The Cherubs added another victory to their string yesterday afternoon in the last of the series with Norfolk. Bishop twirled for the locals and Newton was in the box for the visitors, and from a pitcher's standpoint Newton had the best of the argument, but sharp fielding on the part of the locals did the business, and the victory came to them not through Bishop's ability, but through good, steady playing.

* * *

The Norfolk team had another shake up, First-Baseman Klusman going to his home in Cincinnati and Weddige taking his place at first bag, while Pfannmiller held down third corner. This weakened the team some, for neither player was familiar with the position. Howard Holland acquitted himself creditably at the bat again, catching two hits, but he muffed a fly and injured his hand.

The Norfolk club returned to their own camping ground this morning and play the Reading team to-day and to-morrow, closing the season Saturday with Hartford.

The Hartford team, with Arlie Latham, appear here this afternoon for the last series of the season, playing one game to-day and probably two to-morrow. The club will reach here at 2:45 o'clock this afternoon from Hartford. The last games should induce the cranks to turn out in larger numbers, for they mean the championship fight is on and a close race is being run.

The Crew of the Mary Jane made their solitary run in the first inning. Two men were out when Wentz safed on a choice, and he scored on Weddige's three-bagger. In the fifth inning Newton got as far as third on a walk, a hit and a choice, and was caught trying to make home—from Bishop to Hess. This was the nearest any one ever got to making a run after the first inning.

* * *

The Cherubs caught a run in the second inning. Hargrove safed on an error, was sacrificed down, took third on another error and scored on Hess' out at first. Another run came up in the fourth. Hargy again safed on Holland's muff of his fly and scored on hits by Leahy and Dundon. The other two runs were made in the eighth. Two men had perished and Leahy caught a walk. He scored on singles by Dundon and Hess and Dundon stole third, scoring a moment later on Klopf's hit.

* * *

There were no special features to the game, except, perhaps, the running catch of Fox's fly by Seybold and Dundon's grab-in of a hot liner from Wheelock's bat.

DIED OF TYPHOID FEVER

Sad End of a Berryville Volunteer Republicans Elect Delegates.

BERRYVILLE, VA., Sept. 5.—Special.—S. D. Barr received this morning a telegram from Capt. Magruder, of Company A, Second Virginia Regiment, stating that his son, Private Walter B. Barr, had died at Camp Cuba Libre, Jacksonville, Fla., after an illness of about sixteen days with typhoid fever. Although his family here were aware of his illness, his death came as a surprise.

Private Barr enlisted about two months ago with H. H. M. Stephenson, Marshall Milton and Allan Dortch, all of this place, in the Second Virginia Regiment, and left immediately for Jacksonville. He was a young man of good moral character and has many friends here. He was about 21 years old and is survived by his parents and two brothers and two sisters. His body has been sent here for interment.

The Republican County Convention met here to-day for the purpose of nominating delegates to the Congressional convention that will convene in Luray on Wednesday to nominate a candidate to oppose Congressman Hay for re-election in this district. R. Bundy, colored, was made chairman and A. L. Glascock, secretary. On motion of Alex. McCormick and R. Bundy, were chosen delegates. Alex. McCormick was re-elected chairman of the Republican Executive Committee of Clarke county and Alex. Williams, colored, E. Manuel Blackburn, colored, John Baugher and E. A. Lindsay, the County Committee. The St. Louis platform and the administration were endorsed.

A BOY BADLY CRUSHED.

Alexandria Will Give a Rousing Reception to Her Returning Soldiers

ALEXANDRIA, VA., September 6.—Special.—Frank Williams (colored), sixteen years old, employed by J. W. Hammond & Son, ice dealers, was this morning run over by an ice wagon, and, notwithstanding his collar-bone and most of his ribs were broken and his body crushed to jelly, he is yet living and may survive. The accident was due to the boy's attempt to mount the wagon while in motion and falling under the wheels.

The reception to be given to Company F, Third Virginia, on their return from the war promises to be quite an affair. The song and praise of a city seventeen thousand strong is to be invoked, and a turn-out of citizens is expected such as has not been seen since the last war.

RHEA AND WALKER.

A Joint Discussion in Russell County. Democrats Enthusiastic.

LEBANON, VA., Sept. 6.—Special.—Greatest crowd ever known in Russell county was here to-day, the attraction being the Rhea-Walker joint discussion. Judge Rhea opened and Walker closed. Rhea poured hot shot into Walker on his record and Walker took all his time in explanations.

No such enthusiasm was ever seen in Russell county, as during Rhea's twenty minutes, rejoinder. Walker was uncomfortable under the terrific fire and the Democrats wildly applauded.

Walker's last rejoinder fell like a wet blanket, he looked staggered and once or twice he lost his head.

Rhea looked cool and determined throughout. The Democrats have been stirred to the bottom and they all say that Rhea will sweep Russell county like a whirlwind.

WANT A REVIEW.

New York Asks a Chance to See the Army and Navy in Parade.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Mayor Van Wyck sent the following telegram to-day to President McKinley:

"The people of the city of New York are sincerely desirous of witnessing a review of the United States soldiers, regulars and volunteers, before they are disbanded or distributed, and they sincerely hope and respectfully request that you will exercise your authority to give them an opportunity to see the troops and show their appreciation of the services which the soldiers have rendered the country. A committee of citizens has this day been appointed to take certain action in the matter and the people of this city are ready to act at once."

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.

The Second Day a "Star Spangled" One—Want Differences Forgotten.

CINCINNATI, O., September 6.—The second day of the thirty-second encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic was a "star-spangled day" in every way. As the sea veterans were marching in the naval parade to-day it was noticed that most of them are gray, many infirm and lame. Some advocate discontinuance of encampments because they want all remembrances even of sectional differences wiped out. They say they will attend the annual encampments as long as they are held. Among the ladies who are missed no one is referred to more often than Mrs. John A. Logan. Many of the veterans hunted up old army nurses, who were remembered with great tenderness.

Trouble Over a Watermelon.

LYNHCBURG, VA., Sept. 6.—Special.—Charles Tinsley (colored) was seriously cut here to-night by three white men. The trouble started over a watermelon. Tinsley was cut in the left arm from shoulder nearly to the wrist and in the left side, and was stabbed in the corner of his right eye. Thomas Ford, and William Moore have been arrested and placed in jail.

POSTAL CLERKS' INSURANCE.

The Annual Meeting of Their Association Held in Atlanta.

ATLANTA, GA., September 6.—The twenty-third annual convention of the United States Railway Mail Service Mutual Benefit Association met here to-day. The eleven divisions of the association were all represented. The convention was called to order by President John M. Butler, of Lincoln, Neb. Governor Atkinson welcomed the delegates to the State and Mayor Collier extended the freedom of Atlanta, their addresses being responded to by President Butler.

A Committee on Credentials, consisting of one member from each district, was appointed.

At the afternoon session President Butler read his annual report. In addition to reciting the work done during the year, the report gave a synopsis of what had been accomplished by the association during the time Mr. Butler has been in office. Several other reports were submitted and discussed.

To-night the delegates witnessed the performance at the Grand.

The election of officers will occur Thursday.

MILES' ADVANCE GUARD.

The Chester Reaches New York With Returning Troops from Porto Rico

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—The advance guard of General Miles' army returned from Porto Rico to-day on board the transport Chester. The steamer left Ponce last Thursday afternoon, six hours after the Obdam, bearing General Miles, his staff and the Second Wisconsin Volunteers, had cleared for New York. The Obdam was seen but once on the voyage and that was on the first day out.

The Chester brought all told 1,210 passengers, 60 officers and civilians, the Fourth Pennsylvania Volunteers and several members of the Third Wisconsin Volunteers. Brigadier-Generals Schwan and Staples and their staffs were also on board.

On the voyage Captain H. M. Smith, of Company K, Fourth Pennsylvania Volunteers, died from typhoid fever. His remains were placed in a metallic casket and will be shipped to his late home in Columbia county, Pa.

The Chester was not delayed at quarantine, but proceeded at once to Jersey City. Before reaching there, however, some of her passengers were taken off by the government tug, General Meigs, and landed at Pier No. 2, East river. The General Meigs was boarded by Major Appel and five typhoid fever cases were turned over to him.

John M. Palmer, Jr., son of the Secretary of State of New York, returned on the Chester, he had been sent to Porto Rico with Major George W. Hobbs to get the names of all the New York State soldiers in the government service there. If those men do not return to their homes before election day, they will be able to vote even though in a distant land.

Mr. Palmer will return to Porto Rico with the ballots as soon as the candidates have been chosen and will supervise the voting of the soldiers.

WHOLESOME ADVICE.

For People Whose Stomachs are Weak and Digestion Poor.

Dr. Harlandson, whose opinion in diseases is worthy of attention, says when a man or woman comes to me complaining of indigestion, loss of appetite, sour stomach, belching, sour watery-risings, headaches, sleeplessness, lack of ambition, and a general run down nervous condition, I advise them to take after each meal one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, allowing the tablet to dissolve in the mouth, and thus mingle with the food eaten. The result is that the food is speedily digested before it has time to sour and ferment. These tablets will digest food anyway, whether the stomach wants to or not, because they contain harmless digestive principles, vegetable essences, pepsin and Golden Seal which supply just what the weak stomach lacks.

I have advised the tablets with great success, both in curing indigestion and to build up the tissues, increase flesh in thin, nervous patients, whose real trouble was dyspepsia and as soon as the stomach was put to rights they did not know what sickness was.

A fifty-cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can be bought at any drug-store, and as they are not a secret patent medicine, they can be used as often as desired with full assurance that they contain nothing harmful in the slightest degree; on the contrary, any one whose stomach is at all deranged will find great benefit from the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. They will cure any form of stomach weakness or disease, except cancer of the stomach. Full-size package at druggists, 50c. or $1.00, or by mail from Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

THE TRUE REFORMERS.

Each Candidate Managing His Own Boomerang for President.

The eighteenth annual session of the Grand Fountain, United Order of True Reformers convened in this city at True Reformers' Hall on yesterday morning at 10 o'clock.

There are in attendance about 600 delegates representing twenty-two States. The general bearing of the members is very impressive and every walk of life is represented in their ranks.

Acting Grand Master Taylor called the meeting to order and the roll of officers was called by Grand Secretary W. P. Burrell.

Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. R. Wells, the Grand Chaplain, assisted by Rev. James H. Holmes.

The opening address was made by the acting Grand Master, and was in part a very earnest effort. He did not fail to impress the audience by telling them that he alone was the proper man to be elected Grand Master. He showed his long connection with the order and told of how he came to be anointed as the Moses to lead the order after the death of Rev. Browne. It is very evident that Rev. Taylor proposes to be Grand Master, no matter what the cost.

The committee on credentials was appointed, with W. P. Burrell as chairman. The delegation was divided up into sixteen sections with a sub-committee in charge of each.

At 4 o'clock the assembly was again called to order. The report of the Committee on Credentials was not ready, so the time was taken up in speech-making.

Rev. J. Anderson Taylor, of Washington, D. C., made a very warm speech in favor of R. T. Hill for the presidency. He showed his side of the question up in a very dignified and convincing manner.

D. F. Batts attempted to reply, but the house would not hear him, so the chair ruled the whole discussion out of order. At half-past eight o'clock the body again met to listen to a welcome address by Rev. J. T. Carpenter and a response by Rev. E. T. Anderson. A large crowd was out and the remarks of Carpenter in advocacy of his candidate for the presidency brought out round after round of such applause as would have done credit to a political meeting.

Rev. E. T. Anderson followed Rev. Carpenter with a humorous effort in which he kept the people laughing and cheering. His references to some of his friends were very caustic. He spoke in the main in the interest of W. L. Taylor for president.

At the conclusion of Rev. Anderson's speech, Rev. C. H. Phillips attempted to reply, but the Chair declared the time expired and adjourned the meeting.

This meeting of the True Reformers is unlike any that they have ever had and what has at all times been a most dignified body now looks like a big political convention. Every delegate has on the badge of his candidate and it is known that about 200 wear badges for the present acting Grand Master, and vote for R. T. Hill. Hill has been for many years cashier of the True Reformers' Savings Bank and is well-known to the business world.

Rev. W. L. Taylor has travelled for many years in the interest of the Grand Fountain and has filled the office of Grand master for six years. But little business other than canvassing for office is being done, and the presiding officer rarely makes a speech in which he does not refer in some way to himself.

The supporters of R. T. Hill are well organized and confident of success.

SPAIN WILL RANSOM THEM.

She Will Send Money to Secure the Release of the Insurgents' Prisoners.

MADRID, September 6.—The Cabinet has authorized the Foreign Minister, Duke Almodovar de Rio, to negotiate with the Philippine insurgents to ransom the 5,000 Spanish prisoners now in their hands, and it has been decided to transmit money to Manila for that purpose and for the relief of the Spanish troops which are urgently in need of funds. The Minister will ask General Jaudenes, commander of the Spanish troops in the Philippines now, to transmit the funds.

The government has also cabled to Captain-General Macias, at San Juan, Porto Rico, requesting him to furnish fuller details of the American economic regime in the island of Porto Rico. This step was taken after considering his first report on the subject.

MADRID, Sept. 6.—The Minister for War has received the following dispatch, dated Iloilo, from the Captain-General of the Spanish possessions in the Philippines and Governor of the Visayas Islands: "Our flotilla has visited the whole Archipelago. There was no signs of the threatened rebel landing in the Visayas."

Work of the Police

Georgia Tinsley, a negro woman, was arrested by Officer Clarkson, of the Second Police District, yesterday, and lodged in the station-house on the charge of threatening to cut with a knife Mary Dennis, another negro. The prisoner was bailed.

Aaron Hunter (colored) was arrested by Officer Baker and lodged in the Second Police Station charged with assaulting Lena Faulkner, a negro. She was also bailed.

Frank Mason, a negro man, was seen with some lead pipe in his possession and it was suspected that he stole it. He was accordingly run in as a suspicious character.

HULL DECIDES FOR S. B. CARNEY

A Complete Victory for the Wise Faction Over the Bowdenites.

THE RICHMOND EXCURSIONISTS.

The City Well Represented in Washington—New Postmasters Appointed—Camp Alger Postoffice Discontinued—Escaped Lunatic.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—The decision of Representative Hull to-day was that S. B. Carney was still chairman of Republican Committee of the Second Virginia district, never having been displaced since his recognition as chairman two years ago.

This is a complete victory for the Wise crowd over the Burroughs and Bowden faction. Whether they will accept the decision is another and open question. As stated yesterday, Mr. Hull was some time since noted by the Republican congressional committee to act as referee in the case. He heard the argument of Carney about a week or ten days ago, and decided in favor of him. Later Burroughs put in a claim that he had received no notice of the hearing, and a few days ago Mr. Hull wired Carney to stay proceedings until both sides could be heard. Yesterday was fixed, and the argument was long and warm as the torrid weather without.

HIS OPINION.

The letter containing the decision is quite lengthy, and reviews the principal points brought up in the argument.

Hull claims that the committee has jurisdiction over all matters affecting representation in Congress, but says it has never assumed jurisdiction over State committees. He admits there is some strength in the contention that the State (Virginia) agreement takes the matter entirely out of the hands of every committee except that of the State committee, but maintains that congressmen are Federal officers and absolutely within the jurisdiction of the committee. A point of difference was whether the Wise or Burroughs committee was recognized when Wise's nomination was recognized. Hull says there was nothing before him to show an agreement on this point, but he thought the recognition of Wise necessarily included his committee also. The Republican vote in the presidential election is made the basis of representation. Carney has called a meeting of his committee to be held in Norfolk at noon to-morrow to fix a date for the convention.

DEMOCRATS JUBILANT.

The Norfolk Democrats Believe Hull's Decision Insures Young's Election.

NORFOLK, VA., Sept. 6.—Special.—There is unfeigned joy among Democrats here over the last phase of the factional fight over the Republican District chairmanship. The Wise-Bowden-Lamb-Carney-Burroughs imbroglio, these believe, will make easy the election of Hon. W. A. Young, Democrat from this district.

The last telegram from Washington, received here to-night, reports that Mr. Hull, of the Republican National Committee, has decided to recognize Mr. S. B. Carney as district chairman. This practically declares the S. L. Burroughs' convention to be held here to-morrow, null and void, and unhorses Mr. Burroughs.

Here is the text of the one which preceded it by an hour or so:

"The State Executive Committee having passed upon the question, and the National Committee having reconciled all matters of difference and especially provided for your convention, you will be sustained by both the State Committee and the National Committee, and we trust you will have a harmonious convention and your nominee elected. You can count on our earnest support to this end."

TO CUBA IN NOVEMBER.

The Fourth Virginia Will Not Go Until the Climate is Safe.

CAMP CUBA LIBRE, Sept. 5.—Special. It is now thought that on account of the climatic conditions in Cuba, the troops will not be removed from here before November, to avoid any unnecessary risk, unless their presence should be required to maintain order and enforce the authority of the United States during the time of the remaining of the Spanish troops.

General Lee and Mrs. Lee this afternoon took a drive along the Rock Road, which runs between the camps of the Forty-ninth Iowa and Fourth Virginia Regiments as dividing line. When they reached the row of tents occupied by the band of the Virginia Regiment, which is the nearest to the road, the men were eating their supper.

General Lee had his carriage stopped and asked the men what kind of a supper they had. Cornet Soloist Raycroft, who acted as spokesman, told the General that they had the inside lining of a porterhouse steak turned into stew and coffee and hard tack for supper. He then brought out a cup of coffee and one or two hard tacks.

General Lee tasted the coffee, which he pronounced to be good, but did not touch the hard tack. He then asked what kind of butter the men received and was informed that that article did not figure in any way upon their bill of fare. General Lee then laughingly drove on.

Private Ernest Headley, of Company I, Fourth Virginia Regiment, died on last Wednesday at the Division Hospital of typhoid fever. He boarded for a number of years with Mr. C. C. Curtis, at No. 1425 Bainbridge street, in Manchester. When the war broke out he enlisted in Company I, of Franklin, Captain Vaughan commanding. His father formerly lived in Boydton, Mecklenburg county, but is now a resident of South Boston, Halifax county. The funeral services, which were conducted on Thursday morning by Chaplain Stringfellow, were attended by the entire company and the remains were shipped to South Boston.

George Yonell, who formerly lived in Richmond, is among the enlisted men in the First Ohio Regiment, having been a resident of Cincinnati, O., when the war broke out. He called on some of the men of Company B, of the Fourth Virginia Regiment this evening to introduce himself as an old Richmond boy and was gladly received as such.

Sergeant W. M. Jones, of Company M, Fourth Regiment, returned to camp this evening after spending a furlough of fifteen days with his relatives in Richmond.

Lieutenant Jones, of Company K, Fourth Regiment, who has charge of the regimental canteen, returned this evening from a fifteen days' leave of absence which he spent at his home in Petersburg.

Mr. E. P. Hatcher, of Richmond, arrived here this evening to be with his brother, Private Vance R. Hatcher, of Company H, Fourth Regiment, who is very low with typhoid fever at the Division Hospital. C. W.
