 6 o'clock yesterday evening.

The trouble arose from a quarrel over a girl, and a fisticuff followed, in which Lipscomb was getting the best of it until Banks used his knife. The boy ran off immediately after his cowardly action, but was found later by the police and locked up.

The ambulance, with Drs. Labenberg and Moncure in charge, soon came to the aid of the wounded man, and he was taken to the almshouse, where, in spite of the best attention, he died at the hour above indicated.

Banks was before the Police Court yesterday morning, but was remanded for ten days to await the result of Lipscomb's injuries. The charge of murder will now be entered against him.

The Forger Taken Back.

Governor O'Ferrall yesterday issued a rendition warrant to Major Charles R. Scott, assistant chief of police of Fort Worth, Texas, and he left on the 2:15 train with Francisco Tushong, the forger. As published in The Times, Major Scott arrived here several days ago, but was compelled to wait until yesterday for his papers.

Tushong's wife will probably soon follow him to the Lone-Star State.

Young Ladies Frightened.

Two young ladies, who are employed in a large dry-goods store in this city, were badly frightened Saturday night by a white man, who approached them on Fifth street as though he intended to rob them. Their screams soon brought two men to their aid, and the would-be robber ran off. Detective Charlie Gibson was notified of the occurrence.

A Chance for Pleasure.

Mrs. Gill, superintendent of the Male Orphan Asylum, will give the last of the series of excursions under the auspices of that institution on August 26th. Old Point, Buckroe Beach, and Virginia Beach may be visited on that occasion. There will be a special car for ladies, and an enjoyable time in store for all who go.

Lee Camp to Meet Wednesday.

Commander James T. Gray requests all members of R. E. Lee Camp, not Confederate veterans, who desire to attend the unveiling of the Powhatan Troop monument to meet in the Camp Hall on Wednesday evening, at 6 o'clock. All who intend to go will please be prompt in their attendance on this meeting.

The "Poet" Priest Here.

Father John B. Tabb, the poet priest, is stopping at the residence of Bishop Van de Vyver for a few days. Sunday Father Tabb celebrated mass at the Cathedral at 7 o'clock. A large number of friends called on him in the Bishop's parlor during the day.

RICHMOND RAILWAY AND ELECTRIC COMPANY.

Street-Car Transfers.

ADDITIONAL FACILITIES OFFERED TO THE TRAVELLING PUBLIC.

Commencing [illegible] 1, 1896, this company extended its transfer system to embrace all connecting lines of street railway in Richmond and Manchester. A passenger is allowed the privilege of transfer to any connecting line in either city and in any direction at junction points.

The payment of a five-cent fare entitles a passenger to one ONE TRANSFER TICKET; but additional transfers are allowed on the same ticket at any point printed thereon which does not return the passenger to the point of starting.

All the parks and suburban districts can be reached from any point in either city by payment of one fare.

It is a standing order of the company, for the convenience of transfer passengers, that cars shall wait at junction points for the arrival of car on connecting line if the approaching car is within the distance of one square. The travelling public is requested to advise the company of any infringement of this order. ap1
