HIGH TRIBUTE TO BROTHER LAWYER

Chattanooga Bar Adopts Resolutions and Pays Eulogies to Memory of O. G. Stone.

He was honest, upright, loyal to his clients, sincere in his position, respectful to the courts and opposing counsel, he was pleasing to meet, he was large-hearted and of tender nature, he loved justice and he detested sham. He went one step further than living by the side of the road and being a friend of man. He lived in the road and daily trod it, looking for a chance to be a friend of man. The Chattanooga bar has lost a good lawyer and Hamilton county a splendid citizen.

This was the universal opinion of a large gathering of lawyers in the circuit court Saturday morning, when resolutions were adopted on the death of Osceola Gilbert Stone, who departed from his life on last Wednesday.

Chancellor W. B. Garvin, Judge Nathan L. Bachman, Gen. M. N. Whitaker, Frank Carden, John O. Benson, Foster V. Brown, W. G. M. Thomas, George W. Chamlee, Judge W. W. Draper, John H. Early, C. W. Lusk and C. W. Meacham all, in short addresses, paid eloquent tribute to the life and character of Mr. Stone. After the remarks, a resolution on the death of Mr. Stone was read by John H. Early, chairman of the committee appointed by Judge S. D McReynolds, and was adopted. Judge McReynolds then appointed Oscar Yarnell to present the resolutions to the federal court, Judge W. W. Draper to the circuit court; C. W. Lusk to the criminal court; Frank Carden to the chancery court, and John H. Early to the family. The resolutions are as follows:

"To Judge Sam D. McReynolds, chairman, and members of the Chattanooga bar:

"Your committee, appointed to draft resolutions on the death of a member of this bar, beg leave to report:

"Osceola Gilbert Stone was born in Bradley county, Tennessee, April 22, 1875, and died May 1, 1918, age 43 years and ten days. He was the son of Rev. G. B. Stone, a minister of the Christian church, and Emily Stone. He was the youngest of seven children, five boys and two girls, all of whom are dead except one brother and one sister.

"His father died when Osceola was about 14 years old. His mother, who is past 80 years of age, survives. He joined the Christian church in Bradley county when about 15 years of age, and had his membership with the First Christian church of Chattanooga at the time of his death.

"He received his education in the public schools of Bradley county and taught school in his native county before coming to Hamilton county.

"In August, 1899, Mr. Stone married Miss Lida Denton, of Bradley county, who, with their two children, Helen and Osceola, Jr., survive him.

"Mr. Stone practiced law at the Chattanooga bar for more than twenty years. He was connected with some cases of much public interest.

"He had in his veins, from his mother's side, the blood of the Cherokee Indians, of which he was very proud, and was ever ready to lend a hand to one of those having the blood of this primitive race.

"As an attorney, O. G. Stone was honest, upright, loyal to his clients, sincere in his position and respectful to the courts and opposing counsel.

"As a man Mr. Stone was pleasing to meet; he was large-hearted and of tender nature. He loved justice; he detested sham. The large concourse of people who attended his funeral at the home on East Eighth street, May 2, and later in the day at the little country church by the side of the road in Bradley county attest the universal esteem in which he was held. You, our brethren, have attended many funerals of members of the bar; you have been present when great lawyers were laid away and when the last word was said over judges whose reputations had passed beyond the confines of the state, yet we doubt if a funeral over one of our departed members ever before called forth so universally representative class of our people. The judge of the federal court was there; the judges of our state courts were there; the humble white man was there, and the humble colored man was there, all attesting the universal esteem in which he was held by those who knew him and loved him.

"Brethren, of the bar, let us learn a lesson from this happy and optimistic life. We are not all blessed with the sunny, radiant nature of O. G. Stone, but we may cultivate and imitate his fine qualities in meeting, passing and repassing with our fellowmen. We may warm up our natures a little; we may speak a kind word here and there; we may show our sympathy for the misfortunes of the helpless; we may give a word of cheer to him whom we meet that is bearing burdens we know not of.

"Therefore, Be it Resolved: That in the death of O. G. Stone, the Chattanooga bar has lost one of its most highly esteemed members, a man of high ideals; of great integrity; of real worth in the community.

"Be it further resolved, That we extend to his heart-broken widow and his orphan children our heartfelt sympathy, and that copies of these resolutions be furnished his family, and the courts, as a memorial to the worth of a good man.

"JOHN H. EARLY,
"Chairman.

GERMAN PRISONERS TREATED AS VISITORS

Georgia Grand Jury Objects to Prisoners Playing German National Airs.

Atlanta, Ga., March 4.—The "guest-like treatment accorded German prisoners at Fort McPherson" was made the subject of a special report of the Fulton county grand jury yesterday in a presentment to Judge Ben Hill, of the county superior court.

Averring that the military authorities at the post permitted the playing of the German national air by German bands, the grand jury's report entered a "vigorous protest against the manner in which the prisoners from the submarines were received at the camp some thirty days ago, at which time said prisoners were greeted by their compatriots quartered there as victors." It was charged in the report that as it now is, "the prisoners are in a large measure guests of the nation, for they do no manual labor; they are well fed, well housed, well clothed and are permitted to lead a lazy, indolent life."

It was suggested by the report that a copy of the findings of the committee be sent to Senators Hoke Smith and Hardwick and Representative Howard, of this district, with the "request that an immediate investigation be made by the proper authorities at Washington as to why the federal authorities at Fort McPherson allow German bands to play the German national air."

The statement was signed by Frederick J. Paxon, prominent local merchant, who acted as chairman of a committee appointed by the grand jury to investigate treatment accorded the Germans.

Col. J. T. Van Orsdale, commanding the prison camp at Fort McPherson, said last night he had no knowledge of the affair. He declined to make any statement concerning the charges.

SERVICE FLAG TO BE RAISED AT COURTHOUSE

Honors to Be Paid Members of Bar Who Have Answered Call to Colors.

A service flag with a star representing every lawyer who has gallantly offered his services to his country in defense of democracy will fly from somewhere in the Hamilton county courthouse at an early date. A committee has been appointed from the members of the bar and as soon as they have effected plans and arrangements a meeting of the entire membership of the bar will be called and the gala patriotic meeting of the county will be had. An elaborate program will be prepared, including speeches by leading lawyers and prominent citizens, together with a band, which will furnish music for the occasion.

"We want to make this the biggest event of them all, for the lawyers have done more than any other class of citizens," said Hon. Foster V. Brown Saturday morning, in speaking of the occasion. The meeting will probably be held on the beautiful courthouse lawn and the entire citizenship of the town is cordially invited to attend.

The movement was suggested Saturday morning by John H. Early at the memorial services of O. G. Stone and was heartily acquiesced in by the entire gathering. Aside from the service flag an honor roll will be perfected giving a sketch of each and every lawyer who is now in the service. The entire arrangement was left in the hands of a committee appointed Saturday morning by Judge McReynolds. This committee will effect all plans and arrangements, together with where the flag shall fly. The wives of the lawyers are asked to join in the occasion and do all in their power to make the occasion one of big success. The committee appointed by Judge McReynolds is as follows: Judge Nathan L. Bachman, chairman; Joe V. Williams, Col. Ed Watkins, Foster V. Brown, Capt. A. J. Chambers, John H. Early and W. G. M. Thomas.

MISS SWAN'S GYM CLASS PLEASES LARGE AUDIENCE

Miss Alma Swan, teacher of physical culture at the Y. W. C. A., presented in their annual exhibition a number of pupils of her gymnasium classes Friday night. The entertainment was given at the Y. M. C. A. in the large gymnasium. Many small girls participated in the folk dances given in costume. Holland, France, the Scandinavian countries were most artistically represented, the instructor explaining that the costumes will be sent abroad; hence there has been no waste of material in having the children appear in fancy dress.

The exercises of the gymnasium classes were very greatly enjoyed by the good-sized audience present. Miss Olive Pearl Craighead was captain of the ranks.

GALLOWAYS GET $5,000 FOR DEATH OF BROTHER

Ducktown Fumes Cases May Be Stricken From Federal Docket.

After having deliberated for several hours the jury in the case of Luther and Ed Galloway vs. The Ducktown Sulphur, Copper and Iron Company returned a verdict giving the plaintiffs $5,000 Saturday morning. This case has been before federal court since Wednesday morning. The Galloway brothers sued the Ducktown corporation for $50,000 damages on account of the death of another brother resulting from an accident in the mines. The case was hotly contested and the jury reported once or twice that it was unable to agree. Finally a compromise verdict was reached.

Judge Sanford Saturday morning heard argument of attorneys in a claim made against the trustee of the Dayton Coal and Iron company by the American Pig Iron and Storage company, of New York. This claim had been disallowed by the referee in bankruptcy. John Bell Keeble, of Nashville, and S. M. Chambliss, of Chattanooga, represented the plaintiffs and Martin & Trimble appeared for the trustee. Another claim of the same nature made by the Bank of New York, and which has also been disallowed, will be heard when the American Pig Iron and Storage company's case has been disposed of. The same attorneys will appear in this case.

Several cases against the Ducktown Sulphur, Copper and Iron company, growing out of the famous dispute as to the effect of sulphur fumes on surrounding farms will probably be stricken from federal court docket Monday. These cases have been on the docket for several years and will likely be dismissed for lack of prosecution.

Aside from the cases set for Monday mentioned above, both criminal and civil dockets for this term have been concluded.

BUSH OUSTER SUIT FOR MONDAY, MAY 13

Week Will Be Devoted to Trial of Second Proceedings—Both Sides to Be Ready.

The second Bush ouster suit, by agreement with counsel for both sides, has been set for Monday, May 13. The agreement was made in the chancery court Saturday morning before Chancellor W. B. Garvin. The case will probably take a week in its trial unless the chancellor sustains some contentions attacking the legality of the bill, which will be insisted on by the defense. The suit against Sheriff Bush charges him with the illegal collection of fees. The first suit charging neglect of duty during the strike times was dismissed by the chancellor, but was appealed byt he state and is now awaiting a hearing before the supreme court. The second case will be, as the first, watched with great interest not only in Hamilton county, but throughout the entire state.
