THE CAMPAIGN.

HALIFAX COUNTY WAKES UP AND SHAKES HERSELF.

The Effect of the Arrest of the Election Judges—A Good Report Certain.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

SOUTH BOSTON, VA., November 1.—In all my experience and observation of Halifax politics I have never seen the Democratic party more thoroughly aroused and determined to do its full duty. The lethargy of a few weeks ago has passed away, and now the party is well organized and in the best possible trim for the contests of ballots next Tuesday. The high-handed outrage of the recent arrests by United States marshals has contributed very largely to this condition. This action of Mahone has added hundreds of votes to the party by arousing the indifferent and apathetic to a keen sense of their responsibilities. I cannot speak definitely as to the majority Halifax will give the Democratic ticket, but it will, undoubtedly be large. General Mahone and his coloriu will of course cry fraud with their accustomed persistency, but the fact is that Halifax is no longer dominated by a Republican majority. In 1880 the negroes had about 700 or 800 majority, but this has decreased year by year. The capitation tax-list given in by the Commissioner of Revenue of this county for this year shows only about 150 negro majority of taxpayers. Of course very many of these are disfranchised. Many of them also have regularly voted the Democratic ticket and more than usual will do so in this election. Added to these strong and incontestible facts is that within the last three weeks 250 or more negroes have left Halifax to work on railroads in West Virginia. Halifax is all right. She will give a large majority for McKinney, Tyler and Scott, and will send Jordan, Hankins, and Ragland to the Legislature.

M'KINNEY AT PULASKI.

Taking a Rest—Senator Williams Speaks.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

PULASKI CITY, VA., November 1.—McKinney arrived here to-day to take a needed rest after his hard travel through the mountains. He is in excellent health and very confident, being now in telegraphic communication with the more prominent points. As he sat in the Maple Shade Inn his ears were greeted with the shouts of a crowd accompanied with the music of a band. He made a graceful acknowledgment of his cordial reception, and excused himself from a set speech as he wished to rest before his closing speech at Radford to-morrow.

Senator Williams was present and briefly addressed the concourse of people. Answering the declaration of a prominent northern Republican who said he voted not to elevate the negro but to secure the election machinery of the State, Senator Williams asked what improvement Mahone would bring to the election machinery. Three years ago under Democratic management Republican votes were counted so fairly that eight Republican congressmen were elected, while last fall the Republicans came within a few hundred votes of carrying the State. Could so corrupt a man as Mahone add much purity to our already fair ballot and honest count?

O'Ferrall and Lyons at Portsmouth.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, VA., November 1.—Colonel Charles T. O'Ferrall and Hon. James Lyons addressed a rousing open-air mass-meeting on the court-house square, in Portsmouth, tonight. The Artillery School Band, from Fortress Monroe, was in attendance, and there was a splendid torchlight parade of the city by the Democratic clubs. The Democrats of Portsmouth never had a finer demonstration, and O'Ferrall captured the town.

At the same time Colonel William Lamb addressed a Republican meeting at Oxford Hall, one square distant.

Fully Aroused.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

SCOTTSVILLE, VA., November 1.—The Democrats of the northeastern portion of Halifax had a grand rally and barbecue at this place to-day. The barbecue was given under the auspices of the Scottsburg Democratic Club, and was a grand success. Hudson's large warehouse was filled to overflowing with determined, exultant Democrats, who were ably and eloquently addressed by Hon. Paul C. Edmunds, Major John W. Riley, and Samuel L. Adams, Esq. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed.

A Splendid Democratic Meeting.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

WAVERLY, VA., November 1.—Messrs. Warren Elliott and W. T. White, of Norfolk city, who to-day made telling speeches at a Democratic rally at Spring Grove, Surry county, spoke here to-night to a very enthusiastic audience. Mahone was held up in his true light, and never was it the pleasure of the people of Waverly to hear more earnest, eloquent, and argumentative speeches than those delivered by these gentlemen.

FROM HEADQUARTERS.

A Good Report—Did Not Stand By Him.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

ALEXANDRIA, VA., November 1.—Secretary Shepherd, of the Executive Committee, returned to headquarters here after a tour through the Southwest.

General Eppa Hunton was at headquarters to-day.

Hon. C. L. Nicholl, of Brentsville, will speak at Occoquan, Prince William county, to-morrow.

Hon. William W. Berry, a former Alexandrian, but now of Bedford county, was here to-day, and represents McKinney's prospects in his section of the county to be of the brightest character.

Joseph D. Lash, who was appointed United States Gauger here vice Colonel Edmund Berkley, formerly colonel of the Eighth Virginia regiment, entered upon the discharge of his duty to-day.

W. C. Cartwell, the Washington railroad man who was induced by the Mahoneites here to register fraudulently while under the influence of liquor, has spent several days in jail while trying to get some of the Mahoneites here to go on his bail bond for the grand jury. His wife, who is sick, is with him, and notwithstanding their pitiful condition, no white Mahonite would go upon his bond, but at noon to-day two colored property-holders became his bondsmen, and he went off to Washington saying that neither whiskey nor the Mahoneites would ever fool him again.

The Republicans announce a speech by Hon. H. W. Blair, of New Hampshire, in this city to-morrow night.

The railroads running here will all sell excursion tickets to the Virginia voters at one fare for the round trip.

LANGSTON CAVES IN

And Urges His Friends to Vote for Boss Billy's Ticket.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

PETERSBURG, VA., November 1.—John M. Langston is back in Petersburg. He arrived here this evening travel-stained and tired after his journey from Cincinnati. He was announced to speak at the New market, and the platform had actually been constructed. At the last moment, however, this idea was abandoned, and they say that Congressman Bowden, Mahone's manager, had something to do with the change.

At 9 o'clock to-night, however, the Dispatch reporter tracked Langston to "Williamsburg," the negro quarter of the town, almost on the edge of the corporation limits. He had been tendered a serenade and there were about three hundred colored voters present. A cracked brass band made night hideous for a few minutes and then the would-be Congressman was introduced. He began with an eulogy of Fire-Alarm Forsker, who, he said, would be the next President of the United States, and then he descended to Virginia politics. He had returned home, he explained, at the urgent request of prominent northern Republicans, and he had come after divesting himself of all personal feeling. Then he urged his friends all to stand by the Republican party in this State. "I am going to vote the whole ticket," he exclaimed, "and you all cannot do less." It was significant, however, that he did not once call Mahone's name. Among other remarks he said that he would leave for Washington, where he expected to confer with distinguished Republicans in regard to the national election-law which the next Congress is to be asked to pass. He strongly advocated such a measure.

It is understood that to-morrow Langston will issue an address to the colored voters of the State, urging them to vote for the Mahone ticket.

Hon. Henry R. Pollard, of Richmond, addressed the workingmen's clubs to-night.

Arbor Day at Staunton.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

STAUNTON, VA., November 1.—The Arbor day here was successful. Preparations were made to plant fifteen hundred trees in the city park. The contract plan was adopted, by which the contractor does the work of planting, guaranteeing the trees to live two years. Every tree is numbered, and the names of the persons providing for the expense is recorded with their numbers in the kind of trees, and locations were chosen by the participants. There was a good attendance from the public schools and by the people generally. The Stonewall Brigade Band made the music, and the people enjoyed the novelty of the scene and will aid in establishing the institution of Arbor day. Is not Staunton entitled to the credit of having the first formal Arbor day in Virginia? The weather was delightful.

THE OUTLOOK FOR THE DEMOCRATS.

Woman's Work—Charged with Murder—The Sole Survivor of the Schooner Annie E. Blakeman.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, November 1, 1889.

A prominent Republican here who has just returned from a business-trip all through the counties of the Peninsula, informed the Dispatch correspondent that he had the very last opportunity of seeing the condition of his party, and he never in all his experience saw so much absolute apathy and want of organization in the party over there, and if the same condition of things prevails throughout the State McKinney will carry the State by 40,000 majority. What is true of the Peninsula is true of the negroes in various sections of the Second district, particularly Princess Anne, Norfolk city, Southampton, and Isle of Wight. Democratic majorities are confidently expected in many places where the Republicans have a footing, and heavy inroads will be made by the Democrats in the strongholds of the enemy. The Mahone leaders here say everything for them depends on the Southwest and the Valley.

The Woman's Missionary Society met in the third day's session at Granby-Street church this morning. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. W. C. Ivy, of Lynchburg; Vice-President, Mrs. C. H. Hall, of Petersburg; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. H. C. Cheatham, of Richmond.

The society then adjourned and left for Virginia Beach, where the session will be resumed after lunch and the remainder of the officers elected.

Captain Charles Edwards, the sole survivor of the sunken schooner Annie E. Blakeman, has arrived here. His vessel capsized in the storm on the 24th south of Body Island, and all on board were lost except himself and he swam ashore in a cork jacket. The schooner was bound from Philadelphia to Jacksonville with coal.

United States Senator H. W. Blair, of New Hampshire, addressed a Republican club in Portsmouth last night.

Three negroes have been arrested and carried to Elizabeth City for murdering a negro at Cresswell, in Tyrrell county, and hiding the body in a hollow tree, and attempting to murder another negro.

Last night the colored sailor, Robert Lee Grant, who was lashed in the rigging of the wreck of the schooner Henry P. Simmons four days and five nights, arrived here and left for Baltimore, his home.

THE HILL CITY.

The Alleged Abduction Case—Political Notes.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

LYNCHBURG, VA., November 1.—W. W. West, of Lynch's Station, arrived here at noon to-day and identified the little boy who was found in possession of the mulatto woman arrested yesterday. West stated the boy was Mrs. Eliza Laughon's son, who resides at Lynch's, but he could not identify the woman as the one who stole the child. The woman was taken before the county authorities and sent on to the grand jury for the next term of the Campbell County Court. The little boy was taken home by West.

P. A. Krise, chairman of the Sixth District Democratic Committee, to-day issued a stirring appeal to the Democratic managers of election not to allow the Mahoneites to intimidate or interfere with voters or prevent a fair ballot, and it has been sent all through the Southwest.

Mahone has sent two sizes of ballots in most of the counties. One is so small as to be easily inserted into a large ballot without detection.

There will be a big barbecue at Buffalo Springs to-morrow. Among the speakers will be Senator Daniel.

The latest from Scott and Wise counties is to the effect that W. H. Alexander, of Winchester, is making a gallant fight for Democracy in that section and is carrying everything before him. He caught Hubbard (Mahoneite) at Guest's station, Wise county, yesterday and gave him such a rubbing that Hubbard left the meeting and would not wait to reply.

Notes from Accomack.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

ONANCOCK, October 31, 1889.

Yesterday afternoon Hon. R. R. Pollard, of King and Queen, and Hon. S. S. Wilking, the Democratic candidate for floater delegate from Accomack and Northampton, spoke at Belle Haven, and at Marionville night. Large crowds were present at both places.

Hon. John W. G. Blackstone, who is a candidate for reelection to the Senate, spoke last night to a large meeting at Powell's store, in Deep Creek, composed almost entirely of oyster men. He made a fine impression.

It is said that Dr. T. T. Taylor, of Assawaman, will be substituted as a candidate for floater-delegate on the Republican ticket in the place of George B. Mason, the Prohibition nominee, because the latter is not for Mahone.

County-Chairman Bowdoin, who was here yesterday, says the Democrats are in fine fighting trim all over the county and will give the largest majority ever given here since the war.

The grand jury has found a number of indictments against certain persons for permitting gambling in their houses, and for violating the game law in regard to shooting partridges.

A College Election.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

LEXINGTON, VA., November 1.—The students of Washington and Lee University met in the University chapel this evening to elect the president of the final ball at the commencement next June. There was a full turnout of classes and the balloting was spirited, and a sharp rivalry was excited for the candidates and the result. The vote resulted in the choice of Clif Lanier, Jr., of Montgomery, Ala. Mr. J. W. Avery, of Alexandria, Va., was the strong opponent of Mr. Lanier for the honor.

Transferred for Safe-Keeping.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

ROCKY MOUNT, VA., November 1.—Since my telegram of to-day the Commonwealth's Attorney (Mr. Peter Dillard) of this county, learning that there would doubtless be an attempt made by an organized band of enraged and outraged citizens to take George Early, the prisoner that has to-day been sent on to the grand jury for arson, from jail to lynch him, has had him taken away by a strong guard with orders to take him to Chatham (Pittsylvania county) jail for safe-keeping.

False Registration.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

STAUNTON, VA., November 1.—Nathan and Howard Henderson, aged respectively eighteen and nineteen years as shown by the County Court records, were arrested to-day for fraudulently registering at Buffalo Gap precinct, in Augusta county, having sworn they were twenty-one and twenty-two years of age. They are now in custody.

University Wins.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, November 1.—The University of Virginia foot-ball team met the team from the Georgetown University this afternoon and won the game by a score of 34 to 0. Only half of the first half of the game was played, the Georgetown men declining to finish it.

Washington Notes.

[By telegraph to the Dispatch.]

WASHINGTON, November 1.—Bond offerings to-day aggregated $462,800. All accepted at 127 for 4 per cents and at 105¾ for 4½'s.

The debt statement issued to-day shows a decrease in the debt during the month of October of $9,104,852.72; also a decrease since June 30th of $15,695,944.21, the total interest-bearing debt $859,062,972.99; total debt of all kinds $1,625,521,576.63; debt less available credits, $1,060,950,677.24. Cash in Treasury, $825,097,725.76; legal-tender notes outstanding, $346,681,016; certificates of deposits outstanding, $12,510,000; gold certificates outstanding, $120,937,229; silver certificates outstanding, $277,319,944; fractional currency, $6,915,690.47.

There Is No Famine in Dakota.

[By telegraph to the Dispatch.]

CHICAGO, November 1.—A special from Bismarck, N. D., says: The reports of the destitution in North Dakota are greatly exaggerated, and while there are some isolated communities in need of assistance the statement that over one hundred thousand people are in want does the State injustice. There is some suffering in Rodney and Kello counties, but aside from these localities it is difficult to locate any one in actual want. Reports sent out from Minneapolis and St. Paul are in most instances highly colored. There is nothing in the situation to justify the report that a famine exists in Dakota.

DANVILLE COOL,

BUT THE EXCITEMENT IS NONE THE LESS INTENSE.

Determined to Defeat the Object of Mahone's Intimidation Scheme—An Independent Candidate.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

DANVILLE, VA., November 1.—Everything is quiet here on the surface, but there is a feeling of unrest and anxiety that amounts to a feverish excitement. The people have never been so thoroughly wrought up and determined.

United States Supervisor Tinsley is still here, and to-day came D. H. Pannill, county chairman; Dr. Jewitt, Republican candidate for the Legislature, and these with United States Marshal Mill and local Republicans have been in caucus all day. What they have done or what they intend to do is not known, but it is rumored to-night that they contemplate the arrest of several citizens here to-morrow. In the present state of feeling such arrests would be dangerous, but leading cool-headed citizens are perfectly satisfied that Mahone's purpose is to provoke the people of Danville to some act of violence, and they are determined to do everything possible to prevent hot-headed Virginians from losing their temper. If arrests are made they will be submitted to quietly, and no resistance will be made. All Democrats are confident that Mahone is already beaten, and they will not do anything calculated to jeopardize the success of the party on Tuesday. Letters have been written to people of South Boston urging them also to submit quietly should any persons be arrested there as threatened.

Danville is in splendid trim, and will win a glorious victory. Cheering news comes from Patrick, and Judge Boler, of Carroll, writes that that county is safe for from 150 to 200 for McKinney.

V. A. Witcher, of Pittsylvania, has announced himself an independent candidate for the Legislature in Pittsylvania county, and he declares he is in favor of an entire repudiation of the State debt.

A Correction.

PETERSBURG, VA., October 30, 1889.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

Dear Sir,—Please allow me space in your paper to state to the colored people of the city of Petersburg and the State that the rumor which was circulated at the Third Baptist church (Petersburg) in the pulpit, by Rev. H. W. Dickerson, that he was denied the privilege of preaching at the asylum by the authorities of the asylum because he was a Republican, is untrue. Brother Dickerson knew when he told this that it was untrue, and that all the other ministers in the city preach at the asylum whenever their turn comes. Does he mean to say to his congregation that Brothers Gordon, Williams, Callis, and many others who preach here vote the Democratic ticket? If so, he is mistaken. Those ministers are Republicans, and I believe have been from birth, and never have any of these ministers been denied the privilege of preaching the Gospel in this institution. The objection to Rev. Dickerson is that he, in company with nineteen other colored ministers of the State, met in conference at the request of Mahone and signed a pledge that they would urge upon their congregations and the colored people at large to vote for Mahone and the entire Republican ticket. This was thought here to be unbecoming a minister of the Gospel, and therefore he was denied the privilege to preach at this asylum. We cannot have politics preached to our unfortunate people, and Brother Dickerson and other ministers should have that understanding. The Reverend said that he did not preach politics. Why, I thought he made a political speech in the pulpit last Sunday night. He said in loud tones that he signed the paper in behalf of the party who freed his people. Does he mean to say Mahone, Sheup, and Lurty have ever freed his race or any other? He said that he signed for the party that was for educating his children. Does he mean to say that Mahone voted for the Blair educational bill? If so, he is mistaken. Mahone never did either of these things, and if he is elected Governor he will do less than he ever has done for the negro. I can't see how the ministers could have conscientiously signed such a paper, in the face of what Mahone did to Professor Langston last fall in defeating him for his seat in Congress against the wishes of the Republican party. I can't see to save my life how a man, as a minister of the Gospel, can ask in the pulpit or anywhere else his race to vote for such a man as Mahone. I take the authority to say that all ministers are welcome to preach at the asylum whether they be Republicans or Democrats; they are welcome to preach at this institution if they have not signed any papers or pledges to urge their hearers in politics. Now I hope the Reverend won't tell any one else that he could not preach here because he is a Republican and run around the streets like a house on fire and tell the politicians that the colored ministers of Petersburg have been denied the privilege to preach the Gospel at the Central Asylum because they are Republicans. This is too thin. We all understand it.

Respectfully, J. D. BANISTER.

The Colored Barbers.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:

As a class the colored barbers of Richmond are the most refined, cultivated, and thrifty of our colored population. These advantages give them, as they should, quite a widespread political influence with the colored voters.

Their refinement and cultivation they undoubtedly owe in greater part to the daily contact in which their calling brings them with a great number of our best and most highly-educated citizens. Their accumulation of property—nay, their subsistence itself—they owe almost exclusively to the times that one by one continually fall into theirs from the pockets of their white patrons; and other patrons they have none.

Now, then, when this well-mannered, intelligent, and prosperous class of citizens come to reflect on the circumstances and to remember individually the faithful patrons and friends that have elevated them to so desirable a condition, and, looking farther, see, as they cannot fail to see, the present good and efficient and altogether satisfactory government, both State and city, threatened with direct disaster and the best interests of their faithful patrons and friends afore-said jeopardized—nay, inevitably destined to irreparable loss—by the possible election of one who has proved their own as well as the State's worst enemy; when they see this and refuse to lend their aid by their votes and the votes they influence to avert the calamity, how can they expect to be longer patronized and befriended by those they will thus have shamefully wronged and deserted?

For one I cannot believe that this class of citizens will as a class show themselves recreant to gratitude or neglectful of their own interests on Tuesday next. CIVIS.

[For the Dispatch.]

To the Colored Race.

An important election is before you. That you will all vote the Republican ticket is not doubted, but we will call your attention to a few facts ere you vote:

1. Whom do you ask for aid when in trouble—the Democrat or the Republican?

2. Who have given you employment, and from whom do you ask advice?

3. What promises have the Republican party fulfilled to you? History answers that.

4. Who are the white leaders that continually seek to produce strife and get you classed as a vicious race?

5. Who have trusted you and befriended you?

When you think over these things ponder and reflect, and then think whether it is not better to stay away from the polls and be respected than to cast a vote for those who have cheated and deceived you, especially your leader Mahone, who defrauded Langston out of his seat and spurned him from his presence.

Recollect, no money is to be given out until after election, and then you will have to find who has it—not you.

[For the Dispatch.]

Farmers of Virginia, Arouse.

You are branded as cowards and weak-kneed. Read Chairman Gordon's address and show that you are men indeed—not purchased by money or promises.

Obey the clarion voice of your Chairman.

Let there be no retreating, but remember that you are Virginians fighting for your homes and firesides.

If necessary go to the polls fully equipped to meet all emergencies.

Stand shoulder to shoulder in this contest, and proudly uphold your motto, "Sic Semper Tyrannis."

Dunnsville McKinney Club.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

DUNNSVILLE, October 30, 1889.

This club met again last night (29th)—Booker Garnett, president, in the chair. After enrolling many new members and transacting some routine business William Campbell, candidate for the House of Delegates, was called for by the club and responded in a most appropriate and earnest address, inspiring his hearers with renewed zeal and energy.

Lewis H. Garnett, county canvasser, followed Mr. Campbell, taking a hasty sketch of the position of the parties and the issues involved in the present canvass, showing up Mahone, his methods, and the necessity of every Democrat doing his full duty. There was never such enthusiasm in Essex county in the Democratic party. The late registration shows a large increase of white voters.

I should not omit saying that Nelson Page, a colored member of the Dunnsville Club (of whom there is a goodly number), also made a good speech last night, appealing to his colored friends to vote the Democratic ticket—especially for their friend Mr. Campbell—showing conclusively that it was not only their duty but to their interest.

The Centre Cross Club meets to-night. Work is the order now, and no idling in the camp. Every white and colored Democrat in the county will be voted. You may count on this, and need not be surprised if Campbell is elected. The effort is to that purpose now. G.

Troublesome Negroes.

[By telegraph to the Dispatch.]

WASHINGTON, November 1.—A delegation of colored men representing the late General Baptist Convention, with Rev. William Gray as chairman, called on Attorney-General Miller this afternoon in regard to outrages alleged to have been perpetrated recently upon colored men in the South for attempting to exercise the elective franchise. It was represented that a member of the delegation, who has been subpoenaed as a witness in the approaching trial at Jacksonville of alleged election frauds in Florida, has been threatened with assassination should he return to the State for the purpose of testifying. The Attorney-General said that while he was not prepared to say precisely what action would be taken in the case in question, he would say that they could rest assured that in any matter in which the Federal authorities had jurisdiction the laws would be enforced so far as it lay in his power to enforce them, and all officers and witnesses protected.

A Question of Contract Labor.

[By telegraph to the Dispatch.]

WASHINGTON, November 1.—The Collector of Customs at Norfolk, Va., has asked the Treasury Department for instructions in regard to the practice of the Liverpool merchants of sending men under contract from that city to Norfolk for the purpose of buying and grading cotton for the English trade. The Immigrant Inspector for the State of Virginia reported the matter to the Collector as a violation of the alien contract labor law, and the Collector wants to know what he can do about it. The Treasury officials are divided in opinion in the matter, and it will probably be referred to the Solicitor for Settlement.

Editor West Indicted

CHICAGO, November 1.—The grand jury returned three additional indictments in the Times case this morning. There are two indictments against J. J. West and Secretary Graham, one for over-issuing the stock of the Times Company and one for assigning the over-issued stock. There is a separate indictment against West for over-issuing stock.

NATIONAL THANKSGIVING.

A Proclamation by President Harrison.

[By telegraph to the Dispatch.]

WASHINGTON, November 1.—The following proclamation, setting apart Thursday, November 28th, as a day of national thanksgiving, was issued late this afternoon:

By the President of the United States:

A PROCLAMATION.

A highly favored people, mindful of their dependence on the bounty of Divine Providence, should seek a fitting occasion to testify gratitude and ascribe praise to Him who is the author of their many blessings. It behooves us, then, to look back with thankful hearts over the past year and bless God for His infinite mercy in vouchsafing to our land enduring peace, to our people freedom from pestilence and famine, to our husbandmen abundant harvests, and to them that labor recompense of their toil.

Now, therefore, I, Benjamin Harrison President of the United States of America, do earnestly recommend that Thursday the 28th day of this present month of November, be set apart as a day of national thanksgiving and prayer, and that the people of our country, ceasing from the cares and labors of their working day, shall assemble in their respective places of worship and give thanks to God, who has prospered us on our way and made our paths paths of peace; beseeching Him to bless the day to our present and future good, making it truly one of thanksgiving for each reunited home circle as well as for the nation at large.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this 1st day of November, in the year of our Lord 1889, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and fourteenth. BENJAMIN HARRISON.

By the President:
James G. Blaine, Secretary of State.

A VETERAN.

I was wounded in the leg at the battle of Stone River, Dec. 31st, 1862. My blood was poisoned from the effects of the wound, and the leg swelled to double its natural size, and remained so for many years. The poison extended to my whole system, and I suffered a thousand deaths. Nothing did me any good until I took Swift's Specific, which took the poison out of my system, and enabled me to feel myself a man again. S. S. S. is the remedy for blood poison.
