THE SOUTH'S HEROES.

DR. YOUNG'S TRIBUTE TO THEM BEFORE HOLLYWOOD ASSOCIATION.

Brief Talk By the Governor—A Large Crowd Attends the Anniversary Ceremonies.

The twenty-eighth anniversary of the Hollywood Memorial Association was celebrated last night at the Young Men's Christian Association Hall. The hall was adorned with beautiful displays of palms and cut flowers, the former kindly provided by Harvey and the latter the generous gift of Mr. Hammond. One half of the hall was occupied by the lady members of the association and the other by the veterans from Lee Camp and visitors. Mayor J. Taylor Ellyson presided over the meeting, and on the rostrum were Governor O'Ferrall, Colonel John B. Cary, Judge E. C. Minor, Mr. Joseph Bryan, and others.

The exercises were opened by the reading of the annual report by Mayor Ellyson. The report, after paying tributes to the memory of Confederate heroes, dwelt principally on the funds of the association, and extended invitations to all to join the association and help on the work so nobly started. Mr. Ellyson, upon the conclusion of the report, introduced Captain Frank W. Cunningham, who with the assistance of the Imperial Quartette, sang very effectively several selections of bygone days.

THE GOVERNOR TALKS.

Governor O'Ferrall being then introduced, delivered a short address. He referred in ornate words to the late war and to the changes that had come about since then. "Though times have changed," said he, "and the young man of then has passed into middle age, I thank God that the southern man is as true to-day as he was in those dark days, and that he has never fawned at the feet of power, nor kissed the rod that smote him." After dwelling at some length on the desolation which pervaded throughout the South after the war, the speaker again returned to the unbroken will of the Confederacy. Speaking directly to the members of Lee Camp, he referred in beautiful language to the glory of their lives, and to the fact that their ranks were yearly thinning. In closing, the Governor in eloquent words pictured the character of the great chieftain—Robert E. Lee—and said, "there is no title which I would rather possess than that of a Confederate soldier."

DR. YOUNG'S ADDRESS.

The Governor then introduced Rev. Dr. W. J. Young, who delivered the address of the evening. The latter apologized for not being able to refer to the old soldier as "comrade," saying that he was only about three years of age when the war started. The perpetuation of the ideas for which the war was fought and the memory of the Confederate soldier was advocated in strong and eloquent language. Dr. Young said the truths for which the Confederate soldier fought were old enough to withstand any attacks that might be made upon them. The new South and the old South were discussed, and the speaker said if the so-called word "New South" was contra-distinguished to the Old South, he repudiated it. The new South, he said, was made up of all of the best of the old South. He referred to the text-books in use in the schools, which were compiled in the North, and were calculated to bias the minds of the young of the South and make them believe that the act of their fathers was wrong, and would cause some of them to even go so far as to apologize for the great and memorable struggle. In this connection he told several amusing and appropriate stories.

In concluding his most able address the speaker advocated a brotherly unity between the two sections—the North and the South—and said he hoped that at some day he should see a monument erected, on either side of which should appear the names of Lee and Grant. The private soldiers of the Confederacy he characterized as a mighty power greater even than the boats of Greece and Rome.

The exercises concluded with Dr. Young's address, but the audience lingered for some time and a general handshaking was indulged in.

The Association's Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Hollywood Association was held in the Young Men's Christian Association Hall at noon yesterday. The attendance was quite large, in the absence of Mrs. Joseph Bryan, the president, Mrs. M. S. Branch filled the chair. Reports were made by all the standing committees, and the information presented was quite satisfactory. All the officers were re-elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. Bryan is president, Mrs. Maxwell T. Clark, treasurer; Mrs. E. C. Minor, corresponding secretary, and Miss Mary Crenshaw, recording secretary.

Messrs. P. C. Richardson and J. Taylor Ellyson, of the Confederate Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument Association, were present to inform the ladies that their organization would conform to the preferences of the Hollywood Association with regard to the time for the unveiling of the Libby-Hill statue. It has been decided that the Hollywood ceremonies shall be very simple, and that no general invitation to them shall be issued. They will take place in the cemetery at 10 o'clock.

The ladies will attend the unveiling, which will occur in the afternoon of the same day, in a body.

Mrs. Bryan will call the ladies together in a few days, as soon as her health will permit, for the purpose of making complete arrangements for Memorial-Day.

Oakwood Memorial.

There will be a meeting of the Oakwood Memorial Association this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the lecture-room of Third Presbyterian church. As this is the last meeting before Memorial-Day (May 10th) business of importance will be transacted.

Rev. Dr. James Y. Fair, of the Grace-Street Presbyterian church, will deliver the address this year, having very kindly consented to take the place of Governor O'Ferrall, who will attend the unveiling in Fredericksburg that day.

IN THE NEW CITY HALL.

The Electric Plant Problem—Committee Meetings, Court News, Etc.

A regular meeting of the Council Committee on Light was held in the new City Hall last night. Superintendent Adams's report was read and filed. It showed that during the month of April 16,022,000 cubic feet of gas were made, against 18,275,800 cubic feet during the corresponding month last year. During the same period 16,009,000 cubic feet of gas were consumed, against 18,276,400 cubic feet in April, 1893. The receipts for coke during the past month were $113.19. From the water-gas plant 11,000,000 cubic feet of gas were realized during the month. The cost of the manufacture of water-gas was 29 cents per 1,000 cubic feet in the holder.

The resolution from the Council requesting an estimate of the cost of a complete electric-light plant was referred to a sub-committee consisting of Messrs. Davis and Hardwicke and Superintendent Adams.

It was decided to run gas-mains on Church-Hill avenue between Twenty-first and Twenty-second, on Twenty-third street between Broad and Marshall streets, and on Dance street beginning on Reservoir street and running west about 220 feet.

A petition was received from Mrs. George A. Lyons, on behalf of the Woman's Christian Association, asking that the bill be remitted for the gas used by the ladies in the two stores on Main street, opposite to the tabernacle, during the Moody meetings. The committee decided to recommend to the Council that the request be granted.

The Committee on Claims and Salaries met yesterday evening and transacted the usual routine business.

In the City Circuit Court yesterday Elisabeth B. Plass and Herman Plass instituted suit against the Virginia Fire and Marine Insurance Company for $1,500, with interest from November 5, 1893. The other courts did nothing of public interest yesterday. The rooms for the Law and Equity Court will probably be gotten in readiness by the beginning of the next term of that tribunal.

THE RICHMOND INDUSTRIAL HOME.

Organization Effected and Steps Taken to Organize One.

Richmond is to have an industrial home for the unfortunate and deserving poor who desire work and promise reformation.

A meeting of persons interested in the establishment of such an institution was held at the Young Men's Christian Association Hall Wednesday night, and the "Industrial Home of Richmond" was formally organized.

Mr. Joseph H. Shepherd presided and Mr. C. H. Smith acted as secretary. Messrs. Joseph B. Montgomery, John J. Crutchfield, Julius A. Hobson, Joseph H. Shepherd, Charles H. Smith, P. R. Nugent, John F. Mayer, G. M. Rawson, and D. S. Morrison were chosen to constitute the Board of Directors. The following officers were elected: J. B. Montgomery, president; John F. Mayer, vice-president; Charles H. Smith, secretary; William H. Cullingworth, treasurer, and I. M. Blood, superintendent.

The superintendent and president were requested to select a suitable place for the home, and it is expected that they will report at another meeting, to be held at the Young Men's Christian Association Hall, next Monday night. It is understood that negotiations are pending looking to the location of the home on west Broad street, where the Pindi Hospital formerly was. This place is admirably suited for such an institution.

THE JUSTICE AND THE SINNERS.

A Trespasser Gets Off Lightly—Four More Cases Against Smith.

What Justice Crutchfield's court lacks in amusement and entertainment one day it makes up another. The session of yesterday was one full of interest and held the close attention of the large audience for three hours. One of the first cases called was that of Henry Williams, a white man charged with being drunk and trespassing on the premises of Mrs. Marshall. It was alleged that Williams walked into the house of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall just at supper-time on Wednesday evening, seated himself at the table, and proceeded to devour the evening meal regardless of the protestations of Mr. Marshall.

Williams testified that the Marshalls owed him money, and that that was the reason he went into their house and ate his supper. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall did not appear against the accused, and he was simply fined $3 and costs. As Williams did not have the cash with him to pay his fine he pawned his watch with a gentleman in the court-room.

Sam Smith, the negro burglar, was again on hand. This time he came in to answer to four warrants, and was sent to the grand jury in each case. The charges on which he goes up are as follows: Feloniously breaking and entering in the night-time the house of Mrs. Johana Jenkins and stealing a coat, one pair of shoes, a satchel, and a pair of gold eyeglasses; feloniously breaking and entering in the night-time the house of C. A. Harley and stealing six silver-plated teaspoons, one silver mug, one sugar-spoon, walking-cane, &c.; feloniously breaking and entering in the night-time the house of Mrs. W. C. Mayo and stealing a guitar, a crucifix, and a copy of Goldsmith's poems, all of the value of $48; feloniously breaking and entering in the night-time the house of W. E. Chapin and stealing a silver-plated card-receiver and cover, of the value of $30. The robbery of the residences of Mrs. Jenkins and Mr. Harley occurred on April 26th, and that of the dwelling-house of Mrs. Mayo took place four nights later.

During the proceedings a negro giving his name as Richard Dickerson walked over to the "pen" and held a conference with Smith, the burglar. Dickerson was seen to tear up a note of some kind, and Sergeant Alex. Tomlinson preferred the charge of being a suspicious character against him. He was sent to jail in default of security for ninety days.

John Hill (colored) was charged with the felonious betrayal of Martina Henderson, under the promise of marriage. Martha is about 18 years of age, and is the mother of thirteen children. There was no testimony to show that any engagement ever existed between her and John, and the case was dismissed.

The Texas Engine.

Referring yesterday to the report that the engines of the battle-ship Texas, which were built by the Richmond Locomotive-Works, were faulty, Mr. Davis, manager of the works, said the report had no other foundation than that the boil-plate of one of the auxiliary engines had cracked.

These auxiliary engines are small affairs which are entirely independent of the main engines, and the boil on which they rest cracked because of a fault in the support, for which the Locomotive-Works were not responsible. This happened twice, and the last time the Locomotive-Works thought the government should repair the damage. The matter will be amicably adjusted, and is of no consequence. So far as the main engines are concerned, they are all right.

To Establish a Cot for Incurables.

Messrs. Sam Bigger & Holland's Columbian Minstrels will give a performance at Belvidere Hall to-night under the auspices of the Floral Mission, for the purpose of establishing a cot for incurables at the Retreat for the Sick. This will be the first appearance in Richmond of this organization, which consists of a fine first part, songs, dances, contortionist, club-swinging by Richmond's champion, acrobatic exhibitions, and baton exercises. Excellent music will be rendered by the Oriole Mandolin Club under the leadership of Mr. H. Greener. The Imperial Quartette will be on hand. The performance includes many specialties.

The Rileys at the Academy.

"Queena," a charming idyllic drama, proved the motive cause for a delightfully artistic performance by the Riley Dramatic Company, at the Academy last night. It is admitted by those whose experience warrants the assertion, that never has so strong a company been seen in Richmond at popular prices. They are all well-dressed, handsome, and clever, and their work is smooth and well-balanced.

"Damon and Pythias" will be presented to-night under the patronage of local lodges of Knights of Pythias.

Arrested for Slashing Maria.

Salon alias Merriweather Berkeley, the negro who Wednesday night cut Maria Walker on the throat and made his escape to Henrico county, was captured yesterday morning by a negro man named Silas Brown about a mile beyond the corporate limits and turned over to the police. He was locked up in the First Police-Station. The woman who was cut is not seriously hurt, and will be able to appear in court shortly.

Corner-Stone-Laying To-Day.

Ashland Lodge and King William Lodge will unite in laying the corner-stone of St. Paul's church, Hanover Courthouse, this afternoon. Major Pratt-ross, as D. D. G. M., will preside, and Rev. Dr. Carmichael, of this city, will deliver the address. Masons from Richmond will be welcome. The train leaves this city at 2 o'clock, and Richmond people can return at 7:45 P. M.

Contest at Richmond College.

To-night the best debaters' contest comes off at the college, in Philologian Society Hall. The question as to whether "the right of suffrage should be granted to woman" will be debated affirmatively by Messrs. J. B. Childress, R. H. White, W. Layman, and negatively by Messrs. Sadler and M. J. Hoover. The public are invited to attend.

Table of Company B.

There was a meeting in the office of Captain Frank W. Cunningham yesterday afternoon of the ladies who are to have charge of the table of Company B during the regimental bazaar. The details of the management of the table were discussed informally, and many suggestions were made and considered, and a number of minor matters agreed upon.

HOW IT SHOULD FACE

QUESTION RAISED WITH REFERENCE TO THE LIBBY-HILL STATUE.

Colonel Cutshaw Thinks It Should Look Down the River and Mr. Shepperd Up Main Street—Other Matters.

The Executive Committee of the Confederate Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument Association met in the Chamber of Commerce Building yesterday afternoon, and was in session several hours.

Colonel Cutshaw appeared before the committee and stated that, much to his surprise, he had learned that it was intended to face the statue towards Main street. He contended that this was opposed to sentiment, and, as he conceived it, to the general idea of the composition. It ought to face down the river. He thought it a matter of sufficient importance to bring to the attention of the committee, if not to that of the association.

THE ARTIST'S IDEA.

Mr. Shepperd, who made the design for the statue, said it had been constructed with a view to its facing Main street. He understood that to be the sense of the Committee on Design. There would have been something in the contention that it should face towards the supposed position of the enemy if the design with the hand up to the brim of the cap had not been abandoned. By facing it towards Main street the best view of it could be gotten from the greatest number of approaches.

Mr. Randolph raised the point that the question of the position of the statue was one with which the Executive Committee had nothing to do. He was sustained in this, and the matter was laid on the table, with the understanding that the president of the association would call a meeting of the association for Monday afternoon at 6 o'clock to decide it.

BROUGHT WITHOUT CHARGE.

The president reported that the Pennsylvania and the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac roads had transported the statue to Richmond free of cost, and resolutions thanking these companies were adopted.

It was decided that the statue would be drawn by hand from the depot to Libby Hill Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

It was also decided that the committee would furnish carriages on the day of the unveiling for the ladies who conducted the memorial bazaar.

Miss Palmer's Recital To-Day.

Miss Clara Bell Palmer, the accomplished young pianiste who received so much attention at the World's Fair, will give the first of her recitals at the Young Men's Christian Association Hall this afternoon at 5 o'clock. Miss Lawson, who has won popularity here, will sing several numbers.

makes an exciting time. We are also causing a big excitement in Richmond by our sale of Boys' Clothing. Buyers are delighted and our competitors are disgusted. Low prices are the panacea for dull trade. We prefer Quickstep to Slowgo, and close margins on many sales to large profits on a few. Profits come from turning money over; stock doesn't grow more valuable by getting shopworn. We've bought our Boys' Suits not to keep ourselves, but for buyers, and for that reason we have marked prices down to buyers' figures. We're not waiting for trade to turn up but are determined to turn it up by selling

Travelling salesmen are noted for keen observation. One of them, representing one of the largest concerns in New York, while in our store waiting to take an order, remarked that "ROTHERT'S was the liveliest place he had seen south of the Potomac," and it seemed to him to be "the resort of the purchasing public of Richmond for HOUSEFURNISHING GOODS."

Matrons of many years' experience in housekeeping were selecting what particular thing or things needed to take the place of those worn out, while young housekeepers were adding to their yet incomplete housefurnishings; young ladies on the verge of matrimony were selecting CHAMBER SUITS, CARPETS, COOK-STOVES, &c., and getting estimates to take to their intended husbands that they might know just what he will have to put aside each week or month—the payments which ROTHERT & CO.'S liberal terms allow. A far-seeing young man, whose sweetheart has named the happy day in the near future, was making purchases from a list which the two had conjointly made. He will make a small first pay on these articles, and by smoking less cigars and ceasing to go around with the boys will save each week more than enough to meet the small payments required by ROTHERT & CO., and by the time the marriage takes place most, if not all, of the necessary articles to furnish a suite of cozy rooms for light housekeeping will be paid for. Young married ladies who have been boarding with mothers for awhile and have determined to go housekeeping for themselves are there with happy faces, and blessed terms to furnish their new homes. There are few houses in the world where seller and customer meet each other with such confidence and good will. The ever-complete stock of FINE AND MEDIUM CHAMBER, PARLOR, AND DINING-ROOM FURNITURE, CARPETS, DRUGGETS, MATTINGS, RUGS, COOKING- AND HEATING-STOVES, REFRIGERATORS, ICE-BOXES, FANCY AND PLAIN CHAIRS, BEDDING, CHINA DINNER, TEA, AND TOILET SETS, CLOCKS, SIDEBOARDS, MIRRORS, SILVER TABLEWARE, and everything else for furnishing a house awaits your coming. CHICKENS AND EGGS, AND HOW TO GET THEM.

Use Polk Miller's "Victory" Poultry Food.

IT ADDS GREATLY TO THE FOWLS LAYING, and I have never seen a case of Gapes in young chickens when it was used. Now I would as soon do without salt in my food as to undertake to raise fowls without Polk Miller's Chicken Food. WILLIS W. HOBSON, Powhatan county, Va.

We buy it by the dozen boxes, and when my wife has a sick fowl or any kind "we make for these powders, and that is the last of it." It is an infallible remedy with us. WM. A. WILLROY, King William county, Va.

I have used one box, and found it very beneficial to young fowls. Have not lost any with Gapes since I commenced its use. Miss N. LIB DUGGS, Mathews C. H., Va.

It is a sure preventive of Gapes, and we consider it indispensable in our future efforts at "poultry raising." MRS. L. H. GRAYBILL, Arch Mill, Botetourt county, Va.

It stopped cholera entirely among my fowls. MRS. J. K. HANNAH, Pamplin's, Va.

We have a thousand certificates like the above. Sold by Druggists and Country Stores. Price, 25 cents. Dealers can get it from all the wholesale houses in Richmond, and from JAMES BAILEY & SON, our Baltimore agents. Special mailing packages in tin, holding more, for 35 cents in stamps. SPRING AND SUMMER CLOTHING.

HASKELL & HATTON, GENERAL HOME FURNISHERS, INSTALMENT CLOTHIERS.

The patronage of our CLOTHING DEPARTMENT has been so great that we were compelled to make a second trip into the northern markets. We struck it right. The wholesale merchants were anxious to sell and we bought goods at our own price. We will give the benefit of our purchase to our customers. Our instalment prices are now cheaper than cash prices of many other houses.
