THE OYSTER SURVEY.

CAPTAIN BAYLOR GIVES INTERESTING FACTS AND FIGURES.

The Completed Returns of the Late Election—Scott's Majority—Other Capitol Matters.

The probable effect of the new oyster-law upon the State's revenues for the next year at least may now be closely estimated.

There is always a certain amount of friction when any new law first goes into effect, and this has its influence upon the revenue derived from it.

Although the new oyster-law has only been enforced during part of the fiscal year, and was not approved until February 25, 1892, the State has already realized from her oyster-revenues, under the new act, $32,764.98, while for the whole fiscal year of 1892 she only realized $15,186.04 from the same source.

All the State officials are greatly encouraged by this good showing.

Captain Baylor, the United States engineer detailed to survey our natural oyster-beds, under the act approved February 29, 1892, has his report to the Governor almost ready.

WILL RAPIDLY IMPROVE.

Captain Baylor believes that now that this survey is completed (with the exception of the natural oyster-beds of the Atlantic-coast side of Accomac and Northampton counties) the Virginia oyster-planting interests will rapidly improve as did those of Connecticut after the completion of the survey of her natural oyster-beds in 1882.

The natural oyster area of the State will contain, Captain Baylor says, about 100,200 acres.

This great area will be secured to the tongmen. The planter can now no longer move his stakes out on a natural oyster-rock without the fact being easily established that he has done so from the field notes of this survey, and without trial by judge and jury.

THE AREA FOR PLANTING.

A large oyster area still remains—at least 60,000 acres when Chesapeake Bay proper is included—which can now be safely rented by the planter without the slightest fear of his being dispossessed after an expenditure of labor, time, and money. This survey should settle all titles to rented grounds.

Captain Baylor, in his report, will strongly recommend, in order that there may be no question as to the finality of this survey, that the act under which it was executed should be amended so as to omit the words "provided if any natural rock, bed, or shoal is left out of these surveys they shall be subject to the general oyster-law of the State."

FAST STEAM LAUNCHES.

Captain Baylor thinks now that the State is deriving a larger revenue from her oyster interests it is due to those of her citizens who live in the oyster region that they should have adequate protection from both foreign and native oyster thieves. This can only be accomplished by the purchase of a number of fast and efficient steam launches, properly armed and equipped, of light draught, and thoroughly seaworthy. He has drawings of such launches, and says that they may be purchased for less than $5,000 apiece.

TWO POPULIST SENATORS.

The completed returns of the late election received by the Secretary of the Commonwealth show that there will be two Populists in the next Senate—Lewis T. Jennings, from the Sixth District, and R. W. Moss, from the Twenty-seventh District. Heretofore the Sixth District has been claimed for R. G. Howard (Democrat), but Jennings beat him by 145 majority.

In the House there will be eleven members of the opposition—ten Populists and one "Independent Democrat." The ten Populists are R. A. Hicks, from Caroline; J. M. Gregory and Carter H. Harrison, representing Manchester, Chesterfield, and Powhatan; S. T. Turner, representing Franklin and Patrick; P. P. Weaver, representing Greenesville and Sussex; H. C. Stump, from Lee; T. Y. Allen, from Mecklenburg; R. T. Vaughan, representing Nottoway and Amelia; Colin Stokes, from Prince Edward, and J. Howard Sayers, from Tazewell. The "Independent Democrat" is Mr. T. E. Buford, from Brunswick.

SOME SINGULAR CHANGES.

There are some curious conditions resulting from the reapportionment. The old Sixth District was composed of the counties of Carroll, Grayson and Floyd. The new Sixth is composed of Carroll, Grayson and Patrick, but at the election was to fill the unexpired term of Senator Hackler, deceased, it was held for the old district. The old Twenty-third District was composed of Patrick and Henry, and was represented in the last Legislature by Senator Peters. He was not a holdover senator, however, and the election was for his successor, and by the new district, composed of Pittsylvania, the city of Danville, and Henry. It thus appears that technically Patrick will not be represented in the Senate at all.

Another curious thing is that Senator Harrison, the holdover senator from the Twelfth District, does not now live in his district—that is, his home has been cut out of the Twelfth by the new apportionment. Other cases of a like character might be mentioned.

The total vote for Attorney-General was 218,558, or less than the vote of 1889 by 79,592. Scott's majority over Gravely was 60,627, and over Gravely and Kegley 43,931.

CAPITOL NOTES.

The Board of Chesapeake and its Tributaries will meet to-morrow to elect a successor to Captain Gaskins, commander of the Virginia oyster-navy schooner Pocomoke, resigned. There are two applicants for the place—J. W. Hemman and J. R. Thomas, both of Accomac county.

E. W. Millstead, sheriff of Warwick; C. D. Rector, deputy sheriff of Campbell; A. F. Withrow, delegate from Bath; Leroy Shields, of Norfolk, and Dr. James Brenough, of Manchester, visited the Capitol yesterday.

AN IMMORAL EXHIBITION.

Two Men Sent to a Jury for Conducting One On Broad Street—Other Cases.

On Monday night a show entitled "The World's Fair Museum of Anatomy" threw open its doors to the public at No. 714 east Broad street, and yesterday morning C. Steinberg, C. Skilken, John Werner, and John Robertson, who appeared to be in charge, were before Justice Crutchfield on the charge of unlawfully importing, printing, publishing, selling, and distributing casts, representations and descriptions manifestly tending to corrupt the morals of youth, and with having in their possession said moulds, casts, etc., for the aforesaid purpose.

Several witnesses testified as to the immorality of the exhibition, and Steinberg and Skilken were sent on to the grand jury, while Werner and Robertson were discharged, as they were only employes.

Charles Sykes, a boy charged with being a fugitive from justice from the Reformatory, was sent back to that institution.

Henry Coleman, a negro youth, went to jail for six months in default of security. He was up for stealing two pairs of trousers from John Steinbracker.

Isham Coleman (colored) paid $5 and costs for "scraping" the neck of Ed Moore with a razor.

L. Zepher, a 4-year-old child arrested for throwing a tin-can at an electric-car, was discharged.

Georgiana Hall was sent to the grand jury for the larceny of several articles from Julius Meyer & Sons.

Robert alias R. L. Carter and Alex alias Indian Willis were charged with stealing a cow valued at $30 from Jacob Keck. Carver waived examination and went to the grand jury, while Willis was discharged.

Joseph Bailey (colored) was fined $10 for striking Mahala Hickman.

CITY CIRCUIT COURT.

Fire-Insurance Company Chartered—Suits.

A charter was granted in the Circuit Court yesterday to the Provident Fire Insurance Company, the object of which is to insure property against loss by fire, lightning, and tornadoes.

The principal office is to be in Richmond, and the capital stock shall be not less than $50,000, nor more than $100,000.

The officers for the first year are Polk Miller, president and treasurer; Daniel L. Fry, vice-president; Charles H. Jordan, secretary; A. C. Haner, Chicago, general manager. Directors, the above and E. H. Clowes.

In the case of Edward S. Gentry against the city of Richmond, a special jury was ordered for to-morrow morning.

In the case of Joseph W. St. Clair's administrator against the Richmond Railway and Electric Company, a special jury was ordered for Wednesday next.

In the case of the following persons against the Commonwealth judgments were rendered in favor of the petitioners: W. W. Davies, Joseph Kirsh, M. Hessburg, and H. Block.

In the case of R. E. Bowles, by, etc., against the Richmond Railway and Electric Company, a verdict was rendered for the plaintiff for $1,250. Motion to set aside overruled and judgment given by the court on the verdict.

Asks About Her Brother Who Was Drowned.

Major John Poe, the Chief of Police, yesterday received a letter from Miss Ella M. Simpson, of Libertytown, Md., asking information relative to William M. Simpson, the man who was drowned here several weeks ago. In her letter she encloses a photograph of her brother, and also gives a description of the man, which leaves but little doubt that he and the deceased are the same.

Miss Simpson states that her brother was married, and that his wife and two children survive him. She says that for reasons unknown to his family he had led a wandering life for many months.

The communication appears to have been written by a lady of education, and it gave Major Poe great pain to write and inform Miss Simpson that he was compelled to remove the hopes entertained by the relatives of the dead man.

THE NEWS OF MANCHESTER.

A Couple Married in North Carolina—Briefs and Personals.

Mr. William S. Cournow and Miss Dora Baber went to Pelham, N. C., Monday night and were married on yesterday. The elopement created a ripple of excitement among the young couple's friends, as no one suspected anything of the kind. The young lady left her home Monday afternoon and told her parents she would spend the night with her aunt. Monday night a friend was told the secret, and yesterday morning he broke the news to the parents of the runaways. The bride is a pretty young girl, only 17 years old, and is the youngest daughter of Mr. D. B. Baber. The groom is a popular young man, and employed at the Danville shops.

The Hustings Court was busy all day yesterday and until late last night in the trial of criminal cases.

James Johnson (colored), charged with stealing a stick of wood valued at five cents, from the Richmond and Petersburg Railroad Company, was found guilty and fined $5.

Abner Baker, an old negro man caught stealing brass from the Richmond and Petersburg railroad, was sent to jail for six months.

Gus. Hains (colored) was sent to jail for fifteen days for stealing coal from the Richmond and Petersburg railroad.

Eddie Christian (colored), charged with stealing a dress from Carrie Finney, was discharged.

M. D. Tucker, charged with petit larceny, was dismissed.

Mr. Stratton Folks, whose illness has been noticed, was reported to be no better yesterday.

At a late hour last evening Mrs. C. S. Maurice was thought to be sinking rapidly, and her death was expected at almost any moment.

Mr. W. J. Proger has fitted up his office at the corner of Ninth and Hull streets with a number of benches, and says parties waiting for street-cars will be welcome to come in out of the weather.

There will be a church conference at Central Methodist church to-night.

It is said that the Richmond Standard Spike Company will work about 100 persons when the plant resumes operations week after next.

Mr. Willie Fischer, of Wilmington, Del., the son of Mr. Charles F. Fischer, of this city, will be married on Thursday, November 30th, to Miss Sallie A. Fountain, of that city.

Rosa Brown (colored) was before the Mayor's Court yesterday morning, charged with stealing a blanket from Mrs. Winslow. The accused was sent on to the Hustings Court.

The Fire Commissioners met Monday night in the Council Chamber. There was one addition added to the fire company.

Mr. A. T. Collier is quite sick at his home on Hull street, opposite West-End Methodist church.

Mr. J. William Jones and wife left yesterday afternoon for High Point, N. C., to visit relatives.

More Missionaries for China.

The Baptist Foreign Mission Board had quite an interesting meeting Monday afternoon. There was a full attendance and the members were all in good spirits over the Baptist outlook in the South. Rev. Mr. Bryan, a returned missionary to China, was present, and gave an interesting review of the work in the Flowery Kingdom. He said the great need was more missionaries, and urged the Board to set apart twenty more—ten single ladies and ten men—for work in that field during the coming year. The matter was referred to a committee and the Board will meet again Thursday. There is a strong disposition on the part of the members of the Board to comply with the suggestion of Mr. Bryan if they can see their way clear to raise the money.

Can Get the Ring.

The ring lost by a prominent Mason of this city several months ago will probably be restored to its owner in few days, as it was recovered from a man named Oscar Jackson, who was recently arrested in Washington. The prisoner is thought to be the man who broke into the window of Bachrach's pawn-shop some weeks ago and carried off several gold watches and other valuable articles of jewelry.

The police yesterday received the following telegram from Washington:

"Oscar Jackson just sentenced to six months in jail and fined $500, or eleven months additional. Send requisition in order to recover ring. Answer.

(Signed) "WILLIAM Y. MOORE."

The Horse Show.

Professor Bartholomew's exhibition of his four-legged friends is said to be both novel and interesting. The stage at the Academy will be filled with horses and ponies of all sizes and colors, and the intelligence with which they are possessed is almost human. The entertainment begins Thursday and continues the balance of the week at the Academy.

PASTOR LIPSCOMB TO LEAVE.

The Messrs. Perley's Precious Purchase—Foot-Ball Coming Games.

(Correspondence of the Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., November 21.—The Methodist preachers from this section left this afternoon for Danville to attend the conference. The Rev. B. F. Lipscomb has served the church in this city for four consecutive years, and of course will not return.

The Epworth League was organized during the pastorate of Mr. Lipscomb, and has done a great work. An eligible lot has been purchased and paid for, and by the efforts of the ladies $300 have been raised towards the erection of a mission chapel.

The Corporation Court is in session, Judge R. T. W. Duke presiding. The case of the Commonwealth vs. the Jefferson Park Hotel and Land Improvement Company was dismissed at the cost of the defendant.

Messrs. Perley & Sons, of this place, have purchased the funeral-car that received the highest award for beauty and design and superb workmanship at the World's Fair. It is for children, and is one of the finest in the State. It arrived this afternoon.

A marriage license was issued by the Clerk of the County Court yesterday to Mr. Eugene Marshall and Miss Lillie E. Wood.

The manager of the University foot-ball team has arranged for another game with the Annapolis team, to be played Wednesday.

Bets are made at the University of two to one that the home team wins from the Virginia Military Institute, and even money that the latter does not score. The game will be played Saturday.

Ben Brown's Painful Accident.

(Correspondence of the Dispatch.)

OAK PARK, VA., November 21.—Benjamin Brown, son of J. J. Brown, near Oak Park, was driving a colt on Sunday, when it took fright and ran away, throwing the young man against a tree. His head was very badly cut and he sustained other injuries. Dr. H. W. Gordon, attending physician, is hopeful of his recovery.

O SAY, can you see by the candle's dim light,
