THE JURY ARRIVES.

NO TROUBLE GETTING A PANEL FROM THE DANVILLE VENIRE.

The Hearing of Testimony in the Gaul Case to Commence This Morning—Other City Hall Court and Council News.

The case of William T. Gaul, the alleged accomplice of Thomas N. McNamee in the murder of Robert Lee Afwell, was not resumed until after 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Deputy-Sergeant Claiborne H. Epps arrived from Danville on the 4:50 o'clock train, bringing with him the special venire that he was sent to that city after. Thirty-eight citizens of Danville were soon assembled in the Hustings Court room, and the regular form of inquiry was gone through with by the Court. The visiting jurors were a fine-looking and intelligent body of men, representing almost every profession and business in the city whence they hail.

There was but little interest shown in the case, and, save the Danville people, the audience in the court-room was exceedingly slim. Gaul occupied a seat by his counsel, Messrs. Smith and Carter, while Messrs. Richardson and Dawson, the acting attorneys for the Commonwealth, were in their places. There were no ladies present, and the only specially interested spectator was Mr. McNamee, a brother of Thomas N. McNamee, the principal in the tragedy at the corner of Twenty-eighth and Dock streets on the night of December 29th last.

THE SPECIAL VENIRE.

Only twenty of the visitors were questioned by Judge Witt, as one of this number the panel had been completed. One man was opposed to capital punishment, and three others had impressions. Here is a list of those constituting the venire: G. W. Clutter, J. F. Caruthers, A. J. Grady, J. H. Rhodes, C. L. Warring, P. O. Kidd, L. C. Clarke, F. R. Gravely, P. Pascucci, W. H. Rice, J. A. Brewer, J. E. Barnard, R. E. Cook, J. E. Moore, J. V. Miller, George W. Crawley, J. R. Pearson, O. T. Hall, J. Rosenstock, B. W. Morgan, P. D. Guerrant, E. R. Fitzgerald, S. G. Baptist, W. L. Grady, W. P. Horner, G. W. Chisholm, C. J. Williams, R. M. Foster, J. L. Cruse, W. T. Bryant, B. F. Vaughn, H. A. Gilbert, J. T. Swanson, H. T. Page, F. L. Chapman, R. L. Osborne, A. T. Berr, I. H. Moore, and P. W. Kelly.

THE NAMES OF THE JURORS.

Messrs. Clutter, Grady, Kidd, Pascucci, Brewer, Barnard, Moore, Crawley, Pearson, Hall, Morgan, and Fitzgerald were sworn as jurors, and committed to the custody of the Sergeant. It was agreed that as the jurors were probably tired, the evidence should not be gone into until 10 o'clock this morning, and the court adjourned until that hour.

Before court convenes this morning, the jury will be taken to the scene of the killing and shown over the ground. An effort will be made to finish the case and get a verdict this evening, as to-morrow is Thanksgiving-Day.

OTHER COURT NEWS.

An order was entered in the office of the Clerk of the Chancery Court yesterday dismissing the attachment suits of George T. King against W. H. Bourn, and Wirt E. Taylor & Co. against W. H. Brown, the costs to be borne by the plaintiffs.

The Law and Equity Court was engaged yesterday in hearing the case of Selz Brothers against A. Gillman.

Judgment was awarded in the City Circuit Court yesterday in the case of Charles Phillips against Jarvis & Glinn in favor of the plaintiff for $47.59.

The cases of Caroline Strether against Bettie and John Lewis and W. S. Forbes & Co. against J. J. Baldwin were dismissed.

The Council Committee on Streets will convene in semi-monthly session at 7 o'clock to-night.

Fire Department Matters.

A semi-monthly meeting of the Board of Fire Commissioners was held Monday night, and a great deal of routine business was transacted. The question of plans for the remodelling of Washington Hall was discussed, and a committee, consisting of Messrs. Frischkorn, Taylor, and Jenkins, was appointed in this connection. These gentlemen are to make a report at the next meeting of the board.

Superintendent Thompson was excused from the penalty imposed by the rules for allowing his name to be used in one of the contests at the McGill Catholic Union Fair.

The following substitutes having satisfactorily served their probationary period were elected for the full term of three years: Hosemen—L. H. Hazelwood, of No. 1; J. H. Parsons, of No. 2; H. C. Beck, of No. 3; J. T. Wingfield, of No. 4; W. H. Heeke, of No. 5; A. F. Catleton, of No. 7; and W. J. Wood, of No. 8. Laddermen—G. F. Snead, of Truck No. 1; J. H. Woodward, of Truck No. 2, and A. H. Hubbard and J. A. Umlauf, of Truck No. 3.

Substitute Dunkley, of Truck No. 1, was dropped for inefficiency.

The Council will be petitioned at its next meeting to consolidate the expense and pay-roll accounts of the department.

A fire-alarm box was ordered to be erected at once at the Lower gas-works. The number is to be 724.

The Justice and the Evil-Doers.

Dabney Smith, the negro arrested by Detectives Tomlinson and Hall on Monday night for burglarizing the room of John Hughes and stealing a lady's cloak therefrom, was at the bar of Justice John yesterday morning. After he had been lodged in a cell at the Second Police Station he endeavored to make his escape, but was detected in this by the officers in charge. For the latter offence he was jailed for twelve months. The other case was certified to the grand jury of the Hustings Court. Smith was also sent on for shooting in the public street.

Charles Cox, charged with unlawfully and cruelly beating Lewis Cox, son of Charles Cox, was held for further examination on the 28th.

Richard Bagby alias "Dick the Devil" was forwarded to the grand jury for assaulting and striking Lewis King with a brick with intent to end his existence.

LEE CAMP TO OWN ITS HALL.

It Purchases Property on Broad Street for This Purpose.

Messrs. J. Thompson Brown & Co., agents for N. W. Nelson, Esq., executor of the late Henry Newman, sold at public auction yesterday all the real estate in this city belonging to that estate. The sale began at 1 P. M. with the two Broad-street stores, Nos. 514 and 516, between Fifth and Sixth streets, and the property was knocked out to Lee Camp, No. 1, Confederate Veterans, for $17,325. The brick residence No. 12 west Clay street was next sold to Mr. John H. Capitaine for $3,000. Brick residence No. 106 east Clay street was sold to Mr. H. T. Richardson for $3,600. Brick residence No. 106½ east Clay street was sold to Mr. A. H. Felthouse for $3,310. Total amount of the sale was $27,235. The sale was well attended and the bidding at times spirited, many representative business-men being present. It is said that Lee Camp will, as soon as possession of the Broad-street property is secured, remodel it and erect over the two stores a large and handsome hall for its occupancy. Mr. Newman, the former owner of the property sold, was an old and well-known citizen of Richmond, and the liberal and numerous donations in his will attest the broadness of his views and the affection he bore towards all mankind.

BETTS MAY HAVE TO PAY.

Westlake and Stoner Fail to Appear—Johnson Sentenced—County Notes.

In the County Court yesterday the cases of W. D. Westlake, charged with exhibiting females in lewd costumes at the recent Exposition, and Harry Stoner, charged with conducting a game of chance at the same time, were called, and the echoes of the voice that called floated far out on the atmosphere without a response being heard. When they failed to respond Judge Wickham ordered that scira faciases be issued and served upon them if found, and upon L. L. Betts, their surety. The papers were made returnable the first day of the next term, and if at that time the accused do not put in an appearance, Mr. Betts will be made to show cause why the bonds should not be forfeited.

Henry Johnson alias William Jones alias Jackson Lee, who was recently convicted of stealing a calf from Dr. R. A. Patterson, was brought into court yesterday afternoon and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary, the term fixed by the jury.

George W. Wray, proprietor of a barroom on the Broad-Street road, petitioned the County Court to permit him to remove the same to the corner of Vine and Main streets. The latter location is only a block and a half from the Washington-Street Methodist church, and Rev. W. Asbury Christian, its pastor, made objection to the granting of a license for a bar in such close proximity to his church. Some argument was gone into, and the case was continued until the next term of the court.

Thaddeus Harris, a colored resident of the county, was before a commission composed of Magistrates Tyler, Lewis, and Vincent, and by them was adjudged insane. He was committed to jail pending his removal to the asylum.

Eddie Wilson (colored) was committed to jail by Justice Lewis to await trial on the charge of stealing a knife from D. W. Stratton.

The term of the County Court was concluded yesterday.

Judge Wickham issued an order establishing a chain-gang, which starts to-day with ten members.

Early Councils and Conventions.

The Geographical and Historical Society of Richmond College is at present discussing that period of American history just preceding the Revolution.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. T. P. Sadler, a thoughtful and wide-awake member of the law class, read a paper on "Virginia's Part in the Early Councils and Conventions." Virginia's vigorous movements and deserving influence in those vital assemblies was clearly presented by the young disciple of Henry, whose paper was patriotic and forcible.

Mr. R. E. Anderson, of Marion, Va., was elected reporter for the College Journal in the place of Mr. T. H. Franklin, resigned.

The following new members were added to the society: Mr. R. W. Netheray, of Halifax county; Mr. John Goode, of Richmond, and Mr. W. L. Prince, of Sussex county.

Marriage of Mr. King and Mrs. Kelly.

Mr. S. Grant King, a member of the grocery firm of King Brothers, on west Broad street, and Mrs. Emma Quarles Kelly were married at the home of the bride's sister, No. 517 north First street, at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Rev. Dr. George Cooper. The parlors in which the ceremony took place were beautifully decorated, an altar being erected of potted plants and ferns. Mr. Sherman King, brother of the groom, acted as best man, and Messrs. M. S. Gregory, E. M. Pilcher, and Henry King acted as ushers. The bride was attired in a travelling gown of petunia covert cloth, with prune-colored velvet trimmings, and carried a bouquet of Madame Testout roses.

After the ceremony the couple left for a northern tour, and will be gone about ten days. They were the recipients of many handsome and useful presents.

Christian Endeavor.

At the monthly meeting of the Executive Committee of the local union last night, arrangements were made to hold the bi-monthly union meeting of the various societies at the Cowardin-Avenue church, of Manchester, Friday night at 8 o'clock. The principal address of the evening will be delivered by Rev. George Cooper. The society with the largest percentage of members present will be awarded the banner for the next two months, and will have the honor of taking it to the State Convention in Staunton next January.

Bag Full of Lead Pipe.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Ernest C. Taylor, agent of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, noticed a negro man at Twenty-first and Grace streets with a suspicious-looking bag. He started toward the fellow, when the bag was dropped and the negro made tracks for parts unknown. Mr. Taylor, upon examination, found that the bag contained about 150 pounds of lead-pipe, evidently stolen from vacant houses.
