FOR TWO YEARS.

EVANS, WHO KILLED M'LEAN, GETS A LIGHT SENTENCE.

The Verdict a Surprise—A Handshaking Scene—Navy-Yard—Personal Matters.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, December 6, 1888.

Very shortly after the reassembling of the Corporation Court this morning the case of the Commonwealth against John P. Evans for killing Peter McLean was given to the jury. The court-room was again densely crowded. The jury was out about three hours, and about 1 o'clock came into court with their verdict of involuntary manslaughter and sentencing the prisoner to the penitentiary for a term of two years. The announcement was received by the prisoner and his friends with every manifestation of pleasure, shaking hands and laughing and chatting. The lightness of the verdict was a surprise generally, the popular opinion being that the prisoner would get anywhere from ten to eighteen years. The trial lasted ten days. The jurors all return home to Richmond to-day at 3 o'clock and are pretty well fagged out with confinement in the court-room and the Sheriff's hands.

The Pennsylvania railroad-men and capitalists while here Tuesday made a short run over the Norfolk Southern road and its connections, and it is a matter of report that new stockholders and more capital are about to be infused into the line and the road extended to the Atlantic Coast system and made a competitor for the business of the Seaboard and Roanoke railroad. This is a revival of the plan indicated when the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk railroad was first opened. With the Atlantic and Danville and Danville and New-River and Norfolk Southern and Atlantic Coast Line as its connections, the Cape Charles route is likely to have all the business it can handle, and its fleet of steamers and barges will form an unbroken stream of traffic across the lower Chesapeake.

The vessels injured in the late gale and which came in port for repairs have all completed repairs and are ready to resume their voyages.

Rev. J. D. Powell, rector of St. John's church, delivered an interesting address on "One Year in the Army" before Stonewall Camp last night. Judge C. W. Murdaugh will deliver a similar address at the January meeting.

Two negro men died of delirium tremens in the Portsmouth jail yesterday.

Surgeon William H. Jones reported for duty to-day on the United States steamer Pensacola at the navy-yard.

Another cargo of heavy new machinery for the new battle-ship work arrived at the yard yesterday.

Past-Assistant-Surgeon Frank W. Meade, of the Marine-Hospital Service, has reported here for duty, relieving Surgeon C. S. D. Fessenden.

Mrs. M. L. Wells, national organizer of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, will address the people of Portsmouth to-morrow.

All the lukewarm Republicans who were not certain which side would succeed in the late election are now rushing into the Harrison and Morton clubs, and they do say there are Democrats fond of the new-word going along with the crowd, and apologizing as usual in extenuation of their course for ever being Democrats.

The tiny ocean-going craft La Libertad of the wrecked Slocomb family attracted a great many visitors to the wharf to-day. She was to start during the afternoon on her trip up Chesapeake bay for Washington and Baltimore. G.

A HEAVY FINE.

No Leniency for Violations of the Sunday Liquor Law.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

PETERSBURG, VA., December 6, 1888.

In the Mayor's Court this morning a negro named Jack Brown, proprietor of a restaurant for colored people, was convicted of selling liquor on Sunday and a fine of $300 was imposed for the offence. Brown took an appeal to the Hustings Court, and gave bail in the sum of $400 to answer the charge before a jury. The Mayor some time ago announced his intention to break up the Sunday liquor traffic at all hazards, and commend a respect for the Sabbath. He announced this intention again from the bench this morning, and stated furthermore that in future convictions of this kind he would make the fine even larger than 1884. The limit of the fines in these cases is $10 to $500. The usual fine heretofore imposed has been $300. The Mayor inclines to the maximum and not to the minimum fine.

It is not known whether the negro boy whose dead body was found on the Norfolk and Western railroad yesterday morning about eighteen miles this side of Norfolk was killed by a passing train or was the victim of foul play. It is thought that he was struck by the through freight train which left Norfolk for this city on Tuesday evening. The local freight which came up yesterday discovered the body, with the head crushed, and reported the fact to the authorities of the road.

There have been rumors on the streets during the last several days of forgeries committed here, but it is understood that the matter has been satisfactorily settled and publicity avoided.

It is stated that in some localities in this section the peanut crop is so indifferent as not to pay the expenses of gathering and picking, and that a number of farmers have in consequence ploughed their fields for new crops.

General Mahone is expected home from Washington to-night. It is reported that a meeting of the Republican State Committee will shortly be held in this city to look over the situation and transact other business, about which, of course, the public is kept in the dark.

Mr. James Mason, of Washington, an officer of the Richmond and Danville railroad, is visiting his friends and relatives here. His father, Captain Joseph T. Mason, United States Consul to Dresden, has also been here for several days.

Active work is now going on at the Dinwiddie granite-quarries, the output of which it is expected will be very large next year. ROBIN ADAIR.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

CHARLOTTESVILLE, December 6, 1888.

Mr. M. C. Thomas, one of our prominent business-men, and Miss Louia T. Snead, one of our most attractive young ladies, were married yesterday at 3:30 P. M. in the Baptist church. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. John B. Turpin, and a large crowd was present. The couple left on an afternoon train for a short bridal trip to several northern cities.

Mr. John W. Davis, city attorney, leaves to-day for Texas, where he will make his home in the future. The office of city attorney, which is now left vacant by the departure of Mr. Davis, will be filled by appointment by the Judge of the Corporation Court in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Upton W. Murr are in the city again after a most pleasant bridal trip North. They will leave in a few days for their future home in Louisville, Ky.

Master John Thorniey, a little son of the late Dr. John R. Thornley, recently met with a painful accident. While playing football at the Keswick High School, where he is now a student, he accidentally broke his leg.

Mr. Herbert H. Martin and Miss Blanche Hamner, both of this county, were married to-day at 3 P. M. at the Cove church. They will make their home in future in this city. W.

FREDERICKSBURG.

Fire in Spotsylvania County—Property Sale.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., December 6.—The residence of Mr. W. S. McWhirt, in this county, together with most of the furniture, was completely destroyed by fire yesterday evening. The fire originated from a spark from the chimney and was first discovered by Mrs. McWhirt. Her husband at the time was about a mile from the house engaged in work, and before he could reach the scene the building was almost completely destroyed. There was no insurance, and the clothes belonging to the family except what they wore at the time were also consumed in the flames.

The property known as the Southworth and Cox property, situated on Main street, was sold to-day at public auction and purchased by Mrs. Edward Brown for $1,025.

The name of the gentleman who bought the Chatham estate is McMahon and not Mahon, as reported.

For Sleeplessness

USE HORSEFORD'S ACID PHOSPHATE.

Dr. C. B. Duke, Belleville, Ill., says: "I have found it, and it alone, to be capable of producing a sweet and natural sleep in cases of insomnia from overwork of the brain, which so often occurs in active professional and business-men."

DUELLISTS MEET IN CHURCH.

They Step Outside Quietly, Blaze Away, and Are Both Likely to Die.

A Louisville special says: Drawing their pistols as they rose, two men, keeping their eyes on each other, glided down the two aisles of the Methodist church at Elco, Ill., on Sunday, as the minister lined out the morning hymn.

So quiet were their movements that nobody noticed them till they were outside. Then, as half a dozen men nearest sprang up, there were two puffs of smoke, two little clouds of dust from the breasts of two coats, and two sharp reports.

The congregation rushed forward, but the foremost drew back as four other shots rang out between the two men on the church steps. Both by that time were down and streaming with blood, but still making vain efforts to fire again. They were borne into the church, each by his friends, and a physician present attended to them, but death seemed inevitable.

Elco is a small town on the Mobile and Ohio road in the wild river lands just north of Cairo. The two men were Lon Houston and Joseph Hazelwood, and they had for months been quarreling over Houston's divorced wife. Houston had vowed to kill Hazelwood on sight. Both had been considered good citizens.

Houston was found to have wounds in the right and left breast, right shoulder, and right ankle. Hazelwood was wounded in the right breast and right leg. They were taken to their homes. Houston is thought to be dying and Hazelwood has small hopes of recovery. Houston is regarded as the aggressor.

ATTACKED BY THE ARABS.

British Troops Fired at from the Entrenchments Before Suakim.

A Suakim special to the New York Herald says: The first detachment of British troops arrived here to-day on the steamship Hodeia, which entered the harbor, bringing from Suez twenty-one officers and 185 men of the Scottish borderers and 100 mounted infantry, with horses. As soon as the troops assembled the Arabs opened a hot artillery fire from the trenches, mainly concentrated on the Twelfth Black battalion, but they were quickly silenced by a reply from the forts and the Racer. The probability is that a fight between the Arabs and the troops under General Grenfell, Sirdar of the Egyptian army, will take place next week.

Report puts the strength of the Arabs in the trenches at from 700 to 1,000 men. There are, however, many more lying in the bush, within a short distance of the earthworks, and about 1,500 reserves stationed at Handoub Wells, eight miles away. Many are merely tribesmen and slaves, but there are among them nearly 1,000 Dervishes and ex-Egyptian soldiers. The force under General Grenfell will consist of two brigades of Egyptian and black troops, supported by the Second battalion, King's Own Scottish Borderers, one company of mounted infantry, and a small force of Egyptian cavalry and artillery, altogether about 5,000 men. General Grenfell has informed the Government that he considers this force ample to raise the siege.

A Bank President's Lucky Trip.

A Columbus (Ind.) special says: Captain W. J. Lucas, president of the First National Bank here, which was robbed a few nights ago of $8,500 in cash and $150,000 in notes by William Schreiber, its teller, arrived home to-day from Canada, where he went in pursuit of the absconder. He succeeded in obtaining all the missing papers and $2,300 of the stolen money.

Mr. Lucas's meeting with Schreiber was somewhat remarkable. The former was travelling from Detroit to Toronto in a sleeping car of the Michigan Central railroad, and had almost reached his destination before he arose to dress. Looking out of his berth he observed on the opposite side of the aisle the familiar face of the man he was seeking protruding from between the curtains. The recognition was mutual and instant. Mr. Lucas renewed the acquaintance with the remark: "Hello, there, Schreiber." The latter was much confused, but summoned courage to return the salutation, and soon regained his composure. Schreiber had attempted to disguise himself by shaving off his beard and a portion of his hair, making a shining bald spot on the crown of his head.

The two proceeded to Toronto and stopped at the Queen's Hotel, where Schreiber registered as J. A. Corby. At first Schreiber would not make any terms and would not even tell where the papers were secreted. Mr. Lucas, by various threats, and by promising not to prosecute Schreiber should he return to the States, finally induced the latter to surrender to him a part of the cash and to give him an order for the papers on the Merchants' Deposit Company, of Milwaukee. On his way North Schreiber had hired a box from the Deposit Company under the name of Charles Wea; but had thrown away the key to the box and all the memorandums by which it might be identified. The box containing the papers had to be forced open when Mr. Lucas called for them yesterday. A large sum was deposited in the Waukesha Bank by Schreiber, and the plundered bank received that also.

Eight Buildings Burned.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, VA., December 6.—A fire in Franklin, on the Seaboard road, this morning destroyed eight buildings, including Lassiter & Co.'s store and Edwards's mattress-factory and the pump-house of the railroad company. Loss, $5,000; insurance, $1,700. The fire was incendiary in its origin.

DARBYS PROPHYLACTIC FLUID.

USE IT IN EVERY SICK-ROOM FOR SAFETY,

CLEANLINESS, AND COMFORT.

It will purify the air and render it wholesome. The removal of the effluvia, which are always given off in the sick-room, promotes the recovery of the patient and the safety and comfort of the physician and attendant. Persons waiting on the sick should use it freely. Water in which the sick are bathed should contain a small quantity of the Fluid—it will render the skin soft and pleasant, allay itching, prevent bed sores, scars, &c., removing all heat and irritation, together with any unhealthy or offensive emanations from the body.

VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY, TENN.:

As a disinfectant and detergent Darbys Prophylactic Fluid is superior to any preparation with which I am acquainted.—H. T. LUPTON, Professor of Chemistry.

What is Scrofula

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces unsightly lumps or swellings; which causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which developes ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors." It is a more formidable enemy than consumption or cancer alone, for scrofula combines the worst possible features of both. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How can it be cured? By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. For all affections of the blood Hood's Sarsaparilla is unequalled, and some of the cures it has effected are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula in any of its various forms be sure to give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial.
