BANKING-HOUSE OF JOHN A. HAMBLETON & CO., No. 5 SOUTH STREET, BALTIMORE, MD. WE HAVE HAVE RECEIVED FROM EDWARD HAMBLETON has been appointed a corresponding member of the Virginia Council of Foreign Bondholders. We will be happy to furnish any information concerning the progress of the coupon suits, and earnestly appeal to the holders of VIRGINIA CONSOLS and 10-40's to unite with the Council of Foreign Bondholders by assisting them in their endeavors to compel the state of Virginia to once more receive coupons for taxes. The United States Circuit Court has decided that it is only necessary to tender coupons, and the tax-payer is thereby released from all obligation to pay in money; that the collector, if he should seize the tax payer's property, is personally liable for damages. We will be glad to correspond with tax-payers desirous of availing themselves of the advantage of paying in coupons. oc 14 JOHN A. HAMBLETON & CO.
