FREEDMEN IN LOUISIANA.—The [illegible] system of labor appears to be operating unsatisfactorily in the State of Louisiana. Our information, on this subject, is derived from the Daily Picayune of the 9th inst. From an editorial article, in the columns of that journal, we make the following extract—

We learn from gentlemen recently from the plantations, that the freedmen positively refuse to make any new contracts, or go to work, giving as their reasons that they expect a new [illegible]
