Lewisburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 29, 1859.

ADVERTISE!—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics Public officers in City and Country, Publishers—all who wish to buy or sell—would do well to employ the columns of the Lewisburg Chronicle, which has a large and increasing circulation in a community containing a large proportion of active, solvent producers, consumers and dealers, as any in the State.

Commencement Week—1859.

The joys and the sorrows, the meetings and the partings, the cares and anxieties of the 9th Annual Commencement of the University at Lewisburg, have passed. Hosts of old friendships have been renewed, and many new ones have been formed. The weather was unusually pleasant for the season. The attendance of those who look upon these exercises as a mere "show," was less than usual perhaps, yet the number of educated, intellectual, interested spectators, we think increases year by year. This is creditable, and a proof of the progress of a refined taste in our vicinity. We had also many visitors from distant parts of this State, and from other States.

—Thursday to Saturday, the Examinations of the several Departments occurred, and were generally favorably reported by those especially deputed to attend. The Female Institute was thronged by an oppressive crowd that hindered the object. We were especially pleased with the recitations of the Senior Class, whose Butler's Analogy appeared to be as perfectly mastered as by any of our Seniors in College. A portion of the proceedings, of a trifling, theatrical character not consistent with a high literary or christian seminary, we are assured will not be repeated. The reviews, songs and music, were varied with interesting Essays as follows:

"Make Hay while the Sun Shines"
Maggie E. Thayer, Lewisburg
Heavenly Whispers, "only" Sarah R. Mitchell, do
A Glimpse Beyond. Fannie R. M'Cracken, Schuylkill Rest
Knowledge. Mary C. Natrin, Lewisburg
Labor Vincit Omnia. Lizzie K. Puntney, Pennsylvania
Age. Margaret B. Jones, Chester county
Hannah E. Blair, Lewisburg
The Scholar's Hope. Lizzie H. Rice, Penna. Lewis Hasson
The Voyage of Life. Mary M. Carnes, Williamsburg, N.Y.
The Harvest of Thought. Jennie M. Downs, Kingston, Ber
The Magic Cup. Mary L. Gunsaus, Pittston
The Influence of Lofty Aims. Mary N. Hess, Lewisburg

—Sunday morning, Robert Lowry of New York city preached for the Presbyterian church, J. Green Miles of Harrisburg for the Methodist, and George Frear of Reading for the Baptist.—In the afternoon, in the absence of Rev. Dr. Goddard, Professor Curtis delivered the Annual Address before the Society of Inquiry, at Commencement Hall.—In the evening, the Hall was occupied by the Education Society to hear the annual sermon by David J. Yerkes, of Pittsburg. Geo. A. Peltz, of New York city, filled the Presbyterian pulpit, and Mr. Lowry the Methodist. There were large congregations assembled, well pleased and we would hope benefitted.

—Monday afternoon, Commencement Hall was comfortably filled to hear the exercises of the graduating class of the Female Institute. Music by Held's Cornet Band. Prayer by Mr. Fink, pastor of the Lewisburg Lutheran church.

Essay—Unwritten Language.
Maggie A. Yoder, Lewisburg
Essay—Glory, the Shadow of Virtue.
Ada C. Spratt, Lewisburg
Essay—Truth, the Crown of Thought.
Mary S. Jones, Chester county
Poem—No More.
Mary E. James, Centerville
Valedictory— Maggie A. Yoder

After conferring the Degrees and Gold Medals, President Loomis delivered a pertinent and timely Address to the worthy class.

Chancellor Young then addressed the late General Agent, Rev. A. K. Bell, expressing to him in his removal the thanks, the gratitude and best wishes of the Female Institute, of the friends and patrons of the University, and—we may add—of all our citizens, for his long continued and faithful and most efficient services in behalf of the Institution.

Monday evening, the anniversary of the Alumni was celebrated in the large Hall. Rev. Andrew J. Hay of Northumberland was the Orator—subject, the Men for the Times. Mr. Hay is the first student who came to our University from abroad, and his address was highly creditable. The Poem by Thomas Chamberlin, A. B., of Lewisburg, was a racy and truthful biography and eulogy upon Madame "Gossip." Hood-ish in the structure of its verse, Saxe-onian in the quick turns and puns, his composition was a most solid contribution to "light literature," and was pronounced with all the gravity due the subject.

For Orator next year, Alfred Hayes A.M., law student in Philad., was chosen—and for Poet, George W. Fries B.Ph., telegraphist at Friendship, N. Y.—both, natives of our town.

Tuesday morning, 8 o'clock—the Boards met. Trustees present during the week: President Wattson, Meixel, Crozer, Walker, Bell, Johnston, Cassady, Smith, Runyan, Tustin, Campbell. Of the Curators: Messrs. Young, Loomis, J. R. Miller, Walls, Ross, Gandy, Linn, Brown, Slifer, Hayes, Griffith, Yerkes, Loomis L. N., Marr, Putnam, Miles, Fox, Haynes, Kelly, Worden, Bailey. Such portion of their proceedings as interest, will appear thro' the Committee of Publication.

At 10 o'clock, the Theological Department enjoyed its anniversary. Prayer by T. Mitchell, Presiding Elder of the Northum'd District. Singing by a choir and the congregation. Essays were delivered as follows:

Plans of Sermons,
Charles H. Gunter, Tamaqua
Personal Identity, as regards Resurrection,
Philip L. Davies, Pottsville
The Evils of Religious Contention,
Wm E Cornwell, Princeton, N J
Necessity of Reformation in Religion,
George M'Nair, Hartsville
The Evangelization of Japan,
J. Q. A. Rohrer, Rohrersville, Md

The first two pursued the Partial course. The usual Certificates were presented by President Loomis to the three Regulars, and Professor Curtis gave a warm and apposite parting address to the class.

In the afternoon, the Education Society held its anniversary, and found an increase of funds over any previous year. Addresses by Rev. E. L. Bailey of Carbondale and Rev. C. A. Fox of Waverley. John P. Crozer Esq. was re-elected President, and Rev. Geo. M. Spratt, General Agent. J. Wheaton Smith, next annual preacher.

In the evening, the Hall was again crowded to hear Hon. And. G. Curtin's address before the Literary Societies. Music by the Band. His address, in both matter and manner, was highly applauded by strangers, altho' some who have heard him on the stump say he can speak much easier when untethered by manuscript. His theme was the true mission of the truly educated, and was most ably treated.

—Wednesday morning, the Hall was again crowded to overflowing—all children being excluded, and yet hundreds of adults unable to obtain admission. Music by the Band. Orations as follows:

Latin Salutatory,
A. J. FIRMAN, Cookport.
The Certainty of Moral Sequences,
O. P. CHAMBERLIN, Flemington, N. J.
The Theology of Scenery,
T. P. COULSTON, Philadelphia.
The Conversion of Constantine,
H. L. ATKINSON, Philadelphia.
The Motive Power in Progress,
A. J. FIRMAN, Cookport.
Our Souls, Unknown,
A. B. HAWN, Lewisburg.
Commerce, the Pledge of Peace,
WILLIAM H. FINN, Philadelphia.
Valedictory,
T. P. COULSTON, Philadelphia.
Master's Oration,
EDWIN A. EVANS, A.B., Northumberland.
Baccalaureate, - - - President Loomis.

THE PRESIDENT'S INAUGURAL ADDRESS.

The Master's Oration was on the subject of Individuality—good, but a little too long for the occasion.

Messrs. Atkinson and Chamberlin received the degree of B.Ph.. Messrs. Coulston, Furman, Finn, and Hawn, that of B.A., in course.

Messrs. L. K. Evans, E. A. Evans, Geo. Frear, F. W. Jacobs, Miller Jones, J. R. Shanafelt, A. G. Thomas and F. W. Tustin received M.A. in course.

The honorary degree of LL.D. was bestowed on David Jayne, M. D., of Philadelphia. That of D.D. on Rev. E. W. Dickinson, M.A., of Dayton, O.

The Baccalaurate was characterized by the usual timely good sense of the President. His Inaugural Address was a masterly expose of the American Collegiate system from the settlement of the Colonies. Unfortunately, its delivery was not commenced until after noon, when the audience were too tired to listen properly, and it was heard by a portion only of the crowd. Containing, as the Address doubtless does, the matured views of President Loomis on the great subject of Collegiate Education, it is due to his reputation and to the topic discussed that the Address be published.

—The Alumni Dinner, prepared by Chs. Heiner in the Academy Hall, was discussed (after a blessing was invoked by Rev. J. W. Smith) with a relish. The President, Rev. R. Lowry, opened the intellectual feast in a neat and appropriate welcome, and called out responses to sentiments as follows:

This University—Tho's Wattson, Esq.
Mental Discipline—President Loomis.
Theological Study—Professor Curtis.
Penn'a and her Resources—O. N. Worden.
Our Anniversary—Rev. Geo. A. Peltz.
Our Alma Mater—Rev. J. Harvard Castle.
Lewisburg—Alfred Hayes.
The Absent Alumni—Rev. And. J. Hay.

—Thus has passed another joyous anniversary, our University strengthening year by year. It is well worthy of enlarged public patronage—none more so. The time has now arrived for special efforts in that direction, at home and abroad.—May the now scattered pupils return in due time with an increase of energy, of hope, of health, and of company!

We have delayed our paper half a day this week in order to make out, as completely and correctly as possible, the leading events of University Week, for the satisfaction of those of our readers who were not present.

Great Yield of Rye.

Samuel Ewing Esq. of Buffaloe Valley informs us that he this year gathered on his farm in Buffalo Tp, from one kernel of Rye, eleven stalks, from which he shelled out seven hundred and fifteen grains—averaging 65 grains to each head, the highest number being 70, and the lowest 56. An increase of 714 per cent. is over Scripture measure—but you see the real old Buffaloe in Union county is a great place.

Drawn by Elks.—George Raymond has arrived at Cleveland, Ohio, all the way from Salt Lake, via Cherry Creek mines and Kansas, having come the entire distance driving a span of Elks before a wagon. We are not informed whether Mr. Raymond intends visiting us, but should he do so he would not create more excitement than has been created by the astonishing low prices at which Griggs Marsh is selling his fine stock of Goods at the Boot and Shoe Store right opposite the Bank

A FRIEND IN NEED.—Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is a friend in need. Who has not found it such in curing all diseases of the lungs and throat, coughs, colds, and pulmonary affections, and "last, not least," Consumption?

☞ Buy none unless it has the written signature of "I. Butts" on the wrapper.

A Meeting of the Executive Committee of the Union County Agricultural Society will be held at the office of the undersigned, on Saturday, the 30th inst., at 3 o'clock P. M.
July 14, 1859. J. A. MERTZ, Sec'y.

☞ The members of the Evangelical Association will hold a Camp Meeting on the land of Mr. Daniel Rengler, about five miles west of Lewisburg, commencing 8th of Aug. All salesmen of traffic, hucksters, &c. positively forbidden—the proprietor of the ground excepted, who is permitted to hold a boarding tent.
A. LONGSDORF, Sup't.

WONDERFUL, BUT TRUE.

A few days since, Mr. Jas. H. Beadle, of Huntsville, Alabama, called on us and gave us permission to publish for the benefit of suffering humanity, the astonishing cure which had been effected in the case of his wife by the use of Dr. Hance's Vegetable Epileptic Pills. He informed us, that at the time his wife commenced using the medicine, her system was so entirely prostrated, by the number of spasms she had undergone, as to reduce her weight to 100 lbs. Since she has been taking the pills, she has entirely cut over the spasms and has gained in weight and lastly health. She now weighs at least 200 lbs., and declares she is in better enjoyment of health than ever before in her life. Mr. Beadle also related the case of Mr. Harrison Lightfoot of the same town, who has been entirely cured of the worst form of epilepsy by those same pills. Mr. Lightfoot's case was so bad that he never passed a week without having an attack, often falling down in the street. He has not had an attack for more than a year. Mr. Beadle thinks that if the pills ever fail in curing a case, it is for the want of a proper perseverance on the part of the person in taking them, as he feels assured from observation in the case of his wife, that if they are taken for a sufficient length of time, they will cure any case. Sent to any part of the country by mail, on receipt of a remittance. Address Seth S. Hance, 188 Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md. Price—one box, $1; two, $5; twelve, $24.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

Where the above preparation is known, it is needless to publish it as an infallible Remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Bronchitis, Spitting of Blood, Pleurisy, Pain in the Breast, Asthma, and every form of Pulmonary Complaint, that it were a work of supererogation to speak of its merits.

Pronounced by a well known physician more than twenty years since, it has by the wonderful cures it has effected been constantly approaching into public favor, until its use and its reputation are alike universal; and it is now known and prescribed in every city and town throughout the land, and its sale has been reduced to health by its use as the surest remedy for all diseases which it professes to cure.

Sir James Clark, physician to Queen Victoria, has given it as his opinion that Consumption can be Cured!

The whole history of this Medicine fully confirms the opinion. Other testimony is unnecessary. Thousands can testify, and have testified, that when all other remedies had failed, this has completely cured; that when the sufferer had well nigh despaired, this has afforded immediate relief; that when the physician had pronounced the disease incurable, this has removed it entirely.

The virtues of this Balsam are alike applicable to cure a slight Cough, or a fastening Consumption, and its power as a safe, certain, speedy, pleasant and agreeable remedy cannot be equaled.

☞ Caution!—Purchase none unless it bears the WRITTEN signature of "I. BUTTS" on the wrapper, as well as the printed name of the proprietors.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry recommended by Physicians.

AURORA, Sept. 6, 1858.

S. W. FOWLE & Co.—Sirs:—I must cheerfully add my testimony in favor of the Balsam. We have used it in our families in pulmonary affections, Coughs and Colds, and consider it a most valuable remedy, and have recommended it in various complaints of this nature with invariably happy results. W. R. LYNCH, M.D.

MANCHESTER, Ionia Co., Pa., Aug. 1858.

Gentlemen:—Having used in my practice the last four years Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, with great success, I most cheerfully recommend it to those afflicted with obstinate Coughs, Colds, Asthma, &c.
H. D. MARTIN, M.D.

The genuine is signed "I. BUTTS" on the wrapper.
