CHIEFLY INTERESTING TO WOMEN.

To-day two weeks is Easter Sunday. We have taken this into consideration in giving orders for the delivery of our Spring Dress Goods. We are ready to show them This Week.

WE PLEDGE OUR GUARANTEE that this Spring's selections are ahead of anything ever shown. Particularly marked is our success in Woollen and Wash Dress Goods. You couldn't buy unfashionable goods at our store if you wanted to. We haven't any. What little we had was sold during our great sale some weeks ago. A lady said yesterday: "I'm satisfied that what I buy here will be stylish, for you have always exercised such good taste in your selections." This voices a point we have made a special study, and it makes us feel we have been successful when customers recognize the fact.

THERE IS A DOUBLE ADVANTAGE

in selecting your Spring Goods now, in that you obtain first choice and have ample time for making up. Again,

DRESSMAKERS ARE NOT AS BUSY NOW

as they soon will be, when disappointments will be in order and work frequently hurried to the detriment of the garment. The styles are here, the latest modes have been fashioned, and there is everything gained by purchasing early. This is especially true at our store, for we have no high prices now, with the promise of reductions after the stock has been picked over. Our reputation for reliability, borne over thirty years of square dealing, coupled with this exhaustive stock, and would seem to leave nothing further to be desired.

PLAIN WOOLLEN DRESS GOODS.—Never before has the dyer's art attained such perfection. The number of colors and shades is marvelous, and only by carrying an extra amount of stock are we enabled to show such a variety of them.

DRAP PALMAS—A very popular fabric in Black goods, but, like Henriettas, are all the rage this season. We have three qualities and about thirty different colors of each, including all of those new, delicate shades of Greens, Blues, Mahogany, Tans, etc. Thirty-six inches wide that should retail for 50c.—our new-scale price is 25c. a yard. The 46-inch width that should retail for 60c. at 50c. a yard. The $1.25 52-inch goods—our new-scale price is 81 a yard.

HENRIETTAS, in both Silk and Wool Warps, are the great plain-colored dress goods and never has ever equalled them. We have an assortment of colors second to no other style of Dress goods, and in three qualities. Forty inches wide, our new-scale price is 62½c.—elsewhere they sell for 75c. Forty-six inches wide, our price is 87½c.—elsewhere they sell for $1. Forty inches wide in genuine Silk Warps, our new-scale price is $1.10—elsewhere they sell for $1.25.

SERGES—You never tire of them—crispy and as durable as wool can well be. A favorite outdoor dress stuff. Thirty-six inches wide, in Light, Tan, and Brown shades, only 37½c. a yard by the new scale prices. Special mention that all the colors are wide at 87½, under the new-scale prices.

CASHMERES—You like them for their lightness and graceful drapery, for their solid, good wearing qualities, for the softness and beauty of the colorings. No sown goods taken a more delicate dye than these cashmeres. You will see in great variety of coloring in them as in any other dress stuffs. The 25c. quality is better than ever. By our new-scale prices the 25c. quality, 36 inches wide, is 18c. a yard; the 35c. quality, 36 inches wide, is 25c. a yard.

THE only place for a lady to buy silk is where she can touch and see shown in any of the new colors—a thing never attempted before. Think of a dark green silk at 40c. a yard, which is our new-scale price, in all the colors that the finest dress fabrics come in. These are Jacquards Taffetas. A cheaper grade, same width, in Mixed-Gray and Brown colors, that usually sell for 40c., our new-scale price is 37½c. a yard.

THE PLAIN LADIES' CLOTHS, 35 inches wide, at 25c. a yard, come in just as many colors, and a source of surprise what a neat appearance they make.

THE COLOR CONTRASTS in the Checks, Plaids, and Stripes are more pleasing this year than ever before. Our assortment runs from 12½c. to $1.50 a yard. We'll mention some.

SCOTCH CLOTHS—A light weight Spring Ladies' Cloth, in about forty different six and colors, Checks and Small Plaids (which are simply indescribable). They were made for these neat and natty street dresses, and will make the appearance of costing three times their value. They are 36 inches wide. Our new-scale price is 20c. a yard. You'd hardly be able to match them elsewhere for less than 50c.

IN FANCY MATERIALS, both by the yard and in combination costumes of Striped and Checked and Plaid, with plain materials to match, our assortment is exquisite. The window display shows you some idea of them.

DOUBLE-WIDTH BEIGES—In the neat shade of Tans and Browns that show up so well in these goods with plaids formed by darker shades to match the solids, usually sell for 25c. Our new-scale price is 20c. They are double width.

SINGLE-WIDTH BEIGES of the same texture and colors, both Solids, Plaids, Checks, and Plains, usually sell for 15c. Our new-scale price is 12½c.

MOHAIR CHECKS—Here are twenty different colors of a small contrasting color check dress stuff with a Mohair lustre that gives it the appearance of finer goods. Our new-scale price is 12½c.

TAILO MADE SUITINGS is the name of one of the lightest-weight Spring Cloths that has every indication of being silk warp; in very small check patterns of different and contrasting colors, 36 inches wide, 25c. a yard.

SILK MIXTURES PLAIDS, Black and White, are in great demand among the most fashionable people. We have the smallest Checks imaginable in Plaids ever an inch square.

The NEW BUTTONS and TRIMMINGS are marvels of beauty, and our assortments are fuller than usual. We are selling a special lot of 3,000 dozen Metal 15, 20, and 25c. Buttons, 150 dozen on a card, for 5c.

:o:

All this reading matter contains no word of bargains, and yet there are many. We would like for you to come yourself and decide which are the biggest. We will speak in the future of the Wash Dress Goods. All knowing people watch for our announcements.

THE TREMENDOUS FIRING FROM THE GUNS

COHEN BROS.

CAUSED A STAMPEDE IN THE DRY-GOODS MARKET. EVERY ARTICLE SOLD BY THEM OF THE BROOKLYN BANKRUPT STOCK PROVES A BOMBSHELL, AND BRINGS TO THE STORE NOT ONLY INDIVIDUALS OR FAMILIES BUT WHOLE NEIGHBORHOODS. IN TWO WEEKS' TIME EIGHTEEN THOUSAND FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS' WORTH OF THESE GOODS HAVE BEEN TURNED OVER. ELEVEN THOUSAND SIX HUNDRED DOLLARS' WORTH STILL REMAIN UNSOLD—SOME OF THE BEST THINGS, TOO.

The Great Success of This Sale Has Given Signal Evidence of Their Faith to the Public.

NO MATTER WHETHER ONE HALF OR ONE QUARTER THE VALUE, THE GOODS ARE TURNED OVER TO YOU AT THE PRICE THEY WERE CONSIGNED TO THEM BY THE ASSIGNEE. HUNDREDS—YES, THOUSANDS—OF THESE GOODS ARE STILL STREWN ABOUT, AND STAND OUT IN TERMS OF THE STRONGEST ATTRACTION THROUGHOUT THE VARIOUS DEPARTMENTS.

SOME OF THE THINGS OVERLOOKED OR KEPT OUT OF OUR ADVERTISEMENTS HERETOFORE FOR WANT OF SPACE ARE:

Children's Gauze Vests. The qualities usually sold at 25c.—our price is 5c. The larger ones up to size 34, 18c.—double that price would not buy the same quality at any other time.

A promiscuous lot of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Gauze and Lisle Knit Wear. Half price, of course.

French Mull, white or cream, 48-inches wide, 60c. quality—that was the Brooklyn firm's price. Our price 19c. a yard. You have seen the 30c. Colored Striped Mulls, 32-inch wide—1,500 yards sold the past week, enough left to last the week out—12½c. is our price. The last box of the 4c. India Linen will be opened Monday. No more after that.

The Butcher's Linen, 36 inches wide, 33c. the first price—our price 19c. We have spoken of the Table Linens, Table-Cloths, and Napkins. Some are still on sale. They are not all half price. These goods never go begging. Our prices average 66⅔c. on the dollar.

Four cents is our price for 40-inch white Linen Curtain Scrim—9½c. was the Brooklyn firm's price. Nottingham Lace at 6, 8, 12, 25, and 25c.—all about half price. Curtains of various qualities and styles. Odds and ends among the lot. Not half price for the latter. In this department it pays to buy for next fall if you have no present want.

One of the great features of the week will be the embroidery. It will be placed before you to show at a glance the difference between our just-now prices and the prices of other houses. We say nothing about quantity and designs—enough to amuse you for hours. All widths from 2c. a yard up. We mention 22-inch Flouncing, 36c.; 45-inch at 49, 59, 75c. to $1 a yard would be near value.

One lot of Infant's Caps—Brooklyn prices from $1 to $4.75—our prices considerable less than one half.

$5.50 Upholstery Damasse at $2.75; $4.50 for the quality usually $7.

Feathers and Flowers, too, will have a space for exhibition this week. Twenty-five cents on the dollar will be our prices.

Call for the Handkerchiefs at 8 and 12½c. The buttons, your choice in the basket at 5c. See this basket loaded with buttons at 5c. a dozen. All cost from five to ten times our prices.

Dress Trimmings are shown to you till you wonder at the quantities and designs. In most cases you wonder as much at the lowness of the price. So in Hosiery, so in Laces, Dress Goods, Silks, and thousands of goods we pass untouched by this notice.

NOT A SPECIAL SALE,

"AS USUAL BARGAIN SALE."

No——good people of Richmond——we won't attempt to gull you——with such subterfuges as SPECIAL SALES——BANKRUPT SALES——and a few other masks to get rid of OLD STOCK at a HIGH PRICE——under pretentions of selling desirable goods at a low price.——In this progressive age 'tis indeed sad to think of Richmond people——who are favored all over these United States——for their good judgment——being taken in by buying "GREEN GOODS," as it were.——Gentle reader——have you ever purchased anything at one of these sales?

315 EAST BROAD STREET.

The rapid increase of our business and the flattering patronage of our friends has required some addition to our force. Miss Fannie Michelbacher, for many years with Messrs. Thalhimer Brothers, and Miss Laura Wade, formerly with Messrs. Kaufmann & Co., will in the future be with us, and Miss Fannie Ullman, who has been absent from the city, has returned. These ladies will be pleased to see their friends. A. HUTZLER'S SONS.
