Our Bereavement.

We purposed giving an expression of our feelings, in reference to the loss we have sustained in the death of our only child, but as the following article, taken from the Delaware Clayton Herald speaks very forcibly our sentiments, we shall take the liberty of giving them to our readers, believing that they express the sad feelings of thousands of our race:

"AFTER THE FUNERAL.

"Of all the returnings, that one "after the funeral" is the saddest. Who will say it is not so, who has followed a beloved one to the grave? While he was sick we went in and out, anxious, sorrowing, suffering. The solicitude to relieve, and care for, and comfort him, engrossed us; the apprehension of our own dissolution, in case he should be removed from us, almost drove us wild.

While he lay dead under the home roof, there was a hurry and bustle in preparation for the final rites. Friends are sent for, neighbors are present, the funeral arrangements are discussed, the mourning procured, the hospitalities of the house provided for; all is excitement; the loss is not yet perceived in all its greatness.

But "after the funeral," after the bustle has subsided and things begin to move on as usual, then it is we begin to know what has befallen us. The house seems still and sepulchral; and though its threshold be trodden by friendly feet, it is as if empty. The apartments, how deserted! especially the room where he struggled and surrendered in the last conflict. There are his little clothes: there are his toys, there is his empty crib, there is his little vacant chair. During his sickness we had not so much noticed these things for we hoped ever that he might use or occupy them. But now we know it can never be, and we perceive the dreadful vacuity everywhere.

Oh how dark and cheerless the night shadows come down after the funeral. No moon or stars ever shone so dimly; no darkness ever seemed so utterly dark. The ticking of the clock resound like bell strokes all over the house. No footstep now on the stairs or overhead in the sick chamber; no nurse and watchers to come and say, "he is not so well." No indeed, you may sleep on now and take your rest. Ah, poor heart! It will be long before the sweet rest you once knew will revisit your couch. Slumber will again bring the scenes thro' which you have just passed, and you will start from it but to find them all too real. God pity the mourner "after the funeral."

The Killing of Joseph Ramsey.

We learn that on Thursday night last, a man by the name of Joseph Ramsey, living in the Greasy Cove, in this County, was shot and killed by a man by the name of Zachary Edwards—his brother-in-law—for whipping his wife. It appears that Ramsey has been in the habit of most cruelly and barbarously treating his wife recently, and the fact coming to the ears of her brother, Mr. Edwards, he repaired to the residence of his mother, the widow Edwards, where Ramsey and his family were living, and came upon him in the act of chastigating his wife, whereupon he interfered on behalf of his sister, in as much as he demanded the reason for such treatment, when he left off beating his wife and advanced upon his brother-in-law in a menacing manner, when, in self-defense, he fired upon him, the ball taking effect in the left temple, passing through and out at the top of the head, killing him almost instantly. Ramsey was buried on Friday last.

A Sad Accident.

A few days ago, at Limestone Depot, on the premises of Wm. Strain, whilst workmen were blasting rock, a young man by the name of Stevens was severely injured, being burned and badly bruised, and also losing one eye. It was thought at first that his injuries would prove fatal, but we learn that he is rapidly recovering.

The Holston Baptist Association.

The Holston Baptist Association holds its Annual Session at New Salem in this County, commencing on the second Friday in August next, and includes the third Sabbath. The time is published wrong to the Minutes of last Association. Delegates will please take notice.

Death of an old Citizen.

Died, on the morning of the 17th inst., John Gibson, at the residence of his son, Dr. D. J. Gibson, of this place. Mr. Gibson was nearly 83 years old at the time of his decease, and one of our best citizens. An obituary notice will be published next week.

Sympathy in Sorrow.

We have received many, very many, kind missives from our numerous friends, breathing to us in our sad bereavement, the sweetest and most sacred sentiments of sympathy, to all of whom we return our grateful thanks, as well as to those who ministered in the dark hour. We publish but one.

GREENVILLE, Tenn., July 21st, 1868.

My dear Col. Graham: I am very much pained to hear that your little Hessie is dead; and I now assure you that yourself and companion have my deep and sincere sympathy in this dark hour of affliction. May God help you to bear this bereavement. As true Christians, and may you both ever remember that this is only another golden tie to bind your hearts more closely to those things that are eternal and divine.

In sympathy and affliction,

I remain yours truly,

JONATHAN L. HANN.

Camp-Meeting.—Change of Time.

The time for holding the Camp-Meeting at Horse-Creek Camp-Ground, Fall Branch Circuit, has been changed from August 27th to August 21st, 1868, 3 o'clock, P. M.

DeMott & Ward's United Circus and Menagerie.

This exhibition will, we judge, from what we have read concerning it, render more real satisfaction to those who attend it, than any of its predecessors have done. The proprietors, although young men, are practical ones, both in professional and business capacities, and they possess all the knowledge and the material for giving a successful exhibition. They work themselves and have a professional pride about them which we regret to say speculative showmen do not entertain. They are both eminent artistes, Mr. DeMott being acknowledged as one of the best bare-back riders in the world, while Mr. James Ward has for many years been a favorite leading clown in all the principal traveling and permanent Metropolitan Circuses and Amphitheatres. The troupe of ladies and gentlemen have been selected with great care, and all the attractions of the Menagerie put together in most unexceptionable taste. By judicious outlay at the start, the young proprietors have got a better character of show, and a more extensive establishment than has ever visited a locality of our population. They have expended more money for talent and good material than they have for outside show. Their entree into town is as grand as anything could be desired; their outfit is new, and everything fresh, brilliant and pretty. They have a superior stock of horses, and for number and variety of rare performing animals stand unsurpassable, with the Baby Elephant, the Sacred Bull, the Acting Bears, the Lions, Tigers, Leopards, &c., the fine Female Riders and Manly Athletes, their United Circus and Menagerie should satisfy the claims of the most exacting.

J. M. Venable & Co., Commission Merchants, Petersburg, Va.

This firm of thrifty and praiseworthy gentlemen are, as will be seen by reference to their card, on third page of our paper, prepared to buy and sell on commission any and all produce, such as our country produces, on liberal and prompt terms. We would, therefore, recommend them to the careful consideration of our many readers.

A Baby Elephant.

Doc. Chambers, Agent of the New Orleans Menagerie and Circus, a concern that enjoys an enviable reputation, assures us that our citizens will have an opportunity of witnessing one of these strange phenomenons in connection with the exhibitions of the establishment he represents. The Company will be here on Monday next, and from all we can learn, have no hesitation in recommending it as being especially worthy the support of our citizens. Their advertisement appears in this week's paper.

Executive School Board.

Rev. John Senaker, Jesse Bacon and Samuel S. Sherley, members of the Executive School Board, for the County of Washington, will please meet at the residence of the undersigned on Tuesday the 28th inst., at 10 o'clock. All to attend to business of importance.

Lassitude.

A feeling of lassitude is generally experienced throughout the summer solstice. Weakly constitutes persons or those of sedentary habits invariably complain of this annoyance. The scorching heat of mid-summer relaxes the system and reduces the vital energies. If the patient is of a nervous temperament this debility unfits him for even the ordinary routine of every-day life. When this state of exhaustion comes on HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS will prove a safe and never-failing means of strengthening and restoring the physical organization. This healthgiving tonic purifies and infuses renewed vitality into the blood, tones the stomach and digestive organs, and acts like a charm on the nervous system. It effectually removes all tendency to languor or depression of spirits. To the weaker sex it is invaluable, as it soothes and braces up, while its powerful effects are of the most beneficial character. The infirmities of age are alleviated by its use. It revives the strength, increases the appetite and gives vigor and elasticity to the constitution.

When mothers are nursing, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS should especially be taken in regular doses, as in this country, most always, the nourishment is inadequate to the wants of the child. In such cases this inestimable tonic is wonderfully efficacious. Its strengthening virtues are at once apparent. It is free from all properties calculated to impair the system, and its operations are at once mild and soothing.

1,000 Dollars to be Given Away.

The proprietor of the New Orleans Menagerie and Circus, which will exhibit in Jonesborough, Monday, July 27, stands pledged to donate one thousand dollars to any charitable institution that may be designated by his Honor the Mayor of Jonesborough, if DeMott & Ward, centers of a moiety of a Circus from J. O'Brien, of Philadelphia, Pa., exhibit, or cause to be exhibited, in Jonesborough, a "Baby Elephant, Tigers, Congers, a herd of Japanese Sheep," or even a respectable collection of wild animals, notwithstanding their extensive advertising of the same, and also to donate the same sum for the same purpose if the collection of the New Orleans Menagerie and Circus is not complete beyond all rivalry.

THE AMERICAN
Button Hole Overseaming
AND SEWING MACHINE CO.

IN DIRECTING ATTENTION TO their CELEBRATED COMBINATION BUTTON HOLE and SEWING MACHINE, beg leave to refer to its wonderful popularity as conclusive proof of its great merit.

The increase in the demand for this valuable machine has been TEN FOLD during the last week results of its first year before the public.

This grand and surprising success is unprecedented in the history of sewing machines, and we feel fully warranted in claiming that

IT HAS NO EQUAL,
Being absolutely the best
FAMILY MACHINE
IN THE WORLD,
And intrinsically the Cheapest.

It is really two machines combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement,) making both the Shuttle, or Lock stitch, and the Overseaming and Button-hole stitch, with equal facility and perfection. It executes, in the very best manner, every variety of sewing, such as Hemming, Felling, Cording, Tucking, Stitching, Braiding and Quilting, Gathering and sewing on, (done at the same time,) and in addition, Overseams, Embroiders on the edge, and makes Beautiful Button and Eyelet-holes in all fabrics.

Every machine is warranted by the Company, or its Agents, to give entire satisfaction.

Circulars, with full particulars and samples of work done on this Machine, can be had on application at the salerooms of the Company.

S. W. Cor. Eleventh and Chestnut Sts., PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Instructions given on the Machine at the rooms of the Company gratuitously to all purchasers.

THE
DESTROYED.

Leave off Smoking and Chewing the Poisonous Weed, Tobacco!

One box of ORTON'S PREPARATION is warranted to destroy the appetite for tobacco in any person, no matter how strong the habit may be, or if a fair trial be made the money will be refunded. It is almost impossible to break off from the use of tobacco by the mere exercise of the will. Something is needed to assist nature in overcoming a habit so firmly rooted; with the help of the Preparation there is not the least trouble. Hundreds have used it who are willing to bear witness to the fact that ORTON'S PREPARATION completely destroys the appetite for tobacco and leaves the person as free from any desire for it as before he commenced its use. It is perfectly safe and harmless in all cases. The Preparation acts directly upon the same glands and secretions affected by tobacco, and through these upon the blood, thoroughly cleansing the poison of tobacco from the system, and thus allaying the unnatural craving for tobacco.

No more Hankering for Tobacco after using Orton's Preparation. Manufactured it is Warranted! Beware of Counterfeits!

RECOMMENDATIONS:

The following are a few selected from the multitude of recommendations in our possession:

[From W. P. Heald, Esq., Bangor, Me.]

BANGOR, ME., April 24, 1863.

I hereby certify that I have used tobacco for thirty years past, and for the last fifteen years I have used two pounds per month. I have made attempts to leave off at different times—I have left off one year at a time, but always continued to hanker after it until I used Orton's Preparation, which has completely cured me of the appetite for tobacco. I would recommend all who are affected with this pernicious habit to try the Preparation, which will certainly cure if the directions are followed. W. P. HEALD.

[From R. W. Adkins, Knoxville, Tenn.]

KNOXVILLE, TENN., Aug. 3, 1867.

This is to certify that I had used tobacco to such an extent that my health had become greatly impaired and my whole system destroyed and broken down. In June, 1867, I purchased one box of Orton's Preparation, and after using it I found that I was completely cured. I have not had any hankering or desire for tobacco since using the Preparation. I believe it to be all that is recommended, and I would advise all who wish to quit the use of tobacco to try one box of Orton's Preparation. R. W. ADKINS.

[From John Morrill, Bangor, Me.]

BANGOR, ME., March 31, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used tobacco for eighteen years; have tried many times to leave off, but have suffered much from a disease in my head and gnawing at my stomach, that I have now given up the trial. A short time since a friend induced me to try Orton's Preparation (sold by you). I have done so and am completely cured. I do not, in the least, hanker after tobacco, either to smoke or chew, after I began to use the Preparation. JOHN MORRILL.

Price of Orton's Preparation Two Dollars per box, forwarded to any part of the country, post-paid on receipt of price. Money sent by mail at our risk. Address O. B. COTTON, Proprietor, Box 1,748, Portland, Maine.

TAUGHT BY
J. W. DOLBEAR,
Author of the science of Penmanship,
39 CHERRY STREET, NASHVILLE.

Persons from 6 to 60 years of age can learn this system.

In a few lessons ladies are taught to write in a neat, easy and rapid manner, and gentlemen in a bold, rapid, business style.

Instead of teaching Penmanship merely as an imitation detail experience of 20 years has enabled him to reduce it to the certainty of a science, so that, being guided by knowledge instead of random practice, pupils from 6 to 60 years can in a short time learn to write with EASE, ELEGANCE and RAPIDITY.

PHONOGRAPHY

Is as simple and easy that its principles can all be learned in a few hours, and a small amount of practice will enable one to use it for the daily purposes of life.

None but those who are acquainted with it can form any idea of its great brevity and simplicity, or of the ease with which it can be learned.

$250 REWARD!
CATCH THE HORSE-THIEF!

STOLEN FROM MY STABLE, ON Rock creek, Mitchell county, North Carolina, on the 17th day of June, 1868, a SORREL HORSE, about 16 hands high. He has a bald face all the way down, is branded plain with VI. S. on the left shoulder—his mane and tail some lighter than his body—white hind feet, one foot more so than the other. At the end of his tail is a wisp of white hair, one must look close to see it—a slim brand on the hip—with saddle galls on his back—about eight years old, has a peculiar whicker or neigh.

ANOTHER!

Also, a BAY MARE was taken at the same time from Mrs. Baker, a widow lady, living in the Limestone Cove, in Carter county. She is about fifteen hands high, very long, black mane and tail, small white star in forehead, a white spot on one leg, small white spots on her neck and hips, and is about 7 years old.

I will give FIFTY DOLLARS for the return of the two horses, or any information that may lead to their recovery, or I will give TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS for either. A reward of $250 is offered for the apprehension of the thief, who is thought to be a notorious horse-thief by the name of WILLIAM CORBELL.
