☞ The evidence of a conspiracy on part of the Copperhead leaders of the North West, to overthrow our Government, is now beyond a doubt. Of course the great Vallandigham is at the head. He was initiated at Richmond whilst the guest of Jeff Davis and now holds the rank of "Supreme commander." The Government is in full poseession of all the facts, and has already made some arrests. It is to be hoped that if the "Supreme commander of the Copperheads" be again arrested, he will be sent beyond our lines by a line which will place him in charge of the Supreme Commander of devils if indeed he will consent to have hell disgraced, and the safety of his throne endangered by admission of such a pestilent cuss, within his dominions.

We shall give particulars of this plot as far as developed next week.

WASHINGTON, July 29.

Persons who arrived here to day, from Harper's Ferry, confirm the report that the rebels have disappeared from the banks of the Potomac, between there and Martinsburg.—Cavalry scouts, however, report the rebels in strong force a distance beyond Martinsburg, moving in the direction of Cumberland! Their force was estimated at from 25,000 to 45,000 strong, including 15,000 or 20,000 reinforcements from Richmond.

CHESHIRE ACADEMY.

WE take this early opportunity to say to the numerous patrons of this Institution, that though Rev. Mr. Perry has closed his labors with the School to devote himself exclusively to the ministry, yet the Trustees have no thought to discontinue the School.

Another first class Principal will be furnished, and the former Preceptress, Miss Cavender, it is expected, will be obtained for the ensuing year.

The many young people who have expressed a purpose to attend the Fall Term, may rely upon the continuance of the School.

I will probably commence at about the usual time—last day of August or first of September.

We shall advertise further particulars about the first or middle of August next.
