NASHVILLE:

FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 14, 1853.

NEW BOOKS.

We are indebted to W. T. Berry & Co. for the following late works:

"One Year of Wedlock," a beautiful story, from the Swedish of Emily F. Carlan.

"Venice, the city of the Sea, from 1797 to 1849;" by Edmund Flagg, late U. S. Consul. Two volumes with a map and embellishments. We have not read this work, but it is very highly commended. The whole history of Venice is as exciting as a romance, and the period included in these volumes was filled with great events.

B. F. SHIELDS & CO.

We invite attention to the card of this firm in our advertising columns. The members of it are well known throughout Tennessee as clever, enterprising and prompt business men. Our friends who wish to make consignments of Cotton, Tobacco, &c., or who desire to have orders promptly and strictly filled in the New Orleans market, cannot trust their business in better hands. We bespeak for them a liberal share of the Tennessee trade.

THEATRE.

There was a good audience in attendance at the Theatre last night, notwithstanding the threatening state of the weather. The Campbell Minstrels gave one of their best entertainments, and Miss Kate Reignolds, Mrs. Carpenter, Bernard, Grierson, and Vance, did their best in the farce of "Perfection." The evening's entertainment passed off handsomely.

To-night, the Campbell's appear again, and the company perform "A Lady and Gentlemen in a Perplexing Predicament," &c. If the weather is favorable, these attractions will certainly draw a full house.

☞ Mons. Paulin, the Æronaut, has arrived and will make his four hundred and forty sixth ascension to-morrow. The place selected for the ascension is the vacant lot near Monahan's Coach Factory, on Market street. The display of Fireworks will take place to-morrow evening, as already announced.

☞ The Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance celebrated their Eighth Anniversary on yesterday. The day was very auspicious for the procession, which was large and imposing. At night an address was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Twichell of New Orleans. Of the merits of the address we have not time to speak at this late hour.

☞ The Commercial Advertiser of Wednesday, gives the particulars of the fire at Buffalo, noticed in a telegraphic despatch on Thursday. The Advertiser describes the four acres burned over as the "infected district," many of the tenements were miserable wooden shanties, occupied by depraved persons for the worst of purposes. The insurance on the whole property destroyed was $25,000; and the loss probably $30,000.

☞ Col. Manypenny, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, held council at Belleview, Nebraska Territory, on the 19th ult, with the Otto and Omaha Indians. The tribes assented to the proposal for a treaty to cede a portion of their territory to the United States. The Commissioner concluded the council by stating to the Indians that they might rest in the confidence that during the interval of forming a treaty with them no white men should be permitted to invade their country, or in any manner interfere with their rights.

Mr. Crandall, the editor of the Chattanooga Advertiser, was in our city yesterday, looking as well and as thriving as his paper—which, by the way, is one of the neatest and best in the State.

☞ Glover & Boyd have five thousand dollars which they are anxious to invest in Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad stock. Call and see them.

ITEMS.

—— In his lecture on Monday evening, says the Portland Transcript, Dr. Boynton related that, wishing to explain to a little girl the manner in which a lobster casts his shell, when he has outgrown it, he said: "What do you do when you have outgrown your clothes? You throw them aside, don't you? "Oh, no," replied the little one, "we let out the tucks!" The doctor confessed she had the advantage of him there.

—— The present Freshman class at Yale College is one of the largest that has ever entered the Institution—numbering one hundred and thirty-two students. Of these, seventy-six have connected themselves with the Linonian Society, and fifty-six joined the Brothers in Unity.

—— The steamship Mexico just arrived from Galveston, reports that the steamship Yacht from Brazos, bound to New Orleans, struck on Brazos bar on the 23d ultimo, and went to pieces in eight feet of water. She had a considerable amount of specie on board, part of which was saved.

—— The telegraph announces the death of Hon. Mahalon Dickerson, a distinguished citizen and politician, at his residence, Morris county, N. J., yesterday (Wednesday) morning.

—— The India Rubber injunction case of Day ex. Candee and others, is now being argued before the U. S. District Court at New Haven.

—— Gov. Seymour is expected to be present at the dedication of the monument to the memory of Andre's captors, at Tarrytown, to-morrow, (Friday.)

—— The gale on Lakes Erie and Michigan on Tuesday was very destructive. But one life is reported lost as yet.

—— Col. Henry P. Jones, one of the richest planters in Georgia, died in Laurens County, on Sunday last.

—— The Africa, which sailed on Saturday, took out 66 passengers and $796,768,89 in specie.

—— The students of Amherst College are about issuing a monthly periodical, entitled the College Magazine.

—— There are seven ships now on the stocks at Thomaston, Me., of about 1500 tons each.

—— The opening of the Great Fair of the American Institute, took place on Monday the 10th inst.

Hemp.—The demand during the month was quite limited, prices, however, were well sustained, and the market closed firm at from $150 a $162½ per ton for common to prime undressed, and from $170 a $220 for dressed. Stock estimated at about 1400 bales, less than 200 bales of which is dressed.

Lead—The activity which commenced in the latter part of August has continued up to the present time, and the market closes with an active demand at improving rates.—Spanish, English and German 6 25 a 6 37½; Galena 6 62½.

Provisions.—Mess Pork, with an exceedingly light stock and active demand, has speedily advanced in spite of the efforts of speculators to depress the market. The stock is estimated at 15,800 bbls mess and 5,400 bbls prime. The export for the past month, as will be seen below, amounts to three times that of the same month last year, and this does not include the export to California, which has been large. In view of these facts and the certainty of our stock not being materially increased before December, there is reason to believe that the price of mess will still further advance, although there is a strong disposition on the part of most of our dealers to bear down the market. Prime has remained quiet and in small demand. We quote mess $16¾ a $17 00; prime $12¾ a $13.

The stock at Boston and Philadelphia is very small, their supplies being obtained from this market.

Lard still continues in moderate supply and advanced to 11¾c for prime. The market closes rather heavy at our quotations, 11¼c a 11½c for fair to prime in bbls and tierces; 12 a 12½ in kegs. Cut meats have been very scarce, and in active demand throughout the month; Hams pickled and dry 8¾ a 9¼c; Shoulders pickled and dry 6¾ a 7¼c.

Breadstuffs.—The excitement in our Flour market, noted at the time of our last circular, continued until about the middle of the month, when with less favorable accounts from abroad a reaction took place to the extent of 50a62c per barrel on some descriptions. After the arrival of the "Africa," and owing in part to another break in the Canal, the market became more firm, and the decline was probably recovered. We have since received advices per "Washington," "America" and "Baltic," on three successive days, each bringing news of a further advance in Breadstuffs abroad, which has so excited our market as to render it difficult to give quotations, the prices changing constantly and very irregular. Wheat has followed the course of Flour throughout the month, and is now rapidly advancing. Corn has been in good demand and less affected by foreign advices than other cereals; our prices, however, show an advance.

NEW BOOKS.
BLEAK HOUSE COMPLETE.—F. Hagan has just received the "Bleake House, by Chas. Dickins, complete in 1 vol., with illustrations. Price only 50 cents. oct8

"THE FORGED WILL: Or, Crime and Retribution; by Emmerson Bennett, author of "Clara Morland, "Prairie Flower," &c.

"If Emerson Bennett had never written his many delightful and thrilling stories of border life, of prairie scenes, and Indian warfare, this new story of the 'Forged Will' would have placed his name on the record as one of the bestos American novelists. The scenes, principally, of this most captivating novel, are laid in the city of New York; and most glowingly the author pictures to us how the guilty may, for a time, escape the justice of the law, but only to feel the heavy hand of retribution sooner or later; how vice may, for a time, triumph over virtue, but only for a time; low crime may lie concealed, until its very security breeds exposure; how true virtue gives way to no temptation, but bears the ills of life with patience, hoping for a better day, and rejoices triumphant in the end. In short, from base hypocrisy he tears the veil that hides its huge deformity, and gives a true picture of life as it exists in the crowded city. We do cordially recommend this book for its excellent moral. It is one that should be circulated, for it must do good."

"The Forged Will is one of of the most thrilling native productions that we have ever read, and yet the incidents are so true to nature so life like, that the reader can scarcely realize the fact that he is reading fiction. The sketches of the 'Abode of the Unfortunate,' and of the interview between the 'Betrayer and his Victim,' possess the most absorbing interest. The writer has a happy faculty of holding his moral steadily before the reader. He never allows various precepts to linger far behind the recital of vicious practices. Both are found in close contiguity. His light and shade form a complete picture. This is an admirable quality."—Philadelphia Weekly Dollar Newspaper.

BY TELEGRAPH.

TELEGRAPHED FOR THE UNION AND AMERICAN

St. Louis, Oct. 13.—The steamers Montauk, Lunette and Robt. Campbell, were entirely consumed by fire this morning about 9 o'clock.

New York, Oct. 13.—Large forgeries have been discovered in Boston, committed by J. W. Mason, who has been carrying on thieving for a number of years; $47,000 were on Labean & Bucher, S. Bucher, the chair dealer, and the paper has always been promptly taken up until Saturday. Mason always maintained an exemplary character.

The Hon. Jno. Y. Mason, lately appointed appointed Minister to France, will sail for that mission on the 19th inst.

The wife of the late Prof. Webster, died at Boston to-day.

Pittsburg, Oct. 13.—The river is falling with 2 feet 8 inches water in the channel. Weather cloudy and cool.

Cincinnati, Oct. 13.—The river is stationary.—Weather fine.

The non-arrival of the steamer keeps Flour in check, small sales are only making at 5 25. Whisky 24c. Linseed Oil 70c. Wheat steady at 55c. Corn 54a55c. Oats 38a40c.

Groceries quiet, but prices unchanged. Sugar 5¼a6¾; Molasses, 20a25; Coffee, 11¼a11¾.

New York, Oct. 13.—The Canada arrived at Halifax this morning with one week's later dates.—Cotton decl ned ⅛a¼—Fair Orleans 6¾; Middl ng 5¾; Upland Fair 6 1-4; Middling 5 1-2. Sales of the week 34,000 bales–Speculators took 3,000; Exporters 5,000 bales. Flour advanced one shilling sixpence for Western canal; two for Ohio. Corn—all qualities have considerably advanced: white 42. Beef unchanged; Pork dull.

Turkish question unsettled. The combined fleet has passed Dardanelles and anchored at Constantinople. Hostilities will probably be avoided.

St. Louis, Oct. 13.—The steamer Montauk, lying at the levee, caught fire about half past 8 o'clock this morning, which communicated to the Robt. Campbell and Lunette; all three boats were destroyed.

The Montauk had a very light cargo bound for the Missouri River. She was insured on hull here for $10,000.

The Lunette had about 150 tons of freight, chiefly for St. Paul River. Insurance on hull for $6,000 at Pittsburg.

The Robt. Campbell had light freight for the Missouri River, and was insured on hull here for $10,000.

The steamer Golden Era lies sunk four miles below Clarksburg, in the Upper Mississippi in eight feet water. It is thought she will be raised. The hull is insured for $6,000 in this city.

The steamer R. H. Lee sunk at Campbell's Chain on the upper rapids. She was bound to St. Louis, and had on about 300 sacks of grain. Boat and cargo a total loss. Hull insured for $3500.
