THE CITY OF PETERSBURG

THE MATOACA COTTON MILLS STOCKHOLDERS ELECT DIRECTORS.

The Operatives Refuse to Continue Work at Reduced Wages—Other Mill Is Continue Under Same Conditions.

PETERSBURG, VA., June 7.—Special.—The stockholders of the Matoaca Cotton Manufacturing Company in annual meeting to-day elected the following directors: John W. Bradberry, Alexander Hamilton, John Gill, and Drs. D. A. Leigh, sr., and James W. Claiborne. At a subsequent meeting John W. Bradberry was elected president of the company.

The operatives have decided not to work on a ten per cent. reduction in their wages, and the mills have shut down. The same reduction was made in the wages of the operatives at the Ettrick, Focahontas and Blue Ridge Mills, but these mills are all at work to-day.

BROKEN LIMBS.

Norman Cocke, son of John J. Cocke, Commonwealth's Attorney of Prince George county, fell from a tree yesterday and broke his left arm.

Eddie Hawkins, age of John M. Hawkins, of this city, had one of his legs broken yesterday while swinging at Granite Grove in Dinwiddie county.

A telegram was received this morning by Mr. C. B. Nunnally, announcing the extreme illness of his brother-in-law, Mr. R. T. Malone, at Ream's Station, in Dinwiddie county.

Rev. Herbert M. Hope, General Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, left last night for St. Louis, to attend the national convention of the Knights of Honor.

Two large excursions from Raleigh will be run to Richmond to-morrow. They will go around Petersburg by the Belt Line.

Rev. J. W. Rosebro, D. D., has gone to Maryland to the bedside of his sister-in-law, who is very ill.

THE CIRCUIT COURT.

The case of the Merchants' and Farmers' Bank against the Swift Creek Cotton Mills, was called to-day in the Circuit Court. The Petersburg Iron Works against the same, and Haynes & Bishop against the same were continued until the Law and Equity Court of Richmond, which appointed a receiver to take charge of the property, should grant leave to the plaintiff to proceed to judgment, notwithstanding the order appointing said receiver.

The case of M. Millhiser & Co., of Richmond against W. H. Tolley & Co., of this city, judgment for the plaintiff, the demurrer in the suit of D. H. Chambers against the Petersburg Electric Railway Company, for $10,000 damages was overruled, and the case set for trial on June 24th.

THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE.

Interview With President Nelson Regarding Its Prospects.

Rev. Dr. James Nelson, the president of the Woman's College, in Tenth street was seen yesterday morning by a representative of the Times, concerning the plans and prospects of the College, and especially as they might be affected by the reported removal of the institution to the West-End of Richmond.

Dr. Nelson said that for some time the capacity of the Woman's College had been entirely unequal to the demands upon it, and that he had been very reluctantly obliged to turn away applicants for admission into the College, for lack of room.

At the last meeting of the Board of Trustees of the College on Monday, this subject was taken up, and it was unanimously resolved that the matter should be remedied, and that too, at as early a date as possible.

One thing was agreed upon, then and there, and it was that the removal of the institution to larger and more eligible quarters was imperatively necessary, and the West-End of Richmond was naturally thought of, as the place for location.

It is contemplated to erect just as soon as may be, on a site to be selected, a modern building, to cost at least $50,000 for the purposes of the College, and to fit it with every known comfort and convenience for study and residence of the pupils.

The thought of an affiliation with Richmond College came up as the next step—an affiliation not necessarily for co-education, but for the purpose of giving greater advantages to the Woman's College in the use of the faculty, library, and scientific apparatus of Richmond College.

This idea met with instant appreciation, and endorsement, and a committee will be appointed to confer with a like committee from Richmond College, to arrange the details.

Dr. Nelson was very hopeful of the ultimate success of the whole plan, and he believed it could be carried to completion at no distant day.

The reverend president grew enthusiastic yesterday as he spoke of the many advantages to accrue to his College from the proposed change.

As to the location, nothing has been decided, save that it will most likely be near to Richmond College, for reasons given, and may be on west Broad, Grace or Franklin streets.

There will be no haste in the matter, as such a plan will require consideration and thought, necessarily, and it would probably be the session after the next, before it could be put into operation.

Meantime, the present Woman's College buildings in Tenth street will be repaired and renovated during the summer recess, and many additions and alterations will be made in them, against the next session.

This is done, because the trustees believe it the part of wisdom to improve their property, so that when the proposed removal takes place, whether the scheme of affiliation with Richmond College is accomplished or not, it will be easier to sell the Woman's College.

The many advantages of Richmond as a place for the higher education of women, in view of the religious and social, literary and musical, historical and scientific opportunities to be found here were eloquently dwelt upon by Dr. Nelson, who seems to be quite enthused with the whole plan.

COURT OF JUSTICE JOHN,

A Number of Small Cases Come Up Before That Dignatary.

The docket in the Police Court yesterday morning was comparatively light for Monday, and was disposed of in an expeditious manner by Justice John.

The following cases came up:

Miles Johnson (colored) was charged with stealing one nine-piece oak suit of furniture from C. H. Oliver, valued at $35. The case was dismissed.

The case of Rolly Rosser, alias John Williams, charged with stealing a bicycle from G. H. Tompkins, was continued until the 8th instant, and Rosser gave bail in the sum of $100 for his appearance.

James Mason (colored) was fined $12.50 and costs for being disorderly and fighting Fannie Johnson on the street.

Fannie Johnson was dismissed. On payment of the fine Mason was discharged later in the morning.

Fred. Rose (colored) charged with assault and battery, was discharged.

E. C. Beasley and L. W. Flournoy were sent to jail in default of $2.50 fine for being drunk.

Mary Minor (colored) was sent down in default of $2.50 fine for being drunk and disorderly.

Sam Watson was sent to jail for ten days for being drunk.

Phil. Johnson, charged with beating Mary Jane Johnson, was discharged.

Robert Russell was sent down in default of a $10 fine for assault on W. H. Gentry.

Moses Hicks (colored) paid $6.30 for the privilege of fighting and shooting a pistol on the street.

Robert Saunders, charged with trespassing on the property of C. A. Rose, was discharged.

A. S. Goode paid $2 for being drunk.

Jim Losey, Eliza Davis, Ida Chriss, Susie Morris, and Rebecca Martin, all colored, charged with throwing rocks at Mary Ann Hayes, were discharged.

For failure to pay a similar fine L. W. Bass was sent to jail.

Alex. Lipscomb paid $2.50 for fighting.

INDICTMENT AGAINST CRAWFORD,

A Large Number Returned by the Grand Jury—Another Injunction.

The grand jury in the Hustings Court yesterday returned a number of indictments, among them being one against George E. Crawford, charging him with grand larceny. The indictment alleges that he "did take, steal and carry away" a certificate of deposit for $2,500 belonging to Mrs. Catherine Pyronnett.

Mr. Crawford is the real estate dealer against whom Mrs. Pyronnett brought the charges mentioned above.

Full details of the case were printed when it came up several weeks ago.

Indictments were also found by the grand jury as follows:

Henry Harris, alias Edward Harris, for killing Edward Ford, colored.

Walter W. Wallace for detrayal of Bernice E. Walsh.

Barbara Dickinson for maliciously wounding Arlena Davis.

Charles Gherring for house-breaking.

H. Dillard for grand larceny.

Francis Baker for maliciously cutting Lucinda Davis.

James Young for burglary.

James Young for maliciously beating and wounding Mrs. M. Bennet.

Lucinda Green for house-breaking.

Idella White for burglary.

Major Ellison, alias Major Ellis, alias John Goode, for criminal assault on Virginia Holmes.

John T. Stewart for maliciously cutting Joseph Stewart.

John Ullman, alias John Harris, for house-breaking.

Emanuel Taylor for house-breaking.

William Taylor for breaking into a railroad car.

John Chapman for breaking into a railroad car.

Wyman Migeston for house-breaking.

Thomas Stokes for house-breaking.

New Way to Steal Chickens.

County Policeman Jones, of Henrico, arrested two negroes yesterday morning for whom he has been looking for some weeks.

John Dooley and James Dooley are the names of these men, and they were wanted on the charge of stealing chickens after a new and original plan.

The method by which these two negroes with an Irish name succeeded in abstracting fowls from their coops is known as the "hooking" process.

A hook of wire is fastened to the end of a pole, which is put through the entrance to the hen-house, and the unsuspecting fowl is dragged forth.

Squire Thomas will try the case to-day and meantime John and James are locked up in Henrico jail.

Constable Garnett, of Henrico, arrested Monday Richard Hubbard, a negro charged with carrying concealed weapons.

He was locked up, and will have a trial this morning.

A Beautiful Opiate.

A feature of the June number of the article published by the Baltimore Steam Packet Company, is a map of its James-river route between Baltimore and Richmond which shows the famous battle grounds, sites of colonial manors, and other points of interest on the river. This map is probably the most complete of its kind ever published, and was compiled from information furnished by veteran navigators of Chesapeake bay and the rivers entering it. The title page of the article contains an excellent illustration of the famous Claremont Manor, which was built in the colonial days.

Children's Day Exercises.

The celebration of Children's Day at the Seventh Street Christian church on Sunday was a very delightful occasion. A large audience was present and the children acquitted themselves very handsomely in their recitations and singing. Rev. Juiary Hall being unavoidably detained, was not present, but Mr. C. W. Throckmorton delivered a very pleasing and appropriate address.

Mr. W. G. Pollen, superintendent of the Sunday-school presided.

The offering amounted to $34, and will be applied to home and foreign missions. The floral decorations were very beautiful.

Children's Day Exercises.

Children's Day exercises were held Sunday afternoon at the Seventh-Street Christian church. There was a large attendance, and the little folks entered heartily into the spirit of the occasion. Appropriate hymns, recitations, and readings were on the programme and well given. An interesting feature was a "two-minutes" address on foreign mission work. The service was intended to increase interest in the foreign work.

A Temperance Rally.

A temperance rally was conducted most successfully Sunday at St. James Methodist church. The exercises consisted of some special music, appropriate recitations and readings by the children and young people and interesting addresses by Mr. G. P. Robins, chairman of the Temperance Committee, and Mr. R. W. Hardy and Professor Smithdeal. The attendance was large.

The Ladies Auxiliary.

A called meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Pickett Camp will take place tomorrow afternoon, June 9th, at 3:30 o'clock.

The meeting will be held at the camp's new quarters, 310 north Eighth street, and the members are earnestly requested to attend as the committee of Confederate Festival would like to settle the affairs of the bazaar.
