SPIDERS WIN EASILY.

THE COLLEGE BOYS DEFEAT THE LEHIGH SPRINTERS 14 TO 7.

Anthony Pitches a Good Game and Is Well Supported—Yale Versus the 'Varsities To-Day.

The weather which had been threatening all during the morning of yesterday, cleared off beautifully in the afternoon, and at 4 o'clock, when Umpire Frank Bass called the game between the Richmond College Spiders and the Lehigh (Pa.) University team, old Sol, in all of his glory, beamed down upon the grounds. In fact, it was perfect base-ball weather, being Good Friday, probably deterred many who would otherwise have done so, from witnessing the game.

The Richmond boys played good ball throughout the game, but not so with the Pennsylvanians. They went to pieces right from the time the contest opened until in the ninth inning, when they braced somewhat, and made a feeble rally. It availed them nothing, however, as the odds the fight had been practically won by the Spiders.

Lehigh was first put in the box by Lehigh, but his work was very poor, and he was succeeded in the last part of the game by Jackson. Great things were expected of the new pitcher, but did not materialize, and in the ninth round he was succeeded by McClung, who had up to that time been in the bat. Burley was put in to catch, and together they formed rather a weak battery. McClung's delivery is good, but he throws a hard ball. He makes no attempt whatever at curves. Better change was successful in stopping the numerous runs that were scored by the Spiders, and for the preceding two innings they did good work in the box for Lehigh, and held the visitors down to a few runs. At times the game dragged, but on the whole it was rather interesting.

OUR BOYS LEAD OFF.

The home boys took the bat on the first inning. Phillips made a base-hit, Duke was struck by a ball and took first-base. Crenshaw Phillips to second. Nelson was given his base on balls, and Phillips scored. Harrison struck out. With three men on bases, Acree got on a error, and forced in Phillips's run, by an error on the part of the first-baseman. Duke, closely followed by Nelson, crossed the home plate. Acree was loudly cheered. Burnett hit a fly to Lukens, which was dropped "collared" by him. Turner was given a wild ball, and went limping to first, where he died. Anthony striking a fly to McClung.

The boys from the Keystone State then came to the bat. Wallace knocked to Anthony and was caught at first. Woodcock struck by the ball, and went to first. Bray was hit very promptly. Bray made a base-hit, and Woodcock ran home, being left on the plate by Johnson. Petrikin was given his base on balls, and followed Bray into home on a passed ball. Thompson put the side out by a fly to Burnett, which was captured by Burnett.

SECOND INNING.

Johnson was hit by the ball, and given first. Phillips then made a base-hit, and Johnson went to second. Duke, on an error of Johnson's, got to first, Johnson scored, and Phillips went to second. Nelson made a three-bagger, bringing Phillips and Duke home. He attempted to follow them, but was killed on the plate by a good throw of Bray's to McClung. Harrison went out at first, and Acree made a base-hit, but shared the same fate at third.

Lukens went to the bat for Lehigh, and was caught out on a fly by Duke. McClung succeeded in reaching third-base, but died there, Johnson struck to third, and was thrown out at first.

THIRD INNING.

Turner made a base-hit, and reached second on an error by Thompson. Anthony struck to second, and was thrown out at first. Johnson made a base-hit, and was forced out at second by Phillips, who attempted a sacrifice-hit. Duke went out on a fly to Thompson.

Jackson, of Lehigh, went to first on a base-hit. Wallace made a sacrifice, and sent Jackson to third, where he died on third. Phillips put a beautiful fly right into the hands of Harrison, who dropped it, letting the batter big base. Woodcock hit a fly to second, and died there. Bray went out on a fly to second, and Petrikin was thrown out at first.

FOURTH INNING.

Nelson made a base-hit, and was forced out by Harrison, who went out on a throw from third to first. Nelson stole second and Acree knocked a fly to Woodcock, who fails to catch it. Acree went to third, and Nelson scored. Burnett made a hit, but went out in an attempt to steal second. Turner struck out, and Acree died on third.

Thompson, of Lehigh, went out at first, Burnett to Duke, who fumbled it. Johnson scored. McClung hit safe, and scored by record. He was caught between bases and was kept dodging from Lukens, while this was being attempted to reach third, but was thrown out by Nelson, and McClung scored. Johnson made a hit in the direction of first, and was put out by Duke, who made a pretty stop.

FUN IN THE FIFTH.

Lehigh was thrown out at first, Johnson to Hill, and was forced to second by Burley, who also struck safe. Johnson succeeded in stealing third, but was left there. Duke made a hit, going to first. Phillips to second. Then came the fun of the day. Nelson sent the ball to the extreme right-field, and reached home, while Phillips and Duke trotted in. Harrison went out at first, and Acree made a base-hit, but shared the same fate at third.

Lukens went to the bat for Lehigh, and was caught out on a fly by Duke. McClung succeeded in reaching third-base, but died there. Johnson struck to third, and was thrown out at first.

SIXTH INNING.

Burnett made a base-hit, and stole second. Turner was given his base on balls, and Burnett scored. Anthony struck out, and Turner
