MEDICINE, &c.

CHOLERA! BLOODY FLUX!!

A CERTAIN REMEDY.

THE GRAEFENBERG DYSINTERY SYRUP owes its discovery to a long residence in tropical climates and the West, where bowel complaints prevail so extensively, and where they are attended with such fearful fatality.—These diseases, especially the Cholera, have their origin in the existence of acrid fluids, which nature refuses to retain, and which by their forcible expulsion, cause a severe complaint, when a timely antidote will remove all cause for alarm. The most of the remedies in use, lock up the pores of the intestinal canal, and only for a time alleviate the disease, by preventing the expulsion of the fluid, which will already alone bears off the pulse. Not so with the Graefenberg Dysintery Syrup; its ingredients are the natural antidote of the complaint; it changes the nature of the fluids and causes their expulsion in a natural manner. It does not leave them to inflame the surface of the stomach and bowels, but attacking the cause, it neutralizes them, and the disease immediately subsides. It is a great mistake to suppose that a disintery is cured in every instance when the discharges are stopped, for if the acrid secretions are left in the system, there always exists a tendency to disease; as long as the healthy secretions are sufficient to overcome the morbid ones, health is preserved; and when the contrary is the case, those remedies most nearly assimilating to the healthy secretions are, as will be evident to every one, the most natural and beneficial. The operation of this Syrup seems to be threefold: it immediately reaches the seat of disease, and arrests its course it instantly soothes pain, and restores the system to perfect quiet; the inflamed surface of the stomach and intestines are guarded against further violence by the neutralization of their acrid contents and thus the body resumes its natural and healthful functions.

This medicine is warranted to effect a complete cure—and has been thoroughly tested in this State, where thousands of bottles are sold annually.

In bottles at 50 and 25 cents. Sold by every Druggist in the State. ALEX. MACKENZIE.

GOODS FOR THE SEASON.

THE CALIFORNIA SELF-HEATING SAD IRON.—With this admirable invention with two cents worth of charcoal, the ironing for a large family can be done under the shade of trees, or in a retired apartment, thus saving great injury to the health of valuable servants, and the heavy expense and inconvenience of large fires. We have sold over 800 of these Irons in this city, and we warrant them to give satisfaction.

IRONING FURNACES AND PRESERVING FURNACES, BRASS AND ORNAMMNTAL PRESERVING KETTLES.

FRUIT CANS, for putting up fruit for winter use—1, 2, 3 and 4 quarts.

NURSE LAMPS, ETNAS, and various contrivances for heating water, or other fluids, by a spirit lamp, in three minutes. Many of these are very low prices.

ICE CREAM FREEZERS, Water Coolers, Bath Tubs, Hip and Sponge Baths, Night Lights, Feather Dusters, Dusting Brushes, a great variety.

GOLD VARNISH, by which looking glass and picture frames can be regilded with a common camel's hair pencil.

McCOMBIE'S POLISH, for varnishing furniture, carriages, brass and plated wares. This article is invaluable, as with very little labor, an old piece of furniture or carriage can be made to look as good as new.

Traveling Baskets of various kinds, Britannia Ware of all styles and patterns, Wire Dish and Plate Covers, most important for protecting delicate viands from flies—and very cheap.

Over 700 different articles belonging to our Housekeeping Department, which will be sold at the lowest prices.

A CARD.

HAVING secured the agency for the sale of FISK' METALLIC BURIAL CASES in Middle Tennessee, we deem it necessary to inform the public of the many advantages possessed by this Case over any that have ever been offered to us for sale.

There are some who honestly think that the Air Exhausted Coffin is superior to the Metallic Case we use; and others, from interested motives, are constantly endeavoring to build up a reputation for the same, by comparisons wholly at variance with science and experience. As a proof of our assertions, we give the opinion of J. R. Cameron, M. D., one of the most celebrated Chemists of the age, and a gentleman well known to every well informed physician of this and every country where civilization exist.—He says:

EXHAUSTING AIR PROMOTES DECOMPOSITION.—Any attempt to exhaust the air from a receiver of the body of a deceased person, would promote rather than retard decomposition.

1. Under such an experiment, the expansion of the air within the tissues, would cause more or less fracture and produce an effect similar to a bruise

2. The temperature of the atmosphere would have a greater influence in proportion to the removal of atmospheric pressure.

The presence of atmospheric air is not essential to decomposition, where any degree of putrefaction already exists, as the last change will communicate to other parts, causing their elementary constituents (oxygen, hydrogen, nitrogen, and carbon) to separate, and reunite with a similar effect to that produced by the presence of atmospheric air. Thus, under a constant exhaustion, the effect of so elevated temperature upon the moisture of the body would be more powerful, and, consequently, decomposition more rapid.

JAMES R. CHILTON, M. D., Chemist.

With these facts emanating from an authority so distinguished, together with certificates from the most able and learned men of the country in regard to the advantages of "FISK'S BURIAL CASES" before us, it is not surprising that we should give our preference to the article we use over every other, all of which have been tendered us for sale, but invariably have we refused to use them.

THE attention of Merchants is respectfully invited to our extensive Fall and Winter supplies of the above Goods, which are now arriving and will be complete by the 25th of August.

Our purchases are made exclusively of manufacturers, and we are determined to compete successfully in prices with New York and Philadelphia jobbers. Our stock will be unusually large and varied, and buyers may rely on finding with us everything in our line adapted to the wants of the trade, at as low prices as can be found in this or any other market.
