SPEAKER-TO-BE RYAN

Matters of Most Importance to Come Before the Assembly.

ROAD-IMPROVEMENT TAXATION.

It Is Pointed Out That It Would Be Unconstitutional—There Will Be No Old Point Naval Review, and Why.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 13.—Speaker John F. Ryan, of the House of Delegates, was here this evening on his way home, to Loudoun county, without doubt, to be the Speaker of the House. I asked him what probably be the most important matter to be acted on by the Legislature next month. Mr. Ryan supposed that among the most important measures would be the question of a constitutional convention, the Walton election law, and legislation looking to the improvement of the public roads of the State.

Of the measure proposed by the good-roads convention, recommending to the Legislature an additional tax for the purpose of working the roads of the State, Mr. Ryan thought the members of that convention had lost sight of section 29, Article X, of the Constitution of Virginia, which says:

"No greater amount of tax shall at any time be levied than required for the necessary expenses of the government or to pay the indebtedness of the State."

He thought that under this section of the constitution the Legislature would have any right to impose a tax for the improvement of the public roads of the State.

NAVAL REVIEW.

The Atlanta-Exposition navy review in Hampton Roads. Secretary Herbert had reluctantly had to refuse the request of the Business-Men's Association of Norfolk, asking for a display of vessels belonging to the North Atlantic station, and such others as would be in the roads during the period of the Atlanta Exposition. The disappointment of the Norfolk men was lessened in conjunction with the various railroad lines, so as to afford visitors to the exposition from the North and West an opportunity of seeing a number of our new naval vessels by stopping at Old Point.

It was expected that there would be torpedo-boat target-practice, dressing of the ships, and electric and flash-light exercises, with entertainments and balls at the hotels, and military parades at the fort, all accompanied by band and naval music.

Such a programme, if carried out, would have made a most attractive feature for Eastern and western visitors, and would have been a grand opening of the winter season at the hotels at Old Point.

Secretary Herbert, in declining the application of the Norfolk business-men, referred to the inability of the department to comply with it, owing to arrangements already made for the disposition of the North Atlantic squadron, and the other vessels which it was supposed would take part in the proposed naval review. Several of the ships are now in yards undergoing necessary repairs, and all of them are taking in stores, preparatory to a six-months' cruise in the West Indies. To order them out of the yards now, and undo the work already done, would incur an enormous expense, some hundreds of thousands of dollars, and the government has no money to spare now for such purposes, as the appropriations are well nigh exhausted. For these reasons the Secretary, who is very friendly to Norfolk and Old Point and Newport News, had to refuse the application, but he is hopeful of doing something good for all of them before this administration closes.

PERSONAL.

Last night about 11:30 o'clock in dropped Mr. George R. Fisher, manager of the Richmond electric street railways, at the Metropolitan, on his way home from New York. A few minutes later came in R. Lancaster Williams, of the Richmond Traction Company, on his way from Richmond to Baltimore. Both preferred a good night's rest to travelling on cars.

R. W. Courtney, of Richmond, was registered at the Raleigh yesterday.

A marriage license has been issued to R. H. White, of Spotsylvania, Va., and Lucie Foster, of this city.

E. Hunter, of Fredericksburg, proprietor of a well-known plow-works, who has a branch office in Richmond, was here to-day on his way North.

Rev. S. G. Ferguson, of Fredericksburg, attended an informal meeting here last night of the Board of Trustees of the Wesleyan Female Institute, at Staunton.

State-Senator William A. Little, of Fredericksburg, was here to-day on important legal business.

POSTAL.

Miss Beatrice Limestrong has been commissioned postmaster at Limestrong, Va., vice Allen C. Walker, at Roxbury, Va.

Of the fourth-class postmasters appointed today were the following from Virginia: C. C. Martin vice R. Martin, resigned, at Pilot, Montgomery county; J. Colclough vice J. W. Hunt, resigned, at Fishdam, Durham county; M. H. Simmonds vice S. J. Wright, resigned, at Graniteville, Iredell county; W. Charles vice J. N. Charles, resigned, at Jerusalem, Davie county; J. E. Cornell vice G. W. Graham, at Montrose, Cumberland county.

ARRIVALS.

Among those at the hotels to-day include: Charles M. Cox, Rockingham; Colonel Cobb's Hotel; Mrs. Branch, Hotel Page; H. A. Redford, Lexington; L. Leonard, Lexington, Va.; Mrs. A. S. Kobb, Virginia, Raleigh; H. D. Anderson, United States, Virginia; H. T. Nelson, Danville, Va.; J. B. Beverley, Danville, Va.; E. Waddey, Richmond, Va.; Dr. H. M. Nash, Norfolk; A. T. Miller, T. H. Doyle, and W. G. Moss, Norfolk; W. H. Laird and wife, Hampton, Virginia; O. M. Rogers, Hotel Johnson; O. L. Stickney, Norfolk, Va., Hotel Lawrence; J. C. Norfolk, Norfolk, Hotel Enrich; J. Haymarket, Va.; B. F. Smith, J. G. Weir, Richmond; H. Warrenton; C. S. Hill and Wife, Newport, Howard House.

THREE NEW GUNBOATS.

Secretary Herbert has extended the time for the completion of the three new gunboats, Nos. 7, 8 and 9, at Newport News, six months, to allow of the interior being made fireproof by impregnating ammonium. Two of the boats were launched a month ago, and their engines are well under way.

Attention is expressed here that the case of Colonel Colnet against Swanson, in the Fifth Virginia District, before the House of Representatives, on the ground of the unconstitutionality of the Walton election law, undertaken by Shellabarger and Wilson, will come to naught. While the House is the judge of the election and qualification of its own members, it can have nothing to do with the constitutionality of the election-laws of Virginia, or any other State.

Hugh M. Taylor, of Richmond, is in the city, stopping at the Shoreham; M. Cullen is at the Raleigh, and L. Smith, of Newport News, is at the Ebbitt.

Mrs. Lucy Preston Beale, president of the Virginia Board of Lady Managers of the Atlanta Exposition, is at home on a brief visit.

Dr. and Mrs. J. L. M. Curry have issued invitations for a dinner on Thursday, the 21st instant.

Emporia Jottings.

EMPORIA, VA., November 13.—(Special.)—Dr. John R. Jones, who met with such a painful accident on yesterday, is very much better to-day.

There seems to be no clue to the thief who broke into Shayte's bar-room at Belfield on Monday night.

Mr. J. M. Storey and Mr. J. J. Taylor are both quite sick. Mr. Taylor is threatened with pneumonia.

Mr. Robinson, of the Belfield Manufacturing Company, and Mr. P. C. Mills left last night for Atlanta.

The repairs on the Episcopal church are progressing very rapidly.

Captain D. R. Taylor's condition remains unchanged.

GOV. O'FERRALL'S MESSAGE.

The Prominent Subjects Likely to Be Treated.

A Richmond special to the Baltimore Sun says:

Governor O'Ferrall's forthcoming message to the General Assembly, which convenes here in biennial session on the first Wednesday of next month, is expected to be one of the most interesting executive papers presented to a similar body in this State for many years past. Many events of more than ordinary interest have occurred during Governor O'Ferrall's two-years' incumbency in the executive office. The most striking of these probably were the strike of the coal-miners in the Flat-Top regions last spring and the call for troops to protect the workmen employed in the mines out there, and the five or six threatened lynchings in different parts of the State during the present year.

Governor O'Ferrall has thus made the record which none of his predecessors for many years can equal of not having a single lynching to occur during the two years of his administration. It is believed that the Governor's message will show that during the past fifteen years the number of lynchings that have occurred in Virginia will make a record such as few people were aware of. But for the Governor's promptness in sending military to Berryville, Staunton, and Manassas during the trials at those places of negroes charged with infamous crimes, other lives would have been taken in the same way. The same thing is claimed to be true of the cases of the alleged murderers of Mrs. Pollard, in Lunenburg. The prompt use of the military there at the call of the local authorities possibly prevented several other lynchings.

The cost to the people of the Commonwealth for this intervention of the strong arm of the militia has been so insignificant, as compared with the benefits derived, as to be scarcely worth considering.

The Governor, it is believed, will urge upon the Legislature the importance of dealing vigorously with the race-track and other forms of gambling in Alexandria county. It is expected that among other things he will recommend that the charter of the Grange Agricultural Association, under which the Alexandria Island race-track is conducted and claims exemption from the operations of the anti-gambling law, shall be revoked.

The message will no doubt also present to the Assembly an interesting and complete history of the outlawry which has prevailed in that section of the State for the past two years.

The Walton Australian ballot law, which was passed in the last hours of the session of 1893-'94, will, it is supposed, claim special attention at the hands of the Executive. The general features of the law will no doubt be commended, but the claim that each of the two leading parties shall have a special constable will not be acceded to. The argument against yielding to this specious claim is expected to be that to do so would utterly destroy the secrecy of the ballot. If each of the leading parties is conceded a constable, then the same may be demanded by all parties, it matters not however insignificant. Not only that, but the very fact that each party had its special constable at the polls would necessarily destroy all secrecy of the voter's intentions in casting his ballot, as he would call for his party's representative as soon as he entered the voting-booth.

The failure of decrease of crime among the colored people since that race has been given the benefits of liberal education will probably meet with some attention in the message.

This will probably be the first message of a Virginia Governor for a dozen or more years in which considerable space was not devoted to the State-debt question. This subject, which, ever since 1871, has been a source of political disturbance in this State, is now settled. West Virginia will be expected to settle her own share of the debt with the creditors.

The fateful fire at the University of Virginia and the destruction thereby of some of the principal buildings there will be quite sure to find a proper place in the Governor's communication to the Assembly.

He will probably call the attention of that body to the importance of promptly restoring the destroyed buildings, without indicating what appropriations should be made.

An Amelia Wedding.

AMELIA, November 13.—(Special.)—A large crowd of the old and young assembled last evening at the residence of Mrs. H. S. Thompson, near Jetersville, to witness the marriage of her daughter, Miss Lelia Austin, to Mr. G. Matley Wingo. Promptly at 6 o'clock, to the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Nettie Bailey, the ushers entered the tastefully-arranged parlor. These were closely followed by the contracting parties, and the ceremony of making them husband and wife was impressively performed by the Rev. Mr. Rennie, of the Presbyterian church.

The bride, a tall and beautiful brunette, was gracefully attired in white organdie, over white silk, and carried in her hand a bunch of white chrysanthemums.

WHO WILL SUCCEED?

The North State Labor Commissioner.

BELONGS TO MECHANICS.

So Says Governor Carr—The Present for the Raleigh—A Reward Offered. Army Post Wanted—Personal and General Notes.

RALEIGH, N. C., November 13.—(Special.)—There is some little interest as to who will succeed B. R. Lacy as State Labor Commissioner. It is said he hopes his clerk, Logan D. Terrell, will succeed him. Governor Carr says the office belongs to mechanics. Some of the newspaper folk say this is not right; that an expert statistician is the man needed. Mr. Pittman, a printer here, has a petition in circulation, and is an aspirant for the office.

United States Marshal O. J. Carroll is extremely ill to-day. It is feared that his kidneys are involved. He is receiving frequent medical attention. For some time his state of health has been poor.

The Supreme Court decides that while progressive euchre and shooting at turkeys for prizes is not gambling, that raffling is gambling, and makes those who hold the raffle and those who throw the dice alike liable to the penalty.

Chrysanthemum shows are in progress here and at Charlotte. The weather this autumn has been unfavorable to the proper development of these flowers.

The Chamber of Commerce last evening took action in regard to raising funds for the purchase of a gift for the cruiser Raleigh. Thus far only $30 has been raised in the State. It is probable that some kind of fair will be held here as a means of securing money. About $1,500 in all is needed.

Senator Pritchard will go to Washington next week, and will take a house there. His family will join him early in December.

REWARD OFFERED.

Governor Carr offers $100 reward for D. W. Justice, a white man, who in a drunken spree murdered a negro, Madison Quick, in Richmond county, November 3d. Justice is 40 years old, 5 feet 8 inches high, has blue eyes, and light hair, and is quick of speech.

A statement is made in papers here that a Raleigh Republican nominated Judge Bradley for the vice-presidency at Chicago in 1888. The official records of the convention show that Mr. Denny, of Kentucky, nominated Mr. Bradley, and the North Carolina delegation did not even give him a vote, but cast its vote for Morton and William Walter Phelps.

Seven convicts from Edgecombe and six from Onslow arrived at the penitentiary to-day.

Rev. James L. Fowle, a kinsman of the late General Fowle, is in Armenia as a missionary. He has been there fifteen years. He is from Washington, N. C., and his relatives and friends naturally have fears for his safety.

The citizens of Robesonville, in Martin county, on the Albemarle and Raleigh Branch of the Atlantic Coast-Line, made petition for a freight and passenger depot. The Railway Commission gives notice that the petition is granted, and that the depot is to be speedily built.

The State, Captain Aslie's paper here, looks hopefully upon action by Congress, by saying to-day that, luckily, Congress can do no harm because President Cleveland will veto radical measures. There is plenty of confidence in this State in the President's backbone. But at the same time, so far as your correspondent can discover, there is no sentiment in favor of a third term for him or for any other President.

This is a queer year. In this State at present new crops of strawberries, raspberries, and cherries are being gathered in some sections.

Mrs. Elizabeth Harlbe, of Nelson county, is elected teacher of music and physical culture at the institution here for the white blind.

President Samuel Spencer, of the Southern railroad, is at Friendship, Guilford county, shooting partridges.

AN ARMY POST.

The Chamber of Commerce is taking steps to co-operate with Governor Carr and other public-spirited gentlemen in securing the location of an army post here. There is no post in this State, nor has there been since 1877.

The election on the issue of $50,000 in bonds for street improvements here is ordered to be held January 14th.

The city tax levy is made $1.23 on the $100 valuation of property.

The annual meetings of the stockholders of the Raleigh and Gaston, Raleigh and Augusta, and Durham and Northern divisions of the Seaboard Air-Line will be held here to-morrow.

BAPTIST CONVENTION.

The State Baptist Convention meets at Greensboro' December 5th. Rev. Dr. R. H. Marshe, of Oxford, is its president, and Rev. Dr. A. M. Simms, of Raleigh, preaches the opening sermon.

Rev. A. G. McManaway, widely known in this State as a preacher, was badly injured day before yesterday by a lamp explosion.

W. B. Morris, of Montgomery county, is starving to death. There is an obstruction in his throat which cannot be removed.

The Colored Presbyterian Synod is in session at Fayetteville.

A Long-Felt Want.

Up to now Clergymen have never been able to find anything like a complete line of READY-MADE Ministerial Clothing. You have been forced to the tailors—to pay tailors' prices and put up with tailors' delays.

This season we have opened a Clerical Department. In it, we assure you, you will find every type of the conventional—correct in cut and cloth—perfect in fit and make—and like everything else here—moderately marked.

We ask your investigation of our facilities.

BENEFITS MANKIND.

The Doctor No Longer Necessary—Sick People Provided with Remedies to Cure Themselves—A Triumph for the People.

An Honest Woman's Gratitude.

Mrs. Ella Homshur, 775 Howard street, Philadelphia, says: "My entire nervous system was broken down with catarrh. I was partially deaf, and had all the disgusting symptoms of that loathsome disease. It affected my stomach, and I suffered terribly from dyspepsia. When I applied to Dr. Munyon for treatment I was completely prostrated. Under the skilful treatment I received I speedily grew better and am now without a trace of my former troubles. I am glad to indorse Munyon's Remedies, for I feel I owe my life to their use."

Professor Munyon provides a separate remedy for nearly every disease. Common sense and experience show this to be the true method. Thousands of people have cured themselves by the use of a 25-cent bottle of Munyon's Improved Homœopathic Remedies, which may be obtained from any druggist. Ask your druggist for Munyon's Guide to Health, and cure yourself.

Personal letters to Professor Munyon, 1505 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa., answered with free medical advice for any disease.

FAIR

WASHINGTON, November 13.—Forecast for Virginia: The weather will probably continue fair during the day, but with increasing cloudiness. Easterly winds and slightly warmer by evening.

For North and South Carolina: Slightly warmer weather, with easterly winds.

The barometer has risen rapidly at Rocky mountain stations and northeast of New England. It has fallen decidedly in the central valleys and upper Lake region, and is lowest north of Minnesota.

Light showers are reported from the central valleys, and fair weather from all other districts.

It is warmer in the Southern States and the Ohio Valley.

Fair weather will probably continue on the Atlantic coast, and cloudy weather, with light showers, will probably prevail in the central valleys and Lake region.

THE WEATHER IN RICHMOND YESTERDAY was clear and fair.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, November 13.—The railway and miscellaneous stock share speculation was irregular to-day. At the opening there was a period of hesitancy, due to lower cables from London and rumors of gold exports; but the impression made on prices on this account was slight. As the day advanced, however, the market improved, on reports that there would be no gold exports on Saturday, after all. The whole list moved up anywhere from 1-2 to 4 per cent. Late advices from abroad were of a cheerful nature, and this stimulated the bullish feeling here. London was more disposed to buy our securities, and a few orders were executed in Atchison, St. Paul, and Louisville and Nashville.

The gain in prices was most pronounced in the Anthracite Coalers, Sugar, the Grangers, Southern Railway preferred, and the Southwesterns. Lackawanna rose 4, to 168; Jersey Central 1 7-8, to 108; Delaware and Hudson 5-8, to 130 1-8; Reading 7-8, to 13 1-2; St. Paul 5-8, to 76 1-4; Rock Island 1 1-4, to 76 7-8; Burlington and Quincy, 1 3-8, to 86 1-2; Northwestern 5-8, to 106 7-8; Southern Railway preferred 1 7-8, to 37 3-8 bid; Louisville and Nashville 1 1-8, to 55 1-2; Atchison 1-2, to 18 1-8; Sugar 2 7-8, to 102 1-4; Tennessee Coal and Iron 1 1-2, to 36 3-8; Missouri Pacific 3-4, to 32 1-2; Tobacco 2 3-4, to 91 1-2; and General Electric 1, to 32 1-4.

Chicago Gas was erratic. It rose to 65 5-8, broke to 61 3-4, and rallied to 65 1-2@64 7-8. Realizations and unfavorable rumors kept the stock feverish all day.

In the afternoon Manhattan broke 4 1-4 per cent., to 102 1-2, and later recovered to 103 1-2. Nearly 16,000 shares of the stock changed hands. The weakness was due to the unfavorable report of the company for the year ended September 30th last, presented to the stockholders at the meeting to-day.

The statement shows a deficit, after paying all charges and dividends, of $91,788, against a surplus of $240,180 last year. The increase in fixed charges of $292,481 is said to be partly due to the fact that during a portion of the year interest has been paid, not only on the 7 per cent. bonds, but on the large block of 4 per cents. sold to retire these bonds.

The road was operated for 62.93 per cent., against 60.1 per cent. in 1894. The number of passengers carried during the year was 118,072,645, a decrease of 8,068,578.

The break in Manhattan hurt the general market, and a reaction of 1-4@1 1-2 per cent. took place. Pacific Mail was weak throughout, and lost nearly 2 points, selling down to 29 1-4. Little confidence is placed in the reports of resumption of negotiations with the Panama.

Speculation left off weak, with the active stocks 1-8 to 1-4 per cent. below yesterday's finals. Manhattan lost 3 1-2 and Pacific Mail 1 7-8 per cent. Louisville and Nashville and Burlington and Quincy gained 1-8; Jersey Central, 5-8; Sugar, 7-8; Tobacco, 1 1-4; and Lackawanna, 4 per cent.

The sales were 325,651 shares.

Bonds were active and strong. The sales were $2,197,000.

Treasury balances: Coin, $87,563,771; currency, $87,412,976.

MONEY AND EXCHANGE.

Money on call easy, at 1 1-2@2 per cent.; last loan at 2, and closing offered at 2. Prime mercantile paper, 5@5 1-2 per cent.

Bar silver, 67 1-2. Silver at the board neglected.

Sterling exchange firm, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.87 1-2@$4.87 3-4 for sixty days, and $4.89@$4.89 1-4 for demand. Posted rates, $4.88 1-2@$4.90. Commercial bills, $4.86 1-2@$4.87 1-4.

Government bonds steady. State bonds firm. Railroad bonds strong.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, November 13.—From the Northwest came the bull help in wheat to-day. All the morning the trade was flat, and prices afforded unprofitable opportunities, but along towards noon Minneapolis wired of an unusually good milling demand, with good wheat in but moderate supply. This news appeared to impress "shorts" very forcibly, quite a sharp demand coming from that source, and values rising about 1-2c. before the buying gave any indication of being satisfied. The seaboard afterwards furnished the information that twenty-five loads had been sold for export, which went far in sustaining the market toward the end. Yesterday's slight recovery in prices tempted scalpers to continue working on the bull side, for which they received their reward.

December wheat opened at from 57 3-8 to 57 1-2c., advanced to 58@58 1-8c., and closed at 57 3-4c.—1-4@3-8c. higher than yesterday. Cash wheat was firm, and 1-2c. per bushel higher.

The light receipts of corn to-day and the strength radiating from wheat were of undeniable assistance to corn. The restricted supply at the present time leads to a certain amount of bull-talk, but the crowd is wary of the new crop, which will soon head this way. May corn opened at 29 3-8@29 1-2c., advanced to 29 3-4@29 7-8c., and closed at 29 5-8@29 3-4c.—1-4c. higher than yesterday. Cash corn was 1-4@1-2c. per bushel higher.

Oats remained in a state of tranquil indifference. With the advance in wheat there was a fractional rise, but it was rather in the way of acknowledgement of the propriety of the strength of the finer grain than as the result of brisk buying. May oats closed a shade higher than yesterday. Cash oats were firm, and 1-4@1-2c. per bushel higher.

Provisions.—After the noon hour trade in product brightened up a little, and with a good demand, inspired by the stronger speculative feeling in grain, there was a fair advance all around. The morning hours were noted for nothing but dullness, a steady fetling pervading prices, a firmer hog market tending to aid them. At the close January pork was 10c. higher and January lard and January ribs each 2 1-2@5c. lower.
