M'CLURE IN RALEIGH.

THE PHILADELPHIA EDITOR WARMLY WELCOMED BY GOV. HOLT.

He Adores in the Exposition Building—Some Plain Truths Told the Carolinians—What the Farmers Must Do.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

RALEIGH, N. C., October 21.—Colonel A. K. McClure arrived here this morning, and at 11 o'clock was escorted to the Capitol by a committee. With him are Mrs. McClure, Miss Margaret Tyson, Marie Louise Clineton, of Philadelphia, and Miss Ellen Lee, of Lexington, Va. Colonel McClure, escorted by the committee, called on Governor Holt in his executive office and was given a hearty reception. The reception committee with their respective ladies in fine carriages were driven all around the city and to the Capitol. The weather was very fine and the party were greatly enjoying their hosts.

At 12 o'clock Colonel McClure addressed a large crowd in the main building, the state officials being present.

The speaker began by saying that the State Agricultural Commissioner Jarvis, who was present at the Exposition Building, was one of its presiding officers years ago. In a few words to Colonel McClure, who was formerly years his voice was heard in Philadelphia together. It was more than any editor had done, the speaker said, to call the attention of the country to the work done, the resources and advantages of the South among us be known, and what he has seen, he would take back to his home and place North standard the South.

Colonel McClure, who was introduced by Governor Holt, and who was received with great applause, said the value of the visit was the great need of the South and the North. Only need of a little more kindness, the speaker said, the southern people need to be more willing to accept the northern people as welcome guests. He said he was glad to be among the people of the South, and he would be glad to see them. After the speaking there was a general reception.

[illegible] Colonel McClure will be no longer in the Exposition to consider the question to secure the location of the World's Fair, which was at the State Executive Mansion, where a number of resolutions were passed by the party expressing all possible hospitality to the distinguished visitor. He was escorted to the train by the Governor and staff and a large number of citizens, and left for Richmond at 8 o'clock this evening.

[illegible] Colonel McClure will be in Richmond next Sunday morning and will address the people in the Baptist church. He will be in Lynchburg on Monday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Danville on Tuesday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Greensboro, N. C., on Wednesday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Raleigh on Thursday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Richmond on Friday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Lynchburg on Saturday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Danville on Monday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Greensboro, N. C., on Tuesday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Raleigh on Wednesday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Richmond on Thursday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Lynchburg on Friday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Danville on Saturday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Greensboro, N. C., on Monday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Raleigh on Tuesday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Richmond on Wednesday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Lynchburg on Thursday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Danville on Friday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Greensboro, N. C., on Saturday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Raleigh on Monday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Richmond on Tuesday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Lynchburg on Wednesday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Danville on Thursday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Greensboro, N. C., on Friday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Raleigh on Saturday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Richmond on Monday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Lynchburg on Tuesday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Danville on Wednesday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Greensboro, N. C., on Thursday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Raleigh on Friday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon. He will be in Richmond on Saturday morning, and will address the people of that city in the afternoon