NEW ERA DRIVE MOVE LOUNCHED

Market Square to Open Presbyterian Campaign at Service to Be Held Tomorrow

For Market Square Presbyterian Church tomorrow is the day when the campaign for souls will be launched. This is in harmony with the suggestions of the leaders of the New Era movement in the church. The General Assembly asks each church to try to win as many new members on confession of faith as there are stars on the service flag. Market Square will try to reach this number. The session has invited the Rev. W. W. Orr, D. D., of Charlotte, N. C., and his assistant, Prof. Harry P. Armstrong of Pawnee City, Neb., to help in the great harvest. Mrs. Armstrong comes with her husband as his assistant in the musical work of the meetings. Dr. Orr will preach each evening; and doubtless will have a Bible reading each afternoon. The full program will be arranged after he arrives today.

The special meetings do not make up the total of Market Square activities. Had a visitor chanced to enter the school room where the Rev. E. P. Robinson teaches his classes he would have been gratified. Thursday night this man, who is missionary to Greeks, Chinese, Japanese and Syrians, started a class for the Mexicans employed in the steel works at Steelton. There were about a dozen of them before him; and all were being taught the language of their adopted country. The first lesson they mastered was the first verse of "America." How these men, far from home, did sing! They want to know more about the land, the language and the people. Market Square's missionary "to them of strange speech" will teach them.

Troop 1 of the Girl Scouts had a meeting. This troop is now recruited almost to its limit. Twenty-eight girls have qualified, and others are about ready to pass the test.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Puts an End to Catarrh Nuisance

A Direct and Simple Way That May Be Adopted with but Little Cost

If you are constantly catching cold and doing a lot of coughing and spitting you can take it for granted that you have chronic catarrh.

Many persons report they are deriving genuine relief from catarrh of the head, nose and throat, catarrhal deafness, roaring and buzzing in the ears, catarrhal headache and similar miseries, by the use of a novel smoke-vapor remedy containing no tobacco, discovered by Dr. Blosser, an old Atlanta physician, who has been treating catarrh successfully for forty-four years.

There may be some doubt in your mind that it can be so easily done when the case is an old chronic one, but you can satisfy yourself by sending your name and address to Dr. J. W. Blosser, Box 4460, Atlanta, Ga.

For ten cents (in coin or stamps) to cover cost of postage and handling, you can secure a Trial Outfit of Dr. Blosser's Catarrh Remedy. This trial package contains some of the remedy for smoking in a pipe, a neat little pipe and also some medicated cigarettes

Rev. A. R. Tosh at Second Reformed Church Memorial Services in Evening

Both morning and evening services at the Second Reformed Church, corner of Broad and Green streets, will be of very special interest. At the morning service the sermon will be preached by the Rev. Aaron R. Tosh, student of the Theological Seminary of the Reformed Church, Lancaster, Pa. Mr. Tosh returned only recently from a year's work with the Italian army under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., and is one of the promising young preachers of the denomination.

In the evening a memorial service will be conducted by the pastor of the church, the Rev. Alfred Nevin Sayres, in honor of Pvt. Allen Stewart Hartman, the one member of the congregation who gave his life in the service of the country, having died from wounds received in action on October 14, 1918. Pvt. Hartman was a son of the Rev. J. Stewart Hartman, one of the former pastors of the congregation, and was connected with the 34th Field Artilery. In addition to the sermon by the minister, an address of a more personal nature will be delivered by Prof. E. M. Hartman, principal of the Franklin and Marshall Academy at Lancaster, who was one of Pvt. Hartman's former instructors.

The service will be attended by members of the several fraternal organizations of which Pvt. Hartman was a member, and by some of his associates in the employ of the railroad. The choir, under the direction of Mr. George A. Hutman, will render special music.

MILITARY WORK NOW OUTLINED

Daix Training Bill Amended in Senate Committee

Notwithstanding estimates that it will take $5,000,000 to establish military training in the schools of Pennsylvania the Senate will next week vote on the question of establishing in all public high schools, normal schools, colleges and universities receiving State appropriations a course of military and health instruction and training. The system is provided for in the Diax bill introduced February 11 and which has just come from the printer practically rewritten by the Senate Appropriations Committee of which Senator Augustus F. Daix of Philadelphia is chairman.

The bill originally provided for a Military Training Commission to enforce the law composed of the Governor, the Adjutant General, the Commissioner of Health and the Commissioner of Labor and Industry. The Governor and the Commissioner of Labor and Industry have been dropped and the Superintendent of Public Instruction and two citizens to be appointed by the Governor have been added. The Governor would select the chairman. The commission would appoint, prescribe the powers and duties and fix the compensation of the supervisor of military training and necessary employes.

A new section provides that after September 1, 1919, all students at proposed act "shall be given such tending the schools included in the military or health instruction and training or both as the commission may prescribe." The courses prescribed by the commission would be a part of the curriculum and the work of the students would be marked as in other subjects and the standing form a part of the requirements for promotion for graduation.

Annually between June 1 and October 1 the commission could establish and maintain field training camps throughout the state for those students, who in the preceding year have undergone military training. Application for admission to the camp would be made to the commission. This training would last from two to six weeks and would be free to the students.

Another new provision provides that "suitable and adequate provisions, as may be adapted to their sex, including the camp and training requirements and privileges, should be made for the health instruction of all female students" attending the schools coming under the provisions of the bill.

Authority is given the Auditor General, upon request of the commission, to refuse to pay over State appropriations to any school not fulfilling the provisions of the proposed act. An amendment provides that the commission "may" exempt from military training a student belonging to any religious sect that forbids its members to engage in war. The appropriation for the administration of the proposed law is increased from $100,000 to $200,000 for the next two fiscal years.

Letter to the Editor

ENTERS PROTEST

To the Editor of the Telegraph:

Mechanicsburg, Pa., March 8.

Yesterday I took a letter to "The Patriot" office, in which I referred to the word "darkie" being applied to one of our valiant colored soldiers, and instead of publishing my letter, as written, they quoted part and misconstrued it under headline reading "Objects to Dialect."

I want it distinctively understood that it is not the dialect but the derisive term "darkie" that I object to and consider unjust. Will you kindly print the following letter, which is a copy of the one sent "The Patriot" and which shows that it was not negro dialect, but the term "darkie" which was objectionable.

Mechanicsburg, Pa., March 7.

Mr. Editor:—In this morning's Patriot there was a half-way report of the reception given the colored soldiers last night at the Armory. After referring to their "magnificent records on the Vosges, Argonne and Metz fronts," the writer attempts to use negro dialect in quoting a statement alleged to have been made by a negro soldier and refers to him as a "smiling darkie." This derisive term proves that the one thing for which they fought, bled and died, still exists in their own home town, and that is, caste. Mayor Keister's welcome address showed love for and loyalty to a people who are deserving of all the honor that can be given them in this "land of the free and home of the brave."

F. L. Jefferson, of Steelton, spoke of the numerous heroic deeds of our colored soldiers in a most forceful way, as did our distinguished lawyer, W. Justin Carter, and it is deplorable that there was not a real newspaper correspondent present to have taken down what actually took place.

Yours for truth and justice,

J. PAUL CLIFFORD.

On the way upstairs, the two men stepped into the sterilizing room where the ice cream cans are washed and sterilized.

Here they stopped for a while and watched the big washing machinery and Mr. Hershey explained the method of cleaning the cans.

"First we put the can in that big tub of boiling water and a mechanical brush scrubs the can thoroughly. The brush whirls round at a great rate and loosens all the particles that are on the can.

"You see, the work is done entirely by machinery and no hands touch the can.

"From the washing vat the can goes to that big steam chest and is turned round and round on rollers until every nook and corner and square inch of space on the can, inside and outside, are steamed thoroughly.

"This work is done by machinery, as you can see. Not only are the cans sterilized, but the machinery constantly sterilizes itself.

"Presently, you will see the can roll out of the steam chest onto that platform. It will be hot and will dry itself in a few moments."

The whole process was worth watching, dear reader. It will interest you as much as it did the Ad man. Take time to go to the Hershey Creamery Company's plant and go through the whole place. You are very welcome to do so. Mr. Hershey will see to it that you are shown everything in the place.

After seeing the process of sterilizing the cans Mr. Hershey asked the Ad man to step into the big shipping room. "There," said he, "are three carloads of new cans which just arrived. Pretty big lot, you will say."

Just imagine, three carloads of new cans, besides all the cans now in use. It goes to show that HERSHEY'S SUPERIOR ICE CREAM is in great demand. It is increasing in demand—rapidly.

Besides being made of the very finest quality of everything HERSHEY'S SUPERIOR ICE CREAM is made in the finest equipped plant in the State.

It's good to know where your ice cream is made; isn't it?
