THE DETROIT SAILS.

SHE CARRIES BACK THE VATICAN AND SPANISH RELICS.

Proceeds Then to China as Rapidly as Possible—Dr. Snead a Strong Candidate—Police Protection.

NORFOLK, VA., October 15.—(Special.) The United States steamer Detroit having finished repairs and refitting, sailed from the navy-yard yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock for Cadiz, touching at Newport for torpedoes. The Detroit carries the Vatican and Spanish Columbian relics home, and then proceeds to China as rapidly as possible.

Dr. George T. Snead, the Democratic nominee for the State Senate, is a practicing physician, and one of the best-known and most popular physicians of Princess Anne county. In the Democratic ranks he is regarded as a strong candidate in both city and county, and will doubtless be elected by a handsome majority.

There was a fire in South Norfolk this morning, damaging a building belonging to Mr. Alvah H. Martin.

A RECORD.

There are now sixty prisoners in the jail of Norfolk county. Is there another county in the State that can beat this?

The Court of Inquiry in Pay-Clerk Sayre's defalcation case convenes at the navy-yard to-morrow.

PROTECTED HOUSE.

Now retiring Chief-of-Police Iredell comes in print and charges that the Police Commissioners interfered with him in his efforts to suppress disreputable houses. While the police orders forbid piano-playing in such houses, Commissioner Verdier, the Chief says, requested that the music and mirth of a certain notorious house on Smith street be not interfered with. Verdier is the boss commissioner.

The Virginia State champion bicycle races, postponed from last month, come off at Port Norfolk on the 18th instant. A number of riders from a distance will take part.

NOBLE CONFEDERATE WOMAN.

A Monument to Be Erected to the Memory of Mrs. Lucy Ann Cox.

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., October 15. (Special.)—Frank Cunningham, Richmond's sweet singer, is here to-night, to lend his voice in behalf of a most worthy object—an entertainment to raise funds for the purpose of erecting a monument to Mrs. Lucy Ann Cox. This lady, at the commencement of the war, surrendered all the comfort of her father's home and followed the fortunes of her husband, who was a member of Company A, Thirtieth Virginia Regiment, until the Confederacy's flag was furled at Appomattox. No march was too long or weather too inclement to deter this patriotic woman from doing what she considered to be her duty. She was with her company and regiment on their two forays into Maryland, and her ministering hand carried comfort to many a wounded and tired soldier. While Company A was the object of her untiring solicitude, no Confederate ever asked assistance from Mrs. Cox but it was cheerfully granted.

She marched as the infantry did, seldom taking advantage of offered rides in ambulances and wagon trains. When Mrs. Cox died a few years ago it was her latest expressed wish that she be buried with military honors, and so far as it was possible her wish was carried out. Her funeral took place on a bright autumn Sunday, and the entire town turned out to do honor to this noble woman.

The camps that have undertaken the erection of this monument indeed honor themselves in thus commemorating the virtues and heroic deeds of Lucy Ann Cox.

MR. GEORGE WEAVER DEAD.

Another Delegation of Emporians at the Exposition—Other Notes.

EMPORIA, VA., October 15.—(Special.) Mr. George J. Weaver, a popular and worthy young man, died this morning at the Weaver Hotel, from an attack of gastric-fever. Mr. Weaver was the oldest son of the Hon. Peter F. Weaver, member of the House of Delegates from this county. He was a prominent business-man, and will be much missed.

Hon. B. A. Hancock returned to Brunswick to-day to resume the session of his court.

Another delegation of Emporians left to-day for the Exposition.

The fall term of the Circuit Court meets here next Monday. There are several cases of interest on the docket. At this term Judge Hancock will decide whether or not he will grant P. R. Farley, convicted of arson a few months since, a new trial.

The political cauldron is bubbling considerably.

DEATH OF MR. JAMES ELLIOTT.

Sale of the Farmville Journal to Mr. A. D. Watkins for $230.

FARMVILLE, VA., October 15.—(Special.)—Mr. James A. Elliott, an aged citizen, dropped dead yesterday afternoon at his home, near Darlington Heights, in Prince Edward county. The deceased was a very prosperous man, and a most prominent and highly-thought-of citizen. He was the father of Mrs. H. E. Wall, of Farmville, who received the sad intelligence this afternoon, and left immediately for the old homestead.

The Farmville Journal, a newspaper edited and published by Mr. Junius L. Wilson, was sold to-day at public auction. It was knocked out to A. D. Watkins for $230. The Journal plant originally cost $1,200.

Evangelist J. E. Schoolfield will commence a series of meetings here next Wednesday at 11 o'clock.

DEATH OF MR. WILLIAM F. HART.

Grand-Army Men of the Nutmeg State Impressed With Richmond.

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., October 15.—(Special.)—Mr. William F. Hart, of Sherwood Forest, whose illness has been told in these dispatches, died at his home there at a late hour Saturday night. Mr. Hart leaves a widow and several children. He came to this neighborhood from Westmoreland after the war and bought Sherwood Forest, which had long been the home of Henry Fitzhugh, one of the most practical farmers Virginia has ever known.

A crowd of Grand-Army men from Connecticut have been here several days. After the visiting of the battle-fields many of the party made a flying trip to Richmond, and came back fully impressed with the growth of Virginia's capital.

ANOTHER BRAKEMAN KILLED.

Fell from His Train, Which Went Twelve Miles Before He Was Missed.

MILLBORO' DEPOT, BATH COUNTY, VA., October 15.—(Special.)—H. A. Burnett, a brakeman on the Chesapeake and Ohio railway, was killed yesterday evening about 6 o'clock four miles east of here. No one knows exactly how he managed to fall beneath the cars, and the crew of his train did not miss him until they had gone a distance of twelve miles. Another train found the body on the track and picked him up. His head was cut open just above the eyes and one foot was cut off. The body was taken to Clifton Forge and prepared for burial. Mr. Burnett had been in the service of the company for a long time, and was considered an exceptionally careful brakeman.

A. C. Agnor, who has been very ill for several weeks, improves very slowly, hardly any change for the better.

TRIAL OF THE BURNETT ROBBERS.

Poll of the Prisoners in Floyd County Jail, Republicans 19, Democrats 3.

FLOYD, VA., October 15.—(Special.)—The trial of the Burnett robbers—Lundy, Odell, and Cox—has been fixed for to-morrow, the 16th instant. When the case was called last Wednesday none of the parties were ready on account of the absence of witnesses. The Court directed them to have their witnesses summoned to next Tuesday. A speedy trial will be had, if possible. The jail is being guarded every night. Besides the robbers there are a great many prisoners in jail, the most of them sent here from the United States Court for violating the internal-revenue laws.

A political poll of the prisoners was taken a few days since. The result showed 3 Democrats and 19 Republicans. If all these prisoners are held until after the election the usual Republican majority in Floyd is likely to be varied. Lundy, the robber, said he was born a Republican, and was rocked in a Republican cradle, and that he had done a great deal of work for the party, but added: "I think my political career is drawing to a close."

Ephriam Hall, who was shot at the Duncan church, and is lying with a bullet in his brain, appears to be improving, to the surprise of every one. His father has offered $100 reward for the arrest and conviction of the man who shot him. A pistol was found near the place of shooting, which may lead to the discovery of the guilty party.

IN HIGH HEBREW SOCIETY.

Two Brilliant Weddings to Take Place in the Cockade City.

PETERSBURG, VA., October 15.—(Special.)—Miss R. D. Mayer, of Bradford, Pa., is visiting this city as the guest of Mrs. Myer Saal.

Mr. Sol. Myer, of Oil City, Pa., is visiting Mr. Morris Myers.

In this connection it may be stated that within the next several days two brilliant weddings in high Hebrew society in this city will take place.

It may, with truth, be said that, with the exception of the few, the income-tax provision of the new tariff law is popular in this community.

The indications are that the exportations of manufactured tobacco from this port during the present month will be unusually large. Petersburg is the largest export tobacco port in the country; and while it falls behind Richmond in the matter of domestic (or tax-paid) tobacco, it largely exceeds it in the export trade.

STATE COUNCIL J. O. U. A. M.

Tenth Annual Session—Judge Duke's Polished Address—Flag Hoisted.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., October 15. (Special.)—The State Council Junior Order United American Mechanics convened here this afternoon in its tenth annual session. About 100 delegates are in attendance. This evening at the Levy Opera-House a public reception was held. The address of welcome was delivered by Mayor John S. Patton. Grand-Councillor W. E. Orange responded on behalf of the State body. Judge R. T. W. Duke, Jr., was the orator of the occasion, delivering a highly-polished address. To-morrow at 9 o'clock an immense United States flag will be hoisted to the top of a ninety-foot pole in the Midway public school lot. In the evening a banquet will be tendered the State Council. Covers will be laid for about 300.

MURDERED FOR $75.

William Richards Found Dead With Bullet Holes in His Body.

BRISTOL, TENN., October 14.—(Special.)—Will Richards, aged 35 years, a man of family, was found dead near Bluff City, Tenn., this morning with bullet holes in his body. It is suspected that he was murdered by James Arrants, a young man who recently forged several large checks on J. L. Crumpley, a merchant at this place. Arrants was placed under arrest to-day. It is claimed that Richards was murdered for $75, which he had on his person, and which was missing when his body was found.

Death of Mr. Charles C. Price.

LYNCHBURG, VA., October 15.—(Special.)—Mr. Charles C. Price, son of ex-Commissioner-of-Revenue Charles W. Price, died this morning, after a brief illness with typhoid-fever; aged 29 years.

An Afflicted Family.

OAK TREE, VA., October 15.—(Special.) After a brief illness Elizabeth Dean Ewan, daughter of B. H. Ewan, in the 11th year of her age, went home to mother and Heaven. The funeral took place on the 14th instant at York-River church, Rev. W. A. Campbell officiating. As B. H. Ewan and sons were still confined to their beds, they were unable to attend the funeral.

Ice formed here last night.

Oak Hill School opened this morning.

Porto-Bello School will open to-morrow, the 16th instant.

W. L. and D. H. Schenck are attending York Court.

Heavy Frost in the Valley.

WOODSTOCK, VA., October 15.—(Special.)—The heaviest frost of the season fell last night, doing considerable damage to the late gardens. A skim of ice was formed in vessels.

Dr. Howard L. Cowan Dead

BLUEFIELD, W. VA., October 15.—(Special.)—Dr. Howard L. Cowan, of this city, died to-day at 5:15 P. M. of pneumonia.

$1,000 ON FIVE YEARS' CREDIT. MATERIAL AND WORKMANSHIP the same as though it cost $3,000. Pay cash for the lot—$10 per front foot, 161 feet deep—and this home is yours, on monthly rental payments. Six per cent. interest on what you owe, but no brokerage or device under any name to get compound interest. Lots are above the top of the New Reservoir, within five blocks of city limits, overlooking Lee Monument, Soldiers' Home, Reservoir Park, the fashionable Boulevard drive, close to electric cars. No city taxes, graded streets and sidewalks, free grocery, ice, mail, and daily paper delivery. Can you afford to rent when the saving to you in twenty-five years is at least $5,000—a snug little sum, indeed, if you live, and a monument to your foresight and generalship in the battle of life to leave as a legacy to your loved ones rather than 300 rent receipts at death?

Strike at once for a home. Above offer is only for a limited time, as it is worth $1,600 to build this house, and will cost you that if we build on other than our own lots. You can buy a lot without the house for $25 TO $50 CASH, AND $5 TO $10 MONTHLY PAYMENTS.

AUCTION SALES—This Day.

By J. Thompson Brown & Co., Real Estate Agents and Auctioneers, 1113 Main street.

COMMISSIONERS' SALE OF CAPTAIN A. G. BABCOCK'S HOMESTEAD,

145 ACRES, ON SEVEN PINES ELECTRIC RAILWAY. ALSO, A

TRACT OF 81 ACRES

ADJOINING MASONIC HOME.

Babcock's Executors vs. Babcock and others. } Decree of Circuit Court of Henrico county, entered October 3, 1894.

By virtue of the above decree, as special commissioners therein appointed, we will proceed to sell, on the premises, on

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1894,

at 3 o'clock P. M., the above VALUABLE FARMS, and in the following order:

1. The homestead, known as "CEDAR LAWN," containing 145 acres of land, situated on the Seven Pines Electric railway, in the county of Henrico, about three miles from the city. Among the improvements is the two-story frame residence, all in order, a detached manager's house, barns, out-houses, and stabling for twenty-five or more horses, and houses for vehicles.

2. A TRACT THOUGHT TO BE 81 ACRES, more or less, adjoining the property of the Masonic Home of Virginia, in the county of Henrico, about two miles below Richmond.

"Cedar Lawn," the residence of the late Captain A. G. Babcock, is known to be one of the best stock farms around our city. The land is in first-class condition, level and well cultivated, all under good fencing, and is admirably arranged for raising first-grade stock, having trial-tracks, stabling, &c., for this purpose.

These farms are admirably adapted for suburban homes, being within a few minutes' ride on the electric line to the centre of the city. The tract of 81 acres is in excellent condition for trucking; no better to be had. Parties desiring a suburban home could not do better than secure either or both of these places.

The cars on the Seven Pines Electric road leave the corner of Twenty-ninth and F streets every hour during the day, affording to persons desiring to attend the sale the opportunity of so doing with the loss of only a couple of hours' time. Parties leaving the city at 3 o'clock will be in time to attend the sale.

TERMS: One fourth cash; and the residue upon a credit of one, two, and three years from the date of sale, the credit instalments to bear interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum from the date of sale, and to be evidenced by negotiable notes of the purchaser with interest added, and the title to the property to be retained until the whole purchase money is paid and a conveyance ordered by the court; but the purchaser shall be given the privilege of paying all cash if he desires to do so.

A. R. COURTNEY,
BENJAMIN T. AUGUST,
Special Commissioners.
J. THOMPSON BROWN & CO., Auctioneers.

In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of the County of Henrico—Babcock's Executors, Plaintiffs, Against Babcock et als, Defendants:

I, John E. Broaddus, Clerk of the said court, do certify that the bond required of the Special Commissioners by the decree rendered in said cause on the 21 day of October, 1894, has been duly given.

Given under my hand as Clerk of the said court, this 31 day of October, 1894.

AUCTION SALES—Future Days.

By J. B. Elam & Co., Real Estate Auctioneers, 1113 Main street.

EXECUTOR'S AUCTION SALE OF THAT VERY VALUABLE AND HIGHLY PRODUCTIVE BUSINESS PROPERTY, AT THE NORTHWEST CORNER OF SIXTH AND MARSHALL STREETS, KNOWN AS THE NEW MARKET HOTEL.

ON MONDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1894, at 1 o'clock P. M., I shall sell at auction, on the premises, the above named well-known, and highly productive PROPERTY, the lot fronting 31 feet more or less, on the west line of Sixth street and running back along the north line of Marshall street, within parallel lines 65 feet, more or less, the improvements consisting of the large and commodious three-story and attic brick hotel, with the one- and two-story frame annexes on Marshall street thereon.

Its peculiarly-advantageous location for business, the assurance that it will always command high rental and increase in value, render this one of the most attractive properties to be found in the city for business or permanent investment.

TERMS: One third cash, balance in two equal instalments, secured by notes at one and two years, with interest added, and secured by deed of trust; or all cash, at the option of the purchaser.

HENRY CARTER, Executor of Peter Hofheimer.
J. B. Elam & Co., Auct.

THE ATTRACTIVE AND DESIRABLE DWELLING,

NO 412 EAST GRACE STREET,

FOR SALE AT PUBLIC AUCTION.

By request of the owner, I will, if not sold before, offer the above-mentioned and described dwelling for sale at public auction, on the premises, if not sold before, on the above date, at 4:30 P. M. The property is one of the most desirable homes in the city, and any one seeking a fashionable home at a fair price should attend the sale.

TERMS: Liberal, and will be made known at sale.
