The Atlantic and Danville Railroad—A Proposition—Its Route.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

CHASE CITY, VA., March 25, 1890.

At our County Court for this month Judge D. S. Hicks, counsel for the Atlantic and Danville railroad, stated to a mass-meeting of the people that he was empowered to say by the authorities of the railroad that if the county of Mecklenburg would at once give its bonds for $3,500 per mile as subscribed for every mile of said road running through the county at a rate of interest at 4 per cent. that the road would then give the county a full discharge from its subscription to the railroad.

Colonel Thomas F. Goode advocated the acceptance of the proposition. He also stated that the branch road to Buffalo Lithia Springs was under construction by a private contract between himself and the railroad and it would not be an additional expense to the county.

The proposition of the 4 per cent. bonds appear to be liberal on the part of the railroad and meets with the general approval of the people. The road traverses the county about forty-eight miles. It has opened up a hitherto inaccessible portion of the county and passing through a section rich in agricultural and forestal resources. There are also some mineral developments sure to follow in a short time.

Several new towns have already been mapped out, lots sold, and improvements commenced.

Trains are now running regularly and the telegraph line is nearly completed.

SWOOPED DOWN

And Arrested a Notorious Virago.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

ONANCOCK, March 24, 1890.

Margaret Thorne, a white woman living in the vicinity of Muddy creek, on the bayside, is one of the local celebrities of Accomack. She is about sixty years of age and of powerful frame and strength. For many years she has been a notorious lawbreaker, selling liquor without license and in other ways setting the laws of the land at defiance. She has been convicted time and again and sentenced to terms of imprisonment in the county jail. But by some means or other she has always managed to elude the officers of the law. Some of her devices for evading arrest were very novel and could not be well named to ears polite. Deputy-Sheriff Melson knowing that the woman had a gang of dangerous men in the neighborhood who had sworn that they would murder the first man that attempted to arrest her, quietly summoned a posse of men Saturday night and swooped down unexpectedly upon the Amazonian law-breaker and carried her off to jail before she could summon her clansmen to the rescue. She is restive under confinement and says she intends to get even with her captors some of these days.

COCKADE CITY POLITICS.

The Question of a Primary—The Candidates.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

PETERSBURG, March 25, 1890.

The Democratic City Central Committee will probably this week decide whether or not a primary election shall be held for the nomination of a municipal ticket to be voted for at the May election. Very active efforts have been made to secure signatures to petitions asking for a primary, and it is understood that many names have been obtained. Many persons have also signed petitions expressing their desire and willingness to leave the matter to the judgment of the Central Committee. As far as at present known the following is a full list of the candidates for office, but it is highly probable that others will be in the field at the primary or before the nominating convention: For Mayor, Hon. Charles F. Collier (incumbent); for City Sergeant, F. W. Jones (incumbent) and George W. Eanes; for Commonwealth's Attorney, J. M. Mullen (incumbent); for Commissioner of the Revenue, James B. Blanks (incumbent), C. A. Slaughter, and Cary W. Jones; for Collector of City Taxes, E. J. Bond (incumbent) and Captain J. R. Patterson.

IS IT A DEAL?

An Interesting Railroad Question in Danville.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

DANVILLE, VA., March 25.—Not long ago the Danville and East Tennessee Railroad Company put a surveying party in the field to survey a line of road from Danville to the West. It was announced to-day that the party had been taken from the field and disbanded. This is regarded by well-informed gentlemen of Danville as conclusive proof that the Atlantic and Danville people have made a deal with the Danville and New-River bondholders, and will use that line in going to the West. Mr. Bateman and party went over the Danville and New-River road a short time ago and inspected the property. If this deal has been made it was probably hastened by the fact that the Richmond and Danville people have determined to build to Madison, N. C., as the Danville and East Tennessee people were undecided as between the route to the West by Madison or by the Danville and New-River road.

A NEW CHURCH PROBABLE.

The Trouble in the Petersburg Colored Baptist Church.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

PETERSBURG, March 25, 1890.

At a meeting of the congregation of the Harrison-Street Baptist church (colored) held last night a number of the members asked for letters of dismissal in the regular form. The requests, it is said, were denied. This is the church which has recently had so much trouble about its pastor, the Rev. C. W. B. Gordon, who was finally forced to resign. The congregation is much divided—part wishing to go with their old pastor and part objecting. There is no doubt that this division will result in the formation of a new and independent church, with the Rev. Gordon as the pastor. It is said that a site for the new church has already been purchased. It is reported that the letters of dismissal asked for were denied on the ground that the parties asking should be expelled rather than granted dismissal.

Brilliant Wedding in Lynchburg.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

LYNCHBURG, VA., March 25.—The Second Presbyterian church of this city was to-day at noon the scene of a very brilliant marriage, the parties being Miss Mamie, eldest daughter of Joseph L. Lee, a merchant, and Harold B. Jeffreys, a young Englishman, but who has resided here for a number of years. The altar and chancel of the church were beautifully decorated with calla-lilies and growing plants, and the church brilliantly lighted by electricity. Dr. Fleming, the pastor, officiated.

Says He Will Make Things Hot.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

ONANCOCK, March 24, 1890.

"Preacher Bill" Read, of Chincoteague Island, was at Accomac Courthouse several days ago to consult his lawyer with regard to bringing suit against the man who started the report that he was recently swindled in New York by green-goods men. It is not known what line of action he has determined to pursue, but he says he is going to make things hot for the man who started the report.

He Voted the Democratic Ticket.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

ONANCOCK, VA., March 24, 1890.

Isaac Gray, a well-known colored man, died at Accomac Courthouse several days ago. He had always voted the Democratic ticket since his race had been enfranchised. For many years he stood alone at that precinct, and was to the day of his death the only negro there who could be relied on to vote the Democratic ticket under all circumstances.

Shooting Affray.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, VA., March 25.—At Campostella, in Norfolk county, yesterday afternoon, in a trifling quarrel, Samuel Baker shot Thomas Lewis in the head and face with a shotgun, and the wounded man's condition is very critical. Both are colored. Baker made his escape from the neighborhood.

A Bad Outlook.

Persons who have made a careful examination of the fruit-trees say that there will not be ten bushels of apples and peaches raised this year on the Eastern Shore of Virginia.

The Bread He Cast Upon the Waters Should Return.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

PETERSBURG, March 25, 1890.

As an instance of how times change and we change with them I may mention an interesting little reminiscence that was related to me this morning by an old citizen of this place, now broken in health and fortune: "In 1856," he said, "I was living in Chicago. I sold a barrel of prairie chickens and a few other articles to a young man with which to start him in business in an humble way, and at an humble location. My life was an active one, and though I had some dealings with the young man subsequently we soon became separated and I lost sight of him. I have prospered and suffered alternately until now affliction has rendered me unfit for business. Very recently I read in a northern paper that the young man whom I helped to start in business is now many times a millionaire, and one of the largest coffee and tea importers in the great city of Chicago. Strange are the vicissitudes of life."

THE SOUTHWEST.

Lively Rivalry in Southwest Virginia.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

LYNCHBURG, March 25.—The iron on the Clinch-Valley division of the Norfolk and Western road has been laid to Breeding Ford, on Clinch river, forty-seven miles west of Tazewell Courthouse. The company expect to reach St. Paul some time next month. St. Paul and Minneapolis are twin towns. St. Paul is on the north side of the river, in Wise county, and Minneapolis on the south side, in Russell, and are connected by an iron bridge. Town lots are said to be selling at fabulous prices. The two towns are being built in a section called Richlands, Tazewell county, within two miles of each other. One is backed by Pennsylvania capitalists and the other by the Tazewell Land-Improvement Company, and the rivalry between them is becoming very heated. Both towns are erecting $40,000 hotels.

WAS IT INCENDIARY?

The House of a Negro in Nansemond Burned.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

SMITHFIELD, March 25, 1890.

A negro named Hall, living near Chuckatuck, in Nansemond county, had his dwelling burned last night. About a half-dozen of his children were stored away in the loft. Before all could be gotten out one was smothered to death, but being only slightly burned when found. It is thought to have been the work of an incendiary, as there was very little fire in the house, and a side and an end of the house were blazing at the same time. He is what is called a "white man's nigger"—very upright and thrifty; consequently most of his colored brethren disliked and envied him.

TRAMP.

VIRGINIA NEWS NOTES.

Some Items from Isle of Wight County.

Smithfield has had the heaviest rainfalls of the season in the last few days. The amount and severity of the thunder and lightning have been remarkable for this season of the year.

Bishop Randolph preached at Christ church morning and evening of Monday. The house was filled to its capacity. The Bishop's simplicity and eloquence captivated every one. After the morning sermon a class of eleven were confirmed.

Mecklenburg Matters.

The Farmers' Alliance organization is increasing in the county.

The Bank of Chase City has purchased a building for its business, and will fix it up in first-class style.

Reports from different sections indicate serious injury to the growing tobacco-plants. Some have resown. The tendency will be to delay the early planting of the crop.

The appointment of Colonel W. T. Atkins as a member of the Governor's staff is considered a merited recognition of services rendered the party many years with fidelity and efficiency.

Chesterfield.

At a meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Chesterfield county, held at the courthouse Monday, two gentlemen, Mr. James Burgest (Democrat) and Mr. Eyler (Republican), presented their commissions as road overseer for Dare district. One of them was the appointee of the old board and the other of the new, and each claimed the right to act. The matter was discussed at length by the board and the discussion was at times quite animated. The result was that both gentlemen were removed, and the matter of the appointment of an overseer for the district was referred to the Road Committee.

Prince Edward.

Young Harvey, who committed suicide at Farmville Monday afternoon, was buried yesterday.

It is said that notwithstanding the cold weather following so mild a winter the fruit crop is not hurt.

Pine Blight in Virginia.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

SMITHFIELD, VA., March 25, 1890.

Many of the pine trees on the outskirts of woods exposed to the south have a scorched appearance as if exposed to a fire. It is thought to be due to the sap having risen very high and the trees having then been subjected to sudden freezes.

Released.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

RALEIGH, N. C., March 25.—The people of Raleigh, who had agreed to give a $35,000 building to Trinity College upon condition of its location here and who held an obligation by the college trustees that this should be the location, have released the trustees from that contract and now the last obstacle is removed to its location at Durham. It is expected that in sixty days work will be in progress there.

Bronson Howard has been warmly received in England. Mrs. Humphrey Ward has shown him a great deal of attention, and he has been invited to visit Andrew Lang, Hall Caine, and other noted British men of letters.

The air is full of matrimonial rumors concerning some of the most prominent young people of Onancock and vicinity. If all these rumors prove true the County-Court clerk and the preachers will have reason to rejoice as well as the young folks themselves.

PEANUT CROP OUTLOOK.

Crop of 1889-'90 the Smallest for Years—Large Planting Looked For—Other Crops.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

SMITHFIELD, VA., March 25, 1890.

As many as sixteen carts of peanuts were seen coming into town at once on Saturday. Your correspondent interviewed Messrs. Gwaltney & Bunkley this morning in regard to the peanut trade. They consider the crop of 1889-'90 the smallest for eight years past. The Virginia crop of 1889-'90 does not exceed a million and a quarter bushels—half a million less than that of 1888-'89. Not over 10 per cent. of the present crop is in the hands of the growers. There are not over 1,000 or 1,500 bags in the hands of the farmers in the counties contiguous to Smithfield. Their opinion is that the acreage for the coming crop will be exceedingly large. In the regular peanut-sections of Virginia there will be no material change, but in the trucking sections and on the Peninsula the acreage will be unusually large. North Carolina will plant two or three times as many peanuts as usual.

I was informed by the largest dealer in town that about 8,000 bushels of seed oats have been sold to the farmers in the country round about. This is something unprecedented in the business, being about double the amount usually sold. This is due to the scarcity of long feed in the country. Another interesting fact connected with this is the fact that 95 per cent. of these sales have been cash, whereas usually not over 60 or 75 per cent. is cash. This, the merchants say, is due to the Farmers' Alliance.

The sales of hay up to this time are a third larger than those of former years, and the outlook is that they will be unprecedented during the spring months.

The sales of corn double those of the past. These facts have been taken from the most reliable sources.

Truckers say that 50 or 60 per cent. of the strawberry crop is killed, but they think the prices will advance.

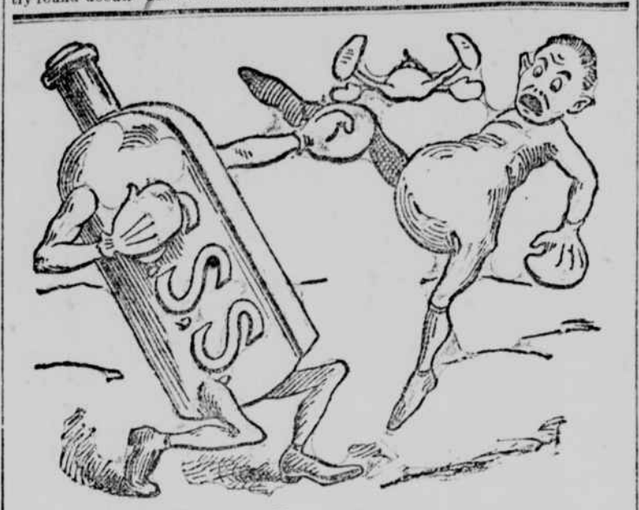
Death of a Well-Known Lady.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

FARMVILLE, VA., March 25, 1890.

Mrs. R. V. Budd, for some years a resident of Farmville, and relict of H. H. Budd, of Cumberland county, died yesterday evening, after a protracted illness. She leaves a large circle of friends, relatives, and children to sorrow over her death.

The funeral services took place this evening from her town residence, and the remains were laid to rest in the family burying-ground, several miles from here.



Knocked Out!

S.S.S. Has Never Failed to "Knock Out" Blood Poison, Scrofula, Blood Humors and Rheumatism from the System.

I AM NOW twenty-eight years old, and from the time I was seven years of age until 1885, I suffered with a severe case of scrofula. During that time I took every known remedy, but to no purpose. My father took me to North Carolina, where I was put under the treatment of an eminent physician. The medicines given me had only a temporary effect, for shortly after my return the scrofula broke out in a more malignant form, and I was worse off than ever before. In 1885 I discontinued taking all other medicines and commenced taking Swift's Specific (S.S.S.). I took a number of bottles and it cured me. I have been free from Scrofula from that time until now. T. A. SIZEMORE, Piedmont, S. C.

THE S.S.S. MARK

I have been using Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) for blood diseases, and in every instance with the best results. About twenty-five years ago I had my leg hurt in an accident, and the wound never entirely healed. I tried various remedies without success. I was finally induced to try S. S. S. The medicine healed it up—healed it after twenty-five years of suffering had been endured and much money had been thrown away in the purchase of worthless medicines. G. W. WELCH, Mobile, Ala.

GRAHAM, TAZEWELL COUNTY, VA.

THE GRAHAM LAND AND IMPROVEMENT COMPANY will offer for sale on THURSDAY, APRIL 10TH, at 10 o'clock, at the office of the company in Graham, TOWN LOTS, as shown on plan, now ready for distribution.

TERMS OF SALE: One third cash, one third in one year, one third in two years, with 6 per cent. interest per annum in the deferred payments.

Applications for lots at the Company's prices will be received up to noon on Tuesday, April 8, 1890. Parties making application by letter will be careful to designate the section and the number of the lot or lots desired.

Lots for which more than one application shall be received will be sold to the highest bidder at public auction on THURSDAY, APRIL 10, 1890, at 10 o'clock, at the office of the company in Graham.

After the public sale of lots above mentioned, the balance of the lots remaining unsold will be offered to the public at the prices fixed by the company, which range from $125 to $500 each, according to location.

The Graham Land and Improvement Company has purchased about 900 acres of land, including the old town of Graham, at the junction of the Clinch-Valley and Ohio extensions of the Norfolk and Western railroad, in Tazewell county, Va., and has improved the property by laying it out in streets and lots.

The land is so situated, being at the junction of two important branches of the Norfolk and Western railroad, with the Bluestone river running through it, and in close proximity to the Pocahontas coal-field, and the iron-ore deposits of the Clinch Valley, that it is believed that it will within a short period become an important iron-manufacturing centre, as well as a distributing point for the entire coal-field.

The Clinch-Valley and Ohio extensions of the Norfolk and Western railroad run through a section of country heavily covered with poplar and white- and chestnut-oak timber, and it is believed that Graham, at the junction of these two branches, is a most desirable location for the establishment of saw-mills, tanneries, pulp-mills, and other wood-working establishments.

The following desirable industries have already been secured:

The Graham Furnace Company, with a capital of $250,000, have under construction an iron furnace (dimensions 16 feet by 70 feet, and with a capacity of about 100 tons per day) and expect it to be in blast by November 1st.

The Virginia Lumber Company, with a capital of $50,000, are erecting their buildings and will be in operation by the 1st of May.

Arrangements are also being made with parties who propose building at once a large general supply store and warehouse, buildings to cost about $10,000 and having a working capital of not less than $50,000.

A company with a capital of $20,000 is also formed for the manufacture of ice and expect to be in operation in the course of a few months.

The Graham Land and Improvement Company have plans perfected for the erection of a fine hotel, which they hope to have ready for occupation by September 1st. The hotel will be heated by steam and lighted by electricity, and it is the aim of the company to make it one of the most attractive hotels in Virginia.

Parties desiring to purchase lots will be furnished with maps and price-lists and any desired information by addressing
