A Telegraph Want Ad Will Go Into Over 23,000 Homes Every Time It Is Run

There Are Boys Who Are Ambitious to Succeed

I heard an office man say the other day, "The office boy of to-day doesn't give a flucker for the future, his mind is on baseball and motorcycles."

I don't believe him! I know better. I know many, many boys who are anxious to find work in offices where they stand a show of advancement. If I were an office manager, I'd use a Telegraph WANT AD and put in a few hours interviewing boys—because I know I could pick the right boy and thereby build for the future—his and mine.

The Telegraph Want Ad Man.

One Killed and 2 Wounded in Shenandoah Street Fight

Special to The Telegraph

Shenandoah, Pa., Oct. 14.—Alex Zucfsky, 22 years old, was stabbed to death and Anthony Churneski and John Swatskie, about the same age, received serious gashes in a fight here yesterday. Policeman Clayton Tempest was attracted to the scene and as he approached Zucfsky staggered away. Tempest called on him to halt, but the man turned and fired his revolver twice at Tempest. The latter returned the fire, but missed.

Chief of Police Cantlin and Captain Manley followed a trail of blood to West Shenandoah colliery culm bank, when they found the body of Zucfsky.

The police made seven arrests. Anthony Slavinsky was taken from the mines at Suffolk colliery and Joe Valusky from bed in his home. When the latter viewed the body of the victim he collapsed and had to be carried to the lockup.

Churneski and Swatskie were taken to the State Hospital at Fountain Springs. They are in a serious condition from loss of blood.

ARREST WILSON ANNOYER

Washington, Oct. 14.—William Belvin, a former New York stock broker, was arrested at the White House yesterday and turned over to the police. Belvin repeatedly tried to see President Roosevelt when the latter was in the White House, and yesterday when he got obstreperous on being refused an audience with President Wilson he was arrested.
