Common Sense Will Stop Horrible Rheumatism

The famous Opie, a great English painter, was once asked what he mixed his paints with. "Brains," he replied.

Rheumatism cannot live long in a body that is cared for by a head full of brains. Brains or common sense is an avowed enemy to rheumatism. The poisons with which every rheumatic body is filled, arise in the kidneys, or stomach or blood. This poison goes into the blood. It is stronger than the ordinary force of the blood. It lodges in the muscles and joints. It gathers around nerves and presses upon them. It inflames the flesh. Pain comes and remains until the cause of the trouble, the acids and poisons, are driven out of the blood.

Salves and rubbing, lotions and baths, hot towels and water bottles will not reach down to the throne room of the trouble. What nature wants is more power to the blood. Many forms of rheumatism are caused by secret deplorable diseases. Nature surely uses common sense and tells the man to get rid of this bad blood. Here is a chance for you to use your common sense. How?

Get a bottle of S. S. S., the greatest blood purifier ever known. During 50 years it has cured thousands of cases of rheumatism and will cure you. It is purely vegetable and goes into the blood like rich food goes into it. It throws off all impurities and makes good, pure red blood.

RIFLES HERE FOR RAILROAD CLUB

Range at Conewago to Be Ready by Saturday; Shooters Out Early

Plans are being formulated for the official opening of the rifle range of the Philadelphia Division Rifle Club at Conewago next Saturday. The 200 and 600 targets are ready. The telephones and automatic signals will be completed this week. E. L. Watson, superintendent of signals of the Philadelphia division, who is the director-general of the rifle club, is anxious to have the members all out not later than Saturday.

The rifles arrived Saturday morning and will be distributed to the members for practice this week. Several of the officials were at the range on Saturday and made good scores. E. L. Watson and J. N. Hobart, of Harrisburg, and N. I. Greiner, of Middletown, were the best shots. It is probable that arrangements will be made for a match between clubs from other divisions on Decoration Day.

English Railroads Drop Tourist Tickets and Eats

London, May 22.—The congestion on the principal English railroads and the necessity for economy will result in the suspension of tourist tickets and the withdrawal of a number of dining cars from service.

It is thought that the suspension of tourist tickets will cause a greatly lessened volume of passengers on their way to holiday resorts at considerable distances from their homes. The withdrawal of the dining cars will also tend to prevent persons from taking long and unnecessary journeys. In addition a considerable saving in coal and repairs will result.

The transportation of military and naval supplies is the most important function of the English railroads at present, and passengers and ordinary freight must give way before the war needs.

Railroad Notes

Recent discipline bulletins issued by Superintendent N. W. Smith, of the Middle Division, shows one work train conductor and one signalman commended for reporting broken wheels.

Old caboose cars are being sent to Altoona, where they will be overhauled and sent to branch lines of the Pennsy.

J. R. Peacock, brakeman on the Baltimore division of the Pennsylvania railroad, is off duty on account of sickness.

Increased anthracite shipments are reported by the Pennsylvania Railroad to southern points.

Reading florists will be busy this week. Flower beds along the Harrisburg division between Harrisburg and Reading will be put in shape before Memorial Day.

President A. T. Dice, of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway, with his family has moved to Atlantic City for the summer.

Trainmaster W. B. Gormley, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, who is investigating record systems and yard work throughout the West, is in Los Angeles. He will return east next week.

How to Heal Skin-Diseases

A Baltimore doctor suggests this simple, but reliable and inexpensive, home treatment for people suffering with eczema, ringworm, rashes and similar itching, burning skin troubles.

At any reliable druggist's get a jar of Resinol Ointment and a cake of Resinol Soap. These are not at all expensive. With the Resinol Soap and warm water bathe the affected parts thoroughly, until they are free from crusts and the skin is softened. Dry very gently, spread on a thin layer of the Resinol Ointment, and cover with a light bandage—if necessary to protect the clothing. This should be done twice a day. Usually the distressing itching and burning stop with the first treatment, and the skin soon becomes clear and healthy again. Sample free, Dept. 30-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.
