PERSONAL.

A CARD.—THE SISTERS OF ST. PATRICK'S PARISH tender their sincere thanks to all who so generously aided in making the late fair so marked a success. Where all have been so zealous it would seem unfair to particularize, yet the Sisters feel that they owe special thanks to the lady president, the ladies who assumed the responsibility of the tables and their assistants, the gentlemen of the different committees who so energetically co-operated with the ladies, their non-Catholic friends who contributed so liberally, and all who attended the Fair. my 19-1t*
